My Hero

A Cuban boy got to see his idol, Fidel Castro, in Havana — the hard way. Castro, President Manuel Urrutia and other officials were on a veranda at the ceremony commemorating Cuba's war for independence. The young fellow tried to climb the wall to reach Castro. The new premier saw him, stooped, took the boy's hand and helped him up. That's Urrutia in the light suit behind Castro.

AFL-CIO Leaders Yield

Reuther Wins His Battle For 'March' of Unemployed

SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico — (AP) — Walter Reuther Tuesday won over other AFL-CIO leaders to his plan for the unemployed to dramatize their woes with demonstrations soon in Washington.

The project might include a march past the White House.

Reuther, the United Auto Workers chief, said the demonstrations would "dramatize the desperate plight" of five million idle.

The agreement to sponsor the demonstrations, made at concluding sessions of the AFL-CIO Executive Council's two-week winter meeting here, apparently showed Reuther to be the victor in a running dispute with George Meany, AFL-CIO president.

Reuther and other former leaders of the old CIO accused Meany of dictating AFL-CIO policies, and demanded a voice in shaping federation decisions.

Meany had advocated a spring meeting of union leaders only to beat the drums for legislation to aid the jobless.

But a stormy session of the AFL-CIO chiefs resulted in plans for a mass demonstration of the actual unemployed more like the plan Reuther had advocated.

The revolt had boiled up for a week behind the scenes of the annual winter meeting of the AFL-CIO Executive Council here. It began when Meany —head of the old AFL—at a council meeting chided Reuther —head of the old CIO — for holding a session of the economic policy committee while the federation president was delayed in Washington by a cold. Meany was reported angry at Reuther's unemployment march project.

Reuther, the chairman of the economic committee, retorted that Meany had never attended economic policy meetings. Anyway, the Auto Workers Union chief said, as chairman he should have a relatively free hand at mapping economic policy, at least in the committee stage. Reuther said if he couldn't run the economic committee, he might as well quit the post.

Reuther was backed in the argument by James B. Carey, No. 2 man in the Federation's CIO faction. The meeting got so hot that Meany ordered Carey to leave his seat and take one at the foot of the executive council table, something the scrappy Carey refused to do.

Meany, Reuther and other high federation officials failed to resolve the conflict at two secret breakfast meetings during the week. Some union leaders feared a blowup of the four-year-old merged labor organization. A showdown session was held Monday night.

Meany declined to comment afterward. Reuther, with what appeared to be a diplomatic approach, told newsmen: "Nobody ever talked about busting up anything — there are understandings now on things where there were misunderstandings before."

Puerto Rican 'Dare' Accepted by Hoffa

Teamsters Boss Jimmy Hoffa Tuesday accepted a challenge laid down by the AFL-CIO in a test for 10,000 unorganized workers in Puerto Rico.

"We'll meet this situation as we have met others forced upon us by the AFL-CIO. And we'll be on top when the fight is over."

Hoffa's statement followed a move by the AFL-CIO council to set up a separate truckers union in Puerto Rico to counter an organizing drive there by the Teamsters.

Hoffa said here Tuesday that the Teamsters executive council approved unlimited funds and organizing personnel to meet the AFL-CIO threat.

"Most of the opposition in Puerto Rico is from the government, not the workers," Hoffa said.

"The government is trying to tell the workers they must continue to take low wages to stabilize the economy.

"We are not at war with the government of Puerto Rico and we hope it will not make war with us, but whoever opposes the Teamsters will have to abide by the decisions of the workers."

He said he did not expect the battle with the AFL-CIO to overflow to the mainland.

'An Extraordinary Method of Diplomacy'

Free-Wheeling Soviet Partying Sends Macmillan to Sidelines

Nikita Balks, 2A

Harold Macmillan

. . . not like home

MOSCOW —(AP)— "This is an extraordinary method of diplomacy."

It was Prime Minister Harold Macmillan speaking as he wandered from room to room at a crowded British Embassy reception Tuesday night.

A staid and proper Briton, Macmillan got a taste of the sweet and sour in the Kremlin's free-swinging international relations. It certainly wasn't like home.

Macmillan appeared tired and strained. He stood expressionless while listening to Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev and took little part in the conversations. Occasionally Macmillan nodded.

The party was so crowded and the air so stuffy Macmillan had to retire and lie down for 20 minutes.

At the Dubna Nuclear Research Institute, where Macmillan visited during the day, correspondents noted his energy seemed to be flagging. He sat down rather wearily to listen to a long welcoming speech, closed his eyes once or twice and ran his fingers over his brow in a tired way.

The 65-year-old prime minister's visit to the Soviet Union was originally planned to allow some time for relaxation. But the program has been changed twice to fit in extra talks with Khrushchev.

"We all know what it's like sometimes at parties when the pressure gets too much and you begin to feel the heat," the spokesman said. He was referring to the thermometer — but the pressure was diplomatic.

Ike's Cash For Slums Doubled

Down Payment Slash Approved

WASHINGTON — (UPI — The House Banking Committee Tuseday approved a sharp reduction in minimum down-payments for higher-priced government-insured houses and a much bigger slum clearance program than President Eisenhower proposed.

The committee approved federal grants of 500 million dollars a year for slum clearance for the next three years, double the annual rate proposed in the President's six-year 1.45-billion-dollar program.

The actions were taken as the committee worked behind closed doors on a catch-all 2.1-billion-dollar Democratic housing Bill. Members said the committee probably will hammer the bill into final shape today.

The Democratic measure represented a major challenge to the President's economy drive along with other proposals to set up broad federal aid programs for airports and chronically depressed areas.

By a 21-to-3 vote, the committee refused to knock out of its bill an administration-opposed provision which would provide direct federal lending for construction of houses for elderly people.

The reduction in down payments required under the FHA mortgage insurance program would permit a lender to offer terms under which a $25,000 house could be purchased with a down payment as low as $2,605. The present FHA minimum is $6,980.

On an $18,000 house, the minimum down payment would be $855, compared with the present $1,380. On a $15,000 house it would be $555, as against the present $630. There would be no change on houses selling for $13,500 or less.

The proposed minimums do not necessarily mean that would-be home buyers could get such terms. That would be up to banks and other lenders.

The proposed reduction in minimum down payment schedules was not included in the $2,650,000,000 housing bill passed earlier this year by the Senate.

Firemen Trapped

2 Freeze In Fiery Building

MONTREAL — (UPI) — Two trapped firemen clung to a ledge of a burning building for several hours, then a crumbling wall engulfed them Tuesday. They were frozen to death when rescuers reached them.

The fire destroyed a downtown Italian restaurant. At its height, Assistant Fire Director Edward Normoyle, 53, and Fireman Hubert Daudelin reached the roof of the three-story building. The roof collapsed at about 9 p.m. Firefighters thought the two men were lost.

But about midnight, firemen sighted the pair crouched on a ledge. Nine huge streams of water were sprayed into flames around the men and firemen talked to them.

"How are you doing?" a fireman asked.

"We aren't hurt," Daudelin replied.

"How is the smoke?"

"The smoke is bad," Normoyle said. "We're holding snow to our faces."

That was the last word heard from the pair.

At 2:20 a.m., a rope was attached to a section of wall tilting toward the pair. The order was given to lift. The rope broke, and the wall fell in on the men. An hour later, rescuers reached the pair. They were frozen solid.

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Sen. Estes Kefauver (D.-Tenn.) disclosed Tuesday he is asking the Senate Commerce Committee to hold up the nomination of Rear Adm. Lewis L. Strauss as Secretary of Commerce.

Kefauver, who is opposing Strauss' confirmation, said he wants the committee to delay a vote until the Justice Department makes a full report on Strauss' actions in connection with the controversial Dixon-Yates contract.

STRAUSS

Strauss, former chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission, is serving as secretary of commerce under a recess appointment from President Eisenhower.

Kefauver said in a statement that Strauss played a "key role" in connection with the development and execution of the subsequently canceled contract with the Dixon-Yates firm to build a steam plant at West Memphis, Ark., to supply supplemental power to the Tennessee Valley Authority.

The AEC under Strauss entered into the 107-million-dollar contract.

Kefauver contended that Strauss arranged for a presidential directive requiring the AEC to enter the Dixon-Yates contract over the opposition of the majority of the AEC commissioners.

Get Tough, Congress Is Urged

'Plug Loopholes With Legislation'

CHICAGO — (UPI) — The American Bar Association Tuesday accused the U. S. Supreme Court of going easy on Communists and called on Congress to step in with tough remedial legislation.

The accusation and recommendation were contained in a controversial resolution approved by overwhelming voice vote at the mid-winter meeting of the ABA's House of Delegates.

The vote made the resolution the official policy of the powerful organization representing 200,000 American lawyers.

The nation's most prominent lawyer, Supreme Court Chief Justice Earl Warren, is not a member. His resignation was accepted by the ABA Friday.

The 50-plus page resolution, prepared by the ABA's special committee on Communist tactics and strategy, said the Supreme Court has weakened the nation's security by its rulings on 24 cases involving accused Communists or anti-subversive legislation.

Flying directly in the face of the court, the ABA delegates demanded that state statutes against sedition be given concurrent enforcement powers as federal laws. The court has held that anti-sedition laws are the exclusive business of the federal government.

The ABA also asked that "wherever there are reasonable grounds to believe that as a result of court decisions internal security is weakened" Congress should enact legislation to plug the loopholes.

The ABA also wants the House un-American Activities Committee to take on the job of studying the operation of existing anti-Communist laws and the House itself to set up a standing anti-Communist investigative committee.

The vast majority of the 246 delegates brushed aside scattered opposition in putting themselves on record as disapproving the Supreme Court's interpretation of how the nation should fight Communist subversion.

Two House Judiciary Committee members congratulated the ABA. Rep. William T. McCulloch (R., Ohio) predicted a "friendly reception" for the proposals in Congress. Rep. Robert T. Ashmore (D., S.C.) was happy that the ABA delegates "finally have come to feel that the Supreme Court is not above criticism."

John D. Randall of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, was nominated to succeed Ross L. Malone of Roswell, N. M., as the next president.

New Yorkers Protest Use

Court Action Seeks School Prayer Ban

MINEOLA, N.Y. —(AP)— Five residents, backed by the New York Civil Liberties Union, sought Tuesday to prohibit a village school board from authorizing use of a short prayer to start each day's classes.

The five Nassau County residents contend the prayer violates constitutional guarantees for the separation of church and state.

Justice Bernard S. Meyer reserved decision on the request for the injunction against use of the prayer.

The prayer is the same one recommended in 1952 by the New York State Board of Regents for public school use and reads:

"Almighty God, we acknowledge our dependence on thee and we beg Thy blessings upon us, our parents, our teachers and our country."

Protesting the prayer are Daniel Lichenstein, Lawrence Roth, Monroe Lerner, Steven Engles and Mrs. Lenora Lyons, all of the Jewish faith.

Attorney Bertram Daiker, representing the school board, said both the federal and state constitutions "recognize Almighty God as part of our national heritage," and noted that Congress starts each day's session with a prayer.

William J. Butler, counsel for the Civil Liberties Union, told the court: "We object both to the saying of the prayer and the manner in which it is said. We do not believe children should be compelled to pray."

Nikita Rejects West's Bid on Germany Talks

Soviet Boss Pulls Rug From Under Macmillan Visit

By OSGOOD CARUTHERS
DREW MIDDLETON
The New York Times Service

MOSCOW—Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev bluntly rejected the Western proposal for a foreign ministers conference on Germany Tuesday, while British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan was visiting the Soviet Atomic Research Center, 80 miles away.

Khrushchev proposed a meeting of the heads of government to discuss the whole field of East-West relations. And, as though he had not virtually pulled the rug from under Macmillan's exploratory mission here, he proposed that Britain and the Soviet Union sign a nonaggression pact unilaterally.

The British party was obviously stunned by this abrupt action on the part of Khrushchev. It was quite apparent that Khrushchev's rejection of the Western proposal for an East-West foreign ministers conference had not been raised during private conversations Macmillan had had with him during the last two days. Nor had Khrushchev mentioned his other proposal before Tuesday.

Khrushchev took time off from his talks with Macmillan and while the visitor was out of town to deliver a tough-talking two-hour speech on internal and international affairs to a group of voters who met in the Kremlin to congratulate him on his candidacy for the seat of a deputy in the Russian Republic's next Supreme Soviet.

Khrushchev's speech was broadcast over Moscow Radio.

Khrushchev led up to his rejection of the Western proposal with a reiteration of the Soviet Unions insistence that the West must accept the existence of the two Germanies and must sign a peace treaty with both of them. He indicated once again, as he did last week, that if the West did not, the Soviet Union would go ahead with the conclusion of a separate peace treaty with Communist East Germany. He said that thus East Germany would be a sovereign state.

"Since we are united in the organization of the Warsaw Treaty we shall stand for the defense, independence and sovereignty of each of the members of that pact," Khrushchev declared. "Any violation of the borders of the German Democratic Republic will be regarded as a violation of the sovereignty of the republic and as the beginning of war."

Only Monday night Khrushchev had toasted Macmillin in a speech noted for its warmth and friendliness. Despite efforts to keep a "stiff upper lip," the British were clearly shocked at Khrushchev's forceful rebuff.

The rejection of a foreign ministers conference makes a crisis over Berlin in May almost certain. The Soviet Union's proposal to hand over power to the East Germans is to take effect six months after the proposal was first made, or on May 27.

Consultation in Washington between Macmillan and President Eisenhower and Secretary of State John Foster Dulles is now considered ""urgently necessary" by the British government.

U.S. Asks 'Reasoned' Answer

WASHINGTON — (UPI) — The U. S. called upon Russia Tuesday to make a "reasoned reply" to the West's proposal for a Big Four foreign ministers conference to settle the Berlin and German problems.

The State Department said a speech by Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev rejecting such a meeting and demanding a summit conference instead was a political oration and could not be construed as Russia's formal position.

Privately U.S. officials feared that Khrushchev might be trying to take advantage of Secretary of State John Foster Dulles' illness by renewing his demands for a summit conference.

Dulles, now hospitalized with cancer, has long made clear the U. S. would not agree to a summit meeting unless it was carefully prepared for through advance diplomatic negotiations, including a foreign ministers meeting. Otherwise, he feels, Russia would use such a conference merely as a propaganda sounding board.

Officials said Khrushchev might be laboring under the mistaken impression that with Dulles on the sidelines, he could stampede the West into a summit meeting.

Asked to comment on Khrushchev's address, State Department Spokesman Lincoln White said:

"I have no comment on a speech by Mr. Khrushchev at a Moscow political rally. We are awaiting a reasoned reply to our note of Feb. 16." The note called for the foreign ministers meeting.

Officials said privately it remained to be seen whether the Khrushchev speecl. foreshadowed a deeper freeze in the cold war or merely represented a bargaining maneuver by the Soviet leader.

Big Tract Bought by Ex-Owner

A 2,700-acre chunk of land north of Vero Beach, once promoted as an exclusive home site by a man who later wanted to get in on Miami's Interama, was bought back by its original owner Tuesday in a big mortgage foreclosure sale.

The foreclosure sale was ordered by Vero Beach Circuit Judge D. C. Smith after he found that the buyers had defaulted on the first $300,000 principal payment, due Sept. 1, 1958, on the $3,950,000 mortgage.

Involved in plans which never materialized to make a swanky oceanside city of the site was Kenneth Frank of Washington, who last fall had a reputable banking house behind him in his proposal to get the Interama project started.

At the time, The Herald pointed out his difficulties at Vero Beach and in another project. His Interama plan was never accepted.

Fred Tuerk, who sold the land to Frank's group, bought it back at Tuesday's foreclosure sale.

Railroaders Ask 12 Pct. Boost

Engineers Open Throttle for Hike

Railroads in trouble .................... 7A

CLEVELAND — (AP) — The Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers said Tuesday it will ask for a 12 per cent increase in wage rates for its more than 50,000 engineers. Notices will be served Monday on major U. S. railroads.

Chief Engineer Guy L. Brown said the union will ask the 12 per cent hike to be figured on rates in effect Nov. 1, when a three-year contract expires.

Present cost-of-living allowances also would be incorporated into daily rates under the brotherhood's proposal, Brown said.

Passenger service, $19.92; through freight service, $23.26; local and way freight service, $22.75; yard service (all types), $22.42.

Under the Railway Labor Act, requests for wage increases must be served well in advance of contract expiration. With the notices goes a request for a meeting within 30 days.

BLE top officers on each railroad will serve the notice. They also will ask for increases in all "arbitraries" or special payments; and an escalator clause based on the cost-of-living index in effect in Septemter 1959.

Brown said similar demands are being made by the Order of Railway Conductors and Brakemen, and the Switchmen's Order of North America. The three organizations are cooperating on their 1959 wage demands.

New Jet Radioactive After Ocean Flight

NEW YORK —(UPI)— Pan American World Airways said Tuesday that one of its new jet airliners was discovered to be radioactive after a transatlantic High-altitude flight.

The discovery was made by technicians when they examined a Boeing 707 jetliner that had taken a sudden 29,000-foot dive while flying over the Atlantic to New York early this month.

Pan American announced the finding of the radioactivity after it had been disclosed in Newsweek magazine.

An airline spokesman said there was no connection between the sudden dive and the radioactivity. He said the amount of radioactivity found was ruled to be harmless to passengers and crew.

The spokesman said the technicians stumbled on the radioactivity while searching for the reason for the aircraft's dive. The instruments they were using to examine the plane disclosed the radioactivity.

Ad Fraud Shakedown Probed

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y. — (AP) — An official investigating alleged frauds in advertising solicitation for a state police journal says it "is the worst shakedown racket I have seen in my 36 years with the state police."

That comment was made by Martin Dillon, Chief inspector for the state police.

Two men were arrested bringing the total to four. It was reported that almost $40,000 had been collected.

The four were connected with a firm which had a contract to raise funds for the Patrolman's Benevolent Association of the state police, in connection with a journal to be issued marking the association's 15th anniversary.

District Attorney Joseph F. Gagliardi of Westchester County said the fund-raisers identified themselves as state troopers, which they were not, and suggested to prospective contributors that "it would be helpful" to donate.

Charles S. Stone, 69, a licensed fund-raiser from White Plain, was arrested on a warrant in Miami Beach, Fla., and John W. Higgins, 31, of South Norwalk, Conn., was picked up by state police in Greenwich Village, Manhattan.

Last week Stone's brother Michael, 48, of White Plains, and Galen L. Scott, 58, who lives with Higgins, were arrested.

The four are charged with fraudulently obtaining property by soliciting for charity.

A statement issued by the association said that the money received by the PBA from the fund-raising organization will be returned to the donors.

Two From Dade Among 24 Signers Of Race Manifesto

Two Dade legislators were among 23 state representatives and a state senator who declared Tuesday in a manifesto they will lead resistance to Florida school integration.

Several, including Senate President-designate Dewey M. Johnson, of Quincy, vowed they would vote in the Legislature to close schools rather than permit integration.

It was a direct slap at Gov. LeRoy Collins, who said last week he believed the people of Florida would accept the Dade School Board's decision to admit four Negro children to Miami's all-white Orchard Villa Elementary School next September.

"We do not desire to quarrel with any person," said Rep. Richard Mitchell, of Leon County, spokesman for the manifesto signers.

"But we do not believe the people of Florida are ready to accept integration."

He said the legislators whose names appear on the manifesto "believe it is their constitutional duty as members of the Florida Legislature to resist all efforts to integrate our schools."

And despite the "unlawful usurpation" by the U.S. Supreme Court of the "inalienable right" of the state to control its public education system, Mitchell said "our constitutional responsibility has not been lessened."

He said the manifesto was drawn up and signed over the weekend when legislators attended the opening of a new track.

"The signatures were made voluntarily," Mitchell declared.

"A group of us met together, discussed the situation and decided upon the resolution," Mitchell said. "All who want to sign are welcome."

Sen. Johnson said:

"The price (to mix races) is too high. I would vote to close schools, if necessary, to prevent integration.

"I believe if we have to close the schools, all of the people then will rally to find a solution that will assure our children an education in keeping with our beliefs."

The manifesto said in part:

"We are of the opinion that statements appearing in the press recently regarding an increased acceptance of integration . . . do not accurately reflect the real thinking of the overwhelming majority of Florida's citizens."

Besides the names of Eldredge, Hollahan and Mitchell, those who signed the manifesto included:

Also, Reps. Mack N. Cleveland Jr. and Gordon Frederick of Seminole, Houston Roberts of Suwannee, B. D. Williams of Columbia, H. E. Lancaster of Gilchrist, Doyle E. Conner of Bradford, Welborn Daniels of Lake and Cecil Costin of Gulf.

Michigan Fugitive 'Too Hot'

Russell Raymond Trilck — wanted by Detroit on a big-time bolita bribery charge — evaded capture another day Tuesday as police combed South Florida with orders to "regard him the same way they would a murder fugitive."

An assistant prosecutor for Michigan's Wayne County, now in Fort Lauderdale on the manhunt, promised criminal action against anyone who harbors the fleeing Trilck, a five-foot eight-inch, 240-pounder.

But the Michigan lottery figure's local gambling buddies claimed they hadn't seen hide nor hair of him and confided to police that Trilck had become "too hot to handle."

Trilck has been sought here since fleeing Detroit to avoid a charge that he bribed a half-dozen police officers, including a police commissioner.

His trail led this week to Broward County, where he owns several chunks of property and at least three homes, according to Assistant Wayne County Prosecutor Albert A. Goldfarb, who is leading the local search.

Goldfarb said he traced the fugitive to the Hollywood home of a Miami stripper, Leocadia Neivlt.

She said she gave him a car belonging to a married friend and Trilck took off.

Tuesday, Goldfarb had the car—along with the two others Trilck has used — in custody. But no Trilck.

Vote Off In Chicago

CHICAGO — (AP) — Democrats, hoping to show their strength in Chicago's primary election Tuesday, were outvoting Republicans by a wide margin in early returns. But apparently they were going to fall far short of their vote goal.

Both parties nominated candidates for mayor, city clerk and city treasurer, posts now held by Democrats. Voters also elected aldermen in the city's 50 wards.

Sidney Holzman, head of the election commission, said a chck when the polls closed indicated only 668,575 persons voted — about 37 per cent of the registered voters.

National Summary

A series of storms moving across Canada Tuesday blocked the southward progress of severely cold arctic air while clear skies with diminishing winds allowed lower readings over the East. Most sections of the country will show little change in temperatures or a tendency for warming today. High pressure extended sunny skies over broad areas from the Rockies to the Appalachians with midday temperatures ranging from the teens and 20s in the north to 50s as far as Kansas Tuesday.

A disturbance off the coast maintained snow through the northeast in addition to flurries in a brisk northerly flow over the eastern Great Lakes region into the mountains from West Virginia northward. Rochester, N.Y., reported a 2 inch accumulation during the forenoon and similar deposits in Massachusetts raised snow cover to 7 inches at Worcester and 5 inches at Boston. Clearing later on left only a few flurries in the mountains, but a chance that a Canadian disturbance may trail a little snow over northern New England today.

Mild sunny 70 and 80 degree weather in Florida presented a contrast to the 50 degree range more prominent along the leading edge of cool air in the Gulf states. Rain fringed the coastal regions from Texas to southern Alabama and northwest Florida.

Campanella's Son Booked in Theft

By Herald Wire Services

NEW YORK — Former Dodger Catcher Roy Campanella's 15-year-old son was booked Tuesday night on delinquency charges in connection with the burglary of a Queens drugstore.

Only a short time earlier, the youth, David Campanella, had been released to the custoday of his parents on a juvenile delinquency charge growing out of a street fight in which he took part Monday.

The youth now is scheduled to return to the same court today in connection with the burglary.

Young Campanella's father, one of baseball's greates until he was crippled in an auto accident, long has been an active leader in community efforts to combat juvenile delinquency.

Lt. Terence Gafney said young Campanella, a Negro, admitted that he and a white friend, George Delemos, 16, took $9 in change and some cigarets from Stateman's Pharmacy in Flushing, Queens, just before midnight on Valentine's Day, Feb. 14.

Gafney said the boys broke a side window to gain entrance to the store.

No charge was placed immediately against Delemos, who was arrested Monday with Campanella in the street melee.

The street fight involved some 30 youngsters, none of them armed.

Campanella was said to be a leader of a gang which had challenged a group of white boys who had excluded them from a bowling alley.

He told the judge that he and his friends met their white opponents in a bowling alley Sunday. He said the white boys told them to leave.

"He (the ringleader of the white boys) told me his friends were tough," David said, "and I said my friends were tough."

David said he had been questioned by police three or four times on other occasions.

He said policemen several times had taken his name after they found him loitering in front of candy stores or inside them.

David's father was said to be at his Long Island home. The former Dodger catcher was scheduled to go to Florida this weekend to join the team at its winter training camp where he will serve as an adviser.

McArthur Goes To Washington

J. N. McArthur, Dade dairyman and civic leader, will represent South Florida at a meeting of nationwide businessmen with President Eisenhower in Washington today.

The one-day meeting on "National Defense and Federal Debt Management" plans to start a drive for more investment in U.S. Savings bonds. Some 300 businessmen throughout the nation are scheduled to attend.

Arlene's Suing; Object: Divorce

By Herald Wire Services

ACTRESS ARLENE DAHL has retained an attorney to start divorce proceedings against her husband of four years, Actor Fernando Lamas.

The red-haired actress announced in Hollywood, Calif., that a three-week trial separation had failed to solve their marital problems.

Miss Dahl, formerly wed to ex-film Tarzan Lex Barker, and Lamas have a son, Lorenzo, one.

Lamas said he was "extremely upset over the breakup, but it had to come—it had to end in divorce."

Makarios Told His Exile's Over

ARCHBISHOP MAKARIOS was told in London that the order deporting him from Cyprus had been revoked and that he can now go home.

MAKARIOS

The 45-year-old Greek Orthodox churchman, leader of the Greek-speaking Cypriots, received the news at his hotel suite in London. The British exiled him in 1956, accusing him of supporting the terrorist Greek Cypriot underground, EOKA.

The official announcement had been expected since agreement was reached last week on independence for the British crown colony island.

Singer Edith Piaf Has Bleeding Ulcers

EDITH PIAF, the French singer, is suffering from bleeding ulcers, and has entered the Presbyterian Hospital in New York for possible surgery.

PIAF

Dr. Jack Abry, Miss Piaf's physician, said the length of stay in the hospital would depend on whether or not surgery is performed.

The singer, 42, became ill last Wednesday and was forced to cancel her singing engagements at the Waldorf Astoria Hotel.

Girl, 14, Gives Birth to Twins

FOURTEEN-YEAR-OLD Mrs. Catherine W. Gordon gave birth to twins in Baltimore and the boys were reported "doing just fine."

The father, Richard W. Gordon, 17, is unemployed but "willing to do any kind of work." The Gordons live with Mrs. Gordon's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Caskey.

The first twin weighed three pounds, nine ounces at birth and the second three pounds, two ounces.

Bad Bear Gonna Make Entrance

ADMITTING officers at a Dallas hospital maternity ward wrote down the names—and then did a double-take.

It seemed, said one, that a tiny Bad Bear was due at the tepee.

Nagging backache, headache, or muscular aches and pains may come on with over-exertion, emotional upsets or day to day stress and strain. And folks who eat and drink unwisely sometimes suffer mild bladder irritation... with that restless, uncomfortable feeling.

If you are miserable and worn out because of these discomforts, Doan's Pills often help by their pain relieving action, by their soothing effect to ease bladder irritation, and by their mild diuretic action through the kidneys—tending to increase the output of the 15 miles of kidney tubes.

So if nagging backache makes you feel dragged-out, miserable, with restless, sleepless nights, don't wait, try Doan's Pills, get the same happy relief millions have enjoyed for over 60 years. Ask for new, large, economy size and save money. Get Doan's Pills today! —Adv

Vodka Martini or Bloody Mary? Screwdriver or Vodka Gimlet?

What's the best vodka drink? Opinions differ. But Americans have no doubt about which is their favorite vodka! Smooth, flawless Smirnoff is the largest selling vodka, by far. It outsells all other leading brands, combined. There's a reason. And the reason is inside the bottle!

BLOODY MARY. 1 jigger Smirnoff to 2 of tomato juice, squeeze of lemon, dash of Worcestershire Sauce, pinch of salt and pepper. Shake with ice. Strain in glass.

VODKA GIMLET. Add 1 part imported Rose's Lime Juice to 3 or 4 parts Smirnoff. Serve over ice in cocktail or Old Fashioned glass. You'll love the Gimlet's dry, clean, limey taste.

Paraguay Dictator's Time Running Out?

By GEORGE SOUTHWORTH
Herald Latin America Editor

All of the dictators have been swept off the South American continent with the exception of Gen. Alfredo Stroessner, president of Paraguay. His time may be growing short.

Stroessner

Paraguayan refugees fleeing into Argentina this week brought new stories of terrorism by the dictator's police.

They said Dario Castagnino collapsed and died from a heart attack when shown the bloodstained clothes of his son. The youth, of the same name, allegedly was tortured and killed for his activities as president of the medical students center.

There have been many student demonstrations against the government and many reports of students being jailed and tortured.

Stroessner is serving his second four-year term as president. He was the only candidate in the election held in 1958.

The great number of Paraguayan political refugees going into Argentina indicate that the tough general with the light hair and blond mustache is cracking the whip.

On the other hand there are many rumors that opposition to the dictator is stiffening. These reports get out in spite of the fact that Stroessner controls the press and radio in his country.

* * *

Trouble Ahead For Frondizi

THERE IS more labor trouble ahead for Argentine President Arturo Frondizi and his austerity program. The drastic policy has sent the price of beer up 25 per cent and that is just the beginning of the complaints.

The National Mortgage Bank has suspended all loans for home builders. Farmers were told that the National Grain and Elevator Board has exhausted its funds for buying incoming crops. Workers in nearly every field are complaining that they need more money.

* * *

Cuba to Ask Expulsions

CUBA'S new revolutionary government has announced that it will ask the Organization of American States to expel from membership the dictator governments of Paraguay, Nicaragua and the Dominican Republic.

It is unlikely that such a request would gain much support or have any hope for early success because the OAS charter contains no provision for expulsion of any member for any reason.

The charter says that "all American states that ratify the present charter are members of the organization." The quickest action would be next year at the Inter-American Conference in Quito, Ecuador.

Beach to Have Food Congress

REPRESENTATIVES from nearly every Latin American country will attend the annual Inter-American Food Congress at the Carillon Hotel, Miami Beach, June 9-13. The Congress is sponsored by the Inter-American Food Institute, a non-profit corporation designed to assist the Latin American food industry.

The purpose of the meeting is to promote through a scientific, non-political effort, effective cooperation and exchange of ideas and information among the peoples of Latin America relative to technical and scientific advances in the food industry.

'Satchmo' Goes To Kids Party

MUNICH, Germany — (AP) — Louis ("Satchmo") Armstrong turned up at a cocoa-and-cookie party for 35 Negro orphans in Germany.

The jazz king, on a European tour, turned over 1,000 deutschmarks (about $238) to the Society for the Help of Colored Orphans, founded in Munich a year ago by Alston J. Hoosman, a former boxer and film actor.

After 584 Days

Why Won't Metro Move?

METROPOLITAN GOVERNMENT is 584 days old today, and people are starting to lose patience with the way it's being run, or not run.

When do we begin to see results? Why isn't Metro taking over chores now split up among 26 separate municipalities and the unincorporated area? Where are the savings and improved services we expected from a single countywide system instead of 27?

These are the questions troubling taxpayers. They have voted repeatedly for Metro as the means to these ends. The courts have consistently held that the people knew what they wanted and can have it.

The latest legal challenge to Metro has brought the broadest affirmation to date of its countywide powers. Circuit Judge Ray Pearson listed in detail the many municipal functions which belong to Metro without further ado.

Yet Metro Commission Chairman Walter Weiss and County Manager O. W. Campbell said the decision "will mean no overnight broadening of Metro activity inside the cities."

Let's Go
Metro!

Why not? After 584 days, "overnight" is overdue.

SUCH RELUCTANCE to act is making Metro look like a champion race horse ready to burst from the open starting gate but stubbornly held there by a jockey pulling back on the reins.

Meantime, municipal officials bent on defeating Metro are making the most of this chance. They have found they can't win at the polls or in the courts. So now, apparently, they intend to turn to the State Legislature which will convene in Tallahassee on April 7.

That seems to be the import of action by the Florida League of Municipalities, made up of city officials, at a meeting this month in Jacksonville.

One law proposed by the League states specifically that powers conferred by it "shall not impair or diminish any powers which municipalities now may have under existing laws."

And the League ordered its legislative committee to revive, revise and push for approval of a law that would make municipalities immune from anything like Metro.

UNLESS METRO proves its worth here promptly, it will be vulnerable to such attacks.

The County Grand Jury stepped forward Tuesday as a strong witness to the need for countywide action by Metro.

The jurors set out to check on fire hazards in public schools here. This led them into the whole field of fire safety throughout Dade County. Their findings show what's wrong with 27 separate fire-fighting units. For example:

"The fire departments of the various municipalities are not required to assist the county in fighting fires. In many instances, where municipal fire departments volunteer to assist the county, their efficiency is greatly lessened by the variation in fire equipment such as fire hydrants, hose connections and so forth."

"The various fire department personnel interviewed by the Grand Jury were reluctant to discuss a consolidation of all fire departments in the county, and admitted their reluctance was based on fear of loss of seniority, civil service and pension rights. It was conceded by them that the people of Dade County, as a whole, would receive better fire protection by such consolidation and one fire department for the entire county."

After suggesting stop-gap measures, the Grand Jury called for the ultimate cure: "Consolidation of all municipal and county fire prevention and fire-fighting departments, including the Port Authority, into a countywide system under the Metropolitan Department of Public Safety."

As the jurors pointed out, first-class fire protection leads to "low fire insurance rates and material savings in money to the property owners."

●

THAT'S THE SORT of thing people here wanted every time they voted for Metro. It is what they still want of Metro. What are we waiting for?

Footnote

Party Drums

NOISES are being made again about injecting political party politics into Metro. They are coming principally from the Young Democrats who would change the Metro charter.

They are saying that the two-party system would be best for a strong government. How's that again?

About the only thing that elimination of non-partisan Metro elections would do would be to force many candidates to run three times: in the party primary, runoff and general election.

Students of government are convinced that the non-partisan council-manager type of government is the best yet devised at the local level and the closest to all the people.

But it does knock the parties out of the qualifying fees candidates pay when they must be nominated under party labels. Could this have anything to do with the present noises?

The Court Before The Bar

THE GOVERNING BOARD of the august American Bar Association has approved a recommendation that Congress, by use of the legislative process, reverse some recent decisions of the United States Supreme Court. The rulings in question have upheld individual rights against infringement by state or federal laws designed to combat subversion and communism.

The ABA is on controversial ground and gives evidence that it recognizes this by its cautious approach. The committee report which the ABA governors endorsed is careful to point out that the Supreme Court is "the ultimate guardian of the Bill of Rights and the protector of our freedom."

Nevertheless, says the ABA report now approved for submission to the entire membership:

"Many cases have been decided in such a manner as to encourage an increase in Communist activities in the United States. Our internal security has been weakened by technicalities raised in judicial decisions which too frequently in the public mind have had the effect of putting on trial the machinery of the judicial process and freeing the subversive to go forth and further undermine the nation."

Some Southerners would undo its mandate against segregated schools, by limiting the court's powers or by constitutional change giving states exclusive authority in the field of education. But segregationists are not the only critics. J. Edgar Hoover, the FBI chieftain, lashed out at rulings which "defeat the interests of justice." And Rep. Kenneth R. Keating, New York Republican, said the Court had "gone altogether too far in its zeal to protect the rights of the individual."

The ABA leadership has joined the swelling chorus on philosophical rather than emotional grounds. Its influence will be great because this is a field in which it is qualified to speak.

THE GENTLEMEN of the bar are not asking for the creation of precedent. There is ample precedent for Congress (and the people) to say a final word after the Supreme Court has spoken. A most notable case in point is the 16th Amendment authorizing a federal income tax. It specifically nullified an 1895 Supreme Court decision holding that such a tax was unconstitutional.

The Supreme Court was devised to protect the rights of the individual, regardless of the charges or the temper of the times. An independent judicial authority above the political turmoil has served us well. Though sometimes it has lagged behind public opinion, it has as often been ahead of it. Our system of legislative, judicial and executive authority, no one supreme, is still the best way.

TV While You Wait

THE DEEPER the investigators dig into that unscheduled roadblock on Rickenbacker Causeway at the height of the weekend traffic Sunday the more unjustifiable it becomes. It now appears that off-duty Miami motorcycle officers inconvenienced thousands of motorists without sanction of their superiors. They were assisting a television company make some commercial shots.

There may be two sides to the question of roadblocks placed by the Miami police to screen illegal drivers — a practice just halted by the courts. But there's not much argument about the kind of traffic interference that occurred Sunday. At the very least, off-duty jobs by uniformed traffic officers — and all officers — should be carefully checked and approved in advance by the proper police authorities.

Recognizing The Faithful

AN AWARD of a kind that should be widespread will be presented for the fifth time on Feb. 27 in Tallahassee.

It is the 1959 Headliner Award of the Capital Press Club, carrying one year's possession of the John Kilgore Trophy, offered by The Tallahassee Democrat in honor of the political writer who, at the time of his death, was covering the state capital for The Miami Herald.

The prime virtue of this award is that it goes to career workers in government in Leon County — men or women of high principle and quiet diligence who have received little public recognition.

The 1959 winner is L. K. Ireland, director of purchasing for the State Road Department for 27 years. He supervises the buying of commodities that runs into $5 million and more annually.

The comment of The Democrat is pertinent: "Through the administrations of eight governors, when sometimes purchasing policies and decisions of the Road Department came under dispute and investigation, no scandal touched Lloyd Ireland."

The taxpayers stand to gain from such gestures of appreciation toward their good employes. Who can say how many other public employes are thereby heartened, or how many young men and women encouraged to take up careers in government?

State Job Not For Sick Men

Editor the Herald: Remember what President Eisenhower said about Sherman Adams? "I need him."

Now Ike says, "Dulles is the indispensable man." Adams disappeared and the country went on OK.

We're certainly in a terrible predicament if we must depend on one man for the salvation of the world. John S. Knight is certainly right when he says a man doomed to die with an incurable disease, no matter how brilliant when healthy, should resign such an important post as secretary of state.

MERIDITH MASON

Dangerous Times

Editor The Herald: There must be some better way for the people of the United States to show appreciation to their public servants, than by keeping them in vital and difficult jobs when they are sick.

In spite of the admiration we have for the determination shown by Secretary of State Dulles, we must admit that it is impossible for anyone to perform all of the duties of this office on a part time basis.

I would like to suggest that we establish an office of Honorary Secretary of State — equal in prestige and pay — so that Mr. Dulles could be recognized for his past service; while someone in good health, such as Adlai E. Stevenson, might carry on.

The job is a full time one. When it is not being filled on a full time basis, during such dangerous times as these, then the welfare and safety of everyone is being neglected.

ROGER C. DeVOSS
Fort Lauderdale

Send Hoffa

Editor The Herald: They say you fight fire with fire. How about sending Hoffa in Dulles' place? They won't need an interpreter, they both "speak" the same language. From my observations on this guy, I'll make a little bet that when Khrushchev walks away from the conference table with Hoffa, and after he counts his fingers, there will be some missing.

And we, in the legitimate AFL-CIO movement, won't miss him, we can spare him.

C. H. MISSALL

Pick Stevenson

Editor The Herald: Emmanuel Celler, recommended Mr. Eisenhower appoint Stevenson, as secretary of state to replace Mr. Dulles. Mr. Attlee recommended replacement of Dulles.

Both are right.

We have fine men, Herter, Stevenson, and maybe others, who can replace Dulles.

Stevenson, who has traveled and knows our dangerous position better, maybe, than anyone else, is rather liked abroad, and in good health, would be the best bet. Besides it would be bipartisan government.

No Chickens, Just Thin Soup

Editor The Herald: It hasn't been too long ago that some big shot said, "A chicken in every pot and two cars in every garage."

HOW MANY MORE CAR PAYMENTS?

He should be around today to see us enjoying chicken soup and working two jobs to pay for the one car we've got.

Can Obedience Be 'Painful?'

Editor The Herald: Quote from your editorial: "An Orderly Transition:"

"The School Board felt it had a job to do — a painful one — or face consequences less desirable."

Why is obedience to the law, however grudgingly accorded, "painful?"

●

Get Lost, Roy!

Editor The Herald: The Herald carried a story on LeRoy Collins praising Dade mixing. It included a picture captioned: "Gov. Collins . . . law of the land."

He has my permission to stay.

Oldsters Piece Was A First

Editor The Herald: Bert Collier's editorial page article, "We Shun Millions as Oldsters Suffer," is the first adequate coverage that I have seen in any newspaper of just one of the many faults to be found in the Federal Social Security Act and its administration.

The Herald is to be congratulated for its publication and Collier on his excellent recital of the facts.

Fresh Water Anglers Are Being Remembered

Editor The Herald: I read with interest your editorial concerning the Krome Ave. extension to U.S. 27 and possibile recreational sites. I am preparing the recreation plan for the Central and Southern Florida Flood Control District and am delighted to note your interest in this particular area.

You may be pleased to know that we had recommended something similar to this to the State Road Department in our preliminary plan in May, 1958. Today I checked with the State Road Department to see how the planning was progressing.

I find that the plans are practically completed and sufficient area is being reserved for wayside parks, boat ramps and parking areas. This area will be between L-30 canal and the new highway with fishing and recreation along L-30 canal.

Raw Realism Pricks Civic Conscience

By JOHN PENNEKAMP

AT THE OUTSET I confess that I'm inclined to go along with those who hold that there is enough natural tragedy in the world, who frown upon prolonging it or the creation of artificial tragedy, and who refuse to pay to be moved to tears by sad fiction.

So, it was with some reluctance that I was induced to go to a preview of the motion picture "Al Capone" which will have its world premiere in Miami, Miami Beach and Coral Gables tomorrow.

Pennekamp

I won't be invading George Bourke's particular field in saying that it is an unusual documentary, exceptionally accurate as to much of its detail.

It is raw, dramatic and intense. Yet its realism is such that you don't feel the tear ducts welling as it progresses.

Instead it has the facility of striking deep into your public conscience.

You begin to wonder how you can get all your neighbors to see it.

Especially, all public officials, particularly those at the law enforcement level, including the prosecutors and judges in whose hands rest punishments as well as technically evaluated escape clauses for criminals.

* * *

This picture comes closer to answering the question, "How do these men rise to power, how do they get protection?" than many of its predecessors.

At the same time it maintains a clear separation between the criminals and the honest lawmen and legal lights.

The area of frustration which benefits the hoodlum while it blocks the law enforcer is defined.

The deviousness of the racketeer's world, and of the hood, is never permitted to appear heroic.

HAVE YOU ever been on an airplane when one of its engines kicked out?

An obviously nervous strain runs through the passengers, but it isn't apparent in the crew.

There develops a casual tendency toward wisecracking and even story telling among those aboard, but you notice a rise in the pitch of their voices, which thin out, too.

The laughter has a strained quality; although it is louder than usual it is cut off abruptly.

Everyone attempts to conceal his uneasiness, but all eyes dart to the feathered prop, check on the other engines at frequent intervals. Some lips move in silent prayer.

Also, there is much looking at wrist watches to check against the next scheduled landing place.

* * *

Fay Spain, who plays Al Capone's girl friend, (Rod Steiger who looks and acts like Capone did, portrays the principal role) was at the preview.

She is a shapely, attractive blonde who in person seems to be reticent, if not retiring, a startling contrast to the moods which vary from subtlety to violence in the picture.

Also in sharp contrast to her appearance on the wide screen is her youth and relative smallness.

I commented on the differences.

"Ever seen a collection of Hollywood stars?" asked a friend. "They're surprisingly small, slender and quiet, generally," he said., adding that there are exceptions.

"Do you mean," said another, "that we have to discount some of what we see when we look at Marilyn Monroe, Jayne Mansfield and such?"

I related the slightly nervous pitch and high tone of his voice to those of nervous passengers on partially disabled planes.

Investors Remain Shy As Dollar Goes Down

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON — Lots of members of Congress are making speeches these days to the wrong audience.

Many of the Democrats, and some Republicans, are deriding a balanced budget and talking about "growth" through bigger spending by government. But this time the politicians are barking up the wrong tree — they may be convincing those of their constituents who think they are going to be the beneficiaries of the bigger spending, but it is the investors who remain unconvinced and are scared. For the Treasury is up against a crisis in refunding its maturing bonds. Investors are seeking refuge in the stock market, which is recording new high marks.

Lawrence

* * *

EVER SINCE the election last November, investors have been growing increasingly worried about what Congress might do to the fiscal condition of the United States. Many industrial leaders have held up expansion plans. Unemployment has not been materially reduced, largely because of the failure of the heavy-goods industries to come back.

This is in part due to the uncertainty about interest rates and to threatening rise in labor costs. For, while there is a good deal of pious talk here about proposed legislation to check abuses in the labor field, not much of anything is going to be done by a labor-controlled Congress.

The outlook for the heavy-goods industries is clouded when it should be booming. Psychological factors are holding up the fulfillment of many plans for plant expansion that were completed months ago. This is the "growth" that should be encouraged instead of discouraged.

* * *

CONGRESS has failed to come to grips with the crisis. Many of its so-called "liberals" think the answer lies in bigger deficits and that it doesn't matter whether the budget is balanced. But the speeches along that line from Capitol Hill are scaring the investors away from bonds and fixed-interest securities.

While some of the speeches make headlines that can mislead voters, the investors of the country cannot be influenced by anything except sound economics and solid facts. Here, for example, is an extract from the Feb. 14 news letter of "The Whaley-Eaton Service," a non-political weekly published in Washington and read regularly by the men who handle funds in the financial and business institutions of the country:

"The flight from government bonds is more ominous than most Washington officials care to admit publicly. Several recent Treasury financing operations have failed badly. As a result, the Treasury is being forced to run faster and faster merely to keep up with its maturities. The fact is that the richest nation in the world is now operating on a hand-to-mouth basis.

* * *

"THE EFFECT of all this seems utterly lost on advocates of dynamic new spending programs to speed business expansion, eliminate unemployment. The Treasury cannot spend more money than it gets through taxes and government-security issues. Yet professional and naive investors both now distrust the latter. This means recourse to financing through the banks, which increases money supply and is directly inflationary . . .

"As Federal Reserve Chairman Martin puts it: 'Investors cannot be induced to purchase fixed-income securities if they fear a steady erosion in the purchasing power of the dollar.' Yet this is precisely what they do fear . . .

"Restoration of faith in the dollar requires facing up to the Treasury's dilemma. But that is something Congress seems unprepared to do."

Why Syd Calls Folks 'Mister'

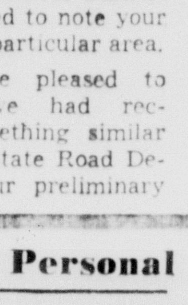
By SYDNEY J. HARRIS

A FRIEND of mine insists I am stuffy because I resent the use of first names between persons who know each other only slightly. "It's just a friendly informal American habit," he protests.

Strangely enough, I don't think it is informal at all; I think it is quite formal — because it is a formality, without any true meaning.



Harris

When I meet a man and begin calling him "Dick" instead of "Mr. Johnson" within a half hour, I am conforming to a false standard of intimacy. The man is a stranger to me, and I have no right to presume on a friendship that does not exist.

Like the words "darling" and "sweetheart" in theatrical circles (which mean absolutely nothing, since they are applied to everyone indiscriminately), first-naming of strangers is a cheapening and debasement of true friendship.

* * *

WHEN an actor calls everybody "sweetheart," what is left to call his sweetheart? When I address a stranger by his first name, what is left to call my dearest friends? How then can I signify the gradations of feeling from politeness to deep devotion?

My objection to first names on early acquaintance does not indicate that I am unfriendly; far from it. It indicates that I value friendship so highly that I am unwilling to bestow its symbol upon a stranger. I think friendship must be earned and won, and not conferred loosely.

Language is a tool — our greatest tool — and can be blunted and broken like any other tool. A man would be a fool to use a fencing sword to cut butter, or a butter knife to hack down a tree — yet we abuse the tools of language even more violently and senselessly.

If we call every minor writer a "genius," then we have lost a word to apply when a genuine genius comes along; if every performer in show business is "great," how do we define true greatness? And if every transitory amour is called "love," we must seek for some other word to describe that rare, elevated and abiding passion.

* * *

IT USED to be, when a man called you by your first name, you knew it signified a change in the relationship — that he accepted you at your worth, considered you a friend, and could be relied upon to help.

This is precisely what it should mean; but among today's Dicks and Toms and Sams, it is only a formal salutation of false conviviality. "I'm sorry, Dick, we have to let you go," says Tom, the boss, smiling heartily and pulling the rug from under his good old pal.

The New Moscow: Bright and Shiny

By DREW MIDDLETON
New York Times Service

MOSCOW — The lights of Moscow make the first and most vivid impression on a visitor returning after 12 years to this sprawling capital.

MIDDLETON

As the Tupelov jet airliner circled over the airport, Moscow, once so dark and gloomy, lies garlanded with sprays of light, neons sparkling bravely against the snow. The long dark emptiness of the streets in the early postwar years is gone.

Gone, too, is the surly contempt that greeted the foreign visitor in those days. Instead, there is civility that makes the delays, inevitable in a bureaucracy, easier to accept.

In fact, officials nowadays are downright apologetic about delays.

Prime Minister Harold Macmillan of Britain on his arrival hailed the changes 30 years have made in the Soviet Union. Nowhere is the change more evident than in this cosmopolitan capital and nowhere has it been faster.

Twelve years ago, Russians from the New World — there were fewer then than now — joked that Moscow was the biggest village in the Soviet Union. This joke no longer applies.

The drive from the airport is no longer a dull journey through empty country. On the left rises the huge eccentric silhouette of the Moscow University skyscraper. Suddenly the car plunges into a vast new housing development.

On each side of the road apartment houses extend almost as far as the eye can see. Some are still under construction. Work goes on under lights at night.

These apartment houses with their allotment of a room or room and a half to a family are very like the brick six-story apartments in old New York. Little steel is used in their construction. By modern American standards they are rather ramshackle.

But very few Muscovites apply American standards. To hundreds of thousands of visitors from less-favored parts of the Soviet Union this is the pattern of the future. This is what all will have if they work hard and listen to their leaders.

On the streets, the most striking difference between 1947 and 1959 is the physical appearance of the people.

Pinched and haggard faces are a rarity. No longer do passersby hunch their shoulders against the cold and plunge forward with heads down and eyes on the pavement. Nowadays they stroll, looking in shop windows, talking, laughing.

Twelve years ago the explanation of what kept the Russian worker at physical labor was the analogy of the carrot and the stick. In 1947 it was a mighty small carrot and Josef Stalin and Lavrenti Beria wielded a big stick.

In 1959 in Moscow at least the carrot is everywhere. Shops are full of goods and buyers.

People buy oranges and lemons from corner stands as well as in the shops. By U.S. standards these are expensive: 15 to 20 rubles or three to four hours labor for a kilogram (2.2 pounds) of oranges. But U.S. standards are unknown here.

The carrot is there all right, in mounds of sugar cakes in the bakeries, in bicycles and etchings, in shoes and sports cars. The carrot may be expensive. It may not taste as good as it looks. But it is there.

The stick is there, too. But it is wielded with some measure of restraint and discretion.

Watching the shoppers homeward bound with new tables, shopping bags full of meat and oranges, ugly figurines from Czechoslovakia and lengths of cloth, the visitor realizes that the system is appeasing with some success the innate acquisitiveness of the Russian people.

What to them is prosperity appears to have altered the demeanor of the people in Moscow. They do not bluster when talking to a foreigner, as they once did. They are easier, more confident.

Propaganda, from movies to cigaret packages extols the glories of Soviet science and sputniks. But in the streets the visitor feels that it's the new clothes, new housing and more food that has altered the mood of the people from one of sullen endurance to confident expectation of the future.

Misstatements by Strauss Revealed by Congressmen

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON — Ordinarily there is nothing that so riles Congress as to have a cabinet officer tell its members an untruth.

Adm. Lewis L. Strauss, the Wall Street banker now up for confirmation as secretary of commerce, has been either caught or charged before Congress with seven untruths or attempts to cover up the truth.

PEARSON

Congressman Melvin Price, Illinois Democrat, long a member of the Atomic Energy Committee, put it in less polite language.

"AEC Chairman Lewis Strauss," said the congressman, referring to the speech of the then AEC chairman, "was filled with distortions and outright misstatements of fact about the present nuclear power program. His remarks ranged from blatant nonsense to ill-concealed perversions of the truth."

The amazing development is that the President, who had been warned that Strauss would have great difficulty being reconfirmed as atomic chairman, nevertheless appointed him to a more important post in his own cabinet.

* * *

HERE ARE THE UNTRUTHS or deceptions which Congress has chalked up against Strauss:

UNDERGROUND BOMB TESTING — On March 6, 1958, Strauss's commission announced that its underground test in Nevada was "recorded at Los Angeles about 250 miles air line from the shot mesa. This was the maximum distance at which the shock was recorded."

It happened however, that Harold Stassen, a member of the White House staff, had previously stated that this same test had been picked up on "every seismic instrument within 1,000 miles."

It also developed that the underground blast had been heard 2,500 miles away in Alaska and that nine seismic stations more than 250 miles away had all picked up the Nevada blast clearly.

* * *

RADIOACTIVE CONTAMINATION NEAR DETROIT — In announcing the establishment of a fast breeder atomic reactor at Lagoona Beach outside Detroit, Strauss claimed it would be safe for the people of Detroit by the time it was completed in 1960.

But he suppressed a memo written by his own scientists which found just the contrary. He even refused to give it to the congressional joint committee.

That memo read: "It appears doubtful that sufficient experimental information will be available in time to give assurance of safe operation of this reactor unless the present program of the AEC is amplified and accelerated.

"The committee does not feel that the steps to be taken should be so bold as to risk the health and safety of the public."

DIRTY H-BOMBS — When Senator Anderson charge that the administration was taking nuclear bombs out of its stockpile and inserting something that makes them dirtier (more radioactive) Strauss countered with a denial that "no material is being inserted for the purpose of increasing the amount of fission products or to add to the total fall-out."

The dispute raged back and forth with Senator Anderson and Rep. Chet Holafield (D., Cal.) getting the best of it. Finally Strauss wrote a letter to Congressman Carl Durham of the Joint Atomic Congressional Committee complaining that Anderson "four times called me a liar."

Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee, noting the exchange, remarked: "I have found him (Strauss) considerably less than frank."

BRITISH CENSORED — After the first Russian Sputnik was launched Oct. 4, 1957, the British wanted to announce that they had made notable progress in controlling hydrogen radioactivity. This would have helped Allied prestige in the rest of the world, but might have hurt American prestige.

It was reported from London that Admiral Strauss had demanded that the British not make this announcement. Strauss denied this.

CREDIT FOR SHIPPINGPORT REACTOR — When Westinghouse unveiled the first peacetime atomic reactor at Shippingport, Pa., credit for the achievement was taken in full-page ads in various newspapers on behalf of Westinghouse and the AEC.

The inside story of who deserved the credit, however, came out at a congressional hearing, Dec. 25, 1957, at which Commissioner Tom Murray testified that he and Adm. Hyman G. Rickover, father of the Nautilus, had conceived the idea of the Shippingport reactor, despite opposition from inside the atomic energy commission.

Last Word

By DR. BERGEN EVANS

QUESTION: People say "I don't feel too well." Is this good English?—R. K. E.

ANSWER: One of the meanings of too is "beyond what is desirable, fitting or right." When a man says "I don't feel too well," he is employing understatement. Instead of saying "I feel awful," he is saying "Well, I don't feel healthy beyond what is desirable, fitting or right." It's a way of minimizing complaint, and since we don't like to hear complaints, it is an attempt not to be disagreeable.

The real trouble, I think, is that too in this construction has become a vague word. When it becomes a habit of speech, understatement is as annoying as continual exaggeration.

Some of this overuse of too may be due to the fact that millions of Americans have been taught to avoid very—which serves the same purpose. I am afraid that if it were put to a vote more people would object to not very good than to not too good. And they would have the backing of their teachers.

Millipedes? Only a Few Scientists Study Them

A Cracker Viewpoint by Nixon Smiley

MOST PERSONS LOOK forward to retirement for one reason — to have time to fish, play golf or just "do nothing" for the rest of their lives.

But occasionally you run into a rare fellow who retires in order to find time for work—the kind of work he wants to do.

Loomis — "Loo" to his friends — had worked for the Agriculture Department since getting out of high school at Canadaigua, N.Y., in 1914. He was a horticulturist and a plant breeder. He spent several years in the Southwest where he worked with the breeding of cotton.

Loomis was transferred to Miami in 1931. His job here was to breed high-yielding rubber trees that were resistant to disease.

* * *

IN 1943 THE ADMINISTRATIVE duties of director of the garden were added to his job. And from then until his retirement he lacked the time to follow his principal interest—millipedes.

The millipede is an animal, not a plant. Most folks know it is a thousand-legged worm.

It all began after Loomis one day went into a library for information about millipedes.

He not only failed to find the information, but further research revealed that too few little study had been done with this group of insects.

"I was very much interested in science, and this looked like a promising field," Loomis said.

* * *

OVER THE YEARS Loomis has named and described more than 250 species of millipedes new to science.

Soon after retirement he and his wife ("Sis" to her friends) hied off to Panama where, on the island of Barro Colorado, Loomis knew of a number of unnamed species of millipedes. They collected 60 specimens.

* * *

LOOMIS' MILLIPEDE descriptions are published in zoological journals, mostly by the National Museum in Washington. Harvard University some years ago published a millipede book by Loomis.

Loomis is a "collaborator" with the Agriculture Department, which give him the privilege, as a retired employe, to maintain an office at the Plant Introduction Garden.

All of his millipede studies are done there.

He estimates that there are about 5,000 species of millipedes in the world. Few scientists are studying them.

"I know of three persons in the United States besides myself who are interested in millipedes," Loomis said. "There is an authority in Formosa, and two or three in Europe. That's about the crop."

* * *

THE PUBLIC KNOWS hardly anything about millipedes. Millipede, centipede, a caterpillar — these may be all the same to most persons. And you hardly ever run across anyone who can explain the difference between a millipede and a centipede.

(A centipede has only one pair of legs per body segment. A millipede has two pairs of legs per segment. The world centipede is a contraction of "centum," meaning 100, and "pedis" meaning foot.

Millipede is a contraction of "mille," meaning 1,000, and "pedis" foot.)

For a person with little formal education, Loomis has done superbly well for himself. He had to go to work before completing high school, but fortunately was able to get a job with the Agriculture Department as a student assistant.

(This would not be possible today, even if a young fellow had the mind of Einstein. A college diploma is required.)

* * *

"Yes, I learned fast under him," Loomis recalled. "Had to. Nobody loafed, mentally or physically, when working under Dr. Cook."

* * *

THE LOOMISES live at 5355 SW 92nd St., on Price Lake, in a home surrounded by uniquely landscaped grounds which they made by carefully preserving the most interesting features of a natural hammock.

Something Has to Give in Rail Picture

Last of a Series

By PAUL GAPP
Miami Herald-Chicago News Wire

CHICAGO — Railroad executives say at least two things must happen if their industry is to survive under private ownership:

1—STATE AND FEDERAL regulations must be changed to permit realistic freight rates and passenger fares and equitable taxation.

2—LABOR MUST AGREE to drop so-called "featherbedding" rules that cost millions in wages and divert funds needed for improvements.

* * *

"The railroads are indispensable to the nation's economy in peace and in war.

"And so the railroads will survive. The only question is whether they will do so in private hands, or under nationalization."

Federal ownership of the railroads, he said, "would probably be the end as well to private ownership of all other forms of transportation.

* * *

FREEDOM TO COMPETE is the railroads' basic need, according to spokesmen for the industry.

Railroads want the Interstate Commerce Commission to forget about what effect a freight rate decrease might have on such competitors as truck and barge lines.

If the railroads can haul a load cheaper without malicious undercutting of prices, they argue, let them do it.

The federal Transportation Act of 1958 in effect told the ICC to stop denying freight rate cuts just to protect competing carriers.

But the same act tells the ICC to continue "giving due consideration" to the objectives of the national transportation policy, which prohibits destructive ratemaking practices.

Competitors of the railroads see this as a loophole that will prevent major rail freight rate reductions.

* * *

AMONG OTHER THINGS, the 1958 act also made it easier for railroads to abandon interstate passenger train runs and authorized government guarantees of 15-year loans of up to 500 million.

The chiefs of 23 rail unions have announced they'll fight for changes in the train-dropping section of the act during the current session of Congress.

Indications are that the guaranteed loan setup, lacking machinery to make it work, may prove to be a flop.

Some operate sizable truck fleets now, but the scope of their service remains limited by federal regulations.

The industry will also press for legislation which would:

—SET UP A MORE realistic depreciation write-off formula covering railroad property.

—REPEAL THE 10-per cent tax on passenger fares.

* * *

NOBODY IS SPECULATING on the outcome of labor-management negotiations to be held after a three-year agreement on railroad wages expires Nov. 1.

But two things seem certain.

The railroad brotherhoods will ask for continuance of work rules which employers classify as "featherbedding" devices.

Management will insist that the rules be changed.

Ray Cash Plea Wins On Appeal

WASHINGTON — (UPI) — The U.S. Supreme Court Tuesday ordered Florida to take another look at the 1955 burglary conviction of Ray Cash, 20, who was tried without a defense attorney.

RAY CASH

Justice Potter Stewart spoke for the court in a unanimous opinion. He said the high court can't tell whether Cash's statements are true on the present record. But he said the Florida courts should determine that issue.

Cash, a native of Miami, was sentenced by Judge George L. Patton to 15 years after a second trial. The first in 1954, ended in a hung jury.

He defended himself at the second trial after his lawyer withdrew from the case. Florida law does not require appointment of counsel in noncapital cases.

Cash's mother said she tried to get an attorney but several refused because she could offer too little money and there was but a short time to prepare the case.

Cash's 32-year-old brother, Virgil, is also seeking freedom from a 30-year sentence he is now serving at Raiford Prison for the 1953 wounding of a Dade policeman during a robbery.

Another member of the Cash gang, Long John Fulford — also in prison — recently confessed the shooting for which Virgil was convicted and Ray acquitted.

Johns Says Case Will Be Pushed

U.S. Court Delays Probe of NAACP

Four Miamians Tuesday won a temporary victory in their running battle with a Florida legislative committee investigating alleged Communist infiltration in the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

The U.S. Supreme Court granted a stay of a Florida Supreme Court order which had directed the Negroes to produce a membership list, state whether they were members of the Miami branch of the NAACP, and tell whether they knew other members.

Washington officials explained Tuesday's Supreme Court ruling does not quash the Florida court's original order. It merely postpones the action until the four have had an opportunity to file a formal appeal to the U.S. Supreme Court.

The four are the Rev. Theodore R. Gibson, Ruth Perry, Vernell Albury and Grattan E. Graves, Jr.

They successfully challenged the state court order on the constitutional rights of free speech and association.

In postponing the Florida court's order, the U.S. Supreme Court specified the stay would remain in effect only until it could rule on the Miamians, pending appeal.

Earlier in the week, Sen. Charley E. Johns of Starke, chairman of the committee probing alleged Communist associations in the NAACP, said he thought the NAACP was "trying to tire us out in court . . . but they are not going to do it."

G. E. Graves Jr., the NAACP's attorney and one of the four, could not be reached for comment Tuesday afternoon.

Johns said he was "not at all surprised" at the U.S. Supreme Court's action.

But Johns said his committee will not give up, if it takes years and years. He said the Legislature will extend the life of the committee for as long as it takes.

"The NAACP controls the U. S. Supreme Court," Johns charged. "The NAACP could file anything and that court would grant it."

'Practice' Fire Costs Fireman

BAYREUTH, Germany —(AP) — Police in Upper Franconia arrested a 19-year-old member of the volunteer fire company at Gesees after the barn of a local farmer burned down.

"Our team needed practice," the fireman told them. Gesees has a population of only 89.

Damage was 70,000 marks, about $17,000.

Heat's On 3 Policemen In N.Y. Thefts Probe

By Herald Wire Services

NEW YORK — Police Commissioner Stephen P. Kennedy disclosed Tuesday that three recently suspended policemen were being questioned about several unsolved burglaries, including the daring theft of $163,000 worth of gems from two Tiffany's windows seven months ago.

Kennedy made the disclosure in discussing a new Police Department shakeup. He said the three were suspended for being away from their posts after they were found loitering under suspicious circumstances in front of a shoe store at about 2 a.m. Feb. 13.

The commissioner told newsmen that his deputies were checking up on the activities of Patrolmen James E. Svenstrup, 28, George J. Nolan, 38, and Robert J. Van Horn, 34, the night of last Aug. 9-10.

Thieves broke into two display windows of Tiffany's between 5 and 6 a.m. Aug. 10, which was a Sunday, shortly after the patrolman on the beat had left on another assignment.

Kennedy also gave 136 probationary policemen a grim welcome to the department on Tuesday. He advised them to withdraw if they were not prepared to be honest. He emphasized the hardships of their job and told the recruits to quit unless they were willing to accept them.

"If you have any idea of becoming a grafter — and don't forget you will have the opportunity — then withdraw," he said sternly.

Kennedy's unusually tough welcoming remarks were made at swearing-in ceremonies for the probationers. One hundred and forty-six top police officials also were present. They too received a lecture.

The commissioner called on the commanders, ranking from deputy inspectors to chief inspector, to set a good example for the young policemen.

He warned the officials that illegal gambling was "a malignant cancer which, if unchecked, will spread and kill every element of the Police Department."

"You are the doctors who can pull this cancer out by the roots, but better yet, use preventive methods," he told the commanders.

When Kennedy was asked later whether his harsh address was prompted by current investigations into police corruption, he replied, "It sure was!"

A deputy chief inspector, two inspectors and a deputy inspector were reduced to captains, a captain transferred, a policeman dismissed and three policemen arrested in the past two weeks because of alleged irregularities in connection with gamblers.

Atheist Teaching In Texas Charged

AUSTIN, Tex. — (AP) — Some of Texas' most prominent institutions of learning, including denominational Southern Methodist University are accused of teaching atheism.

A group of four state representatives, which made the accusations, hinted at a legislative probe as church and education leaders denied or questioned the charges of Godlessness.

Atheism is the disbelief or denial of the existence of a Supreme Being.

Reps. Bill Hollowell of Grand Saline, Joe Chapman of Sulphur Springs, Ben Lewis of Dallas, and W. T. Dungan of McKinney made the charges. They said they would ask the current session of the Texas Legislature for what they termed remedial legislation.

The legislators said they would introduce a bill requiring an annual oath from teachers in state schools and colleges affirming a belief in a Supreme Being.

Dr. Robert Raible, pastor of the First Unitarian Church in Dallas said, "They mean so well. They intend to be helpful. But they are innocent of history."

"If they don't believe in a Supreme Being," Rep. Chapman told newsmen, "they should not be allowed to teach. I have a suspicion a great number of atheists are Communists."

Chapman, an avowed segregationist, was the leader of a group of legislators who a few years ago caused a Negro girl to be dropped from a University of Texas light opera presentation.

Hollowell told reporters, "we have been advised that there are some instructors, particularly at the University of Texas, that are not only atheists but are expounding opinions in class not only about atheism but derogatory about religion."

Got 'Boot' In Miami-Cuba Exile

The former chief of Fulgencio Batista's national police claimed in a Federal Court suit Tuesday he was coerced and "forcibly removed" to the Dominican Republic when he sought political asylum in Miami in January.

Orlando Elno Piedra, who until Jan. 1 was chief of the Cuban FBI, asked the court to admit him as a political refugee in a suit naming Joseph Savoretti, district director of the Immigration Service, as defendant.

His attorney said Piedra arrived in Miami Jan. 24 by plane with a "valid Cuban passport and visitors visa" but that he was put in custody by immigration authorities and threatened with jail unless he left.

Piedra's complaint contends immigration authorities held him five hours, told him he had no right to an attorney and threatened to return him to Cuba.

The complaint states Piedra was put on a Pan American flight to San Juan, Puerto Rico, later that day, and still in custoday, was sent with a U. S. government official to a hotel. The next day, the complaint states, he was forcibly removed to the Dominican Republic.

Savoretti denied that Piedra was threatened but said he was told he'd be held pending a hearing on admissibility if he remained in this country. He said Piedra voluntarily withdrew and left.

Piedra is now in the Dominican Republic.

W. German Firm Wins

Federal Judge Emett Choate ruled Tuesday that a West German company be permitted to recover a $142,500 judgment from Victorene Navigation Co., formerly the Three Bays Line, and Greek-Mexican Financier M. A. S. Makris.

Makris recently was ousted from control of the Three Bays Line following some rough and tumble legal maneuvers.

Both he and the company were sued by Christine Von Mitzlaff Laeisz who won a judgment for $137,500 and $5,000 interest.

Pestered by Controls, Farmer's Leaving U.S.

WASHINGTON — (UPI) — Rep. Clare E. Hoffman (R., Mich.) told the House Tuesday that a Michigan farmer has been so pestered by government farm controls that he has decided to move to Adelaide, Australia.

Hoffman said that in Australia, Poultry Farmer Stanley Yankus of Cass County, Mich., "hopes to enjoy the status of a free citizen" once more.

Such a status, Hoffman said, is "no longer possible in America where the bureaucrats, the highbrows, the theorists and those who insist upon ordering the lives of others are day by day restricting liberties."

He cited Yankus' troubles with the government as evidence that while America "may be the home of the brave, it is no longer the land of the free."

Hoffman's office announced later that Yankus would testify Friday before a house agriculture subcommittee studying the wheat surplus problem. The group is headed by Assistant House Democratic Leader Carl Albert of Oklahoma.

Missile Nozzle Hailed

WASHINGTON — (AP) — A major scientific "breakthrough" in the development of the Polaris and other solid-fuel ballistic missiles has been achieved, the Navy said here.

The new rocket refinement — called a milestone by the Navy — is a movable steering nozzle made of molybdenum that allows precise control of the rocket's direction in spite of the intense heat of the rocket blast.

The Navy announcement, reported by The Washington Post, said it was "another major step forward in the technology of solid propellants for ballistic missiles."

The newspaper quoted engineers working on the development as saying the molybdenum nozzle will give the Polaris and Minuteman solid fuel missiles greater range and reliability and will allow use of even more powerful fuels in the future.

The solid fuel missiles, which are ready to fire at any time and need no painstaking "countdown" adjustment, are considered the next step in missile weapons after the delicate liquid fuel rockets like the Atlas, Titan, Jupiter and Redstone.

The tremendous heat of the solid-fuel engine blast, The Post story said, may burn up the present cast nozzle of the Polaris, making it inaccurate. The new device is designed to prevent this.

The solid fuel rockets burn through the center of the propellant itself, making control and steering more difficult than in liquid-propelled missiles, which have a combustion chamber.

You Must Keep Pledge to Church

By BILLY GRAHAM

GRAHAM

QUESTION: Sometime ago I made a pledge to the church for missions. I made it large, mainly to impress people, and now I can't pay it. What are the legal problems involved? Can I be made to pay or what should be my course of action?

ANSWER: You remind me of the Pharisees that Jesus so roundly condemned in His times. They always wanted to be seen of men in the things they did. If they prayed, it was publicly, and if they gave alms, they wanted a trumpet to be blown to call attention to their munificence. (Matt. 6:1-5) To such people Jesus said, "They have their reward." You had your reward at the time you made the generous pledge.

My Answer

Legally, you can be sued, but I doubt if any church would do so. I am quite confident that no church group, however spiritually dead, would attempt to force collection of such a promise

But you still must answer to God. Actually your promise was supposedly made to Him. What do you intend to do about it? I see only one course of action now. Either you must make a public statement of your false intentions when you made the pledge or beg for time to honor it.

If you did this, you would have a clear conscience toward men, if not toward God. As for the sinful aspect of it, you must repentantly turn to God, asking forgiveness in Jesus' name, and He who forgives every sin will also forgive you.

Iran to Sign Defense Pact With U.S.

The Shah of Iran

. . . he tells Russia

TEHRAN — (AP) — The shah was quoted Tuesday as saying Iran definitely will sign a defensive military agreement with the U. S. soon and that a Russian attack on this nation would mean the beginning of World War III.

There is talk here the agreement will be signed today or Thursday in Ankara, Turkey, an ally of Iran in the Baghdad Pact.

A deputy gave this account of the monarch's remarks:

If the Soviet Union has no aggressive intentions it should not be afraid of the alliance of Iran and the U. S. under the new treaty.

The breakdown of talks between Russian and Iranian diplomats on a nonaggression pact came when the Russians insisted Iran quit the Baghdad Pact and agree not to sign up with the U. S.

France Gets Set To Fire Rockets

The New York Times Service

PARIS — France's first attempt at launching rockets into the upper atmosphere for scientific research will begin next month in the Sahara Desert.

The project, expected to include launching of 50 missiles during the year, will be carried out by a team of civilian and military experts under auspices of the government's newly created Committee for Space Research.

The experiments, scheduled to start around March 6, will be staged at Guir, 100 miles south of Colomb-Bechar, missile test center in the desert near the Algerian-Moroccan border.

Strikes Cripple Auto Industry

LONDON — (AP) — Britain's booming automobile industry—with thousands of export orders on the books — was crippled by two unofficial strikes Tuesday.

Ford Motor Co. sent home nearly 7,500 workers. Ten thousand quit in a separate walkout at the Steel Co. of Wales, a major supplier of auto steel. One man was at the center of each dispute.

Ford sent its workers home after 300 employes walked out rather than work with Welder George Havard, who refused to pay 36 shillings ($5.04) union dues he owes.

The company refused to fire Havard, saying union membership is not its business.

The Wales steel strike was over David Jones, a 32-year-old clerk. Fellow workers are protesting his dismissal for inefficiency.

Coal Strike Pact Drawn

BRUSSELS —(AP)— Negotiators reached an agreement Tuesday on ending the strike which has crippled Belgium's coal industry and left 100,000 miners idle.

The return to work now awaits approval of the agreement by the miners. The strike started 10 days ago when 6,500 miners quit to protest the closing of six mines in the Borinage area. They had been kept open only through heavy government subsidies.

Prince Gets Rousing Hi-Ya

SINGAPORE — (AP) — Sutdents at Singapore's new Polytechnic Institute got so excited at the prospect of a visit from Prince Philip they turned in a false fire alarm.

Two fire engines roared up to the flag-draped building amid howls of student laughter. School officials pacified the firemen.

When the prince arrived, the students hurled exploding firecrackers under his car. The queen's husband is making a commonwealth tour.

Judge to Run For President

MONROVIA, Liberia — (AP) — William Oliver Davies Bright, former Circuit Court judge, said he will oppose President William V. S. Tubman in the May 5 presidential elections.

Bright, 54, is a wealthy rubber plantation owner and was defeated by Tubman in the 1955 elections.

Soviet Georgia Has a Shakeup

Georgia, located in the transcaucasus on the east shore of the Black Sea, is the homeland of the late Joseph Stalin.

The Tiflis paper "Dawn of the East" said the health minister, David G. Mamamtavrishili, has been relieved of his position in connection with transfer to other work and that Georgei M. Maruashvili has replaced him.

Ike Asked to Find Airmen Himself

BATON ROUGE, La. —(AP)— A Baton Rouge couple appealed to President Eisenhower to personally go behind the Iron Curtain to find out what happened to the American fliers shot down over Soviet Armenia.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Moore, whose son was a member of the missing crew, made public a letter they wrote to the President.

It said, in part:

"Dear Mr. President: I am writing to you as commander in chief of my son, Robert H. Moore, airman first class, who was shot down over Soviet Armenia on a C130 transport plane by the Russians on Sept. 2, 1958.

"I understand that it is the American way for a commander to look after the safety of his men before he looks after his own safety. Do you folllow this tradition?

"You have just been given permission by Mr. Khrushchev to go where you choose . . . You therefore are the only one to be allowed to go to these places."

The Moore letter urged the President to go personally to Soviet camps near Taishet where "our State Department said some of the other 22 fliers are being held."

Cash Asked for Controversial Cancer Drug

CHICAGO —(AP)— A drive to raise $350,000 to manufacture more of the controversial drug, krebiozen, has been opened by Dr. Andrew C. Ivy, professor of physiology at the University of Illinois.

Dr. Ivy is adviser to the Krebiozen Research Foundation. Proponents of the drug, which is derived from a serum produced in horses, says that it is efficacious in controlling some type of cancer. The American Cancer Society has declined to test krebiozen under what it terms restrictive conditions set by Ivy. The American Medical Association has said the drug is of no value in the treatment of cancer.

In opening the public fund drive, Dr. Ivy said that unless money is forthcoming, the supply of the drug will be exhausted by summer.

Dr. Andrew C. Ivy

At a testimonial dinner to which 1,200 persons had been invited, Dr. Ivy again appealed for what he called a fair test of the drug.

If used at its present rate on 75 to 100 patients, Dr. Ivy said, the drug will be exhausted in six months unless $350,000 is raised by public subscription to manufacture a new batch.

Ivy's appeal at the dinner followed a news conference at which Ivy and some other physicians presented 28 men, women and children who, said Ivy and the other doctors, have or have had cancer but whose malady has been either cured or arrested through treatment with krebiozen.

Ivy said that because of the Krebiozen treament "there are alive today 51 patients out of 500 who, from four to eight years ago, had advanced cancer and are apparently free of cancer today."

Krebiozen was first produced by Stevan Durovic, a Yugoslav researcher who formerly lived in Argentina and who now resides in Chicago.

Vacation Planned

BONN, Germany — (UPI) — West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer plans to vacation in Italy for the second straight year, informed sources said.

Japanese Crew To Sail Liner

LE HAVRE — (AP) — Fifty one Japanese sailors have arrived here to complete the crew that will sail the Ile de France to Japan and a wrecking yard.

The ship, once one of the queens of the North Atlantic run, was sold several months ago. She was considered too old and too expensive to compete with modern liners.

Big Cancer Push Urged

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Sen. Richard L. Neuberger (D., Ore.) urged Congress to provide 500 million dollars for cancer research in a program comparable to the wartime Manhattan Project that produced the atomic bomb.

The legislation introduced by Neuberger also would amend last year's National Defense Education Act to permit forgiveness of up to 50 per cent of loans granted students who enter medical research.

Neuberger, who was operated on for cancer last fall, returned to the Senate 10 days ago after completing radiation thereapy.

He said his own experience had heightened the sense of urgency with which he advanced his proposals.

Pressure Forced Me Out, Declares Levittown Pastor

LEVITTOWN, Pa. —(AP)— A Congregational minister who spoke out for Levittown's first Negro family said Tuesday outside pressures have forced him to resign.

The Rev. Dr. Fred Manthey Jr. of the Plymouth Congregational Church told the Associated Press his church's national board of home missions has declared in favor of church integration but refused to back his stand.

He said, "The real reason for my resignation is the reluctance of the board of home missions to shoulder the cost of our action" in running a paid advertisement in the local newspaper favoring integration.

Thirty of the 150 church members walked out in a rift over the ad and over the welcome extended to Mr. and Mrs. William Myers. The Myerses now attend Dr. Manthey's church but are not members.

It was Myers' move into this previously all-white community of 70,000 which touched off nine days of riots, stone-throwing and cross-burning. Another Negro couple has now joined the Myerses in Levittown.

Contacted at his unlisted telephone, Myers said, "I don't know the reasons for his resignation. But it had nothing to do with my moving to Levittown, I understand. I think it's a long history of action from people outside the church."

Dr. Manthey was reluctant to discuss his resignation because he has not yet secured another post. He submitted his resignation at the annual meeting Jan. 15, to be effective March 15.

At a meeting Sunday, the church officers asked him to stay on until April 15 because they were having trouble finding a replacement. He agreed.

At the present moment there is no contention in the church," he said. "Most of the parishioners would like me to remain, although some of the members previously required my resignation."

The rift which split the church after the Myers incident brought about the departure of one third of the church officers, including the choir director, to other churches.

Rope? Hope? Nope!

LONDON — (AP) — William Amies was accused of breaking into the Isle of Wight jail to free a friend—only to find that he couldn't get out himself.

A turnkey at the Isle of Wight pokey told the magistrate he found Amies, head in hands, sitting dejectedly on the steps of the warden's office early Friday morning. He said Amies, 26, told this story:

Hoping to help his pal, John Stevens, break out of the place, he went there by night with looped rope, an iron bar and a car jack for spreading the bars of his friend's cell.

Amies threw the loop over a projection of the prison wall and swarmed up the rope. He then dropped the rope into the prison yard and swarmed down it. But the yard is lower than the ground outside and Amies made the last 12 feet in a free fall.

[illegible] ized but determined, he climbed up a pipe to the barred window of Stevens' little cubicle and tried to apply the car jack. But he fell and cut his head.

Amies gave up the project as a bad job and returned to the wall but was unable to reach the end of his rope. Abandoning all hope, he gave himself up.

BUFFALO, N. Y. —(AP)— After 11 years in college, Stanley P. Zarlock, a former mechanic who lost his eyesight in 1943, has his doctor's degree in psychology.

"These are the people who made it possible for me to be here," Zarlock said.

After the factory accident that made him totally blind, Zarlock learned Braille and typing. When he started classes his wife and friends helped by reading assignments to him. His wife also worked as a kindergarten teacher.

Crossword Puzzles Appeal to 30 Million Adults

Gallup Poll

By GEORGE GALLUP
Director, American Institute of Public Opinion

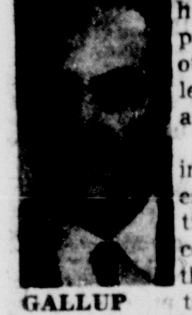
PRINCETON, N.J. — In the course of a year, more U.S. adults will have tried their hands at solving a crossword puzzle than will have participated in any other type of leisure time activity.



GALLUP

This interesting fact emerges from a nationwide survey conducted by the Gallup Poll to determine the interests of adults today in sports and "indoor" games.

Highlights of today's survey results of the popularity of games and other types of leisure time activity:

Approximately 30 million adults attempted to work a crossword puzzle at least once during the last year.

About one adult in every four has played either checkers, bingo or poker during the year.

Approximately 15 million adults are bridge players — 13 per cent of men played the card game during the year, compared to 17 per cent of women.

Chess, the game of kings, was played by about one adult in twenty.

Persons questioned in today's survey were handed a list of nine indoor games or leisure time activities which included: bingo, bridge, charades, checkers, chess, crossword puzzles, monopoly, pincohle and poker.

Gallup Poll reporters then asked a cross-section of adults in all walks of life and in each region of the country:

"Which of these games have you played during the last 12 months?"

Here are their replies, expressed both in terms of percentages of those interviewed and the projected total number of adults who participated in each activity at least once during the last year:

LEISURE TIME ACTIVITIES OF U.S. ADULTS

| Pct. Participating at Least Once | | Total Number of Adults |
|---|---|---|
| 30% | Cross-word puzzles | 30,000,000 |
| 25 | Checkers | 25,000,000 |
| 24 | Bingo | 24,000,000 |
| 24 | Poker | 24,000,000 |
| 20 | Pinochle | 20,000,000 |
| 15 | Bridge | 15,000,000 |
| 14 | Monopoly | 14,000,000 |
| 6 | Charades | 6,000,000 |
| 5 | Chess | 5,000,000 |
| 31 | NONE | 31,000,000 |
| 194Pct. | | |

Multiple answers were frequent.

(An estimated 103 million adults comprise the U. S. civilian adult population today, excluding those in institutions. From this total, survey data indicate that approximately 3 million adults would not be reached in a sampling survey because they are in hospitals or are bed-ridden, leaving a base total of 100 million adults.

MEN: Poker, 31 per cent; checkers, 26 per cent; cross-word puzzles, 26 per cent; pinochle, 23 per cent; bingo, 18 per cent; monopoly, 13 per cent; bridge, 13 per cent; chess, 8 per cent, and charades, 4 per cent.

WOMEN: Cross-word puzzles, 35 per cent; bingo, 30 per cent; checkers, 24 per cent; bridge, 17 per cent; pinochle, 17 per cent; poker, 16 per cent; monopoly, 15 per cent; charades, 7 per cent, and chess, 3 per cent.

An equal proportion of men and women—31 per cent—said they had not participated in any of the leisure time activities included in the survey.

Other sidelights of the survey which will be of interest to sociologists in their study of the use of leisure time:

Among young adults in the 21 to 29 age group, only 14 per cent did not participate in any of these activities, compared to 23 per cent in the middle-aged group 30 to 49 years of age and 47 per cent of adults in the age group 50 years and over.

Here are the top five favorites in order by age groups:

Smathers Lauds Clare

The expected appointment of Mrs. Clare Boothe Luce as U. S. ambassador to Brazil was hailed Tuesday by Florida Sen. George Smathers as a boon to U. S.-Latin American relations.

Smathers also praised President Eisenhower's recent trip to Mexico.

"The President's gesture — and similar ones — can do more to better understanding between the U. S. and Latin America than any offers of financial assistance or help which we might make," commented Smathers.

The $60,000 Honeymoon Cottage Without Honeymooners

Inherited Fortune Delays Marriage

Money, Mansions but No Wife

BY AL FINKELSTEIN
Herald Staff Writer

Paulino Dominisac has everything a man would want in life but one thing — a wife.

And money, he said Tuesday, is thwarting his marriage plans.

Dominisac is the Flipino houseboy whose CORAL GABLES employer left him an $8,000 custom-built car, unexplored oil land in Texas, a $75,000 summer mansion in Philadelphia, a $60,000 winter home in Coral Gables and a goodly hunk of $200,000.

But he's alone with all this and doesn't yet have Dolores Korpuze — the girl he wants to marry.

He said he is waiting until his inherited fortune gets the legal go-ahead before marrying the girl of his dreams.

He is 45. She is 25.

Said Paulino: "She is a wonderful girl . . . We will get married regardless of what the legal outcome is on the will."

Said Dolores: "I love him and will marry him whether he gets the money or not."

But neither would set "the date."

They fell in love without money, Dominisac said, but now that the inheritance has entered their lives it means a postponement of simple marriage plans to cope with all the legal requirements and settlements.

She died last September and willed one-third of her estate to Dominisac, her trusted valet and confidant of 20 years.

However, her will stipulated that when he married, it must be to a Filipino girl.

Dominisac's girl, Dolores, is half-Filipino, half-Irish, born in the Phillippines. They met four years ago.

"Almost from the start," Dolores said, "I have loved him."

He writes and phones her every day.

Dominisac's Philadelphia lawyer, Gilbert Oswald, told The Herald, "The whole thing will be straightened out in a month.

"It's just a matter of legal procedure taking time. There doesn't seem to be any difficulty in settling the estate," he said.

Before Dominisac gets the final legal word, he plans to visit his aging mother and sister in the Philippines. He hasn't seen them since 1945.

Meanwhile, he lives the life of a country squire — a wealthy but quiet country squire.

He is up at seven each morning and in bed by 11 at his three - bedroom home on Millionaire's Row in Coral Gables.

He takes daily walks, punches a boxing bag regularly in his garage "to stay in shape," and likes to cruise by scenic Granada golf course in his Cadillac.

Outside of that, he does little, says even less. Always he is alone.

"Patience," Dominisac said. "I guess I will just have to have patience."

Dolores seconded that.

Gables Protests 'Outside' Judge

City Will Fight Giblin Case Action

By PHIL FORTMAN
Herald Staff Writer

Bristling CORAL GABLES city commissioners agreed Tuesday to fight the Florida Supreme Court's appointment of an out-of-town judge to hear Dade Circuit Judge Vincent Giblin's personal suits arising from a Gables traffic arrest.

Gables City Attorney E. L. (Ted) Semple said the commission ordered him to ask Chief Justice Glenn Terrell to revoke his order appointing Tampa Circuit Judge L. L. Parks to hear the Giblin suits. Parks was assigned Tuesday by Terrell.

GIBLIN

SEMPLE

"We have 13 circuit judges living here in luxury now," Semple said. "I don't think (Justice Terrell) has any right to assign another judge. The rules are that local judges must show sickness, overload of work or other causes to be excused.

"It would be a useless expenditure of taxpayers' money," he said.

"I will ask that each judge here state causes" why they can't hear Giblin's cases, Semple said.

Circuit Judges Pat Cannon and John Prunty already have excused themselves from hearing any of the cases. Presiding Judge Marshall C. Wiseheart asked Chief Justice Terrell for an out of town judge to hear the cases.

Giblin filed three suits in Circuit Court after he and his wife were arrested Jan. 23 during a traffic ticket dispute. He has asked that the charges be set aside, that the city be prohibited from trying him and has sued for damages for the arrest by Officer Seymour Anderson.

Neither Judge Giblin nor Judge Wiseheart could immediately be reached for comment.

In two separate personal injury damage suits filed Monday by the Judge and Mrs. Giblin, they seek damages "in excess of $5,000" against the Gables, as well as officer Anderson.

Judge Giblin and his wife, were detained briefly in the Gables jail during the row that began when Mrs. Giblin, while driving the judge to court, was stopped for a speed violation in a radar check zone.

The City Commission of the Gables gave its city attorney authority to fight the suits "in any way he sees fit."

To Stay Dry

HIALEAH City Council Tuesday refused a request for a retail liquor license for Palm Springs Bowling Lanes, 750 W. 49th St., after a series of protests from residents and school and church groups.

$10,000 'Spree' For Kicks

Four 14-year-old boys, who caused $10,000 damage Sunday when they went joy-riding on SOUTH DADE farm equipment "just for laughs" were taken into custody Tuesday by Metro detectives.

Faced by investigators and school authorities, the four admitted their guilt and described how they had managed to wreck 13 pieces of equipment Sunday, according to Metro Detective William Jackson.

The juveniles said they first drove four tractors around a bean field west of Florida City belonging to Grady Lofton, using the tractors in the manner of polo players as they batted rocks around.

They next entered an adjacent field, property of Fritz Rutzke and Sons, where they rode eight pieces of farm machinery in and out of tomato fields, dumping seven tractors and a spray rig into potholes in the Everglades, causing an estimated damage of $6,000.

Their next caper was to loose two mules on the property of Cornelius and Sons where they chased the mules with tractors and left two trucks with the engines running.

Operators of the Rutzke and Cornelius properties said they were unable to put 200 people to work Monday because of the damage.

"They're all from nice families and two at least could well afford to pay for the damage," said one officer.

Mayor in Hospital But Still on Job

NORTH MIAMI BEACH Mayor Dan Diefenbach goes into Mercy Hospital today for spine-pulling treatment, but the pull won't be strong enough to keep him away from the reins of city government.

While hooked up in traction, he'll have a bedside telephone which he will use for conducting city affairs while flat on his back.

Diefenbach has been plagued by spinal pains since his youth. "I injured my back in high school while throwing the discus and shotput and since then I've had a lot of trouble in two spots in my back," he said Tuesday.

Treatment will consist of traction applied to relieve pressure on Diefenbach's spine. "The doctor is hoping a little stretching will help," said the mayor cheerfully.

He will be hospitaized for about five days, but said:

"I've instructed the hospital to install a bedside phone for me and I intend to handle all matters of city policy without interruption."

"I hope this treatment will relieve the pain which has been bothersome for a long time and, if it does, I will seriously consider running for reelection in April," Diefenbach said.

Separation Pay Voted For 7 Fired

THE NORTH MIAMI City Council unanimously voted Tuesday night to give two weeks separation pay to six policemen and a clerk fired Feb. 19 after the District Court of Appeals ruled the city could legally cut the police budget by $64,000.

But the former police employes want to talk it over first.

City Attorney Ed Boardman told the council that the city was not legally required to pay the men, but recommended payment as a good "business practice."

However, the six men must release the city from any further liability as a condition of receiving the pay which will cost the city some $1,000.

Al Wooters, one of the policemen laid off by the court decision, said the group would meet today to decide whether they will accept the council's offer.

Goodwill Trip

Two CORAL GABLES Junior Chamber of Commerce members and three Jaycee beauty contest winners will visit Guatemala on a goodwill mission.

Jack Clark and Ken Ryskamp will be welcomed by the Guatemala City Junior Chamber of Commerce. The girls are Faye Ray, Joan Logan and Joan Schewning, winners of the Gables Jaycee models contest which the two men directed.

Strange Red Lights Lead To Some 'Hot Tomatoes'

By JOY WINANS
Herald Writer

Lured by strange red lights, suspicious Highway Patrolmen "raided" a South Dade farm field and discovered a bunch of "hot tomatoes" — but came away without making a single pinch.

What they found was not a "red light district" full of shady ladies — but an infrared light crop-warming setup that may save Dade tomato growers thousands of dollars in produce spoilage.

The "hot tomatoes" the patrolmen didn't pinch were the Grade A fancy variety owned and raised by Kendall's pioneer hydroponic farmer, Fred Jackson.

POLICE

* * *

WHILE most farmers leave weather precautions until it looks like freeze, Jackson turns on his infra-red heat when the temperature sinks to 55 degrees.

"Tomatoes start getting hurt at 45 degrees," he declared, "that's why you see so many poor ones around after a cold snap."

* * *

JACKSON explained Tuesday that he installed a series of infra-red propane gas heaters as an inexpensive new means of saving his huge tomato crop from cold weather damage.

"It's a darn sight better than lugging firewood and tires around and staying up all night," said Jackson.

Jackson, who says his propane heating fuel costs him only six cents an hour, figures he'll save between $1,000 to $3,000 a year on the cost of raising his 48,000-pound tomato yield.

Study Set On Town's Water Need

FLORIDA CITY City Commission Tuesday night ordered a study of long-range water needs.

In nearby HOMESTEAD, City Manager J. B. Henderson reported three big steps in his city's beautification plan.

He said some 3,000 feet of hibiscus hedge will be planted along U.S. 1, a park will be established for "senior citizens" and an ordinance will be drawn up compelling owners of vacant lots to "clean up or pay up."

Florida City Mayor Herman Lucerne told a Commission meeting that the city's 35,000-gallon water tank — only source of Florida City's water supply — is outdated.

The Commission gave City Manager Richard Schmunk authority to begin a preliminary study of water needs, particularly in relation to would-be developers who want to build in the area if the city will provide water and sewer facilities. Florida City now uses septic tanks.

O Lord, Grant Salvation To Our Brethren and Kin

By JIM BISHOP

His Eminence the Archbishop Michael of the Greek Orthodox Church in North and South America, was born in Greece in 1892. He was ordained to the Greek Orthodox priesthood in 1919. After having been vicar general of the Archdiocese of Athens, Dean of the Greek Orthodox Cathedral in London and Metropolitan of Corinth, Greece, he was chosen in 1949 to be Archbishop of the Americas. He is the author of many books on religion.

O Lord, forgive them that hate and injure us. Do good to them that do good to us. To our brethren and kinfolk grant their desires for salvation and eternal life. Visit them that are in sickness and heal them. Guide them that are on the sea. Journey with the travelers.

To them that minister and are beneficent unto us, grant forgiveness of sins. According to Thy great mercy, have mercy upon them that have desired us, unworthy ones, to pray for them.

Remember, O Lord, our fathers and brethren that have fallen asleep before us, and give them rest where the light of Thy countenance shineth. Remember, O Lord, our brethren that are in captivity, and deliver them from all their bonds.

Remember, O Lord, them that bring forth fruit and do good works in Thy holy churches, and grant them their desires for salvation and eternal life.

Remember us also, O Lord, Thine humble, sinful and unworthy servants; and enlighten our minds with the light of Thy knowledge, and guide us in the way of Thy commandments.

Through the prayers of our most holy Lady, the ever-virgin Mary, and of all Thy saints; for Thou art blessed to ages of ages. Amen.

He Can Sleep Just Anywhere

NEWCASTLE, England — (UPI) — Mechanic Jim Hardy, 22, who was haled into court on a charge of being drunk in his car, denied the charge, saying he has the habit of falling asleep all the time.

His fiancee, Kathleen Cowie, supported his claim. She said he dozes off regularly at the movies and "he even has gone to sleep when we have been sitting talking."

Life of Buddha To Be Filmed

TAIPEI —(AP)— A motion picture on the life of Buddha is planned by Buddhists in Formosa and Hong Kong.

A Buddhist priest is writing the script. Production will be handled by a new Hong Kong company called the Holy Hero Movie Studios.

The company proposes to shoot the story in Japan and Thailand. The cast will speak Mandarin, the official Chinese language.

"Ring of Protection" Around PIMPLES
and ACNE

The best way to stop the spread of pimples is to treat them before and after they open up. So at the first sign of a pimple . . . QUICK! Apply CAMPHO-PHENIQUE! This soothing, antiseptic liquid forms a "ring of protection" around pimples to help prevent their spread and re-infection. Because CAMPHO-PHENIQUE doesn't stain the skin, it can be applied right under make-up. So don't give ugly pimples a chance to spread . . . prevent it with CAMPHO-PHENIQUE's "ring of protection". Let your face heal faster, naturally.

Faint Radio Call Spurs Search for Doctors

LITTLETON, N. H. — (AP) — A faint radio message Tuesday gave searchers hope that two doctors missing in their apparently wrecked plane are still alive somewhere in the rugged, snow-covered White Mountains area.

As a result of the radio pickup, ground and air search teams concentrated their hunt for Dr. Ralph E. Miller, 60, and Dr. Robert E. Quinn, 32, in the eight-mile area between Mount Agassiz and Franconia Notch.

Dr. Karl Steady, 55, a Laconia osteopathic physician and member of the Civil Air Patrol, reported he received fragments of a wireless signal which read: "Agass . . . Notch . . ."

Mount Agassiz, some 2,000 feet high, is a short way east of Littleton's abandoned Lewis Airport near where a 19-year-old girl reportedly heard a low-flying airplane Saturday.

Drs. Miller and Quinn disappeared Saturday while on a 70-mile mercy flight between Berlin and Lebanon.

'Object' Flies Over Michigan

EAST LANSING, Mich. — (AP) — A flaming bluish green object that fitted the description of a meteor streaked over Michigan Tuesday morning startling hundreds of persons and frightening some.

Some thought it fell apart and landed in Michigan but it was seen over Wisconsin as it shot westward.

Professor William Liller of the University of Michigan astronomy department, who is an expert at tracking satellites, said it undoubtedly was a meteor. At this time of year meteors are quite common, he said, and often are visible and very brilliant in early morning.

He'd Like It If South Bolts

CHICAGO — (UPI) — Sen. Paul H. Douglas said he would "be willing to pack a box lunch for them" if Southern Democrats decide to walk out of the party's 1960 convention.

DOUGLAS

The Illinoisan, generally regarded as a leader of the liberal Democratic bloc in the Senate, told newsmen he is in favor of "letting them walk out" if Southern Democrats cannot go along with the convention's plank on racial issues.

"I would even be able to pack a box lunch for them as they go out into the wilderness," Douglas said. "The Democratic Party does not want or need racial or religious bigots."

Conductor Did His Best, But . . .

INDIANAPOLIS — (AP) — A railroad conductor was arrested Tuesday on a charge of leaving the scene of an accident — after his train struck a man and the conductor took him aboard to get him to a hospital.

Siefers put the injured man on the train, wired ahead, and the train proceeded into Indianapolis. An ambulance was waiting for Padgett — and a deputy sheriff was waiting for Siefers.

Gulped the conductor: "Why, I thought it was the best thing to do."

Scholarships Take Rapping

BALTIMORE — (AP) — President A. Whitney Griswold of Yale University thinks Americans should search their "hearts and consciences" for a higher purpose for education.

He sharply criticized what he called the national traffic in athletic scholarships in American colleges. Most athletic scholarships, he said, are part of "one of the greatest educational swindles ever perpetrated on American youth."

"Whether cause or sympton, it is part of the general collapse of amateurism in American athletics and the hypocrisy practiced in its name," he said.

Don't Pay Fine, Minister Pleads

McCRACKIN

CINCINNATI — (AP) — The Rev. Maurice McCrackin, Cincinnati's pacifist minister, says he hopes no one and no organization will pay the fine he owes the U.S. government.

The Rev. Mr. McCrackin now is serving a six-month sentence for his refusal to heed an Internal Revenue Service summons in connection with his refusal to paying income taxes. He also was fined $250 when he was convicted Dec. 12.

Ernest Bromley, an associate of McCrackin, said the minister's sister, Mrs. Julia Watson, has received a letter from her brother saying:

"I am as unwilling to pay the fine as I am to pay taxes for war. I recognize that society may exact further penalties from me for my failure to do so."

McCrackin's refusal to pay taxes stemmed from his opposition to war and the fact some tax money goes for military purposes.

What will happen if the fine is not paid remains in doubt.

U. S. Attorney Thomas Stueve said the sentence decreed the minister should stand committed to jail until it is paid. He said it would be up to the Federal Board of Prisons and Paroles to decide what to do.

Survival School Is On Job

By JACK RAYMOND
The New York Times Service

PANAMA CITY, Panama—One of the highlights of a jungle warfare training course at Fort Sherman, on the Atlantic side of the Isthmus of Panama, deals with jungle survival.

A soldier is given a handful of rice and a live chicken and turned loose in the thick tropical jungle to do the best he can.

The men learn to cross streams with rope and pulley, scale cliffs, ford rivers, navigate the treacherous mangrove swamps and keep dry in the hot, gloomy forests of Central America.

They learn to protect themselves against snakes, perhaps capture and eat them for food when necessary.

In addition, they must learn to fight in the units of the First Battle Group, 20th Infantry, which is charged with the protection of the 50-mile Panama Canal.

Another training course for pilots and crewmen is operated by the Air Force at Albrook Air Force Base, near this city.

The jungle survival school disregards battle conditions and concentrates simply on learning to stay alive in the tropical fastness.

The head of the school is 31-year-old H. Morgan Smith, an anthropologist, who became interested in problems of survival as a Coast Guardsman in the Aleutian Islands of Alaska.

Smith has been running a school here for four years. He teaches airmen to take care of themselves in the jungle should they crash.

American newspapermen, here for an Army-Air Force training exercise, were given a first-hand view of the course. Some of the developments were unanticipated.

The Panama Sky Is Dotted With American Paratroopers
. . . men are in training if they are needed to protect the canal

The newsmen were taken to Smith's classroom, in a clearing not far from the air base. They were shown a training film, just as they might have been shown such a film at the Pentagon in Washington.

It was only after the journalists were comfortably settled on the crude benches that served for seats that someone noticed a boa constrictor slithering into a coil on the side of the classroom.

"We have the snakes uncaged here to get the men used to the idea and learn not to be afraid of them," Smith explained.

The newsmen cleared the snake part of the room to inspect some wood samples and pamphlets on the other side.

But before long some of the intrepid ones lifted the snake, carried it outdoors and posed for pictures.

In the regular course, which lasts five days, trainees are taken in a canoe cut out of a tree trunk, to a point on the shore of the Chagres River and left to fend for themselves.

Another test is to be dropped by helicopter on top of a mountain near the Continental Divide. As Smith explained, the jungle is not always a forbidding place. After all, millions of Indians live in jungles, he said.

The newsmen went by bus to the Chagres River. There they were loaded into two canoes, each with a small outboard motor fitted to the stern. The scheduled route was across Madden Lake and up the Chagres River which feeds into the Panama Canal locks.

The destination was a village of Choco Indians. Smith said they are the only Choco Indians whose straw huts have tarpaper roofs, which they earned for acting in an Air Force training film.

Instead of rice and a live chicken, each man received a box lunch with sandwiches, fried chicken, apples, orange juice, chocolate milk, candy, mustard and a dill pickle.

The hot sun beat down on the occupants of the motor-driven canoes as they went noisily past the jungle-lined shores. Smith was in charge of one boat and Tula, an Indian, in charge of the other.

Tula's faith was tested several times. He steered the boat with one hand and bailed water with the other. Some credited the occupants of his boat with even greater faith.

Three-quarters of the way across the five-mile lake the motor of Tula's canoe failed. The newsmen paddled virorously and Tula bailed. Smith's group came to the rescue.

The boats were tied together and the journey resumed. Birds and monkeys chattered unseen among the trees.

Then a motor launch came surging across the lake and two men in sports shirts and a girl in bandana and shorts waved and passed. They did not look like Indians.

The sturdy little outboard motor propelled the two canoes into the Chagres River. One boat and its occupants was left on the shore while Smith took the other boatload of newsmen upstream to the Indian village.

After 20 minutes of nervous chugging up the jungle stream, another canoe with three occupants hove into view.

The explorers turned out to be two young American Sea Scouts, sons of Army officers, and Col. John Nickerson, who has been ordnance officer of Caribbean Command headquarters ever since he was removed from his post at the Army at Huntsville, Ala., two years ago.

"Col. Nickerson. I presume," said a quick-thinking newsman.

The Choco Indians turned out to be willing subjects for photographers. The trip back was accomplished with vigorous bailing and the help of a remarkably hardy outboard motor.

Everyone got sunburned.

Florida AP Meeting Reset for March 27

The annual spring meeting of Associated Press member newspapers of Florida will be held in Jacksonville Friday, March 27.

The meeting originally was planned for April 5, but the new date was selected to conform with a change in plans of the Florida Daily Newspaper Association. The two organizations usually meet on successive days.

The Florida dailies organization will meet March 27-28, President Morgan Welch, publisher of The Deland Sun-News announced. It will open with a panel discussion of "cold-type" processes headed by Cecil Kelley, publisher of The Jacksonville Journal, Friday, March 27.

The Associated Press meeting will follow at 1 p.m. Friday. The FDNA will close with a business session Saturday morning, March 28. The sessions will be in the new Robert Meyer Hotel.

Aid Society Has Speaker

Mrs. Simons

Mrs. Savilla Millis Simons, general director of the National Travelers Aid Association of New York, will speak Thursday night at the annual meeting of the Travelers Aid Society of Miami in the Biscayne Terrace Hotel.

The local society — oldest welfare organization in the city — increased its services by 32 per cent in the last two years and is an agency of the United Fund.

Mrs. Simons represents the national organization of more than 100 Travelers Aid Societies.

Judge to Talk

Judge George E. Schulz of Criminal Court of Record will talk on "Youth and Crime" at a luncheon of the Sunshine Lions Club at noon Thursday at the Garden Restaurant.

Dulles Decision Mine: Ike

By WILLIAM M. BLAIR
The New York Times Service

WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower told Republican congressional leaders Tuesday that he alone will decide when to replace John Foster Dulles as secretary of state, if at all.

The President was quoted after a conference with the legislative chiefs as saying that "it certainly is my responsibility" to determine how long Dulles should remain in charge of the State Department while undergoing treatment for abdominal cancer. His statement carried an implied rebuke to Democratic senators who have publicly urged the President to name a successor to Secretary Dulles.

A report on the secretary's condition was volunteered by the President to the visiting leaders. His reaction to the unsolicited advice on Dulles' replacement was passed along by the minority leaders of the Senate and House of Representatives, Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois and Rep. Charles A. Halleck of Indiana.

As to the condition of the secretary, Dirksen said "the President said that things are coming along in good style and that what eventuates "is certainly my responsibility." Both spokesmen made it clear in response to questions that Eisenhower was talking about who was to decide whether Dulles would be able to continue in full charge of the State Department, or whether to remain in an advisory capacity.

Enters Hospital

Fed Up With 'Waiting,' He Shoots Signal Light

HAMILTON, Ohio — (AP) — Every time James Daniels, 42, approached the intersection of North Third and Vine Streets here, the "walk-wait" pedestrian lights at the intersection would turn to "wait," he told police.

This, he said, irritated him.

So when the light turned to "wait," Daniels whipped out a 38-caliber revolver and shot out the light, police reported.

Replacing the weapon in his pocket, Daniels sauntered into nearby cafe where he was arrested.

Shame on Hagerty, Humphrey Replies

WASHINGTON — (UPI) — Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey (D., Minn.) said White House Press Secretary James Hagerty "ought to be ashamed of himself" for accusing some Democrats of headline-hunting in the ilness of John Foster Dulles.

HUMPHREY

Hagerty reacted to statements by Humphrey and other Democrats urging President Eisenhower to appoint a successor to Dulles immediately by telling newsmen: "It is remarkable what people will say to get their names in the newspapers."

Humhprey said Hagerty "knows better than that."

"The decision as to the secretary of state is distinctly in the hands of the President as I (initially) said," Humphrey declared. "No one could wish Dulles a more speedy recovery."

Sen. Stuart Symington (D., Mo.) was the other top Democrat calling for the naming of a successor to Dulles. Humphrey said he was asked a question about what Symington had stated and "I replied in kindness and in a reasonable manner."

Humphrey said he personally hopes Dulles will be able to remain in office despite the recurrence of his abdominal cancer.

Billy Will Preach to 'Bodgies Widgies'

MELBOURNE, Australia —(UPI)— American Evangalist Billy Graham said he will hold a special meeting for youths Saturday in response to an appeal from a "bodgie widgie."

Graham told a capacity crowd of 22,000 that he didn't really know what a "bodgie widgie" was, "but I suppose they are the same as the English Teddy-boy and the American zootsuiters."

The evangelist said he received a letter from a confessed bodgie widgie requesting a special meeting for "bodgies widgies whose lives are as empty as mine."

He asked every adult to bring at least one teenager to the meeting Saturday night, adding: "I hope this great music bowl will be filled to capacity with young people."

Some 1,500 persons, mostly teenagers and children, made "decisions for Christ" after the meeting.

The Town Crier

BY Jack Bell

TURF EXPERTS seem pretty well agreed that last Saturday's Widener field wasn't exactly $100,000 stake calibre.

BELL

There have been several such stakes in the past few years, with the purses geared for better horses than we saw.

Would it be a sacrilege to suggest that we take the same money and split it up a bit? The McLennan attracts the same horses we see in the Widener, for far less money. Perhaps a progressive stake program through the 40-day meeting, with the champion selected on points, or selection of a "Champion of the Meeting" by these same estimable gentlemen who make like wise in yon press box?

Some turfmen have hurled harsh words at Jockey Bill Hartack because he refused to ride Greek Circle Saturday, after taking the 4-5 favorite onto the track. Let's face facts! Hartack's business is riding race horses. He was on the most likely horse in the race and a win meant money for Hartack as well as the owner. So he didn't dismount for anything trivial. He thought Greek Circle acted as if something was wrong. If so, he'd burn up a lot of 4-5 money. The horse might be permanently injured. Hartack thought it wouldn't be fair to race under such conditions. He was perfectly right.

Jewelry Offered

A small, elderly man and his wife, obviously not long in these U. S., sat at my desk telling their story: Hendrik and Mrs. Ramotowski. He is a chemical metalurgist. They met as youngsters in Russia, crossed Siberia into Korea, China, Japan, Java, Malaya.

For many years they lived in Manila and six years ago migrated to Venezuela. Hendrik earned a living making most unusual rings, necklaces, bracelets out of pure gold and precious stones. They were doing well in Caracas, but as the gentle Mrs. Ramotowski explained it, "Three revolutions in three years were too much. All our lives we've been in wars and revolutions. So we came to America, where there is freedom."

If you're looking for jewelry different from anything you ever saw, they live at 1283 NW 45th St., seeking to earn enough to live in this new, free home.

Big Difference

The Charles Cooks of Miami have been stationed on Midway Island for three years. Mrs. Cook's mother, Mrs. C. R. Strother, 304 NE 128th St., sends her The Herald. She read in the Town Crier about Father F. P. Caironi and sent him $25 for his work among the untouchables in India.

His reply is most enlightening: "With the first cultivatings this family of six will get paddy and green grain. They'll keep a cow, feeding the paddy grass. They're planting coconut trees and in six years they'll get $50 worth of coconuts a year, fiber from the husks for rope. They'll make mats from the bushes planted as a fence. They're free. It's all theirs."

Let Miami Department Be Core, He Says

McGahey Urges Unified Fire System

By LEO ADDE
Herald Staff Writer

Metro should start immediately arranging for municipal fire departments to serve unincorporated areas as the first step in setting up a unified county fire-fighting system, Metro Commissioner Ben McGahey said Tuesday.

McGahey also called for conferences right away between Metro officials and all of Dade County's fire chiefs to begin planning the unified fire department.

At the same time, he said Metro should take over the Miami Fire Department, which he called "outstanding . . . one of the best in the country," and use it as the core of the countywide system.

McGahey's proposals came on the heels of a Grand Jury report pointing out inadequacies of countywide fire protection and calling for unification of municipal and county fire departments.

McGahey said he will ask the Metro Commission at its meeting Thursday to take action on the proposals and to call for a referendum of Miami citizens on taking over of their fire department by Metro.

The Metro charter gives the commission authority to call an election inside a Dade municipality on the issue of taking over of a city service by Metro.

McGahey agreed with the Grand Jury criticism of too few men and too little equipment in the present Metro fire department.

"Consolidating and standardizing all firefighting units in the county, using Miami's as the nucleus, is the wisest and least expensive alternative before us," he said.

He said this would be preferable to using the Metro department which has 10 trucks and 64 firefighters, as the central unit of a countywide system.

"The most important thing, however, is to have one big fire department for all of Dade County, as the Grand Jury recommends," McGahey said.

He said immediate steps should be to arrange working agreements with municipal departments to answer alarms in unincorporated areas when necessary — and for a fee — and the conference of Dade fire chiefs.

County Manager O. W. Campbell and Safety Director Thomas J. Kelly should be the Metro envoys at these conferences, McGahey said.

Campbell tried unsuccessfully last August to work out mutual assistance pacts with city fire departments after county fire trucks took half an hour to reach a factory-warehouse fire outside Hialeah. The $100,000 structure was a total loss.

Fire Protection Called Unsafe, School Hazard

By JAMES BUCHANAN
Herald Staff Writer

The Dade County Grand Jury Tuesday said inadequate countywide fire protection is a serious safety threat to school children and citizens and called for consolidation of Greater Miami fire departments under Metro.

The jury also recommended a master alarm system and communication network to tie the departments together, as well as a standard building code in all communities to provide adequate and accessible fire hydrants in new sub-divisions.

Just about everybody involved agreed that the jury's criticisms were true.

School officials admitted there were fire hazards "which are being corrected."

Fire department officials said in some cases hose from one city's trucks can't be connected to hydrants in another municipality.

And home and property owners looked again at their fire insurance bills which show a spread of as much as $17 a year between low-premium Miami and Coral Gables, and the high-rated unincorporated area of Dade County.

The Grand Jury's special investigation was prompted by the Chicago school fire and followed a series of articles in The Herald last December pointing up dangerous conditions in schools, night clubs and homes for children.

Public Safety Director Thomas Kelly's office said Tuesday, "We're trying to bring the county fire department up to minimum standards before we ask for a consolidation, and there's a lot to be done."

The jurors' report noted that an inadequate number of county fire stations make it impossible for firemen to reach some schools and buildings before the blaze has a big headway.

It would take 25 minutes, for example, for the nearest county fire truck to reach Key Biscayne Elementary School.

There are only 10 such trucks and fire stations in the county, spread out from Sunny Isles on the north to Homestead on the south, and from the west city limit of Miami to the Dade County line in the Everglades.

Twenty-one trucks and stations are needed, according to Kelly, and 344 more men to raise the present staff of 64 to 408.

The county's present equipment is so limited it cannot fight a fire in any building more than two stories high.

A Sharp Deal

He Wants Trip for His Beard

Leo Hernandez, 31, who says he raised his two-month-old beard as "a symbol of democracy and freedom," now wants to cut it off for fun and profit.

SHAVED?

Hernandez says he is dickering with a nationally known razor company for an all-expense tour of this country in return for permitting them to put him to the blade in a television commercial.

"I've always used their razor — when I used a razor," said Rebel Hernandez, who is now living at 1510 SW 27th Ave.

What will he do if the deal with his life-long razor company — which is still in the talking stages — falls through?

It's 2 True: Parade's Set

It's official—the twins will march again. Circuit Judge Marshal C. Wiseheart Tuesday signed a charter allowing Dade's Mothers of Twins Club to hold their fourth annual Easter Sunday Twins' Parade in Miami.

Boat Fans Gun For a Record

Miami's 18th annual International Boat Show will be shooting for a new attendance record when it winds up its six-day exhibit today at Dinner Key Auditorium.

Tuesday's 14,895 persons zoomed total attendance to 94,596. Last year's final figure was 105,000.

This year's show, open from 1 p.m. to 11 p.m., has been averaging 19,000 daily admissions.

Jailer Lima Has Resigned

Mahuel Lima, a county jailer for the past five years, has resigned, Ray Starling, personnel chief for the Metro Public Safety department, said Tuesday.

Starling said Lima was not fired after an argument with Jailer Charles Wood. Wood was dismissed.

Lima submitted his letter of resignation to Public Safety Director Tom Kelly on Feb. 17, giving continued night work as the reason for his leaving the job.

Garbage Pile Stumps Two Retired Teachers
. . . Theodosia Bay and Marie Soley survey littered lot

Their Dream Home Plans A-Rustin'

By PHIL MEYER
Herald Staff Writer

A pile of garbage and some rusty cans Tuesday stood between two northern school teachers and their South Dade retirement dream house.

Marie Louise Soley and Theodosia C. Bay moved here from New York in December, planning to build their house on 2½ pine-covered acres they had purchased near Princeton in 1956. They had drawn the plans, hired a builder, made a deal with a landscaper.

Then they drove out to see the property for the first time in a year and a half. Something had been added.

Oil cans, corn cobs, worn-out tires, decaying egg cartons, and a rusty pail or two were strewn along Tower Dr. leading to their home site north of SW 248 St. Flies buzzed around.

Miss Soley and Miss Bay shelved the plans, fired the builder, canceled the deal with the landscaper.

"We just don't know what to do and how to stop it," said Miss Soley. "I wrote to the county manager and he referred me to the health department.

"Me?" she said. "An old lady who walks with two canes?"

Metro Sanitation Director Louis F. Westbrook said he'd asked the Public Works Department to put up some signs, but it might be a while.

"There's a lot of demand right now for 'No Dumping' signs," he said.

Waste Superintendent Harris Buckner said the demand was due to the low garbage tax which does not make trash pick-ups possible. An ordinance to fix all that is in the works, he said.

Miss Soley and Miss Bay are going to wait, but they're not holding their breath. They made a deposit on a house in a Kendall development so they'll have a place to live while keeping an eye on all that garbage.

"We're not giving up hope altogether," said Miss Soley. "We'll just wait a few years and see what happens."

Suspects In Cowart Theft Eyed

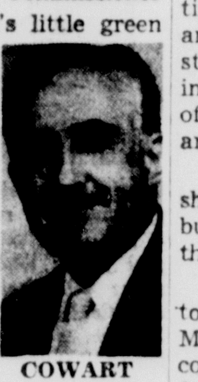
Miami police said Tuesday they had a good lead on who stole County Commissioner Faris N. Cowart's little green box — containing $6,500 in cash and $15,000 in stocks — but have been stymied in efforts to get the suspects to confess.



COWART

Although the suspects were not named, detectives intimated that the thieves had been inside Cowart's home several times before the valuable box was stolen Feb. 8.

Police said they do not yet have enough information to arrest the suspects.

Meanwhile, Cowart, who took the loss with a grim smile and an explanation that he "rarely" kept so much money around the house, reported that the $6,500 cash bundle was not insured.

"I recall now that I discussed insuring the money but decided not to because I was going to have it with me for only a short time," Cowart said.

At the time of the theft, Cowart, who had been in Cuba on a pleasure trip, said $5,000 of the money was intended for his 70-year-old mother as part of a legacy left in Cowart's trust by his late father.

"He left the money with me while he was still alive," Cowart said.

The commissioner also said he had applied for new stock certificates to replace the non-negotiable stock also taken with the box.

He said the stocks included 2,000 shares from the American Life Savings Insurance Co., of which he is treasurer, and blocks from two other companies, the names of which he could not remember.

Unionists Vow Hoffa Battle

Dade Men Admit He's Strong Foe

By DOM BONAFEDE
Herald Staff Writer

Dade County labor leaders indicated Tuesday the Teamsters Union will have a fight on its hands when it begins full-scale organizational operations here as pledged by President Jimmy Hoffa.

They frankly admitted, however, that the powerful and wealthy Teamsters would be a formidable foe in a rough-and-tumble labor battle.

Hoffa, who is meeting with the Teamsters executive council at Miami Beach, Tuesday cited Florida as "fertile land" for union activity, particularly Dade and Broward counties and the citrus belt in central part of the state.

M. W. Miller, Teamsters Southeastern Conference chairman, who will direct the Florida campaign, declared:

"If we're going to organize Florida we have to organize Miami."

Dade labor chiefs reacted with grim determination when informed of the Teamsters drive.

"They wouldn't be welcomed. Eighty per cent of the unions in the state would be opposed to them," remarked Frank Roche, president of the Florida Federation of Labor.

"It isn't easy to organize in Florida," he added. "But Hoffa has unlimited cash and brass behind him."

Lee Tafel, business representative of the Dade County and Municipal Employes Association, reported his union "will fight Hoffa down the line."

Henry Feinstein, New York City Teamsters official, announced Monday that the union was making a pitch for county and municipal workers here.

Tafel warned Tuesday:

"The politicians will regret the day the Teamsters move in. But you can't blame the workers for turning to them the way they are treated by the county and city commissioners."

He claimed wages for county and municipal workers in Dade were below par and that reprisals are frequently handed out for union activity.

Hoffa said he will "spend whatever money is necessary and supply sufficient organizers to do a job here."

Miller told The Herald:

"If our progress continues and our reception is good, we should double our membership in Florida within five years."

Current Teamsters' rolls in the state list more than 15,000 members, one third of which belong to the three Miami locals, Miller said.

"We're here to organize any unorganized workers in our jurisdiction," he added. "There is no one industry we are more intersted in more than any other."

Miller, whose headquarters are in Dallas, said the Teamsters "have encountered some resistance here but Miami is fairly liberal; we're going to lose some elections but we'll do all right in the end."

Strap Strangles Baby in Playpen

By EDDIE GONG
Herald Staff Writer

A two-year-old girl strangled to death Tuesday when a webcloth strap attached to her portable playpen apparently entwined around her neck as she took a morning nap.

Dead was Barbara Kaye, daughter of Mrs. Alvin Kaye, visiting in North Miami.

Mrs. Kaye had put her daughter to bed in the bedroom of her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kaye, 585 NE 140th St., North Miami, at 11:30 a.m. and went to do the family wash.

She returned an hour later to find the strap, used to secure the pen to the bed, wrapped around the neck of the child.

Mrs. Kaye, several months pregnant, quickly loosened the strap, picked up her daughter and ran to the neighboring home of Mrs. Janet Rogers, of 575 NE 140th St.

Mrs. Rogers called North Miami Police who rushed a patrol car and a rescue squad to the Rogers' house.

Efforts to revive the baby with a resuscitator failed. She was pronounced dead by a doctor at 1:15 p.m.

The tragic death came just a day before Mrs. Kaye and Barbara were to return to their home in Saratoga, N.Y., after a short vacation here.

North Miami police said Kaye is a pharmacist in Saratoga. Mrs. Kaye and her daughter had been here since Feb. 12.

Here's Odds On Metro -- Six-to-Four

County Manager O. W. Campbell quotes odds on Metro government's chances for eventual success in a magazine article due on the stands next week.

And the odds aren't too good. It's 60-40 Metro will succeed in Dade County, Campbell told an interviewer for U. S. News and World Report.

The two-page article says Metro leaders are treading cautiously, not using all the powers granted under their charter, as they sink the roots for the new form of municipal government.

Gasoline Price Wars May Face Federal Crackdown

Dow Jones, AP, UPI, N.Y. Times

The stage was set Tuesday for a possible crackdown on gasoline price wars started by major fuel companies.

A Federal Trade Commission examiner issued a tentative order forbidding Pure Oil Co. from cutting gasoline prices in any market where it competes with other brands unless proportionate cuts are made throughout its sales territory.

In Chicago, a spokesman for Pure Oil said, "We disagree with the adverse findings of the hearing examiner and have already filed an appeal to the full commission."

If the FTC adopts the order, it will mark the government's first attack on geographic price discrimination in the gasoline industry. FTC officials said such an order could lead to similar action against discriminatory price-cutting by other major companies.

Detroit Firm Picks Broad A Director

Miami financier Shepard Broad Tuesday was elected to the Board of Directors of Bohn Aluminum and Brass Corp. at the firm's annual stockholder's meeting in Detroit.

Broad is President and Chairman of the Board of the American Savings, Building and Loan Assn. of Miami Beach. He also is on the Board of Directors of Mercantile National Bank of Miami Beach and is a founder of the North Shore Bank.

The financier is co-founder of Bay Harbor Islands and has served as its Mayor for the past 11 years.

Bohn Aluminum & Brass Corporation is a 20-million dollar firm engaged in the manufacture of products for the automotive, rail engine, refrigeration, air conditioning and building fields.

How Can He Beat Inflation On a Policeman's Salary?

Third of a Series

By STAN JOHNSON
Herald Business Writer

As he stands in the intersection of NE 1st St. and Miami Ave. directing traffic, Patrolman Ralph L. Martin glances occasionally at the window of a nearby shoe store.

Displayed are a pair of heavy-soled brogans like the ones he wears out every six months. The price tag says $14.95. Martin remembers that he paid $7.50 for the same shoes in 1949.

Looking back over the past 10 years, most skilled workers or professional men can subtract a 22 per cent increase in the cost of living from the percentage of increase in their income and come up with a healthy balance that represents a higher standard of living.

This is not true of Patrolman Martin or of millions of others who have government or white collar jobs, fixed incomes or pensions.

Since 1949, Martin's salary as a patrolman has risen 27 per cent — from $4,188 to $5,304.

In the same period, the union scale for journeyman electricians has risen 40 per cent —from $2.50 to $3.50 per hour.

Nearly half of Martin's increase is a result of longevity boosts — rewards for his 17 years with the Miami Police Department and for his greater experience in his work.

Cost of living raises have added only 16 per cent to Martin's paycheck in 10 years, but living costs have gone up 22 per cent.

At the same time, his children have become teenagers and are more expensive to feed, clothe and educate.

Now 44, Martin worries about saving money to send his son to college and to provide for himself and his wife when he retires on a modest pension at the age of 55.

"We can't save," says Mrs. Martin. "It seems as though everytime we get a little put aside, someone gets sick and we have to spend our savings."

Martin says he wouldn't be able to make ends meet were it not for a part-time job at a dog track which brings in about $800 a year.

A large number of government employes in the Miami area either have part-time jobs or working wives.

Although Martin's salary is $442 a month, his take-home pay is only about $285 a month.

The state pension program in which he participates takes $30 a month out of his wages. When this money is paid back to him after retirement, it will be worth considerably less than it is now.

The Internal Revenue Service has estimated that if inflation continues at the present rate, it will take an income of $10,538 in 1975 to equal the purchasing power of a $4,000 income in 1958.

How can Martin improve his lot?

If he leaves his job now, he sacrifices 17 years toward a $200-a-month pension.

"There's been some talk about allowing a partial pension after 20 years of service. If this happens, I could leave the force in three years and look for a better-paying job outside," he said.

In the meantime, he'll go on watching the shoe store window and hoping that his income will rise at least as rapidly as the cost of the shoes he must buy.

Travel Expenses Easier to Deduct

By SYLVIA PORTER
(In collaboration with The Research Institute of America)

The Treasury flashed some good news in 1958 to businessmen who like to combine pleasure with their business trips. It is going to be more lenient about allowing you to deduct the travel expenses than it originally had indicated.

SYLVIA

The problem usually comes up in one of two ways. You may go on a trip which obviously is for business purposes and then work in some merely incidental pleasure activities. Or you may go on a trip which is just the reverse — primarily a pleasure jaunt involving some incidental business activities.

When your principal goal is business, there is no problem. You can deduct all your travel expenses except your spending on pleasure. If, for instance, you spend money for local sightseeing or nightclubing during off business hours, you can't deduct those outlays, but all your other travel expenses are deductible.

* * *

SUPPOSE, THOUGH, you plan a two-week vacation which also includes a two-day business convention in the same city. Although the expenses of a vacation trip aren't deductible, can you deduct some part of your living expenses in the city because you attend the two-day business convention?

At first, the Treasury said you couldn't deduct anything if the trip was primarily for pleasure, but in 1958 it finally relented a bit. You can't deduct any of the expenses of traveling to and from your destination when the trip is primarily for pleasure, but you can deduct that part of your expenses at the destination which can be allocated to whatever incidental business activities you carry on while there.

In other words, if you spend two days of your two-week vacation attending a business convention, you can deduct living costs for those two days.

While this represents a liberalized Treasury view, the odds are the courts will be even more liberal. If, say, you spend 10 per cent of our vacation attending a business convention, why shouldn't you be able to deduct 10 per cent of your travel costs to and from the vacation-convention city in addition to 10 per cent of your costs while there?

* * *

SEVERAL 1958 court cases indicate the Treasury will in practice let a taxpayer deduct part of his travel expenses for a trip taken primarily for pleasure, even though the new rule says "no."

Of course, you can't push this combined business-pleasure deal to a point obscuring the business aspects of the trip. Thus, when another doctor took a European trip for pleasure and made a few side trips to visit hospitals professionally, the Treasury allowed him only a noninal deduction for travel expenses.

* * *

WHAT ABOUT a business trip on which you take your wife? If you go from New York to the West Coast on business and your wife accompanies you, can you deduct only half your combined travel expenses? Not necessarily.

You may be able to deduct more than half because the Treasury will let you deduct what it would have cost you if you had traveled alone and this can add up to well over half your expenses.

You might travel under a family plan which costs less than two regular fares; you might stay in a $12 a day double room whereas a single room would cost $9.

Despite these lower actual costs, the Treasury will permit you to deduct one full travel fare and the $9 a day costs.

PAA Jets Will Fly Latin Run

Pan American World Airways said Tuesday it will inaugurate jet passenger service in April to Caracas, Venezuela, Asuncion, Paraguay, and Buenos Aires, Argentina.

The flights will be made from New York and cut present travel time in half.

The Buenos Aires schedule will be reduced from 24 to 12 hours, and the New York-Asuncion run, which once required 25½ hours on a roundabout route, will take only 10 hours.

PAA jet flights from Miami to Latin American points "still are in the distant future," company officials said.

The company plans to add Rio de Janeiro and Sao Paulo to its jet schedule after runways are extended in those cities sometime in 1960.

Pan American will be the first U.S. airline offering jet service to South America. An Argentine line, Aerolineas Argentina, plans to fly a North and South American jet schedule this spring with British Comets.

The Pan American service to Venezuela, Paraguay and Argentina will be in addition to PAA's transatlantic jet schedule.

Boeing 707's for the Latin American run will come first from the PAA fleet now leased to National Airlines for its seasonal New York-Miami flights, and later from the additional plans on order from the manufacturer.

The airline already serves most of South America with piston-engine aircraft, but dropped Asuncion in 1946 after Brazil withdrew permission to fly over its territory to the Paraguayan capital.

Industry Off, Italy Reports

PENZANCE, England — (UPI)— The president of the National Dairymen's Assn. of England says the quality of British milk is head and shoulders above American milk.

"We have confidence that we sell milk in the way God intended it to be drunk — as it comes from the cow," R. Good said in an address to a dairymen's dinner here.

Good, recently returned from a tour of the American milk industry, said he has found that the English dairy industry is better run and that the public here showed greater responsibility in dealing with the bottles.

"In America the average life of the milk bottle is 24 journeys. In England it is 64," he said. "America is full of gimmicks."

"They take out a little fat here and put in a little vitamin there," Good said. "In England we have faith in our product."

Nickel Paper Fading

NEW YORK — (UPI) — Fewer and fewer daily newspapers can be bought for a nickel, the American Newspaper Publishers Association reported.

Its latest survey showed that of 1,717 English language papers reporting, 1,000 were selling for a nickel. In 1958, 1,135 sold for a nickel and in 1957 the number was 1,328. In 1951 records showed there were 1,594 selling for 5 cents.

The ANPA reported the number of papers priced at 7 to 10 cents a copy had been increasing.

The ANPA also said that newspapers reporting to the Association used 394,908 tons of newsprint last month. This represented an increase of 2.3 per cent more than in January 1958.

'End Phone Tax' Move Is Growing

By BILL BECK
Delray Bureau Chief

DELRAY BEACH—It would be hard to find anyone who doesn't want to whack 10 per cent off his monthly tlephone bill.

cent off his monthly telephone companies throughout the country are experiencing success in a move to force the repeal of the 10 per cent federal excise tax on telephone service.

Florida customers of Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Co. last year paid more than 11.4 million dollars in federal excise taxes.

In seeking repeal of the tax, the phone companies are causing Congress to be bombarded with resolutions from municipalities, Chambers of Commerce and civic clubs.

What Ted Ruskin, the local manager, is doing is being done all over the country.

Ruskin's pitch — and it's the same everywhere — is that telephone service is the only household utility on which a federal excise tax is levied. There's no comparable tax on power, water or gas service.

Ruskin tells telephone users, and nearly everyone qualifies to be in that department, that the tax was instituted in 1941 as a temporary emergency measure and has never been repealed.

"Excise taxes normally apply to such luxury items as furs, jewelry, cosmetics, liquor, tobacco, cabaret bills and private club dues," said Ruskin. "But, the telephone today is a necessity rather than a luxury."

The Chambers of Commerce here and in Boynton Beach, as well as the Boynton Beach City Commission, have adopted resolutions calling for repeal of the levy. Various clubs and municipal governments here and in neighboring communities are expected to follow suit within the next few weeks.

Prodding them on is the telephone company's promise that if the tax is repealed, the customers will get all of the benefit, "directly and immediately."

Coppers, Chemicals In Gains

NEW YORK—The stock market hurdled some profit taking and chalked up another record high in the popular averages Tuesday.

Pivotal issues were up from fractions to more than a point but enough losses were shown in the same range to make the advance irregular.

A few stocks made wide gains, among them Thiokol, up 9¼ to 121, and Zenith, up 9 to 201. Kennecott starred with a gain of 3 7-8 amid a generally higher copper group.

Taking off from the historic peak it established Friday, the market made great strides at the start when the ticker tape was behind transactions for most of the first hour.

Coppers and chemicals were the sturdiest gainers. Tobaccos as well as an assortment of aircrafts, electronics and electrical equipments also rose. Oils were weak.

Studebaker - Packard was the most active stock, off 1 3-8 at 11 7-8 on 167,200 shares. Second was American Motors, off 1⅛ at 29 on 99,000 shares. Third was Standard Oil (New Jersey), off ½ at 51¼ on 64,600 shares.

American Stock Exchange prices were irregular on volume of 2,030,000 shares compared with 1,870,000 on Friday.

Advice to a Young Shrimp
If you want to get on in the world you need a lot of ambition. So prepare to go places ...be introduced into polite society, and you may even end up with a title...such as a LUAU Shrimp Special. When next you hear the Shrimp boats coming, remember, you're practically on your way to fame!... So think big...you're really quite a dish at LUAU.

Nightlife with George Bourke

Shirley Jones, Cassidy to Star in Florida Musical Next Month

SHIRLEY JONES and husband Jack Cassidy, recently headlined at the Fontainebleau Hotel La Ronde room, will be back in Florida in March to play the leads in what is hoped will be a pre-Broadway warm-up for a new musical, "Pound in Your Pocket." . . . Lillian Claughton, who sat next to Van Heflin at a recent luncheon here, has bid in his newest film, "Tempest" for her Trail Theater. Silvana Mangano is co-starred . . . Apologies: We didn't intend to offend when we referred to "St. Patrick's Day" as "Paddy's Day." After all, the Bourkes are descended from the Kings of Ireland. The Red Earl was a forebear.

Philip Carey, who was better known as Gene Carey when he played in "As You Like It" at the University of Miami Ring Theater (same attraction currently playing) is to play the title role in the "Philip Marlowe" TV series.

* * *

'Havana Story' Stars Named

ALLISON HAYES and Cameron Mitchell have the leads in "The Havana Story" which is about you-know-what . . . Do you wanna buy Ellis Island? No, this isn't a gag to go with the sale of the Brooklyn Bridge to recently arrived immigrants some years ago. Bid actually will be opened on March 9 for the island and buildings known as "The Gateway to Freedom." We somehow feel Paul Muni should buy it. Must be because of some film we once saw . . . National jets Milton Berle, Cyd Charisse and Tony Martin to town today at 11:40 a.m.

"Newcomers of 1928" might be headed for Broadway after its last stand at the Deauville Hotel Casanova but for several reasons. One of them is that two of the members haven't been happy about billing and kindred factors . . . United Artists' Dave Picker, dining at Place for Steak, assured P-for-S host-greeter Sammy Walsh that his part in "A Hole in the Head" had been spared from the cutting room floor.

Don't ask us for the names right off but Tempest Storm, the major league body displayer at Riot Room, has been featured in several films. One was produced by Bertha Klausner, we believe . . . Libby Langford, not Frances, is the singing lass now in the Albion Lounge . . . "Company of Artists" is the high-sounding name under which movie producer Jerry Wald has just incorporated for "the business of making motion pictures." Wonder if "Three in a Room" or some other Miami Beach movie will be made under the new banner.

'MFL' Tickets Available Now

WATCH THOSE cans, fellers. Some of the brewers (West Coast of USA, for the present) are making the beer can smaller in lieu of making the price larger . . . "My Fair Lady" theater tickets are becoming regularly available at box-office prices at last . . . And the price of a New York Stock Exchange seat is down too. Latest quotation — as of last week was $120,000. They could sell lots if the price was cut to $95,000. That is the current everyday "bid" price.

Incidentally, Wall Street Journal recently ran ad for an "arbitrage trainee." Okay, so we didn't know either. It's a stock broker who deals in the same stock on different exchanges simultaneously and can make a profit!

Confidentially . . .

They're Saying:

THAT three Miami area hotels which have had operational headaches, plus one motel, may become specialized "health club" operations next season . . . THAT the principals in a recent highly involved business deal failed to notice that their contracts didn't say anything about "cheerful refunds." . . . THAT Jack Anderson, Herald TV-radio editor, will find many ready to take part of his bet that Ed Murrow is headed for NBC. And proselytizing alone didn't do it! . . . THAT eight strike-bound ships bought by Batista government from Canadian National last August may never fly the star and bars of Cuba. Canadian Marine Workers Union wants them back now. And Castro is reported opposed to a government-operated merchant fleet.

Songwriter Joe E. "I Wonder Who's Kissing Her Now" Howard, of Fort Lauderdale, will appear with his son on the Ed Sullivan show on March 8 . . .

'Treasure Hunters' to TV?

THE LINCOLN SQUARE Publishing Corp has a new "one-shot" magazine headed for the stands under the tag of "The Best of Brigitte Bardot." And, printer, watch the spelling . . . Pat Powell Arnstein, wife of Danny A., may make a TV pilot film for a series called "Treasure Hunters" in Florida under 20th Century-Fox auspices . . . Al Burnett, London cafe operator, who won the English Greyhound Derby with a canine named "Pigalle Wonder" will be on tap for the reopening of Biscayne Kennel Club on Friday.

Amusements

Sam Cohen and Morris Lansburgh plan to keep the Casanova Room of the Deauville Hotel closed until the Mar. 13 opening of Jerry Lewis when "Newcomers of 1928" run ends. But there'll be no lull at the hotel in the interim. Mandy Campo band and the Fletcher Peck Trio will hold out at the Musketeer Room and Zig and Vivian Baker will have their fascinating "Tunes and Balloons" routines in the Cyrano Lounge. And the big star shows will continue for guests only in the Cavalcade Theater.

Band Concert

John Keston, tenor, will be the featured soloist at tonight's concert by Caesar La Monaca and his band in Bayfront Park bandshell. Gordon Shaw will narrate the program, which opens at 7:45.

Broadway Star Maureen Stapleton Has String of Fears

She's a 'Good, Sensible, Neurotic Girl'

By HAL BOYLE
Associated Press Columnist

Maureen Stapleton
. . . 'I hate housekeeping'

NEW YORK — There is very little Maureen Stapleton can't do well on a stage.

And — to hear her tell it — there is practically nothing she can do well offstage.

"I can't cook," she said. "I keep having this nightmare of waking up some morning and hearing my husband say, 'How about cooking some coffee and toast?'

"And I hate housekeeping. My dream house is one you don't have to clean or dust at all. You just take a hose and wash it down."

Miss Stapleton, who has hazel eyes and a shoulder-length mop of midnight-colored hair, has been called the "American Anna Magnani." She is rated one of Broadway's finest actresses, and is noted for her ability to play powerful, emotional roles.

But in real life, Maureen insists, she is weak as water and afraid of practically everything. She was so afraid that for a long time she slept with a knife and scissors under her pillow for protection.

"Now I'm getting better — I keep them in a drawer," she said. "I'm just a good, sensible neurotic girl."

"What am I afraid of?" she asked. "You name it — literally everything.

"Basically, I guess I just have no faith in the machine age. My husband told me, 'Once they made the wheel, you were in trouble.' And it's true.

"I don't like high buildings. I'm afraid something will fall off one of them and hit me. I hate planes. I've only flown once. I hate trains and cars, too. So it's kind of tough for me to get through 24 hours.

Maureen, a native of Troy, N.Y., worked as a night clerk in the Hotel New Yorker here while waiting for Broadway to discover her. She hit stardom in the Tennessee Williams play, "The Rose Tattoo."

Now she's about the busiest girl in town. She recently finished her first film, "Lonelyhearts." She is currently starring on Broadway in "The Cold Wind and the Warm," and rehearsing the part of Pilar in a television version of Ernest Hemingway's Spanish Civil War tragedy, "For Whom the Bell Tolls." It will be produced on "Playhouse 90" next month.

"I like to keep working," said Maureen. "I'm very disciplined as an actress—but not in any other way."

One of the things she isn't disciplined about is dieting. She loves food, says she can't really imagine how anyone ever really could get tired of eating.

"My real ambition, from the age of 6, was to be Jean Harlow — but alive," she said. "That's what first got me into this ratrace.

"Now it's beginning to look like I won't make it. I'm too fat. It's hard to look glamorous when you weigh in at 155."

WALTER WINCHELL

Critics Helped Noel Coward Write Better

IN THE THEATER turkey-carving is a form of savagery rather than festivity. And there is no reason for gratitude. It signifies failure with all of its terrifying consequences — from bankruptcy to broken hearts. For those directly involved in the ghastly experience, it is the ultimate in torment. One playwright compared it to "under-going surgery without an anesthetic." Another slightly more lyrical dramatist described the terror of a flopalooza as "being swallowed by a black sea." Many victims of theatrical disasters promptly dash to headshrinkers. Others seek to soothe the terror by soaking themselves in alcohol. Last season, a star dropped 25 pounds in a week. The no-notices simply paralyzed his appetite.

Noel Coward undimmed

* * *

IN RETROSPECT, some hardy souls accept the death sentences for their brain children with equanimity — and even humor. Noel Coward insists that the attacks of reviewers early in his career jolted him into improving his creative efforts. He penned an essay generously thanking his critics . . . Producer Bernard Hart stayed away from Sardi's for a week after being hammered by reviewers. He finally appeared with strips of adhesive tape plastered across his face. On each strip was written the name of a critic.

Mike Todd undaunted

* * *

THERE ARE certain quicksilver aspects in the theater which defy rational analysis. It is replete with intangibles. Nobody can guarantee a hit. You can be certain you have a successful show — only after it succeeds . . . Herman Levin, who produced "My Fair Lady," has had his share of failures. He recently wrote: 'It occurs to me that we producers are too prone to apologize for our taste. If I could pick hits accurately and consistently, I'd eliminate backers entirely, and taxes be damned. The backer who complains because a producer has hooked him in a flop is probably a guy who just invested $200,000 in sack dresses. What about his taste and judgment in his own field?"

Katharine Hepburn . . unbeaten

* * *

DESPITE the uncertainties, some unwritten but perceptible laws aid show folks. Although they may be devastated by failure, they are rarely defeated. Call it self-deception — or a form of absurdity — but survival demands being motivated by a hard-core of optimism. Amidst the storm the gallant grease-painters can see the sun. Hope remains supreme . . . Mike Todd personified such enduring aspiration. After being involved in three straight flops, he observed cheerfully: "Failure never stopped me from thinking of success. Too many people think with their pocketbooks. And when you think with your pocketbook, you're wondering what you cannot do instead of what you can do. Once you're doing that, you're never going to succeed."

* * *

A dramatist once bitterly commented: "How the average playwright reacts to turkey served out of season is as personal as the razor he is tempted to pull across his throat on the morning after." Undoubtedly, others imprisoned in flops have had similar wild thoughts. Time, however, tends to make victims more philosophical. Robert Sherwood noted: "Failure is a way of gaining experience."

* * *

THE THEATER requires numerous general qualifications. One, however, is essential: Perserverance. There is hardly a success saga without a chapter of failure. As a case in point, there's the actress who appeared in a series of flops and was fired from the casts of two shows. One reviewer scorned her as "something that escaped from a tomb." Despite the rebuffs, she secured a minor role in "The Warrior's Husband" and attracted Hollywood's attention . . . Katie Hepburn.

* * *

A LONG-AGO STAR argued that performers should adopt a form of self-hypnosis: "If a first night audience grazes an actor, he must view it with pitying kindness. His failure must be more than forgotten. It never happened." There is a certain amount of wisdom to the foregoing admonition. Several months before Robert Preston clicked in "The Music Man," he was involved in a quick flop . . . The Laurence Olivier-Vivien Leigh "Romeo and Juliet" (some seasons ago) not only collected dismal reviews, but the stars sank their savings in the production. The following season both starred in hits.

Miami Woman's Ex-Pupil Wins

Soprano Geraldine Weber of St. Louis, Mo., a former pupil of Kate Moe, now head of the Miami Conservatory vocal department, has just won the regional Metropolitan Auditions of the Air in St. Louis.

Opening Today

Additions to the Greater Miami entertainment scene slated for today will include the following:

THE JOURNEY — Yul Brynner and Deborah Kerr in a dynamic love story amid the suspenseful background of the Hungarian revolt. Filmed in Austria in color. At Paramount, Colony, Coral.

* * *

REMARKABLE MR. PENNYPACKER — Clifton Webb in a comedy depicting the remarkable feat of a man living with two families simultaneously. Dorothy McGuire and Jill St. John featured. Color. At Carib, Miami and Miracle.

* * *

* * *

EDEN ROC HOTEL — Tony Martin and company, plus dancers Augie and Margo in the Cafe Pompeii . . . LATIN QUARTER — Jimmy Durante to headline Sky High revue, with Sonny King, Sally Davis, Jack Roth, Jules Buffano . . . RIOT ROOM — Tempest Storm and the body beautiful in policy change . . . GALA — Singer Carol Knight . . . MONTE CARLO — Roulette Room reopens, with music of Bob Novack's band, plus George Hopkins as tonight only guest star.

* * *

If the mercury dips below 70°

It's a standing offer: any day the temperature sneaks below a balmy 70°, we tear up the room bill!

A sporting proposition? Right!—after all, this Caribbean isle has seen it happen three times in the past five years.

We'll go even further—we'll watch the thermometer for you, leaving you entirely free to sample all the other pleasures of life here in the Dominican Republic.

You can laze around where Columbus sun-bathed, shop for free-port bargains, build muscles on golf course and tennis court, build character in the gaming casino.

Or, if you prefer, you can just enjoy being spoiled silly in either of the island's two fine Intercontinental Hotels, El Jaragua and El Embajador.

Both offer you nightly floor shows that are out of this world. Both offer you daily frolics in the sun, nightly flings at the hotel gaming tables (and, win or lose, you can bet your bottom peso that the casinos and the company are first-rate!).

Both offer you accommodations and cuisine that are definitely New World. Both operate in the finest Old World innkeeping tradition of receiving and entertaining guests kindly and generously!

It all adds up to the greatest vacation under the sun — and rooms are available right now—at rates so reasonable you can't afford to stay home. Rooms start at $7.00 and $9.00* a day. Consult your travel agent or call Intercontinental Hotels at FRanklin 1-6661 in Miami.

Italian Musicians Bounce With Tone

By DORIS RENO
Herald Music Editor

Music Review

The 12 young Italian musicians who play under the name of I Musici hurried to Miami by bus from Clearwater at 7 p.m. Tuesday, and at 8:30 sat down and played about the most exciting concert Friends of Chamber Music have heard in the four years of the series' existence. The concert was in White Temple auditorium.

Of all the Italian chamber ensembles playing today — and they are numerous — I Musici has the richest and most glowing string-tone, and plays with the largest quota of healthy exuberance circumscribed only by the confines of perfect taste and true elegance.

These nine young men and three young women, who perform without benefit of conductor, play with a unique combination of refinement and bounce which is irresistible.

When they play early music, such as the three Vivaldi concerti which made up the first half of the program, their playing is ingratiating as to tone, lucid as to conception, perfectly balanced as to ensemble, and extraordinarily fresh and vivid, as though the music had been created only yesterday.

The B-flat Major Concerto for Violin, Cello, Strings and Cembalo emerged as clean and forceful as an ocean breeze; the personality of the composer came through strongly. The vigorous conversations between solo violin (Felix Ayo) and solo cello (Vincenzo Altobelli) were completely enchanting.

The other two Vivaldi works, a Concerto in C Minor for Strings and Cembalo, and a Concerto Grosso in A minor, were equally engaging, and the whole group won the enthusiastic listeners so entirely that they were stamping and shouting approval even before the intermission.

The second half was contemporary, consisting of a Concerto Lirico for violin and strings by the performers' countryman Valentino Bucchi, and the delightful Simple Symphony by the British composer Benjamin Britten.

The Bucchi work, with Robert Michelucci as soloist, was dissonant and somewhat nervous, but vital and listenable, and the audience — though not quite so boisterous about it — seemed to like it. They adored the Britten, which is charming and tangy and wonderfully constructed.

For the encores I Musici returned to the classics, performing a Mozart Fugue in C Minor and the Presto from Mozart's Divertimento in D.

At the end the players got just about the biggest ovation that Friends of Chamber Music, the most warmly responsive audience in town, have ever given any group.

ROME — (AP) — Italy, France and the United States turn out the most morally unacceptable movies in the opinion of the Italian Catholic Cinema Center.

The center, which appraises films for Italian Roman Catholics, judged only 11 per cent of those shown in Italy in 1958 suitable for audiences of both children and adults.

Sun Shawns Bright For 'Charley's Aunt'

By GEORGE BOURKE
Herald Amusement Editor

Drama Review

Next to "Who Is Sylvia?" it is likely that show business's best known query of this century in the past decade is that of "Where's Charley?" The reference, of course, is to the George Abbott - Frank Loesser musical adaptation of the Brandon Thomas ever-blooming comedy, "Charley's Aunt."

The answer which the title provokes is that "Charley" may currently be found at George Engle's Coconut Grove Playhouse. And since you are probably more concerned right now with the "How?" of cafe and TV variety star Dick Shawn's debut in a stage musical we report with great pleasure that "Charley" was never more lovely nor livelier nor Dick more hilariously entertaining.

It is a delightful and grand two hours you'll spend keeping up with the whereabouts of Charley—and Dick—at the Grove, in a production that is sparkling in most of its facets and which breathes new life into the unlikely situation of a student at Oxford (Charley) who masquerades as his own aunt, a supposed biddy of great wealth, who had been counted upon to chaperone Charley and his roommate at a "high tea" in their rooms.

Shawn is superb in his marathon of mirth which has him switching from nephew to "aunt." As the bewigged, cigar-smoking masquerader, Shawn never stoops to objectional swishing. He is coy and enticing in scenes where the conniving guardian of the girl he loves must be compromised, but always his masculinity is in evidence.

Of course, the characterization is one that allows for a shining through of Shawn's own personality, and Dick doesn't fight against it.

The result is a tremendous triumph for Shawn—but one that is not won at the expense of the author's intent or the performance rights of his fellow actors.

Elizabeth Allen and Gloria Lambert as the visiting maidens are excellent in action and voice; Miss Lambert particularly in "The Woman in His Room" and Miss Allen in several duets with her vis-a-vis, Allan Gilbert, who is a bulwark of support especially vocally, as the roommate.

Phil Leeds, is hilarious as the bewitched and bedeviled guardian, while Claude Horton is as effective in a more sympathetic, albeit more reserved, role as a sir in search of a rich wife. As the authentic "aunt" Marijane Maricle offers the best voice of the production.

Dancing specialties by Cliff Ferre, former member of the Dunhills who doubles from a fine portrayal as the butler, Jack Ackerman, of the dance team of Conn and Mann, Ray Malone, Gene Foote, Adrienne Bourbeau and a fine corps assembled and directed by Lee Sherman, and vocal assists by Pat Sayers, Dugan Miller, Maurice Burns (doubling as a drama coach) Candi Scott, Sally Merridge, Luanne Winters, Salwa Abrams and others help in the over-all success.

Levying Powers Boosted

High Court Gives States Tax 'Break'

WASHINGTON — (UPI) — The Supreme Court gave a big boost Tuesday to states seeking to safeguard or increase their share of the taxpayer's tax dollar.

It handed down a series of decisions strengthening the hand of the states in tax disputes and upholding their right to levy taxes on businesses.

The court, returning from a four-week recess, upheld 6 to 3 the right of Georgia and Minnesota to levy income taxes on out-of-state firms whose business within their borders consists solely of taking orders.

In the Georgia case, the court overturned a decision by the State Supreme Court which had held the tax unconstitutional. In both cases, the high court held the states could collect taxes from firms which had sales offices in Georgia and Minnesota and offices and factories elsewhere.

California and Pennsylvania supported Georgia and Minnesota in the fight while the National Association of Manufacturers opposed the tax right.

In other cases, the court:

Set for argument beginning Oct. 12 the dispute between the federal government and the five Gulf States — Texas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama and Florida — over ownership of submerged oil lands.

Agreed to decide whether the armed services can court-martial U.S. civilians working for them overseas in peacetime. The case concerns the court martial of Dominic Guagliardo, 26, an electrical lineman, at the Nouasseur Air Deport, Casablanca, Morocco, who was convicted of conspiracy to steal. Guagliardo's wife and child live in Tampa, Fla.

Ruled unanimously that the government's anti-trust charges against Radio Corporation of America and the National Broadcasting Co. must go to trial. The case stems from RCA's exchange TV stations in Philadelphia and Cleveland with Westinghouse. A Federal District judge in Philadelphia dismissed the charges without trial in January, 1958.

Insurance Delay Hit By Lawyer

Speaking to a luncheon of Miami Beach Lodge 1591, B'nai B'rith, at DiLido Hotel, Monte Rassner said many insurance adjusters delay settlements "until the last possible minute."

Rassner said they often pay out the same amount at the courthouse steps as they would have paid on an earlier settlement. But the delay runs up costs, he said.

The speaker took the position there is no such thing as an excessive verdict because judges have the power to set them aside if exhorbitant. Every case should be evaluated on its merits, he stressed.

Russian to Talk

Nicholas T. Goncharoff, former Russian tank commander who predicted last week that Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's reign is limited to a few more months, will speak to Miami Rotary Club members at 12:12 p.m. today in the Columbus Hotel.

Acid, Axes Kept Juke Operators in Line, Probe Told

By Herald Wire Services

WASHINGTON — Senate rackets investigators charged Tuesday that a Chicago coin machine trade association kept a squad of over-eager hoodlums on its pay roll to back up a membership campaign with acid and axes.

The investigators, Arthur Kaplan and James McShane, said James (The Green Hornet) Rini, Alex Ross and Frank Masteri got $150 a week each from the Chicago Independent Amusement Association to wreck the pinball and other machines of holdout operators.

They said the trio wrecked or confiscated more than 100 machines.

Rini, who earned his nickname as a burglar, and Ross are inmates of the Illinois State Prison. Masteri is dead, the unscheduled victim of a gangland ambush that went awry, the investigators said.

Rini and Ross refused to answer questions. Handcuffed together, they stepped in tandem behind the protection of the Fifth Amendment.

McShane said the three wreckers once poured so much acid on the equipment of an operator who didn't want to join the association that it short-circuited the entire electrical system of a tavern.

"It created quite a scene," said McShane. "Everything went out but the customers."

Kaplan said a group of coin machine operators set up the association in 1956 in a bid to get the same kind of protection enjoyed by local juke box operators.

Chief Counsel Robert F. Kennedy said the kingpin of the association was Ed Vogel, described as a big coin machine operator with connections in the Chicago underworld.

Kennedy said Vogel appointed Thomas (Red) Waterfall as head of the trade group. Vogel, he said, worked with Fred Thomas (Juke Box Smitty) Smith, business agent of Local 134, International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers.

McShane said Masteri met his end when he tried to ambush one Willard Bates in July, 1957. He said the intended victim spotted Masteri hiding in the back seat of Bates' car and shot him dead. He added that Bates, in turn, was assasinated four months later.

Charles English, a swarthy Chicagoan the committee described as a front man for the underworld successors of Al Capone, gave the Fifth Amendment an ironic twist. He said answers to the committee's questions might "intend to criminate me."

English refused to discuss his Lomar Distributing Co., whether it worked with Unionists Joey Glimco and Jukebox Smitty to force operators to buy records at premium prices, or whether he was associated with Paul (The Waiter) Ricca or Anthony (Tough Tony) Accardo, both reputed to be heirs of Capone's crime empire.

'Milkman' Tried Quick Milking

LONDON —(UPI)— George Newman was leaning against a milk wagon when a man came up, asked for a bottle of milk and gave him a five-pound ($14) note.

Newman, 19, gave the man the milk but dashed off without making change, a London court was told.

Newman was sentenced to 16 months' probation after a policeman testified that "the defendant was not the milkman —he was just resting there."

Pink Flowers, Pastel Linens For Hostesses

By HELEN WELLS
Herald Society Editor

Pink carnation wristlets set off the pastel linen dresses of her assistants when Mrs. Carl R. Shaw entertained her friends for coffee on Tuesday at her and Col. Shaw's home on N. Bay Rd.

Mrs. Shaw

Their house is an old one, as Miami Beach houses go, and faces the Bay. The high ceilinged rooms are light and airy with pale pink and white walls, steps up and down into the living room and a breezeswept Florida room where fresh orange juice was ladeled out of a punch bowl.

Erina Shaw was in becoming violet linen and had as her assistants Mrs. Frank Voorhies, Mrs. Clarence Todd, Mrs. Morton Jones, Mrs. Raymond Mead, Mrs. Gus Geiger who was "singing" the praises of The Masked Ball, second opera of the season; Mrs. Forrest Haines, Mrs. Charles McCulloh and her sister, Mrs. Vincent Mallory, Mrs. David McCahill and her sister, Marguerite Tabor, and Mrs. Leonard O'Connor.

They served in relays at the punch bowl and the silver coffee and tea services on the dining table. Mrs. Tabor, who is visiting the McCahills from their native Pittsburgh sang "God Bless This House" for the company.

Mrs. Ray Lawson of Ontario, Canada, and Belle Isle, in blue and white silk print and her daughter, Mrs. R. E. G. Kindersley, in lemon yellow linen, were visiting with friends.

With Mrs. Arthur Nevius was her attractive brunette niece, Mrs. Alfred Leahy of Drexel Hill, Pa., who said she is here for only 10 days and must "work" at getting her tan.

Tivie (Mrs. Laurence) Bonfoey, looking so pretty in pink linen and natural straw hat trimmed with big pink roses, is expecting guests from Quincy, Ill., today, she told Mrs. Frank Andrews.

Others sipping and chatting were Mrs. Richard Mead, a near neighbor, Mrs. Carl Joerisson and her daughter, Kay Helvestine, Ena (Mrs. Frank) Woods in smart white linen embroidered in delft blue.

Mrs. O. W. Burther told of the fun she and Dr. B. are having landscaping their new home on Old Cutler Rd. Mrs. Frank Olds, Mrs. Claire Mendel and Mrs. Alfred Leahy were more to name a few.

Irish Party With French Flavor

St. Patrick's Day wouldn't be properly celebrated in Miami Beach without the wearin of the green at Sue Fitzgerald's annual party. This year Sue is changing the locale from her home in Surfside to La Bastille. "Feeding my chums at home had gotten to be a problem," she explained.

Susie's beau "Uncle Norbie," Norbert Cusick, delayed his arrival in Miami Beach until his first grandchild made his appearance in Fort Wayne, Ind. The baby is Timothy Logan, son of Norbert's daughter and her husband, Thomas Logan.

Another merry gathering at La Bastille is on the date book for March 16 when Lucile and Bryan Newkirk are entertaining for local and out-of-town friends.

Military Surgeons Visit

Over-the-week-end entertainment for Gen. Oliver Neiss, surgeon general of the Air Force, and Mrs. Neiss, of Washington, plus Col. George Knauf, senior surgeon at Patrick Air Force Base, and his lady, is planned by Dr. and Mrs. William Deichmann of S. Bayshore Dr.

The two visiting VIPs and their wives will stay at the Air Force Base in Marathon and on Saturday morning will inspect Dr. Deichmann's micro-wave radar on which he is doing research.

On Saturday afternoon the Deichmanns are giving a small cocktail party for the visitors with dinner afterward at Hurricane Harbor. Sunday, Dr. and Mrs. Deichmann are taking them for a cruise on Biscayne Bay aboard their boat Hedy III, named for Mrs. Deichmann.

* * *

Invitations are in the mail from the Paul H. Markses for the 55th wedding anniversary party of Paul's parents Mr. and Mrs. Herman Marks. The reception is from 3 until 5 at the home of the Paul Marks' on NE 105th St. No presents please, say invitations.

Moonlight and Cocktails

Just before dark when the sky is a deep indigo blue and you can hardly believe your eyes when you see Miami's well known moon shining against this background, friends of Mildred and Al Phelps gathered at their Gables home for cocktails and supper on Sunday.

Mildred Phelps

Their home is on the canal and their streamlined fishing boat, Sonny, is tied up at their dock. Here the Phelps' twin grandsons, 10-year-old Ray and Rickey, had a ball showing everyone over the boat.

Neither set of twins is identical. The odd thing is that each of the boys resembles a sister . . . that is one brother and sister are blond, and other two, brunet. Anyhow, they are four good looking kids.

Violin and accordion music was in the air and hot hors d'oeurves were circulated. Over from the Beach were Mabel and Howie Sayre whom the Phelpses met on a North Cape cruise a few years back.

Incidentally, when Mildred and Al were in Europe last summer, Al bought her an elegant black and sand Rolls which has every gadget known to man including little vanities in each corner and pull up tables in back.

Down from Palm Beach were John Nagle, president of Crown Cork and Seal Co., and Mrs. N., whose northern home is in New York. Peggy and Jim Mullins (he is president of Canada Dry in Florida) came over and Spec and John Gautier drove in from Kendall.

Others making merry included Molly Bush, the Sidney Craigs, (she is the former Onie Fuchs) Mary and Ed Christiansen . . . to name a few.

"March 27 is Good Friday, but I can't change my anniversary date," said Helen Rust. She and Paul are entertaining for cocktails at their home on Pinetree Drive to celebrate their nuptial date.

YW Hears Others' Problems

By ELEANOR DIXON
Herald Club Editor

It's a rare case when you ask to hear about another fellow's problems. But that is what the Young Women's Christian Association of Miami did this week.

The YWCA asked Dr. Joe Hall, Dr. H. Franklin Williams and the Rev. Frank L. Titus to tell the problems which face the schools, community and church, and how the Christian faith affects the decisions made on these problems.

First responsibility of the church, said the Rev. Titus, minister of Holy Cross Episcopal Church, is to provide people with a spiritual basis for coping with school and community problems.

Its duty is to provide basic moral training for young people who will serve their community, and to work with community agencies such as the YWCA and YMCA, not try to duplicate the agency's services.

It is not the church's place, he added, to enter politics or reform programs.

In the area of race problems, the Rev. Mr. Titus praised the YWCA for its contributions to "communication between leaders of both races." He was referring to the way Negro and White leaders work together in the YWCA program.

* * *

COMMUNITY PROBLEMS lie in two areas—welfare services and government—said Dr. Williams, vice president and director of community affairs of the University of Miami.

"Many of our new citizens are a little slow in identifying themselves with this community and its welfare needs. We need to awaken their awareness of responsibility.

"Our real problem is in understanding our new (Metropolitan) form of government. Every citizen ought to inform himself and make his opinion known."

Dr. Williams added that moral values of a community in politics. "An example of general laxity is the recent incidents of congressmen hiring their relatives as secretarial help — an example of petty graft and loose thinking."

* * *

DR. HALL revealed the criteria he uses in making dozens of school decisions as superintendent or public instruction for Dade County Schools, especially when a disgruntled businessman who didn't get the bid for school building equpment cries "crook."

"If you can't inform yourself fully (as to whether someone is a 'crook' or not) then refrain from judgment or condemnation. I believe this is what any Christain group would do."

School problems and decisions, he added, bring more expression from "the objectors to" than those who are for the decision.

Eggs Head Plentiful Food List

Eggs head the U.S. Department of Agriculture's list of foods expected to be abundant in the Southeast during March.

USDA also predicts egg prices may be lower in March than a year ago.

Other foods on the plentifuls list include: turkeys, pork, dairy products, apples, potatoes, cabbage, celery, canned peas, walnuts, honey, peanuts and peanut products, dry beans and sardines.

Hog marketing and slaughter is up to bring more pork to food stores. Cold storage holdings of turkey continue heavy and more new-crop birds are coming to market. California sardines, in short supply many years, are plentiful again.

Celery and cabbage made the list due to larger crops in Florida than in 1958. Last fall's large crop accounts for the abundance of potatoes. Canned peas are in large supply thanks to a heavy pack last season.

U.S. Women Much Cleaner

PARIS — (WNS) — The French Committee on Cleanliness has announced that American women are still far in the lead of the rest of the world.

For every 12 garments that an American lady has cleaned, the Italian woman has five cleaned, the Swiss and Belgians four, the English two, and the French and Germans only one.

Delicious Pizza for Lent Has Crab Meat, Cheese Top

By JEANNE VOLTZ
Herald Homemaking Editor

Make a topping without meat and pizza is a tasty Lenten supper.

Daily Food Guide

The pizza recipe below has crab meat and cheddar cheese in the topping. Green pepper, onion and hot pepper sauce add flavor zest.

The pizza is made from a mix for streamlined cooking.

EASY LENTEN SUPPER
Creole Crab Pizza
Tossed Green Salad
Strawberries, Cream

Cut in slim wedges, this pizza is welcomed as a party snack. But for supper, cut it in generous wedges.

|---|---|
| 1 | package pizza mix |
| 1 | 6½-ounce can Japanese crab meat |
| 1 | small green pepper |
| 1 | small onion |
| 2 | drops hot pepper sauce |
| ¼ | pound sharp cheddar cheese, diced |

Prepare pizza dough as directed on package. Let rise. Flake crab meat, slice green pepper in thin strips and onion into rings. Open can of pizza sauce. Stir in hot pepper sauce.

Pat dough out on oiled pizza pan, baking sheet or two 9-inch pie pans. Spread with sauce. Spread crab, green pepper and onion over sauce. Sprinkle with cheese. Bake in a hot oven (425 degrees) 20 to 25 minutes, until crust is well browned and cheese is melted. Makes 3 to 4 servings.

HE'S 20 AND MARRIED

'Should I Stop Seeing This Man?'

DEAR DOROTHY RICKER:

I am 16 years old and I am in love with a married man. He is 20. He is in love with me, too, and wants a divorce very much, but his wife refuses to give him one because she loves him.

Dorothy Ricker

She even told me she loves him very much and won't let him go. I really feel sorry for her because I know exactly how she feels.

I wish this boy would either get a divorce or learn to love her again. She is 17 and a beautiful girl. I see him every day, some way or another. We meet at the drug store, go for a ride or walk.

What am I going to do? I need your help badly. I think of him day and night and keep asking myself questions like, "Should I stop seeing him?"

SUNNY

You may think you know "exactly" how this girl feels but, believe me, you don't. She is married to the young man which is something quite different than the relationship you have with him.

She is only 17 now and her husband is 20 so it is obvious that they have not been married very long. Whenever it happened the boy must have convinced her that he loved her. If he can change so quickly, do you think you have any reason to believe you could hold him if he were single again?

You are so wrong, Sunny, to become involved in this "eternal triangle." It can not be worked out satisfactorily — someone is going to be hurt badly and my guess is that it will be you.

* * *

DEAR MRS. RICKER:

I am a 15-year-old girl who likes a boy very much and he knows that I like him.

Some of my girl friends think he has had too much of "the wrong kind of education" and one of my friends is even afraid of him.

I want to make him jealous by wearing a ring around my neck and telling everybody that it belongs to a boy from another state. I would like to know if you think it would be wise to take a chance of losing him.

DEE DEE

I presume by "wrong education" you mean this boy has a bad reputation. If it is so bad that one girl friend is even afraid of him, my advice is to do NOTHING to attract his attention.

Your biggest risk would be the chance YOU MIGHT GET HIM and he does not sound like the ideal date.

Mrs. Ida Voliva, founder of the Golden Wedding Band Club — an organization of married couples who have celebrated their 50th anniversary —will be guest of honor at the annual Miami meeting, 1 p.m. Friday at McArthur Dairy.

Mrs. Voliva, who makes her winter home in Miami, organized the original group 21 years ago in Chicago. Since that time chapters have sprung up all over the U.S.

The only qualification for membership in this unique club are that you've been married 50 years and you're interested in having fun. Members donate $2 a year to the non-profit organization for refreshments.

The Miami chapter is headed by Mrs. Charles Cottle, 2029 SW 58th Ave. The local group has an active membership of 200 couples.

According to Mrs. Cottle, members get together once a year for an afternoon of fun. New members tell their life histories and the group sings old time tunes. The Miami chapter is also a sponsor of the Heart Fund.

America's longest married couple, Mr. and Mrs. M. Peterson, of Fairview, Utah, will be recognized at Friday's meeting with an honorary membership in the Miami group. Mr. Peterson, 98 and Mrs. Peterson, 97, have just celebrated their 80th anniversary.

LONDON —(WNS)— Ronnie Thomas of Birmingham, England, needed $85 to pay his debts.

He advertised that he would leave his wife as security with anyone who would lend him the money.

Despite his announcement that she is an excellent housekeeper, nobody accepted the offer.

First Night Audience

A blonde turned brunette caught all eyes at the opening of Where's Charlie at the Coconut Grove Playhouse on Monday. She was Mrs. Ben Cohen who had covered her blonde tresses with a raven wig dressed in a curly Italian coiffure.

Over her shoulders was an elegant little chinchilla wrap and her evening dress was white brocade which flared at the knees into filmy white tulle.

A former member of the Russian ballet, Helen Feodorova, came with Mrs. Mills Judy, whose late father, Myers Cooper was a one time governor of Ohio. Mrs. D. Bruce Moyer celebrated her 80-years-young birthday with a dinner party in the Playhouse restaurant before curtain time.

Mrs. Titus Haffa, who lost a fabulous collection of jewels in a recent robbery, and Bernice Shippmann of Golden Beach dined with the Adrian Thais.

Jeri and Bill Parry, Dr. C. Raymond Van Dusen of U.M. and Ross Apgar were more who came to see Dick Shawn in the musical version of Charlie's Aunt.

Hialeah Attracts Many Famous Folk

By REGRET
Herald Columnist

A Monday visitor to Hialeah was one of the two women on President Eisenhower's Civil Defense Advisory Council. Mrs. Hiram C. Houghton was guest of Judge Louis Bandel and Mrs. Bandel. Coincidentally the dark bay three-year-old colt Judge Bandel ran in the sixth race Monday.

Racing Names Represented

IF RACING notables don't show their heads any other time they can be counted on for Widener Day, at least various members of their families can be. Elizabeth Asbury Stone, daughter of famed breeder Dr. Eslie Asbury, owner of Forest Retreat in Lexington, was in a clubhouse box with her husband Jim.

Jim Stone

Elizabeth Stone

This attractive young couple are down until the end of the meeting from Cincinnati where they left their three children, all of whom are under four! They're staying at the Key Biscayne and plan to bring the young'uns down with them next year.

Jim Stone is in the oil business, "although I know that's an odd part of the country to be in the oil business," his lively, slender wife said with a laugh.

* * *

Fitzsimmonses At the Track

ONE OF THE names synonymous with thoroughbred racing has numerous additional bearers at Hialeah now. "Sunny Jim" Fitzsimmons, trainer extraordinary, was introducing his grandchildren Kathleen Fitzsimmons and Jim Fitzsimmons III, both of New York.

A Long Day For Mr. Gluck

MAX GLUCK, ex-ambassador to Ceylon, made his first trip to Hialeah Saturday, and quite a trip it was. He's been living in California recuperating from the Ceylonese climate which had ill effects on him.

It was W. A. Kelley, trainer from Mr. Gluck's Elmendorf Farm, who persuaded his boss to come Widener Day.

He flew in at 4 a.m. Saturday and spent the afternoon at the track with Robert Bricken, general manager of Elmendorf Farm, and two oil men from Dallas John Murrell and Robert Swezak.

The trip was worthwhile because, if for no other reason, Mr. Gluck's brown six-year-old Bill's Sky Boy will go down on the records as having finished third in the Widener behind notables Bardstown and Nadir. Gluck's Golden Sari finished second in the fourth race, and his Eskimo ran in the eighth.

* * *

Paraquay Vs. Florida

FLORIDA RACING had to stand back to back with racing in Paraguay the other day. Seeing how we measure up were Enrique Barrail, director in the Ministry of Public Works of Paraguay, and Sra. Barrail. Although this attractive couple from Asuncion don't own horses they are racing fans and track regulars on weekends back home, the only time there is thoroughbred racing in Paraguay.

The Barrails, who are staying on Miami Beach, were at Hialeah with Mr. and Mrs. Samuel T. Drew who live on S. Bayshore La. The two men are old friends. Mr. Drew, a Miami engineer, is supervising the design and building of a municipal water system in Asuncion. It's the second visit to the U.S. for both Barrails.

'I Am So Lonesome Here'

DEAR ELEANOR HART:

I have been here three years and I am so lonesome. Five years ago my husband asked me for a divorce. He wanted to marry his secretary.

This came as a big shock as we had been married 17 years and were very happy, I had no idea there was anyone else. He said he was in love with both of us and wanted me and our 16-year-old daughter to live close by so he could see us a couple of times a week.

Anyway, to make a long story short, he kept after me and made life so miserable that I let him have the divorce, but told him I was going to leave town and wasn't going to share my man with anyone else.

He is now paying me alimony.

My daughter and I sold our house and came here. I have joined a club, also attended church but so far have made only a few friends, all over 65.

I am 50, petite, 98 pounds. I am told I don't look my age.

Those friends are nice, but all I hear are aches, pains and deaths. I really need to be around people a little younger.

I love classical music and opera. I have a large collection of records. Haven't found one adult here interested in good music, so I sit and listen alone.

LONELY

Well, there is opera. Dade County is lucky to have the Miami Opera Guild, and presentations like "The Masked Ball," scheduled for Wednesday night in the Miami Beach auditorium and again Saturday night at Dade County Auditorium.

Meanwhile, there is a group for single men and women, ages 39 to 59, that gets together once a week for an outing.

I can't guarantee their conversation pieces, but I do know they have planned for a wiener roast at 6 p.m. on Friday at Pit 2 in Crandon Park. Mrs. Mabel Hill, 2250 SW 21st St., can give you details.

Thought for the Day

"Our prayer and God's mercy are like two buckets in a well; while the one ascends, the other decends." —Hopkins.

'I Didn't Find a Prince'

DEAR ELEANOR HART:

I have three boys and all three have bronchitis. One has heart trouble. They needed a change of climate, and the one with heart trouble needs special care.

I decided to come to Miami since the climate would be ideal for them. I thought it would be easy to find a good paying job. But after two weeks of looking without success, I felt pretty lonely and discouraged.

I asked a gentleman where to find the State Employment Office. He told me and we started talking about working conditions here. I told him my reason for wanting to work in Florida. He said, "Why bother. Go out to one of the big hotels where there are hundreds of millionaires who would love to have a wife and three boys."

That night I opened my piggy bank and away I went to a big hotel. I didn't really expect to find a husband, but I was curious. I ordered a drink and it was $3.50. I began to get nervous for that only left me $1.50.

I saw the bartender getting big tips. I could see into the dining room and thought it must be full of millionaires. I finally had to come out of my dream for I couldn't afford to miss the last bus.

CINDY

I'm glad you didn't miss the last bus.

If you really want to help that boy with heart trouble, take him to the National Children's Cardiac Hospital, 4250 W. Flagler St. There will be no charge.

Incidentally, did you ever get to the Florida State Employment Office? They can do a lot more about helping you get a job than the gentleman in question.

Eleanor Hart.

Column With a Heart welcomes discussion of your problems, and your replies to the problems of others. Write to Eleanor Hart, The Miami Herald, Miami, Fla.

THE WORLD OF WOMEN

Crewcut's Not for Her

By Herald Wire Services

Maria Schell

NEW YORK — Maria Schell is an actress who will give up her hair for her art — but she's not too happy about it.

The Swiss movie star is getting a crewcut for her role as Maria in the TV production of Ernest Hemingway's For Whom The Bell Tolls next month.

Her husband, German film director Horst Haechler, is overseas making a picture—and Maria says it's just as well he won't get to see her hair at its shortest.

"I don't mind it professionally, but I do try to look nice in private life," she said. "In fact, I always dress up for my husband."

Good Food Got 'Em

Myra Waldo

NEW YORK — The best way to pierce the Iron Curtain is with a home-cooked American meal, says Myra Waldo, gourmet cook, inveterate traveler, talented wife and cookbook author.

The slight but determined Myra cooked and served an old-fashioned, all-American Thanksgiving dinner for 50 Russians at the Technical Institute of Food and Nutrition in Moscow two years ago. Says she:

"When the meal was over all 50 would have left for America on the next plane, if they could. They ate as if they had never tasted real food before. They sat down at the table a group of basically antagonistic people and were turned into warm, friendly human beings just by one good meal."

On the Russian trip, Myra served clam chowder, turkey with chestnut dressing, wild rice, sweet potatoes with marshmallows, cranberry sauce, cucumber salad, pecan and pumpkin pie. She made hot rolls from a packaged mix, whipped up some instant mashed potatoes and produced an angel food cake from a mix besides.

'Don't Imitate the Men'

CHICAGO—Chicago's leading cross-country car-hiker is a trim, dishwater blond who has learned the secret of how a woman succeeds in a man's world.

She is Mrs. Cathy Cosby, 38, operator of Cathy's Driveaway, a firm that specializes in "jockeying" cars for auto dealers from coast to coast.

"I'm not 'one of the boys,'" said Mrs. Cosby. "I'm not treated as 'one of the boys' and I don't want to be.

"Men won't resent you half as much for competing with them in business as long as you don't try to imitate them in speech and dress."

The only masculine trait Cathy has adopted is out of sheer necessity. In her purse, she always totes a portable screwdriver kit.

She uses this four or five times a day when she personally changes the license plates of cars in transit.

Practical Nurses To Receive Caps

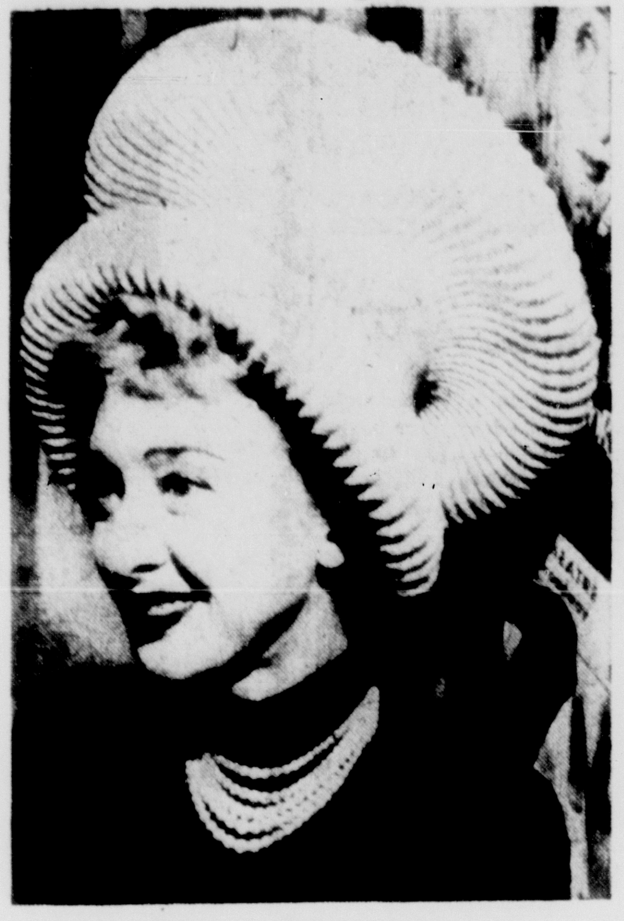
Ceremony is open to the public and a group of the school's alumnae will attend. Mount Sinai's practical nurses training course is the only one of its kind offered by a Florida hospital.



MUSHROOMING PAPER HAT is just that—a hat made of paper, shaped as a mushroom. It even keeps its shape in the rain. Actress Celeste Holm modeled this creation at a paper industry convention in New York. Designed by a New York milliner, the paper used was treated with a melamine resin to keep it strong. —Associated Press Wirephoto

New Gray Ladies To Get Caps

Red Cross will cap 47 Gray Ladies at an 8 p.m. Friday ceremony in chapter headquarters, 5020 Biscayne Blvd. They will be assigned to Homestead Air Base, Jackson Memorial, St. Francis, Mercy and VA hospital.

GREY HAIRS NEED WORRY YOU NO MORE!
Wm. J. Brandt's
LIQUID EAU DENNA
HAIR COLORER

Will cover grey hair in 10 to 20 minutes so that you would not know it ever was grey. It is liquid. One application with a toothbrush or swab does it. No pack. No mess.

ANYONE CAN PUT IT ON AT HOME
No one will suspect your hair has been dyed. Leaves it soft and lustrous, no dead color, no streaks, no spots — Just a uniform color if properly applied.

WILL NOT TURN HAIR REDDISH
It will not rub off. It stays on several months. Shampooing, sea bathing, sun, permanent waving, curling it, straightening iron . . . nothing takes it off. You can cover any grey hair no matter how stubborn or how caused.

WONDERFUL FOR TOUCHING UP
You can put it on just where needed. Can be used over dyes or where powdered hennas have been used. Women and men use EAU DENNA to advantage.

DOES NOT INTERFERE WITH PERMANENT WAVING
Full directions in each box in English and Spanish. Use as directed on label. Colors: Black, Dark Brown, Medium Brown, Light Brown, Drab Blonde, Auburn. Price per box, 2.50 plus Federal tax. Your money back if not satisfied. Cut this ad out now. Save for future reference.

‘Mrs. Pedro’ Counts Her (10) Blessings

By STEVE TRUMBULL
Herald Staff Writer

Mrs. Pedro Cochise is a gal who holds back nothing when it comes to showing her gratitude.

She not only pays back favors with a full measure, she really makes the cup run over.

A year ago she made her first appearance at the plant of the Adelman Pipe and Steel Co., 47 NE 25th St.

She was as woebegone a nameless pooch as anyone there had ever seen. She had mange, she limped and her ribs could be counted at 50 yards.

Homeless dogs are said to have a sixth sense that directs them to a soft touch, and in this critter it was right well developed.

Adelman workers took her to a vet, who promptly recommended extermination. They refused to take that advice. Instead, they bought bottles of mange and worm medicine and other assorted remedies for ailnng dogs. The entire staff took turns doctoring.

Soon the still-nameless waif was able to make trips around the neighborhood. On one of these she came home carrying a big and very dead starfish shell.

Someone in the plant said that, with the star, she looked just like that TV character, the “Sheriff of Cochise,” so she was christened Mrs. Cochise.

Then, as she continued to feel her oats more and more, Mrs. Cochise, a grayish-brindle sort of a dog, took up with a coal-black he-dog. The male dog ignored all the English-speaking members of the firm, but loved and appeared to understand a couple of the Spanish-speaking fellows.

So, he was named Pedro, and for a time everyone foolishly believed the friendship between the two dogs was purely platonic.

Until a month or so ago, that is. Then it became apparent that it wasn't. The staff of the place got busy preparing the canine equivalent of a layette, a fancy box with pink ruffles and a padded bed.

Out of deference to proprieties, Mrs. Cochise's name was lengthened to Mrs. Pedro Cochise.

The blessed event occurred sometime during the night and in — of all places — the men's room.

When they opened the doors of the office next morning, Mrs. Cochise greeted them with barks of frantic joy and pointed the way to the men's room.

OFFBEAT
with Steve Trumbull
MIAMI

She seemed to say:

“Well, I've finally produced something for all of these months of care.”

They looked, and had Mrs. Pedro Cochise ever produced? Not a mere five-pup litter not six, seven or even a lusty eight.

There was, instead, a whacking score of 10 squirming little pups.

Mrs. Cochise had pleased everyone with “druthers” as to the sex of pups. They were evenly divided, five males and five females. Six of them are as black as their daddy. Four have coats like their mother.

Five of the pups are already spoken for.

The Adelman folks say Mrs. Cochise won her home by her neat and orderly ways, as well as by her friendly nature and her obvious need at the time for human help.

When she goes to the grocery and begs a bone, as she frequently does by herself, she brings it back to the office, neatly places it on a newspaper, and eats it there.

They hope she will train her offspring to be that neat and orderly.

Officers Defend Roadblock

One of two Miami motorcycle policemen in official hot water for holding up busy holiday traffic on Rickenbacker Causeway for a private television company, said Tuesday that “my office sent me on the job.”

At the same time it was learned that his policeman-partner in “regulating” Sunday's Key Biscayne traffic jam also happened to be the officer in charge of his office and the man who okayed the paid, off-duty work.

Miami Police Inspector John H. Webber Tuesday identified the two policemen as Sgt. Shafter Wyatt and Officer Burt Langdale, both 10-year veterans on the force.

Webber said he had suspended all similar off-duty work until Police Chief Walter Headley returns from attending his father's funeral. He also ordered the men to make complete reports of the incident that drew complaints from irate motorists.

Wyatt said Tuesday that he had authorized the private work for himself and Langdale without checking with Headley because “the same detail had been done before.”

Both officers said that the same job had been handled the day before by Metro motormen who turned it down Sunday “only because they didn't have any men available.”

Langdale said his work in holding up traffic while television crews shot commercials of a new car “was no different than what we do when a construction company moves heavy equipment.”

“And if we weren't there, they would have done it anyhow,” said Langdale, who predicted that he would not be “suspended or fined or given demerits,” as Webber had told The Herald Monday.

Langdale refused to say how much the television company had paid him for his Sunday services, saying, “What I got paid is private.”

Action to Hike Fruit Sales Urged

ORLANDO—Action to raise fresh fruit sales of Florida oranges is needed at once, J. R. Graves of Vero Beach, chairman of the Florida Citrus Commission, told the annual meeting of the Florida Citrus Production Credit Association here Wednesday.

Fresh fruit sales, on the decline for several years, must be substantially increased if the giant crops, expected in a few years, are to be profitably marketed, he said.

Graves urged growers to discontinue the practice of selling their best quality oranges of juice concentrates, which, he said, has hurt the fresh fruit sales.

He urged enlarging of export markets, campaigns to increase fruit use and new uses for citrus.

Posse Combs Woods For Three Convicts

PERRY — Wooded country north of here is being combed by a posse, seeking three of five convicts who fled a state prison road camp here Monday. Two of the five were caught Tuesday at Valdosta, Ga.

The five overpowered guards and fled. They are armed.

Up Shipping Rates, Agency Requests

TALLAHASSEE — A request to increase rates in intra-state shipments by 15 per cent has been filed with the State Railroad and Public Utilities Commission by the Railway Express Agency.

The commission, which will hold a hearing on the request, estimated the increase will cost Florida shippers $255,000 annually. The request includes all shipments except fish, citrus gift packages and wearing apparel.

In 1957 an increase on intrastate shipments of milk and cream products was allowed.

Sheriff Testifies In Bribery Trial

BARTOW — E. B. (Shorty) Jones, former Madison County legislator, linked to Tampa bolita tycoon and a “Cecil Webb” with a syndicate seeking to operate the gambling lottery in Polk County, Sheriff Hagen Parrish testified Tuesday.

The sheriff was the first state witness in the trial of Jones on bribery charges. He is accused of offering Parrish “$5,000 and 10 per cent of the gross” in 1956 if the sheriff would permit bolita to operate.

At the opening of the trial Tuesday Judge Roy H. Amidon of Criminal Court ruled the defense could not subpena Gov. LeRoy Collins and two other state officials.

Legislators Split On Gas Tax Plan

TALLAHASSEE—Mixed reaction greeted a proposal of the State Road Department to change where three cents of the seven-cent state gasoline tax goes when it was explained to a group of state legislators here Tuesday.

Joe Grotegut, chairman of the State Road Board, explained the proposal. The three cents now goes, in large part, to counties. Grotegut proposes it be used by the state for rights-of-way.

A few of the lawmakers expressed approval or disapproval with the proposal, but most said they wished to study the plan more closely before taking a stand.

Ex-County Official Dies at 89

Daniel L. Killian, former Dade County Commissioner and pioneer Kendall storekeeper, died Tuesday at Dade County Hospital—a hospital he helped found.

Mr. Killian, 89, served two terms on the Dade County Commission, from 1922 to 1926, a period which saw the building of many South Dade roads and the planning of the courthouse.

The Dade County Home and Hospital was built after Killian helped obtain the property.

He came to Kendall in 1916 from Memphis and opened his store. Many of his customers at that time were seminoles.

A former director of the Bank of Coral Gables, he retired in 1947.

Mr. Killian is survived by his son, Alfred D. Killian, and two daughters, Mrs. Virginia Graham, of Kendall, and Mrs. Mary Henderson, of Lithia, Fla.

Services will be at 2 p.m. Thursday in Philbrick's South Miami-Kendall Chapel with burial in Miami Memorial Park.

Congressman to Slice $11,873 Check

Son's Pay Mistake, He Says

DES MOINES, Iowa —(AP)— Rep. Steven V. Carter (D., Iowa) says he made a mistake in judgment in putting his 19-year-old college freshman son on his Congressional payroll at $11,873 a year, The Des Moines Register said Tuesday.

In a copyrighted story from its Washington bureau, the newspaper quoted Carter as saying, “I'm afraid I didn't have this thing in very good perspective and I'm going to correct it.”

“I've made a mistake of judgment on this matter,” the newspaper quoted Carter, “and I am going to adjust it within a few days

—Associated Press Wirephoto

Rep. Carter
. . . ‘I've been ill’

“I've been ill with cancer and Steve has been carrying a lot of the load for me. My illness and the fact I was told that I might not live many weeks probably resulted in my making a misjudgement to what I should pay Steve.”

The freshman Congressman said previously his son, a pre-law student at George Washington University, had the best qualifications of applicants as his chief assistant.

Carter told The Register he had received numerous letters from Iowa and “it is about 60-40 against me.”

The newspaper further quoted Carter as saying that because of the reaction he felt it was “time to lay things on the line and tell the people about my physical condition which I am sure influenced my actions.”

EXPLORE YOUR MIND

Steady Boys

MOST HIGH SCHOOL BOYS GO STEADY.
TRUE ☐ FALSE ☐
ARE THERE REASONS WHY HUSBANDS AND WIVES OFTEN LOOK ALIKE?
YES ☐ NO ☐
3.
TO CURE A PATIENT A PSYCHIATRIST MUST DIG UP HIS ENTIRE PAST.
RIGHT ☐ WRONG ☐

By S. M. DUVALL and EVELAN M. DUVALL, Ph.Ds

FALSE. ACTUALLY, less than 10 per cent of 1st- and 2nd-year high school boys go steady. A representative group of 14-and 16-year old fellows, for example, studied by the Survey Research Center of the University of Michigan turned up only 7 per cent of the boys who went steady or dated "as often as there is time for it." People may be more worked up about this going steady business among young teenagers than the facts warrant.

2. Yes, there are several reasons. The first is the frequent tendency to choose a person like oneself. More than 150 studies to date indicate that most of us choose mates who basically are like, and even look like, ourselves. Blonds tend to marry blondes, the tall marry the tall, like marries like. Then as the two live together they increasingly reflect each others facial expressions and personal habits. Result—they look more and more alike.

3. False. Some of them, especially the psychoanalysts, do. Others do not. Psychiatrist Ugo Marzuoli argues that digging up the past is quite unnecessary and often wasteful in time. He feels that the main job of the psychiatrist is to help the patient understand what he is up against right now, and to tackle it head on instead of trying to run away from it, and then by guiding him, help him to overcome his difficulties.

1957 ANGLIA $995

WOW! Here's the best price yet for America's most popular model imported automobile. It's our completely factory original 1957 ENGLISH FORD ANGLIA 2 door sedan at a really low sale price. Because at the price of only $995 it's priced way below it's actual value. You'll find the Glacier Green factory finish is in spotless condition, bumper to bumper. The interior will stay new looking for years if you just damp wipe down the Naugahyde door panels and seats — that incidentally are in show room condition too.

The best art of course is the up to 35 miles per gallon of gas economy that you'll be getting— and you'll be able to make part of the payments with the gas money saved. There's no cash needed — Just trade in your 1952 model for the down payment. STOCK No. 8552.

POWER STEERING

THINK that's an error in the price? Well it's not. We're actually going to sell our 1957 FORD V8 RANCHWAGON with POWER-STEERING for only $1,495. It's completely factory original bumper to bumper inside and out. You'll like the good looking two tone Colonial white and Springmist green finish with the matching color interior which includes Naugahyde seats, door panels, headliner and floor mats that are all washable and, will stay new looking for years with a damp cloth wiping.

BESIDES the POWERSTEERING you'll have FORD-O-MATIC automatic transmission, the big "8" tube special TOWN & COUNTRY radio that finds it's own stations automatically, clock, directional signals and excellent white wall tires. There's even a special spot light with a rear view mirror built in. Best of all—it's guaranteed in writing for 90 days by Grentner Bros and there's no cash needed—Just trade in your 1952 model for the downpayment.

"Above all else—Quality is our first consideration." That's the mark of all wise British car buyers.

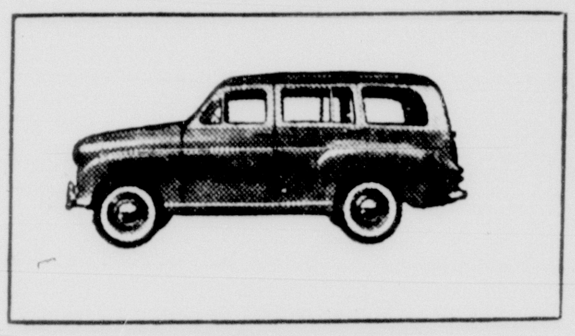
Because they do place so much treasure in quality, it is easily seen why TRIUMPH is in such great demand "at home". We appreciate quality too—that is why the Trumph cars are so rapidly becoming the favorite imported car in America.



5-door Estate Wagon

Engineered by the makers of the famous TR3 sports car, the Estate Wagon is built for safe driving and durability. The all-steel body is welded into a single unit for real strength. Full size doors let you get in and out easily. On the highway and in traffic, its quick response and nimble handling tells you "here is a thoroughbred." Its shorter length lets you park in smaller places. Inside space? Every inch is usable — for people, for cargo. And with all this you can save as much as $1500 over other station wagons.

Opening lead: Jack of hearts.

In today's hand by logical deduction, West hit upon the one lead to defeat the contract of three no trump.

South opened the bidding with one heart, and North elected to respond with his shorter spade suit. Since his hand contained no great strength, he preferred not to increase the contract by naming his longer diamond suit. South was unduly aggressive in now leaping to two no trump. This call normally designates a holding containing 19-20 points in high cards.

North's three diamond rebid is a wasted effort. He has no intention of playing a space contract even if he gets a delayed preference, nor should he contemplate a minor suit game which requires 11 tricks. North should therefore bid three no trump directly, inasmuch as his 7 points are sufficient for the raise.

Had West chosen to lead the unbid club suit, the three no trump contract probably would have been fulfilled unless East shifted immediately to a spade. But he realized that the only entries dummy could have for the diamond suit were no doubt in spades, and if these entries were attacked, it might be possible to prevent the run of the diamonds after they became established, and West knew that it would take at least two diamond leads for declarer to clear that suit.

With that definite purpose, the jack of spades was led. When West regained the lead with a diamond, he continued with the ten of spades, depriving the dummy of its last entry. By merely holding up one round of diamonds, West was able to shut out the dummy and declarer was held to seven tricks.

Hialeah Asks Fans' Attitude Toward Night Horse Racing

MORE AND MORE PEOPLE seem to think night thoroughbred racing will be a feature of the future . . . Hialeah officials must share that feeling, because a questionnaire they distributed to fans included the question: "What do you think about night racing?"

This does not necessarily mean Hialeah has immediate plans for racing under the floodlights. However, Trainer Sunny Jim Fitzsimmons conceded on a television program last Saturday that night racing is inevitable, because of the tremendius revenue.

Last summer, Saul Silberman toyed with the idea of asking for night racing at his Tropical Park. Other questions asked in the Hialeah questionnaire were "Are you a tourist, or native?" . . . "How often do you attend the races."

* * *

Pastrano Setback Costly

Tabloiding the field of sports:

—For a spell, Miami Beach's Willie Pastrano did well in faraway England . . . Now he has suffered his second straight defeat there, losing a close decision to Joe Erskine . . . Last Sept. 30, when Pastrano lost to Brian London because he was bleeding from cuts, Angelo Dundee, his handler, said it was unfair to stop the fight. Willie's chances of getting a shot at Heavyweight Champion Floyd Patterson have been weakened. It's too bad Pastrano doesn't pack a wallop to match his speed.

Dundee

Cleary

—Jack Cleary is grateful to the Miami Beach boxing fans, who last week contributed $518 to the March of Dimes.

—Another good news item: Executive Director Peggy Leyshon reports the International Boat Show, which ends today, is running three per cent ahead of its 1958 attendance, of 106,000. Dealers say sales are up 15 to 20 per cent, the largest transaction being $36,000 for a cruiser.

—Gulfstream is certain to top its 1958 season because of the late influx of tourists, say Ralph DeChiaro, Tropical Park treasurer, and General Manager Elmer Vickers of that track. The latter is still confident that Hialeah will make up its losses and show a slight increase over last year. Gene Mori and Walter Donovan hope Elmer is correct.

De Chiaro

—Bill Veeck, who with seven associates is offering $2,700,000 for 54 per cent of the White Sox, expects to get his money back at the gate. Veeck, who helped introduce Triple-A baseball here, says success in the diamond sport hinges first on having an interesting team; secondly, a big advance ticket sale and thirdly entertainment for the fans.

Mrs. Payson

—Greentree will be represented in the Flamingo Saturday for the first time in five years . . . The popular stable has had 15 starters in past Flamingos and is a three-time winner with Lightning Bolt (1931), Stir Up (1944) and Straight Face (1953) . . . Greentree is owned by John Hay Whitney, United States Ambassador to England and one of the best liked sportsmen, and his sister, Mrs. Charles Shipman Payson . . . Their current entry is Eurasi, which finished second to Troilus last Monday.

Plan for 'Sensible' Betting

THE AVERAGE visitor to Hialeah hopes that he has enough luck to break even. People who play the horses regularly live the studious life of a mathematical engineer, use common sense and exercise self-discipline, resist the temptation to play hunches, and bet horses strictly on form.

The latter information, which makes horse race betting sound like work, comes from an article in Sports Illustrated. It was written by an expert who calls his plan "sensible" betting.

* * *

Ten Things to Remember

THE MAN offers 10 things to remember in making your wagers. Personally, I think there is more fun in picking 'em by names and following hunches. If you want the expert way, here is the dope:

(1) Learn how to read the performance charts; they tell almost everything about a horse.

(2) If you want to bet on opinion, bet on the opinion of the official track pricemaker.

(3) Give serious consideration to lower price horses going up in odds before post time (a shift called "overlay").

(5) Rate form higher than pedigree.

(6) Don't be carried away by horses who close fast in sprints, lead you to believe that with another eighth of a mile they'd be cinches.

(8) Be cautious when betting on a horse dropped in class as there is a likelihood of trouble, something not right with the horse.

(9) Remember: the top-weighted horse is always dangerous. However, look for allowance races in which handicapped horses are allowed to enter with less weight than usual.

(10) If you like a horse in an early race, bet him according to your likes. If you lose, you are likely to end up betting twice as much on a horse you don't like half as much in one of the last races in an effort to recoup your bundle.

For Sawyer, This Was Second of Seven Trips to the Canvas

Hodge Kayos Weary Sawyer In 8th Round

By MEL DERRICK
Herald Sports Writer

Awkwardly powerful Dan Hodge, the ex-amateur wrestling champ limbered into a professional boxer, passed his first major heavyweight test Tuesday night with an eighth round knockout of weary Garvin Sawyer at the Miami Beach Auditorium.

Sawyer, suffering his first KO in 21 bouts, was on the canvas seven times before Referee Billy Regan counted him out — twice from legitimate punches, three times from apparent exhaustion, once from a push, and once when he missed a roundhouse right and tumbled.

It was Hodge's seventh victory — and fifth knockout — in eight pro starts.

Aggressively amateurish and willing to launch 10 punches to land one, Hodge twice had Sawyer in serious trouble before cracking through a blockade of elbows for the finisher.

He backed Sawyer to the ropes in the eighth, slipped in a right to the body, and stepped back for one of the few times in the fight as Sawyer sank slowly—apparently more from tiredness than the blow.

The clincher was a right to the face after Sawyer came up swinging. Garvin went down, raised to one knee at the eight-count, and slumped back before Regan reached ten.

"I was just plain tired," he said. "Really tired."

Hodge, 192 pounds to Sawyer's 193¼ and fighting with Middleweight Champion Ray Robinson in his corner, backed Sawyer against the ropes in the fourth and seventh.

Each time, the human threshing machine whipped Sawyer's elbows black and blue, but failed to land a damaging punch.

The Bomber in the Rough, meeting and beating his first foe of known quality, sent Sawyer down for the first time with a short left in the second round. He had him down twice in the seventh and twice in the eighth on punches and or Garvin's tiredness. The finish came at 1:42 of the eighth.

A crowd of 2,187 paid $4,668.41 to applaud the unpolished but exciting fight. Hodge, an early morning 7-5 favorite, was almost 2-1 at fight time.

Other Preliminaries:

Tony Alongi, 183, decisioned Tiger Flowers, 176¾, four rounds; Tommy Della Rocca, 162, decisioned Levi Pearson, 161, six rounds; and Hilton Smith, 132¾, decisioned Eddie Ludlow, 133½, four rounds.

Central High Won't Attempt Football Team

There'll be no football at Miami Central High when the new school opens in September . . . at least, not in the near future.

"We'll concentrate on minor sports for the first few years," says Thomas Lynch, Tech High principal who'll assume the same post at Central.

"When we think we're strong enough to play on a major scale," he added Tuesday, "then maybe we'll think about fielding a football team.

"I don't want to have the county's best academic school, and worst football record. I've experienced enough of the latter at Tech. I want to get the school off on solid footing."

The new school will have a 1,300-seat gymnasium—one of the largest in the county — and will have facilities for a cinder track and baseball diamond. Both will be completed in two years.

Paul Carifio is ticketed for the head basketball job. Johnny Bow, former UM fullback, will coach baseball, Lamar Meyer, swimming.

"We'll also boost our golf and tennis teams," Lynch said.

Central will be the lone Dade County school without football.

"But," says Lynch with a grin, "out of 73 schools in New York City, 53 do not participate in football, and they survive."

Spindletop Farm Sold to College

LEXINGTON, Ky. — (AP) — Mrs. Pansy Grant of Beaumont, Texas, Tuesday transferred ownership of her 1,066-acre Spindletop Farm to the University of Kentucky.

The lush horse farm was a Kentucky show place. The University's Kentucky Research Foundation, an independent corporation, completed negotiations Friday to buy the farm for $850,000.

Charge! 26 Slated For Juvenile Today

By RUSS HARRIS
Herald Turf Writer

There'll be a brief upswing in jockey employment today at Hialeah with a field of 26 juveniles competing in the 12th running of the Florida Breeders' Stakes.

If all 26 of the Florida-bred two-year-olds start, they'll set a new record for the track. Largest previous field at Hialeah was in this same race last year, when 24 youngsters formed the calvary charge.

Four couplings are included in the $15,000. event. Elkcam Stable has entered Randypaar, Great Orbit and Be Eternal.

Can Opener and Arvella will represent V. L. Creal while Cape Canaveral and Andale will race for J. W. LaCroix. Friendly Witch, Heroshogala and Niequest make up the entry trained by Elmer Huebeck Jr.

Favoritism likely will go to William Veeneman's Marikay, a chestnut filly with the best time of the lot. She won at the three-furlong distance in 33 2-5 in her last outing and had speed in reserve.

Previous Florida Breeders Stakes victors include Pryson, Hubcap and King Hairan.

As today's added attraction, Hialeah will present Fred W. Hooper's Greek Circle — the horse Jockey Bill Hartack refused to ride last Saturday.

Hartack maintained Greek Circle was unfit to race but Hooper insisted the horse was 100 per cent sound. Three veterinarians could find nothing wrong with the colt, which turned in a splendid workout following l'affaire Hartack.

Greek Circle will meet nine rivals in the fifth race and faces no easy task. A pair of speedy fillies, Golden Sari and Dark Starlight, should give him a thorough test.

No rider was listed on the entry blank for Hooper's colt, but it's safe to say it won't be W. Hartack.

* * *

HOOFBEATS—Jim Conway takes over as trainer of the Darby Dan racers March 1 and Jim Long will become farm manager for John Galbreath . . . Clockers timed Derrick in an impressive 1:12 2-5 for six furlongs Tuesday . . . Backbone went a half mile in :47 2-5 . . . Happy Hill Farm's King-maker has been sent to Fair Grounds in quest of the New Orleans Handicap and Bill Hartack, who visited the press box Tuesday, says he has the mount . . . Brookmeade may send Sword Dancer there to run in the Louisiana Derby . . . As soon as stalls are available at Hialeah, Millard Farisziadie has five more horses ready to fly here from Caracas.

Zuverink Signed By O's

The Baltimore baseball club got its 34th Bird Tuesday — Pitcher George Zuverink, Oriole reliefer who signed his 1959 contract.

Announcement of Zuverink's signing was made here after a satisfactory conference with General Manager Lee MacPhail. Salary terms were not disclosed.

Zuverink turned up at Miami Stadium as scheduled, but held off signing. There had been talk the fireman had been asked to take a cut.

The 6 foot, 4 hurler, used in relief roles, went to the mound in 45 games last year, compiling a 3.39 earned run average while winning two and losing two.

Meanwhile, $100,000 bonus player Dave Nicholson impressed Manager Paul Richards and Oriole coaches with his heavy hitting Tuesday.

The 19-year-old outfielder, who was with three minor league teams last year, blasted the ball over and against the wall time after time in batting drill. He also did well in the field and Richards called him the most improved man on the squad.

Had You Sooner See Syracuse?

IN ALL the to-be-back-or-not-to-be-back hullaballoo about Oklahoma and the Orange Bowl, everybody apparently has forgotten Syracuse — which this year may have its finest team ever. A rising sophomore back named Ernie Davis carries an "another Jimmy Brown" tag, and absentees from the team beaten by the Sooners here New Year's are negligible. (Reckon they could drive Oklahoma back into those dugouts?) . . . Conversely, if you listen to another voice in the winter-book wilderness, University of Miami may expect little. Sports Editor Mike Lebedeker of the student paper Hurricane picks UM to win only one game . . . And in that connection, Cleveland Browns ace Lou Groza may not be here to help Head Coach Andy Gustafson with spring practice after all. Groza's insurance business has him so tied down that his maximum visit would be less than a week . . . Honest, there's an exercise boy at Hialeah named Terry O'Feldman. His mother is Irish, his father Jewish.

* * *

CENTRAL FLORIDA, long a nesting spot for the Washington Senators, may lose them to Sarasota in 1960. The club has just about decided to dump Orlando . . . New heavyweight hope Sonny Liston is taking the tested but financially rugged path to the top. His managers made Mike DeJohn such a handsome guarantee for their Beach TV match that Liston emerged with little more than a knockout victory. Now they are pursuing a similar deal with Nino Valdes, the Leaning Tower of Cuba who mixes with Charley Powell at the Beach next week . . .

WOLFSON

Financier-sportsman Lou Wolfson is mulling over a Doc Kearns-Jack Dempsey movie . . . Jai alai players insist that the slower the pelota moves, the harder it is to return (because of the spin). But you don't hear them complaining about the slow ones. They also are easier to duck.

AUBURN'S captaincy elections offer solid testimony to our state's rise as a producer of football talent. Capt. Jackie Burkett is from Fort Walton Beach, Alt. Capt. Lamar Rawson from Pensacola . . . New York writers here pin a big piece of Yankee Manager Casey Stengel's discontent with Mickey Mantle and Whitey Ford upon their missing a train out of Boston last year. "With the Yankees," one explains, "that's the one unpardonable sin." . . . Fellow walked to Trainer Casey Hayes just after First Landing won Hialeah's Everglades by a neck, and asked cheerily, "Remember Colin? Never lost a race . . . but always won by just this much." Hayes grinned. "Give me more lengths," he said, "and less thrills."

Gator Swimmers Thump UM, 56-28

GAINESVILLE—(AP)—Florida swimmers beat Miami, 56-28, Tuesday, taking first place in all but two events.

Three meet records and one pool record were set. Florida's 400-yard medley relay team raised that mark to 4 minutes, 5.7 seconds. Florida's 400 free-style team set a 3:33.1 record.

Jack Nelson of Miami, former Olympic swimmer, set a pool and meet record by winning the 200 butterfly in 2:11.5. The old mark, which he set a year ago, was 2:11.8.

400-Yard Medley Relay — 1. Florida (Ruggie, Wiedamann, Tateishi, Pollock) 4:05.7.

Neji Hurt, Out of Race

RATOATH, Ireland — (AP) — Neji, U.S. steeplechase champion, injured himself in Saturday's race and will not compete in the Cheltenham Gold Cup on March 5, Trainer Dan Moore said Tuesday.

Jerry Moss, 3 Others Play Net Exhibition

University of Miami Captain Jerry Moss and three other high-rated tennis players will give an exhibition at Roney Plaza Hotel today starting at 3 p.m. Besides Moss, the players are Jon Douglas, former Stanford star; Don Kierbow, a top California player, and Bert Brown of Los Angeles.

Easy Spur Wins; To Join 'Mauler' In Rich Flamingo

By JOE McLAUGHLIN
Herald Turf Editor

Spring Hill Farm's Easy Spur pounded to an impressive victory Tuesday at Hialeah and thus changed his status for Saturday's rich Flamingo Stakes from "doubtful" to probable."

This development — and the surprising word that Manassa Mauler will take a shot at the $100,000-plus classic—indicates at least nine starters.

Easy Spur, given a sparkling ride by Ken Church, displayed late speed Tuesday to beat Fred Hooper Jr.'s Pryson by three parts of a length in the six-furlong seventh race. Pointer was third.

Easy Spur had been overshadowed by his sprinting stablemate, Octopus, in recent outings. He won four of his eight races as a juvenile last year, and had finished sixth twice and fifth in his 1959 starts before Tuesday.

Tuesday he came from last place to win in 1:10 2-5. Then he went on out seven furlongs in 1:23 3-5.

"Easy Spur ran a real good race," said Jockey Church, "and was going very well under me while I took him on out another furlong. He certainly can run when he wants to. I think I'll be riding him again in the Flamingo."

Easy Spur paid $9.40, $7 and $4.30. Pryson returned $7.40 and $4, and Pointer paid $2.80.

From the camp of owner Emil Dolce and Trainer Frank Martin came the news that Manassa Mauler will get a fling in Saturday's 1⅛-mile special. Manassa Mauler failed to win any of six starts as a juvenile; was unplaced in his first race at Hialeah, and won by six lengths last Saturday.

Others considered certain Flamingo starters include favored First Landing, Troilus, Eurasia, Rare Rice, Moony, Scotland and Open View. Definite decisions still are pending on Rico Tesio, Quiz Star and Rare Rice's stablemate, Cedar Brook.

* * *

HIALEAH continued recent streak of daily gains when it logged a crowd of 17,402 (compared with 16,824 a corresponding day last year) and a wagering total of $1,592,974 (against $1,502,367 this day in 1958).

Jackson's Late Freeze Shades PB

A two-minute freeze enabled Miami Jackson's basketball team to defeat Fort Lauderdale High, 55-54, Tuesday night at the winning Generals' gymnasium.

It was the second time Jackson beat the Flying L's by less than two points.

Jackson, down eight points at the half, surged back on the shooting of Ron Scott, who finished with 21 points. Charley Moore, who led Lauderdale with 15, also was hot in the final two periods.

The baby Generals won the opener, 48-45.

Pompano Rolls To 75-59 Win Over Stings

By DICK MEYER
Herald Staff Writer

POMPANO BEACH—Deadly Frank Budka scored 34 points Tuesday night as Pompano Beach's unbeaten basketball Tornadoes blasted Miami High, 75-59, and stamped themselves as the best team in South Florida.

The one-sided victory was sweet revenge for Pompano, a three-point loser to Miami High in basketball last season.

With Budka and big Don Hughes showing the way, Pompano jumped to a 14-9 first-quarter lead. By halftime it was 36-20, and the Golden Tornadoes led, 66-38, before Miami High caught fire in the fourth quarter.

Pompano was uncanny in the first three periods. The Tornadoes had little trouble solving Miami High's defense — the Stingarees managed only 11 field goals until the final period.

Sophomore Center Dave Austin led Miami High with 15 points, nine of them in the fourth period.

Raiders Rap WPB, 59-52

Miami Edison, tied at the half, scored the first goal of the third period and led the rest of the way in a 59-52 basketball victory over visiting Palm Beach High Tuesday night.

Charlie Key popped in the third-period goal that shot Edison out front for keeps, and teamed with Ronnie Poh to give the Red Raiders a 42-point production.

It gave the Raiders revenge for an earlier loss at Palm Beach. The Wildcats however, won the B game, 68-58.

The world's greatest miler at 21 has broken the four-minute barrier 10 times and set a world mark of 3:54.5. The track star was acclaimed 1958's top athlete by sports writers and broadcasters in the Associated Press year-end poll. It was only the second time the poll had voted the honor to a foreign athlete. Elliott recently rejected an offer of $250,000 to turn professional.

Pastrano Decisioned By Erskine

LONDON —(AP)— Joe Erskine, former British Empire Heavyweight Champion, Tuesday night outpointed favored Willie Pastrano of Miami Beach, by a razor-thin margin in a 10-round bout at Wembley Stadium.

It was the second straight defeat in London for the 23-year-old American, ranked sixth among the world's heavyweight contenders. Pastrano was stopped on cuts by Brian London last Sept. 30.

Erskine, who was knocked out last year by Sweden's Ingemar Johansson and London, is not ranked among the top 10. Before those two defeats he had been in the running for a title fight with World Champion Floyd Patterson.

Referee Andrew Smythe of Northern Ireland raised the 25-year-old welshman's right hand after the fight to signal the victory. According to British rules the referee's score was not disclosed. He is the lone judge.

The Associated Press scorecard had Erskine ahead, five rounds to three with two even. The AP gave Erskine the third, fourth, sixth, ninth and tenth rounds. Pastrano was awarded the second, fifth and eighth rounds with the first and seventh rated even.

The Frenchman opened a deep cut over Downes' left eye in the first minute of their fight and kept the blood flowing with looping right hand punches to the wound. A right dropped Downes for no-count in the third round.

Downes' seconds were unable to stem the blood flow at the end of the fifth round and they signalled the referee that the fight was over.

In the semifinal, Dave Rent, the British heavyweight managed by American Al Weill, knocked out Max Brianto of France in 1:17 of the fourth round of the ten-rounder.

Round Table Out Until May; Car Fuss Cancels Monza 500

Sports Roundup

Round Table, suffering from a leg injury bigger than a silver dollar, is out of the $145,000 Santa Anita Handicap Saturday and will not run again before the Hollywood Park meeting in May.

Owner Travis M. Kerr did not say as much, but sources close to the stable said the plan is to point the 5-year-old 1958 horse of the year for the major stakes at Hollywood Park.

THE MONZA Speedway 500, the world's fastest auto race, was canceled because of the new international rule limiting the power of Europe's high-speed cars. The race had been scheduled June 28.

Officials hope to resume the Indianapolis-type race in 1960 with a new race for grand touring cars (two-seat sports cars) with no limit on engine capacity.

The new formula for European racers limits their capacity to 1,500 cubic centimeters. American cars may be as high as 4,200 cc.

Hudson Chosen Florida's '59 Captain

GAINESVILLE — (UPI) — End Dave Hudson, last year's leading pass receiver for the Gators, was named captain of the 1959 Florida football team, it was announced Tuesday night.

Some 300 persons attended the annual Gator Football Banquet. H. O. (Fritz) Crisler, athletic director at Michigan and chairman of the National Collegiate Association's rules committee, gave the main talk.

Quarterback Jimmy Dunn was chosen by Florida letterman as 1958's "most valuable senior." The 142-pound signal-caller also received the first annual Governors' Trophy for being named the outstanding player in the Florida-Florida State game by sports writers.

Hudson, a standout on the 1958 Gator Bowl team, was a high school star at Pensacola. He led Florida in pass receiving with 11 catches for 150 yards gained and one touchdown.

He scored another touchdown by blocking a kick against Florida State, scooping up the ball and scoring. During the season, Hudson also recovered two fumbles, intercepted a pass, and was regarded one of the Southeastern Conference defensive ends.

He is six feet tall and weighs 220 pounds.

Coach Bob Woodruff presented 40 varsity athletes with letters and 55 freshmen with numeral awards.

NAHARUE wrested command just before completing five furlongs, established a commanding advantage and was roused while holding sway. UNGAVA saved ground while rallying on the final turn and continued on willingly to wear down the others. SUMFIN SURE wore down tired horses. ERRATIC could not keep pace.

SCRATCHES: Admiral Town, Napolean, Sharp Scamp, Belleseem.

686—SECOND—Purse $3,500, 3-year-olds

maiden colts and geldings; 1⅛ miles; start good; won driving; place same; went 2:01; off 2:01½; winner br. c. 3, by Ponder-Slave Girl; owner Hasty House Farms; trainer H. Trotsek; value, $2,275, 700, 350, 175; time, 23 1-5, 46 4-5, 1:12 2-5, 1:39, 1:52 1-5.

SEA CRAFT, under steadying restraint while within easy striking distance, wrested command in early stretch and was strongly handled while lasting over COURTIER. The latter finished well after having been slow to respond. MONTE CRISTO raced WHEATLEY ROAD into defeat, was immediately joined by the winner and faltered. NORTH POLE 2ND was sluggish early, raced wide throughout and failed to threaten.

SCRATCHES: Bill Board.

687—THIRD—Purse $3,500, 2-year-old

maiden colts and geldings; 3 furlongs, chute; start good; won driving; place same; went 2:33; off 2:33; winner ch. c. 2, by Royal Coinage-Firefly; owner Sunny Blue Farm; trainer V. J. Sovinski; value, $2,275, 700, 350, 175; time, 22 1-5, 33 3-5.

KILLDEE set the pace without serious opposition and was under pressure to the end. MRS. K. L. rallied to wear down the others. GAME CONQUEROR closed willingly. WHIG was a late withdrawal when it was found that he was not properly registered at the track. Money wagered on him was refunded.

689—FIFTH—Purse $3,500, 4-year-olds and up,

fillies and mares; 1 3-16 miles; start good; won easily; place driving; went 3:31; off 3:31; winner ch. m. 6, by Beau Gem-Ginargie; owner Florida Shores Stable; trainer B. Lepman; value, $2,275, 700, 350, 175; time, 23 4-5, 47 3-5, 1:13 2-5, 1:38 2-5, 1:58 4-5.

RICCI TAVI, slow to respond, moved boldly through the final quarter for the victory. ROYAL SPY displaced FEAST and shook off that rival on the turn, established a commanding lead at the furlong pole and just failed to last. ALARULLAH lacked the needed late rally. MISSILE failed to respond. Anderson's claim of foul against the winner for alleged interference just prior to the finish was disallowed.

SCRATCHES: Slaipner, Greek Game.

Who Finished Fourth?

Daytona's Finish Muddle Mounting

DAYTONA BEACH —(AP)— Fourth and fifth were added Tuesday to first and second as places in dispute at the windup of the 500-mile Daytona Beach International Sweepstakes Sunday.

Bill France, president of NASCAR and the new 2½-mile Speedway, said the only man who seems sure of his position is Charley Griffith of Chattanooga, Tenn., in third place.

But evidence began to mount that Lee Petty of Randleman, N.C., had nosed out Johnny Beauchamp of Harlan, Iowa, by about two feet for first.

Beauchamp was announced the winner, but shortly thereafter a controversy developed and France admitted that he was not in the absolute correct position to determine which of the cars was ahead at the finish.

Jack Jessee, chief photographer of the Daytona Beach News-Journal, said Tuesday he had examined photos taken by Bob Torbal, an amateur from Duluth, Minn., and other prints and that Petty in car No. 42 was leading by about two feet at the finish.

France still would give no information as to how many other films might be studied before he gave an announcement — and he would not say when such an announcement might be forthcoming.

Cotton Owens of Spartanburg, S.C., originally was checked fourth in a 1958 Pontiac; and Joe Weatherly of Norfolk, Va., was checked fifth in a 1959 Chevrolet. France said officials would now have to run lap checks to see how many each completed before their places could be decided.

2 Low-Average Bowlers Chosen Best of Week

By DICK EVANS
Herald Sports Writer

Aletha Shopmaker and John Chruliski, a pair of low-average performers won handicap honors Tuesday in The Herald's Bowlers-of-the-Week contest.

Alice averages 116 in the Delta League at Hialeah. But last week she posted scratch games of 186-191-174—551 for a 683 handicap.

Chruliski carded his first 600 set of the season (611) in the Pan-American League at Bird Bowl. The 141 averager rolled 204-210-197 for a 757 handicap set.

Before leaving for a Cleveland tournament, Rose Ortega came through with 167-242-226—635 in the Skips Mufflers League at Bowlerama. It's her second award in two months.

White rolled his winning 695 set in the Valentine Tournament at Bird Bowl. He had a high game of 266 to gain a share of the doubles prize.

a—Elkcam Stable entry.
b—V. L. Creal entry.
c—Jos. W. LaCroix entry.
d—Mrs. E. Huebeck Jr. & Mrs. M. Keim & J. A. Wesley entry.

MARIKAY has shown best of all Florida-bred juveniles; NIEQUEST's last was a corker; GREAT ORBIT appears best of the Elkcam entry; ANDALE was second in a good spin, was closing fast; CONFUSE appears like Hooper's best Florida-bred.

701—EIGHTH—Purse $3,500, 4-year-olds and up, claiming $3,500, 1 3-16 miles. Post 4:46.

SEA TRIAL is seeking third in row; MIDSHIPMAN is a mate to top one and a strong contender; RISK AGAIN was second in last and can make trouble; MONTANA is a longshot possibility.

702—NINTH—Purse $4,500, 4-year-olds and up, claiming $12,000-$10,000, 1⅛ miles. Post 5:14.

GOLF SHOES

Golfers bring their golf shoes to the golf range and while sitting on comfortable lawn chairs at the sidelines they replace their regular shoes. They wish to have the stability of a better foothold for proper stance. The walk around the tees is made of asphalt so the golfer won't slip or dull his spiked shoes. This convenience was thought of before construction and has been a pleasure to the professional and more accurate golfer. Enjoy the CLUB ATMOSPHERE while you STOP 'N' SOCK a few at TWIN LAKES GOLF SCHOOL & CLUB, 1090 N.W. 95th St. PL 9-3209. Closed Fri. Eve. till opening Sat. 6:25 P.M.

Bout Off Again

HOUSTON, Tex. — (AP) — The on-again-off-again featherweight bout between Paul Jorgensen and Tommy Bain is off again. The two were scheduled to mix it up here Tuesday night in a 10-rounder, but matchmaker Don Milheim called it off when Bain came up with a swollen eyelid.

Grass Cutters

General Arthur (left) and stablemate Roman Song were among the first to test Gulfstream Park's new $500,000 turf course Monday. General Arthur, who feels right at home on the grass, is eligible for both of Gulfstream's new turf stakes, the Green Valley and the Donn.

Spill Hurts 2 Jockeys

Two jockeys suffered bruises in a spill in Hialeah's ninth race Tuesday and one — Lois C. Cook — was removed to Hialeah Hospital for examination as a precautionary measure.

The spill occurred near the turn to the stretch of the turf race, when Royal Charger, ridden by Cook, fell, and Equipat, Buck Thornburg up, fell over Royal Charger.

Trouble-Shooter Deluxe

Do-It-All Bill Dickey Sights on Yank 'Woes'

NEW YORK —(UPI)— Hall of Famer Bill Dickey, recovered from an illness that took him off the coaching lines, is back with the New York Yankees this spring as a trouble-shooter and vice president in charge of finding another catcher like Yogi Berra.

Officially, Dickey is listed as a Yankee scout in the area around his Arkansas home — but he also is one of the reasons the world champs continue to win — a coach who really can teach.

Dickey's work with Berra several years ago is credited with making a great receiver out of a near-misfit. His work with Yankee hitters has ironed out many a kink that kept the Bombers bombing.

"Dickey will be tutoring hitters like Bill Skowron and Gil McDougald who slumped last year," said a Yankee official. "And he also has a little reconversion job in making a catcher out of young outfielder named Dick Barry."

The Yankees, already loaded with catching talent like Berra, Elston Howard and John Blanchard, leave nothing to chance. You don't have to dig much deeper than that to discover how the Yanks continue to come up with replacements even in a highly competitive player market.

In the case of a kid like Barry, the Yankees can afford to wait until their current catching models wear out. They'll be satisfied if he is ready for a shot in four or five more years. And if he doesn't make it there's time to find someone else.

Of more urgency is Bill's assignment to find out why certain Yankees didn't hit for higher averages last season.

Skowron skidded under .300 for the first time in his major league career. He has a near-perfect swing but movies show he turns his head slightly, losing the ball at the last minute. Dickey's job is to correct that fault without disrupting the big first baseman's swing.

McDougald already has undergone one batting transformation since he came up as a rookie sensation in 1950. Gil's original stance featured a "drooping bat" that hung far down below his wrists as he stood at the plate.

Tomy Lee Sidelined

ARCADIA, Calif.—(AP)—Tomy Lee has been yanked from the lineup for the $100,000-added Santa Anita Derby March 7 and he'll apparently miss the Kentucky Derby, too.

Tomy Lee, second-ranking two-year-old in the nation last year, suffered a hoof injury—and his fourth consecutive defeat—in the $50,000 San Felipe Handicap at Santa Anita Saturday. The injury, a gash on his right front foot, apparently is more serious than was first believed.

Fins, Spikes and Teeth

Catching a Fish Is Fine Fun, But Getting Him off Hook . . .

Fishing's most hazardous period is that short span of time between the act of landing a fish and disposing of him — either in the ice box or over the side. This is the time when incautious handling can result in a serious bite, a gash from sharp gill covers, or a deep puncture wound from spike or fin.

DUNAWAY

Some fish are better equipped with weapons than are others, yet all can be dangerous, even the little ones. Loosen your grip on a panfish, for instance, and he is likely to give a sudden flounce and drive needle-sharp dorsal spines into your hand.

The ultimate in fin defense belongs to the catfish, who has barbed spokes protruding from his back and both sides. These spokes are as strong as nails, and sharper. They also are covered with slime that sets a wound on fire.

Nobody can fish long in coastal waters without facing the delicate problem of removing a catfish from his hook. A lot of anglers are proud of the fact that they "know how to hold" a catfish by gripping him so that the three spikes protrude between the fingers.

I know how to do this myself. But I don't brag about it any more — not since a catfish twisted while I was gaining the hold, and rammed one of his side fins a half-inch deep in my hand.

That is one of the best ways I have found to end your fishing for the day. My hand was so sore and swollen that it was impossible to grip a rod thereafter.

The only way to handle catfish safely is to kill them —and even then use pliers in removing the hook.

* * *

Accidentally Or Not, It Still Hurts

MANY OF OUR popular fish come armed with formidable teeth, and at least two of them appear to bite deliberately after they land in the boat. These are bluefish and snappers.

The teeth of a bluefish are built for slashing. A single bite can rip a considerable amount of flesh. Snappers, on the other hand, grab and hang on, and it sometimes takes much prying to get them loose. Their bite is not apt to be so serious as that of a bluefish, but it is painful enough to avoid.

Such species as kingfish, mackerel and barracuda may not snap at you deliberately, but it really doesn't matter much whether a bite is accidental or on purpose.

Kings and mackerel pose an extra threat because they often are caught in great numbers. What with the excitement of catching a lot of fish, combined with a natural haste to get your line back into the water, you're apt to become careless. Then, all the blood in your boat may not belong to the fish.

It also pays to be suspicious of any fish you haven't caught before. A Miami anglerette, Nell Zachary, called to tell of an injury she suffered on Lake Okeechobee when she mistook a mudfish for a king-size bass. Never having seen a mudfish, she jammed her hand in its mouth to land it. This is an effective procedure for bass, but the mudfish, of course, immediately set about to chew her hand off.

FISHING
with Vic Dunaway

For a minute she thought it had succeeded. Luckily, however, she suffered only a mass of lacerations.

* * *

Watch Out for Those Gill Covers

USUALLY YOU CAN subdue a fish by grasping him firmly around the head and gills. But don't try this with a snook or a grouper or a sand perch, all of which own razor-sharp gill covers. Nor is "razor-sharp" a figurative term. I once met a fellow who claimed he could shave with the gill cover of a snook, and who proceeded to put on a demonstration.

He actually sliced off a few whiskers, along with a small chunk of skin, and quickly lost his taste for experimentation.

Safety equipment for anglers should include a pair of gloves, a club, and long-nosed pliers for working around the mouth of a toothy fish.

Most important of all, you should carry along a healthy respect for anything you haul out of the water.

Webb, Boyd Battle

CHICAGO — (AP) — Stylish Spider Webb, hopefully eyeing Sugar Ray Robinson's dust-collecting middleweight title, risks his No. 3 ranking against bombing Bobby Boyd in Chicago Stadium tonight.

Webb is a 9-5 choice in the 10-round battle of Chicagoans which is the first bout and national TV presentation of National Boxing Enterprises, Inc., (NBE), formerly the Chicago branch of the dissolved International Boxing Club.

TV FIGHT

The match will be televised via ABC-TV (Ch. 10 in Miami), beginning at 10 p.m. EST.

Bitter neighborhood rivals, Webb and seventh-ranked Boyd met once before, March 17, 1954, when both were preliminary fighters. Webb was trailing in that bout when he knocked out the lanky Boyd in the sixth round.

Webb lost only four of 35 pro bouts, winning 31, 16 of them by knockouts. The 27-year-old Spider stopped his last two opponents, Terry Downes in London, and Joey Giardello in San Francisco. However, last Sept. 11, Webb lost a 10-round decision to Gene Fullmer, currently ranked No. 2 challenger behind Basilo in both the National Boxing Association and Ring Magazine ratings.

Boyd, 25, is an erratic hard-puncher with a 52-10-2 record, including 23 knockouts. In 1956, Boyd was riding an eight-bout winning streak against some of the best in the business when his jaw was broken by Giardello.

Hoad Trims Gonzales

LOS ANGELES — (AP) — Australia's Lew Hoad bested world pro champion Richard (Pancho) Gonzales, 6-4, 12-10, Monday night in Jack Kramer's tennis tour.

In the other match, World Amateur Champion Ashley Cooper defeated fellow Aussie Mel Anderson by the identical score — 6-4, 12-10.

Pros Return To Hollywood

After the two-week lay-off to enable the pros to participate in Daytona's "Speed Week," over 35 drivers are expected for the 30-lap feature race. Seven events are on the program.

Always Sunny Heads Silver Collar Field

By JOE BROWN
Herald Greyhound Writer

Always Sunny, holder of one of the top records over the Rickard Course marathon, heads tonight's Silver Collar Purse field, eighth race over the 2,166-foot distance at Miami Beach Kennel club.

JOE BROWN

All of his seven rivals have had starts over the Rickard Course. Two of them —Spotty Line and Gooder —have won twice at the distance. The others are Scoopedo, Mar Opera, Zip's Queenie, Fading, and Tired Me.

* * *

AND SPEAKING of marathons, for the first time since the track's founding, Miami Beach will stage an all-marathon card Thursday night.

Eleven events over the 2,166 foot Rickard course have been scheduled by racing secretary Toby Rogers.

This means that fans will see 23,826 feet of racing.

With eight starters in each of the 11 events, it means that 88 dogs will have to romp a total of 190,608 feet to complete the program.

* * *

FIVE DEFINITE starters were named Tuesday by Racing Secretary A. V. Ellis for the 32nd annual Inaugural at Biscayne Kennel club which opens its 1959 meeting Friday.

They are Jot's Jiggs, Rio Grande Rose, Madame Harmony, Affectionate and Another Portis B.

Racing officials for the coming season include: William R. Moore, presiding judge; R. E. Moy, associate judge; Vince Ellis, racing secretary; R. C. Crawford, paddock judge; Anthony Adam, scale clerk; Robert S. Miller, timer; W. A. Fleming, chart writer; P. A. Kyne, patrol judge; J.H. Yarborough, veterinarian; Mike Broda, lure operator; Dick Dandurand, morning line; C. L. (Duke) Jordan, publicity; and Cal Carter, announcer.

Executive officials are Frank G. Burghart, treasurer, W. Earl Swain, supervisor of operations; and Ben T. Costello, director of mutuels. Fred Hill is new chief of security.

* * *

FELDCREST, the outstanding greyhound of 1958 and world record holder who recently won the $10,000 Silver Anniversary Stake at Hollywood Kennel Club, proved beyond doubt in the Broward event that she has a fine racing heart.

She bruised a toenail on the front paw schooling for the classic and in that particular training spin clipped one-tenth of a second off the 3-8th Hollywood track record — and then took her next two starts and the final of the $10,000 stake.

During the running of the Silver Anniversary race she broke a toenail on a hind paw and still zoomed on to triumph.

Chef Guarita Really Cooks When the Cesta Dough's Up

Jose Guara Nadal once hit 12 home runs in 40 games for a Cuban amateur baseball league.

In fact the speedy first baseman was so good he soon received an offer of a professional contract.

But Jose said no — and jai alai fans from Barcelona to Miami will tell you he made no mistake. Especially those at the Miami Fronton, where the onetime "baseball star" is now a towering hunk of cesta talent under the name of Guarita.

The 6-1, 195-pounder from the rolling hills of Valencia has compiled an astonishing record over six years of play here.

He has won two World singles titles, a Gold Cesta title and a host of other marks that are likely to stand for some time to come. This year, for example, he has finished in the money in 50 per cent of his singles and doubles starts.

Guarita
. . . bats to cestas

On the surface this may hardly seem unusual, but a backcourt star in jai alai is seldom a stickout singles player.

Guarita, now 29, took up the game at the age of nine and was playing for lira, dollars and pesos at the age of 13. This in itself is rather remarkable, since Guarita almost didn't get to be 11.

At 10 he was hit squarely on the head by the rock-hard pelota, not once but twice. The second time they worked over him for three hours. All that's left of those occasions today are two neat scars.

An amateur cook who delights in serving up his own steaks — which he eats like they were going out of style — Guarita once joined his brother, Guara, in a two-hour 45-point partido in Barcelona. The occasion was somewhat unique in the fact that they took on three opponents at the same time.

They won the match and the joint went wild . . . applauding the boys' mother who was sitting in the stands. Both the kids promptly broke down and cried.

Talent is hardly unique in Guarita's family. His father is the best handball player in Spain. His wife, Elsy, swam for Cuba in the last Olympics. His cousin, named Guara, forms with him one of the finest doubles combinations now in action at Miami Fronton.

JOHN CROSBY—About TV

Wayne, Shuster Keep Rolling as Literates

Canadian Comics

THE FORUM of the Twelve Caesars is the only logical place to have lunch with Wayne and Shuster, the Canadian cutups who love to dress up in togas and do sketches about ancient Rome. There I found them last week, singing Latin songs and thinking up pranks to play on the waiters. (They especially love to sneak a light to their own cigarets, beating the waiters with the cigaret lighters to the punch. It's not easy at the Forum where the passion for flames runs almost as high as it does at the Pump Room in Chicago.)

CROSBY

* * *

"WE WERE NEVER considered eggheads in Canada exactly. Just comedians," said Wayne. Lincoln's birthday had come and gone and he pointed out that Canada had no comparable figure.

"We still don't have a national figure up there. When the Davy Crockett craze was at its height, we searched into our past and came up with a guy named Radison who was going to be our Davy Crockett."

He sighed: "Radison turned out to be the biggest turncoat this side of the border. We had to abandon him. Canada needs a hero."

Shuster took up the burden: "This bit about calling us 'literate slapsticks' — well, this is all new to us and very flattering but also maybe a little bit surprising. We were well on our way to getting an MA in English at the University of Toronto when the war came and interrupted our education.

"But we were never anything like the brightest kids in school. Our old teachers at the University are paralyzed with astonishment at the idea that we are considered literate."

Shuster broke in with: "I once called an agent 'literate' and he said: 'Lay off. The boys upstairs will hear you and assign me to Ludwig Bemelmans.'"

* * *

I ASKED HOW Ed Sullivan had happened to be so bowled over by them that he signed them to sixteen appearances—something he had never done before. "Well, the Canadian people were our advance men," said Shuster.

"Wherever he was, the Virgin Islands, Europe, New York, some Canadian would sneak up to him and say: 'You ought to catch Wayne and Shuster.' Finally, this irritated him to the point of asking to see a kine.

"He saw it and signed us up for 16 shows. He had more confidence in us than I have.

* * *

"WE'RE LAZY comedians. We appear on Canadian TV five times a year and we think that's all we can manage. We need at least three weeks preparation for each show. The Canadian people help us pick what we do here.

"They call up and say: 'Do that one about Julius Caesar.' We were thinking of doing a Russian Western called 'Frontier Communist' — but we haven't written it yet."

Wayne and Shuster grew up together, went through school and college together and even were in the Army together. They started collaborating on skits for the Boy Scouts and have been at it ever since. They've been partners so long they wouldn't know how to work alone.

"We're one pair of comedians who never fight with their writers. We are the writers. We bounce ideas off each other and fight like mad but whoever has the best point wins. After we write something, we say: 'Good show! Forward!'

"The trouble with having writers is that if the writers don't have any personality, neither do the comedians. Actually, we had no choice.

"In Canada there aren't any comedy writers. The only humorist was Stephen Leacock, a really great man and the only influence we have had on our humor," said Shuster.

* * *

"WE'VE ALWAYS done things to appeal to all kinds of people. After our take-off on Julius Caesar we were a bit worried that it might not appeal to just everyone. But on our way out of a restaurant, a dishwasher stopped us and said: 'Hey, liked your stuff last night. But do you think people got it? It's not over their heads?' Then we knew we were doing all right."

Mayor Slow; So Is Clock

NEW YORK — (UPI) — An atomic clock — the most accurate timepiece ever devised by man — was installed in a bank building under construction here to record the exact age of the structure at any particular time during the next 200 years.

Only trouble is that the clock will forever be 20 minutes slow. Mayor Robert Wagner was late for the ceremony at which the activating button was to be pushed.

9:30

2 — GARDEN CLUB — "Three Areas of Gracious Living and Flower Arrangement" will be discussed.

4 — I'VE GOT A SECRET — Dick Powell, pulled off at the last minute some weeks ago, bares his innermost thoughts to the panel which will be of no help in straightening him out. This is on tape and was made a while back.

10

2 — ATOMIC PRIMER — "The Next Step."

4 — STEEL HOUR — George C. Scott, who's going to win all the meanie-of-the-year awards, plays a town marshal with not much arresting to do. Teresa Wright plays his wife who plots against him when she sees what he's out to do and Dick Van Dyke is a speeding motorist with a hit-and-run murder pinned on him. The play is another variation on the lynch theme made better by what should be strong performances. Scott's last scene is pathetic and powerful. You'll be seeing more of him.

Best Bet

10 — WEDNESDAY NIGHT FIGHTS — Spider Webb of Chicago, ranked number three among the middleweights by Ring magazine and Bobby Doyd, rated number eight, swap leather at Chicago Stadium.

10:30

7 — AFRICAN PATROL — A scarf, a dog and a woman foolishly in love, help Inspector Derek trap a double-crossing murderer.

11:10

10 — MOVIE — "I, Jane Doe," (1948), Vera Ralston, John Carroll, Ruth Hussey. A Frenhcwoman, married bigamously to an American flyer, is accused of his murder and his lawyer-wife defends her.

11:20

7 — JACK PAAR — Paula Stewart (of "The Most Happy Fella" cast) makes her second appearance as a singer on the show. The Italian fitters who measured Parr for a suit last week will be back with the finished product. Alexander King and comedian Guido Panzini also visit.

11:25

4 — MOVIE — "Intruder," (1953), Jack Hawkins, Michael Medwin. An English colonel is robbed by a former war buddy and tries to find out what made the man turn to crime.

The Best On Radio

12:55 P.M. — Doctor, WCKR — Gideon J. Stocks on "A Dental Defect is Permanent."

4 P.M. — Stereo Adventures, WVCG — Rodgers' "Pal Joey and Lehar's "Gold and Silver Waltz."

4:15 P.M. — Hialeah Race, WCKR—$15,000 added Florida Breeders Stakes.

6 P.M. — Twilight Concert, WVCG — Strauss' "Artists Life Waltz" and Goldsmith's "Toccata for Guitar."

8:30 P.M. — Invitation to Learning, WGBS — Browning's poem "The Ring and the Rose" will be discussed by Pierre Szamek and Walter Cohen . . . Ballet Theatre, WWPB — Ibert's "Divertisement and Piston: The Incredible Flutist."

9:15 P.M. — Concerto Time, WWPB — Saint-Saens' "Symphony No. 3" in C. Minor.

10:30 P.M. — Theatre X, WCKR — "Present Passive," an off-beat documentary about thought patterns in the modern world.

LIFE WITH LARRY THOMPSON

Lot of Reading in Paper

IT IS DUSK outside and I lack only a few more pages before finishing my Sunday recreation and education. This consists of reading The Miami Herald.

Fortunately, I am off on Sundays and can devote the day to this enjoyable task. I start early in the morning and by diligent reading can almost always finish by dark. This is only because I am a fast reader.

This week, The Herald was a mere 280 pages.

I'm never up on time to find out, but I suspect that each paper is delivered in an individual truck.

There's one thing for sure. It can't be delivered the way we used to deliver the Des Moines paper when I was one of the delivery boys, the year we lived in Ames, Iowa.

I had a bike and each other boy had a bike. We got up way before dawn, which wasn't as early in those days as it is now, reported for our papers, folded them and put them in a canvas bag which we then slung across a shoulder.

We got on our bikes, pedaled to our routes, tossed the papers in the direction of the front porches, and were home in time for breakfast.

There were two ways to fold the paper. One was the square way, and was easier to handle on days when there was an unusually large edition, of say 20 or 30 pages. Mostly, though, we used the triangle system. This gave you a better throwing hold and you could zoom a paper a considerable distance with accuracy.

But things can't be done that way any more. Heavens to Betsy, you couldn't get more than one Sunday Herald in a canvas bag, and it would be impossible to fold them much less throw them.

Now that we practically deliver a public library each Sunday morning, the deliveries must be handled by the U. S. Quartermaster Corps.

"Will you kindly settle an argument for us and our wives? Do you dress in the Continental, Madison Ave. or Ivy look?"

ANSWER: I never gave it much thought. I guess you would call it the casual Oklahoma look.

I have been told several times that I dress as if I had hay in my hair, but I don't think this meant I looked as if I came from Harvard. Ivy and hay don't look much alike.

When I wear a coat with my pants, I consider that my Continental look. When I wear a tie with my shirt, I figure that puts me in the Madison Ave. class, although I'm not quite sure what part of town that's in.

But no matter how much I put on or how much I try to spruce up, I'm afraid I come out with that casual Oklahoma look. I can't help it that I look that way, but I might as well pretend I do it on purpose.

* * *

I SUSPECT there's a publicity plug involved here, but as long as it can mean $50 to some member of our Old Poems and Songs Literary and Musical Society, I'm willing to go along with the gag.

Michael Strange is a singing guitarist. I guess that means he plays a guitar and sings at the same time. He is a collector of folk songs. He has the words to an old Irish ditty called "Down by the Tan-yard Side." He wants to sing it at the restaurant-lounge where he works on March 17, which as everybody knows is St. Pat's Day.

So, he says, he'll give $50 to the first person providing him with the melody or sheet music, in its entirety, if they get it to him within the next two weeks.

Send them to him at Pierre's Restaurant and Lounge, 125th St. and Biscayne Blvd. Don't send them to me.

* * *

QUERY, from Mrs. M. Lewis, 2449 Sunshine Blvd., Miramar, West Hollywood: "We have built a brick fireplace that needs an electric log. We are trying to find some birch logs. Do you or any of your loyal readers know where I could find some? Perhaps someone wants to cut down a birch tree and would be good enough to let us have some of the pieces."

The problems we do wrestle with in this space! Personally, I haven't cut down a birch tree for years. In fact, I never have. They didn't grow those things in Oklahoma. Is that what they make birch beer from?

Jack Kofoed Says

Pupils Must Wonder About the Leaders

You teach your children honesty, loyalty, integrity. Reading current history, the kids become as puzzled as two dollar bettors trying to pick a winner in a 15-horse maiden race.

When a man becomes head of a nation, the book says, he gained such eminence because he possesses the finest qualities with which a human being can be endowed. That's what the book says, but it's not what youngsters read in newspapers.

Many heads of state don't fit the pattern. They have hardly a smidgeon of honesty, loyalty or integrity. Take Batista.

Of course, they caught up with him. And, Trujillo? There's a chance that revolt will crack his dictatorship.

Franco in Spain, is another who should not be held up as an example to the younger generation. Aside from being a dictator, Franco has been a colossal flop. At least, Batista and Trujillo brought their countries a degree of prosperity.

In spite of the fact that the United States has poured a billion dollars into Spain, the country suffers from financial blind staggers.

Franco has outlawed all political parties except the Falange. There has always been repression, but no prosperity under his iron fisted rule.

Kassem and his buddy-buddy, Col. Abdul Salam Mohammed Aref, murdered young King Feisal, and seized power. That should have created a bond between them. It didn't. Kassem wanted the whole deal himself, framed Aref, had him tried by court martial and condemned to death.

The double cross is nothing new among the power-and glory boys. When lecherous, pot bellied King Farouk was kicked out of Egypt, it was not Nasser who engineered the coup, but his pal, Mohammed Naguib.

Ever hear of Naguib now? Never! It's all Nasser. His loyalty is on a par with Kassem's. You can hear a reprise of the same story in Communist Russia.

No high official dares trust anyone. Those who seem his closest friends may send him to face a firing squad.

PARENTS WANT their children bright as well as honest. Don't point to a head of state like President Miguel Ydigoras Fuentes, unless you want an example of sublimated idiocy. Ydigoras has batted .400 in the Dumbell League since taking office.

This, plus the fact that she didn't get past the eighth grade in grammar school, made her appointment a travesty on education. The outcry was so violent Ydigoras had to cancel the appointment.

I'm afraid that when fathers and mothers offer examples of probity, courage and common sense to their offspring, they'll have to pass by many men who run the affairs of their countries. That's one reason why the world wallows in its present sorry mess.

★ ★ ★

I GET SOME of the strangest calls. A woman phoned to blast me because an opinion of mine differed from hers. I didn't mind. She's entitled to her ideas, even though she thinks no one else is.

But, when she said: "You're drinking yourself to death. I watch you every day, and I know. It's because you're an alcoholic that you write the way you do." I passed.

It's not that I mind her calling me a drunk, because I'm not, but if the gabby doll watches me as closely as she says she does, I'll have to lock all doors before even taking a before dinner cocktail. Maybe I could get Perry Mason or Richard Diamond to find out how she does it.

Concentrate Now

By CARROLL RIGHTER —

Wednesday, February 25, 1959

PISCES (Feb. 20 to March 20) While you would like to take heed of suggestions given by a serious but most sorrowful expert, it is best you concentrate on getting important work done. P.M. raise own sagging spirits by having a little party at residence, laughing.

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Be certain you steer clear of any altercations with fellow workers. Get in touch with silent associate and get his or her ideas. Cooperate and you will be able to give your best to civic affairs.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Forget about making more money or increasing abundance in A.M. Concentrate on personal affairs and bettering your health and appearance. Be steadfast.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Inasmuch as you have not been entirely honest and gone into full detail, the expert you consult this A.M. will not be able to give you the right advice. Concentrate on what is ideal.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) Attend to own work and affairs during A.M. instead of butting into some quarrel going on close to you. Go to advisors and acquire the right technique, systems.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) You are interrupted in your search for entertainment this morning by some rather unpleasant situations cropping up. Don't let them floor you. Be cooperative. Trust only the loyal.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Work and act today in such a way that you get the attention and approval of Bigwigs, those who will understand your worth and do something constructive to see that you are more successful.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) Step out of abode as early as possible this day and seek new avenues of expression, meet fine people, look forward instead of behind you.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) A day for caution on the road and in physical activity of any sort. Aspects are fine for going to the most influential person you know in your field of endeavor and getting the right slant.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Instead of wasting time fretting over existing conditions, contact those friends who can give you the right suggestions as to how to better your lot and really achieve the success you so desire.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Sublimate own desires in being of real assistance to those less fortunate. Find real happiness and true friendship. Nothing helps so much as rolling up one's sleeves.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Getting into a nervous dither over some unfortunate incident will only ruin your health. Refrain from this today since the chances are great for meeting fine personalities.

He Deserves Just Two Little Words--Thanks, Goodby

DEAR ANN: I've been married 14 years to a fine man. We have three children and another one on the way.

ANN

Five years ago I became involved with a man I'll call Fred. He was a bachelor in our social set and terribly attractive.

We saw each other almost every day for a year. My husband knew nothing of this. There was never a breath of gossip. Fred kept nagging me to get a divorce but I couldn't bring myself to do it.

The sneaking around and lying was making me so nervous I finally told Fred we'd have to end the affair. He put up an awful battle, but finally he left town. I felt as if a two-ton weight had been taken off my head.

Last week Fred called on the phone. I almost collapsed at the sound of his voice after four years. He asked if anyone was at home. Like a fool I said "no." He came right over.

His appearance shocked me. He looked like a skid row bum. His clothes were shabby and he'd been drinking. (He always drank too much, but I'd never thought of him as an alcoholic.) He said he wanted me to see what I'd done to him.

He said if I'd start to see him again he could regain his old self-respect. I feel like a criminal. I want to help him, but I don't want him anywhere near me or my family. He's calling me in a week for my answer. How much do I owe this man?—FOOLISH ONCE

Dear Foolish Once: You owe this man two things — a vote of thanks for leaving you alone, and a standing invitation to stay away from you permanently.

Don't let him play on your sympathy and lay his self-destruction on your doorstep. His own weak will plus the booze put the skids under him. Tell him so on the phone when he calls for your answer. Wish him luck and a pleasant and speedy journey.

* * *

DEAR ANN: Get out the wet noodle. This time you goofed but good.

In your column recently you said "The greatest Teacher of all said we should forgive seven times 700."

It didn't sound right to me, so I looked it up. In Matthew Chapter 18, verses 21 and 22 it says "Then Peter came to Him and said, 'Lord, how oft shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him, till seven times?" But the Lord said, "I say not unto thee, until seven times: but, until seventy times seven!"

I think 70 times 7 lashes with that wet noodle would be fitting punishment for this error. —HAWKEYE

Dear Hawk: You are right and I hang my head in shame for not knowing my Matthew better. (He is my favorite disciple.) I think however, that 490 lashes is pretty stiff punishment for adding a zero (which is really nothing). May we settle for just seven?

Reuther Wins: Jobless Will Stage March

Meany Faction Yields

CIO Revolt in AFL Decisive

SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico—(AP)—AFL-CIO chiefs voted Tuesday to hold a mass conference of the unemployed in Washington soon to dramatize the plight of the nation's jobless.

Walter Reuther, head of the Auto Workers, was named chairman of a special committee to arrange for the conference. Reuther won over some reluctant federation chiefs to the idea.

AFL-CIO President George Meany had advocated a spring meeting of union leaders only to beat the drums for legislation to aid the jobless.

But a stormy session of the AFL-CIO chiefs resulted in plans for a mass demonstration of the actual unemployed more like the plan Reuther had advocated.

The decision came after Reuther led a revolt against Meany's one-man direction of federation policies. Leaders of the former CIO felt their voices should be heard more in the policies of the merged, 14-million-member organization.

The revolt had boiled up for a week behind the scenes of the annual winter meeting of the AFL-CIO Executive Council here. It began when Meany—head of the old AFL—at a council meeting chided Reuther—head of the old CIO — for holding a session of the economic policy committee while the federation president was delayed in Washington by a cold. Meany was reported angry at Reuther's unemployment march project.

Reuther, the chairman of the economic committee, retorted that Meany had never attended economic policy meetings. Anyway, the redheaded Auto Workers Union chief said, as chairman he should have a relatively free hand at mapping economic policy, at least in the committee stage. Reuther said if he couldn't run the economic committee, he might as well quit the post.

Reuther was backed in the argument by James B. Carey, No. 2 man in the Federation's CIO faction. The meeting got so hot that Meany ordered Carey to leave his seat and take one at the foot of the executive council table, something the scrappy Carey refused to do.

Meany, Reuther and other high federation officials failed to resolve the conflict at two secret breakfast meetings during the week. Some union leaders feared a blowup of the four-year-old merged labor organization. A showdown session was held Monday night.

Meany declined to comment afterward. Reuther, with what appeared to be a diplomatic approach, told newsmen: "Nobody ever talked about busting up anything — there are understandings now on things where there were misunderstandings before."

Railroaders Ask 12 Pct. Boost

Engineers Open Throttle for Hike

CLEVELAND — (AP) — The Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers said Tuesday it will ask for a 12 per cent increase in wage rates for its more than 50,000 engineers. Notices will be served Monday on major U. S. railroads.

Chief Engineer Guy L. Brown said the union will ask the 12 per cent hike to be figured on rates in effect Nov. 1, when a three-year contract expires.

Present cost-of-living allowances also would be incorporated into daily rates under the brotherhood's proposal, Brown said.

Passenger service, $19.92; through freight service, $23.26; local and way freight service, $22.75; yard service (all types), $22.42.

Under the Railway Labor Act, requests for wage increases must be served well in advance of contract expiration. With the notices goes a request for a meeting within 30 days.

BLE top officers on each railroad will serve the notice. They also will ask for increases in all "arbitraries" or special payments; and an escalator clause based on the cost-of-living index in effect in Septemter 1959.

Brown said similar demands are being made by the Order of Railway Conductors and Brakemen, and the Switchmen's Order of North America. The three organizations are cooperating on their 1959 wage demands.

Until Report Is Made

Kefauver: Delay Vote on Strauss

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Sen. Estes Kefauver (D.-Tenn.) disclosed Tuesday he is asking the Senate Commerce Committee to hold up the nomination of Rear Adm. Lewis L. Strauss as Secretary of Commerce.

Kefauver, who is opposing Strauss' confirmation, said he wants the committee to delay a vote until the Justice Department makes a full report on Strauss' actions in connection with the controversial Dixon-Yates contract.

Strauss, former chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission, is serving as secretary of commerce under a recess appointment from President Eisenhower.

Kefauver said in a statement that Strauss played a "key role" in connection with the development and execution of the subsequently canceled contract with the Dixon-Yates firm to build a steam plant at West Memphis, Ark., to supply supplemental power to the Tennessee Valley Authority.

The AEC under Strauss entered into the 107-million-dollar contract. The dispute over it began as a public vs. private power fight. Memphis, Tenn., where the power was to be actually used, finally decided to build its own plant.

Kefauver contended that Strauss arranged for a presidential directive requiring the AEC to enter the Dixon-Yates contract over the opposition of the majority of the AEC commissioners.

Congressman to Slice $11,873 Check

Son's Pay Mistake, He Says

DES MOINES, Iowa —(AP)— Rep. Steyen V. Carter (D., Iowa) says he made a mistake in judgment in putting his 19-year-old college freshman son on his Congressional payroll at $11,873 a year, The Des Moines Register said Tuesday.

In a copyrighted story from its Washington bureau, the newspaper quoted Carter as saying, "I'm afraid I didn't have this thing in very good perspective and I'm going to correct it."

"I've made a mistake of judgment on this matter," the newspaper quoted Carter, "and I am going to adjust it within a few days.

"I've been ill with cancer and Steve has been carrying a lot of the load for me. My illness and the fact I was told that I might not live many weeks probably resulted in my making a misjudgement to what I should pay Steve."

The freshman Congressman said previously his son, a pre-law student at George Washington University, had the best qualifications of applicants as his chief assistant.

Carrer told The Register he had received numerous letters from Iowa and "it is about 60-40 against me."

The newspaper further quoted Carter as saying that because of the reaction he felt it was "time to lay things on the line and tell the people about my physical condition which I am sure influenced my actions."

In 1957, Carter said, he developed a cancerous condition on the back of the tongue. Carter said it was believed by doctors at Iowa City that the cancer was caught before it spread to other areas of the body.

Then during the election campaign last fall, he said, his left arm began to pain him. He said he thought it was a pinched nerve in the elbow.

Carter told The Register he went to the House physician, Dr. Robert W. Calver, who sent him to Bethesda Naval Hospital.

There examinations showed that cancer had spread through his body and there was a rather large cancerous growth between the seventh and eighth vertebrae, Carter said.

The Congressman said mustard gas and radiation treatments were successful and he added that doctors now tell him after the treatments that if the cancer does not attack a vital organ he probably can keep it controlled and live out a normal life.

Hoffa's Set for Florida

Teamsters Eye 'Fertile Land'

By DOM BONAFEDE
Herald Staff Writer

Citing Florida as "fertile land" for union activity, Teamsters Boss Jimmy Hoffa reported Tuesday he will "spend whatever money is necessary and supply sufficient organizers to do a job in the state."

He said a statewide drive will be aimed at all unorganized workers, with particular emphasis on Dade and Broward counties and the citrus belt in Central Florida.

At a press conference at the Teamsters executive council meeting at Miami Beach, Hoffa also accepted a challenge laid down by the AFL-CIO in a test for 10,000 unorganized workers in Puerto Rico.

"We'll meet this situation as we have met others forced upon us by the AFL-CIO. And we'll be on top when the fight is over," predicted the stubby Teamsters chief.

"Most of the opposition in Puerto Rico is from the government, not the workers," Hoffa said. "The government is trying to tell the workers they must continue to take low wages to stabilize the economy.

"We are not at war with the government of Puerto Rico and we hope it will not make war with us, but whoever opposes the Teamsters will have to abide by the dicisions of the workers."

He said he did not expect the jurisdictional battle with the AFL-CIO to overflow to the mainland.

The Teamsters' recently launched a campaign to organize 70,000 employes of Sears Roebuck is "months ahead of schedule," Hoffa added.

He answered questions forthrightly, in rapid, staccato fashion.

M. W. Miller, Teamsters Southeastern Conference chairman, later told The Herald, "If our progress continues and the reception is good, we should double our membership in Florida within five years."

Current Teamsters rolls in the state list more than 15,000 members, one third of which belong to the three Miami locals, Miller said.

"We're here to organize any unorganized workers in our jurisdiction," he commented.

"There is no one industry we are more intersted in than any other."

He indicated however, the Teamsters plan to concentrate their Florida drive on an estimated 10,000 citrus workers in Central Florida and the huge non-union labor force in Greater Miami.

Miller, whose headquarters are in Dallas, said the Teamsters "have encountered some resistance here but Miami is fairly liberal."

He then added:

"If we're going to organize Florida we have to organize Miami. We'll lose some elections but we'll do all right in the end."

Nation's Lawyers Charge Court Is Soft on Commies

Housing 'Down Pay' Slash OKd

WASHINGTON — (UPI) — The House Banking Committee voted Tuesday to slash minimum down payments required on medium and higher priced houses covered by government mortgage insurance.

It took the action in starting work on a controversial $2,100,000,000 catch - all Democratic housing bill. The measure calls for $450,000,000 more in long-range federal outlays then President Eisenhower requested.

It represents a major challenge to Eisenhower's economy drive along with other proposals to set up broad federal aid programs for airports and chronically-depressed areas.

The committee voted to permit lenders to offer terms under which a $25,000 house could be purchased under the FHA mortgage insurance program for as little as $2,605 down. The present FHA minimum is $6,980.

On an $18,000 house, the minimum down payment would be $855, compared with the present $1,380. On a $15,000 house it would be $555, as against the present $630. There would be no change on houses selling for $13,500 or less.

The proposed minimums do not necessarily mean that would-be home buyers could get such terms. That would be up to banks and other lenders. But if the bill became law, the minimums would be the lowest down payment lenders could allow under the FHA program.

The proposed reduction in minimum down payment schedules was not included in the $2,650,000,000 housing bill passed earlier this year by the Senate.

The House bill would raise to $25,000 from the present $20,000 the maximum mortgage insured by FHA. The Senate rejected this proposal on grounds that it would encourage builders to construct higher priced homes.

Those supporting the increase have contended that increased building costs made the long-standing $20,000 limit obsolete.

QUITO, Ecuador, — (AP) — Police swung sabers at university student demonstrators Tuesday in a renewal of violence growing out of widespread strikes.

Rodrigo Borja, president of the law school students group at Central University, said seven of the demonstrators were wounded.

About 300 students of the law school went on strike, joining thousands of labor unionists who have walked out in sympathy with striking dock workers at the port of Guayaquil.

The dockworkers walked out 14 days ago to protest the dismissal of eight co-workers. They refuse to return to work unless they get wage increases as well as the reinstatement of the discharged workers.

Sympathy strikers among textile workers and taxi drivers broke out in Quito, Guayaquil, Riobamba and Ambato.

Briton Demands TV Commercial Curb

'Nasty U.S. Import Must Go'

New York Times Service

LONDON — A Labor member introduced in the House of Commons Tuesday a bill to curb what he called "one of the nastiest imports from the U.S."—the interruption of television programs for commercials.

The measure, which Christopher Mayhew has pushed for months, would amend the Television Act to prohibit the interruption of programs by commercial advertisements and keep the intervals between the advertisements to a minimum of 25 minutes.

The 43-year-old former undersecretary of state for foreign affairs, enlivening his appeal with the colorful prose and rich anecdote his subject encourages, denounced the advertising interruptions as "symbols of vandalism and profiteering."

"The other week," he said, "a western film was interrupted—just when the red Indians were about to attack—for an advertisement for a scalp lotion."

This brought down the house. Mayhew continued:

"The only programs not interrupted are religious programs and the discussion program 'Free Speech' featuring Robert Boothby, now a peer.

"Television advertising holds back only, it seems, for the Lord God and Lord Bob."

Congress Called On To Step In

CHICAGO — (UPI) — The American Bar Association Tuesday accused the U. S. Supreme Court of going easy on Communists and called on Congress to step in with tough remedial legislation.

The accusation and recommendation were contained in a controversial resolution approved by overwhelming voice vote at the mid-winter meeting of the ABA's House of Delegates.

The vote made the resolution the official policy of the powerful organization representing 200,000 American lawyers.

The nation's most prominent lawyer, Supreme Court Chief Justice Earl Warren, is not a member. His resignation was accepted by the ABA Friday.

The 50-plus page resolution, prepared by the ABA's special committee on Communist tactics and strategy, said the Supreme Court has weakened the nation's security by its rulings on 24 cases involving accused Communists or anti-subversive legislation.

Flying directly in the face of the court, the ABA delegates demanded that state statutes against sedition be given concurrent enforcement powers as federal laws. The court has held that anti-sedition laws are the exclusive business of the federal government.

The ABA also asked that "wherever there are reasonable grounds to believe that as a result of court decisions internal security is weakened" Congress should enact legislation to plug the loopholes.

The ABA also wants the House un-American Activities Committee to take on the job of studying the operation of existing anti-Communist laws and the House itself to set up a standing anti-Communist investigative committee.

The vast majority of the 246 delegates brushed aside scattered opposition in putting themselves on record as disapproving the Supreme Court's interpretation of how the nation should fight Communist subversion.

The bitterest criticism of the ABA action came from Washington. Rep. Emanuel Celler (D., N. Y.), chairman of the House Judiciary Committee, called the resolution "irresponsible" and "most unseemly."

Two committee members congratulated the ABA, however. Rep. William T. McCulloch (R., Ohio) predicted a "friendly reception" for the proposals in Congress. Rep. Robert T. Ashmore (D., S.C.) was happy that the ABA delegates "finally have come to feel that the Supreme Court is not above criticism."

John D. Randall of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, was nominated to succeed Ross L. Malone of Roswell, N. M., as the next president.

Nikita Rejects West's Plan for Berlin Talks

Red Calls Again For Summit Meet

MOSCOW —(UPI)— Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev Tuesday rejected as "unbusinesslike" the Western plan for a Big Four foreign ministers' conference on Berlin in a biting speech that chilled optimism over his summit talks with Prime Minister Harold Macmillan.

He warned again that the Russians would meet with force any Allied attempt to force a passage to Berlin, and insisted that the best way to settle the crisis would be to hold a summit meeting.

Ranging over the international field, the premier also rejected the Western proposals for control of a nuclear test ban. He warned that Russia would continue testing weapons and again turned down the idea of the Eisenhower "open skies" disarmament inspection program.

His speech, delivered at a Moscow election rally during a one-day lull in the talks with Macmillan, blasted hopes of narrowing East-West differences, although Khrushchev spoke in friendly terms of Britain and suggested a 20 to 50-year Anglo-Soivet non-aggression pact.

Macmillan was off visiting the Dubna nuclear power plant while Khrushchev spoke at the televised rally in his capacity as a candidate for a seat on the Moscow City Soviet (Council).

His rejection of a foreign ministers' conference on Berlin left the issue back where it started Nov. 27 when Russia gave the Western allies exactly six months to clear out of West Berlin and allow it to be turned into a "free city."

He objected to the fact that the West did not include Poland and Czechoslovakia, "the first victims" of the German invasion, in the proposed talks on Berlin.

"This is an unbusinesslike approach and unacceptable," he said. "Moreover, the West wants entanglement in a network of diplomatic talks from which there is no escape."

He derided the U.S. and contrasted the friendly welcome given to Macmillan in Russia with the incidents that greeted Soviet Deputy Premier Anastas I. Mikoyan on his recent American tour.

"We have no hooligans like those who tried to throw some eggs at Comrade Mikoyan," he said.

Khrushchev insisted that an East-West summit conference is needed to settle such problems as Berlin and nuclear armaments.

The heads of government rather than foreign ministers, he said, "have the full measure of rights and responsibility for ensuring universal peace."

Only they could "soberly examine and solve major problems."

Brushing off the idea of foreign ministers meeting, he said: "Our foreign minister (Andrei Gromyko) is a very busy man and I hardly think he should waste time on fruitless talks."

U.S. Asks 'Reasoned' Answer

WASHINGTON — (UPI) — The U. S. called upon Russia Tuesday to make a "reasoned reply" to the West's proposal for a Big Four foreign ministers conference to settle the Berlin and German problems.

The State Department said a speech by Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev rejecting such a meeting and demanding a summit conference instead was a political oration and could not be construed as Russia's formal position.

Privately U.S. officials feared that Khrushchev might be trying to take advantage of Secretary of State John Foster Dulles' illness by renewing his demands for a summit conference.

Dulles, now hospitalized with cancer, has long made clear the U. S. would not agree to a summit meeting unless it was carefully prepared for through advance diplomatic negotiations, including a foreign ministers meeting. Otherwise, he feels, Russia would use such a conference merely as a propaganda sounding board.

Officials said Khrushchev might be laboring under the mistaken impression that with Dulles on the sidelines, he could stampede the West into a summit meeting.

Asked to comment on Khrushchev's address, State Department Spokesman Lincoln White said:

"I have no comment on a speech by Mr. Khrushchev at a Moscow political rally. We are awaiting a reasoned reply to our note of Feb. 16." The note called for the foreign ministers meeting.

Officials said privately it remained to be seen whether the Khrushchev speech foreshadowed a deeper freeze in the cold war or merely represented a bargaining maneuver by the Soviet leader.

Levying Powers Boosted

High Court Gives States Tax 'Break'

WASHINGTON — (UPI) — The Supreme Court gave a big boost Tuesday to states seeking to safeguard or increase their share of the taxpayer's tax dollar.

It handed down a series of decisions strengthening the hand of the states in tax disputes and upholding their right to levy taxes on businesses.

The court, returning from a four-week recess, upheld 6 to 3 the right of Georgia and Minnesota to levy income taxes on out-of-state firms whose business within their borders consists solely of taking orders.

In the Georgia case, the court overturned a decision by the State Supreme Court which had held the tax unconstitutional. In both cases, the high court held the states could collect taxes from firms which had sales offices in Georgia and Minnesota and offices and factories elsewhere.

California and Pennsylvania supported Georgia and Minnesota in the fight while the National Association of Manufacturers opposed the tax right.

In other cases, the court:

Agreed to decide whether the armed services can court martial U.S. civilians working for them overseas in peacetime. Seven persons were injured, one critically, when two cars collided at the intersection of NW 13th Ave. and 70th St. Tuesday.

Miami Police Officer Alex Bodea said a car driven by James Leroy Webb, 20, of 1931 NW 74th Terr. failed to yield the right of way and smashed into a northbound car driven by Francis J. Robinson, 19, of 3790 E. 8th Ave., Hialeah.

Robinson was taken to Jackson Memorial Hospital with severe head injuries. He was reported in critical condition. Webb and five passengers were treated for minor injuries.

Pirating Of Discs Probed

Phony Records Linked to Mob

WASHINGTON—(AP)—A Cicero, Ill., man was accused Tuesday of fronting for Capone-era mobsters in counterfeiting popular records and selling them at cutrate prices throughout the Midwest.

But when asked about the alleged racket, Charles (Chuck) English refused to give the Senate Rackets Committee any answers. Again and again he invoked the Fifth Amendment as he heard himself pictured as a hanger-on in Chicago's gangland.

Carl J. Burkhardt of Cincinnati, Ohio—described as a onetime dealer in obscene recordings — also invoked the Fifth Amendment in refusing to answer various questions.

However, Burkhardt acknowledged his firm—Rite Record Production Inc. — turned out about 125,000 records in 1957 under the labels of various recording companies.

Committee Counsel Robert F. Kennedy said these were counterfeits, and he linked the operation with English and the Chicago mob.

The rackets committee, which has been looking into alleged hoodlum influences in the jukebox industry, Tuesday began exploring what Kennedy said is a gangland scheme to flood the Midwest with records pirated from the products of legitimate recording concerns.

Kennedy said the reproductions are sold at cutrate prices under phony labels identifying them as coming from bona fide firms.

A list placed in evidence included such tunes as "Kisses Sweeter than Wine," "You Can't Stop Me from Dreaming," "Yellow Dog Blues," and "The Long, Hot Summer." There was no information on the musicians involved.

Labels allegedly counterfeited included Cadence, Cameo, Ember, Herald, Keen, Lark, Roulette, Vee Jay, Swan and Warner.

As English alternately grinned, looked bored or glared, Kennedy told the committee English once had run horse-betting errands for Jake (Greasy Thumb) Guzik, Sam (Golfbag) Hunt, Paul (The Waiter) Ricca and Tony Accardo.

Now, Kennedy said, English has attained status with these same Capone mobsters by distributing counterfeit records through his Continental Sales Co. of Chicago.

But the committee counsel contended English is only a front and that the big man is Sam Giancana. Kennedy called Giancana the "chief gunman for the successors of the Al Capone mob."

Burkhardt testified that a man he knew as George Miller had arranged by telephone for production of some phonograph records in Burkhardt's plant.

Kennedy said Miller's correct name is Charles Hilger and that Hilger was tied in with English and the Chicago racketeer group.

As Burkhardt told it, the arrangement was for him to produce records at his factory, affix labels supplied by Miller, and ship them daily by bus to Miller in Chicago. He said he was paid daily by certified check.

Kennedy said Burkhardt took in about $20,000 in five weeks of turning out records for the counterfeiters.

Traffic-Snarling Officers Named

Two Miami motorcyclemen who conducted an off-duty roadblock which bottled up traffic on Key Biscayne Sunday while TV cameras filmed a commercial were identified Tuesday by Acting Miami Police Chief John Webber.

They are Sgt. Shafter Wyatt and Officer Burt Langdale, both with more than 10 years service on the department.

Webber said he had banned all off-duty work by motorcycle officers pending return of Chief Walter Headley, who is absent because of the death of his father. Wyatt and Langdale have been asked to submit a full written report on the incident.

Police Get Lead In Cowart 'Job'

Miami police said Tuesday they had a good lead on who stole County Commissioner Faris N. Cowart's little green box — containing $6,500 cash and $15,000 worth of stocks — but have been stymied in getting enough information to file charges.

Detectives intimated the two suspects had been inside the Cowart home at 1430 SW 12th Ave. several times before the Feb. 8 burglary. The little box was hidden in a closet.

Cowart said the cash had been left to him by his father and was to have been given to his 70-year-old mother.

Judge Assigned To Giblin Case

Chief Justice Glenn Terrell of the Florida Supreme Court Tuesday assigned Circuit Judge L. L. Parks of Tampa to hear Dade Circuit Judge Vincent Giblin's petitions against the City of Coral Gables.

Circuit Judge Marshall Wiseheart had requested that Justice Terrell name an out-of-town judge to hear the cases. Terrell said he complied with the request because of "peculiar local conditions."

Terrell set no date for Judge Parks to go to Dade County. Judge Parks will set the date for trial of the suits in which Giblin seeks to ban the Gables from trying him on charges growing out of a traffic arrest.

TURF EXPERTS seem pretty well agreed that last Saturday's Widener field wasn't exactly $100,000 stake calibre. There have been several such stakes in the past few years, with the purses geared for better horses than we saw.

Would it be a sacrilege to suggest that we take the same money and split it up a bit? The McLennan attracts the same horses we see in the Widener, for far less money. Perhaps a progressive stake program through the 40-day meeting, with the champion selected on points, or selection of a "Champion of the Meeting" by these same estimable gentlemen who make like wise in yon press box?

Some turfmen have hurled harsh words at Jockey Bill Hartack because he refused to ride Greek Circle Saturday, after taking the 4-5 favorite onto the track. Let's face facts! Hartack's business is riding race horses. He was on the most likely horse in the race and a win meant money for Hartack as well as the owner. So he didn't dismount for anything trivial. He thought Greek Circle acted as if something was wrong. If so, he'd burn up a lot of 4-5 money. The horse might be permanently injured. Hartack thought it wouldn't be fair to race under such conditions. He was perfectly right.

Jury Hits School Safety

Fire Protection Held Wanting

By JAMES BUCHANAN
Herald Staff Writer

A special Grand Jury report said Tuesday that inadequate fire protection in Dade County is costing dollars and could cost many lives of Dade school children.

The jury's investigation began after the disastrous Chicago school fire when a series of articles in The Herald pointed up poor safety practices in Dade schools, nursing homes and night clubs.

It would take 25 minutes for a county fire truck to reach Key Biscayne Elementary School after an alarm was sounded, the report said.

And the county has no equipment to battle more than a second-floor blaze anywhere in the unincorporated area.

A dollar-and-cents evaluation of the county's fire-fighting equipment is shown in insurance rates.

There's a $17 difference between the City of Miami's low rate, and the premiums paid by home owners in the unincorporated areas.

One of the biggest hurdles, according to the report, is the fact that many municipal fire departments can't go to the aid of county firemen because they use a different type of equipment.

The jurors' recommendations include standardization of all equipment and fittings in order that hoses, hydrants and hose connections can be interchanged.

Once accomplished, the jury said it believed the county and all municipalities should enter into a firefighting agreement and use a central alarm and communications system.

Most municipalities have an unofficial mutual aid pact operating now.

Complete reorganization and expansion of the County Fire Department, hardest hit by the jury report, was recommended last month after a survey by Public Safety Director Thomas J. Kelly.

At the time, Kelly said it was up to the county to bring its equipment up to date before calling for standardization by the municipalities.

While the jury's report named no specific schools, The Herald's survey had shown several fire hazards at Miami Edison Junior and Senior High Schools.

School Superintendent Joe Hall said the School Board was making changes as rapidly as possible, and that the jury's latest findings probably would spur the work.

Officials admitted, off the record, that consolidation of all fire departments probably would be fought by the personnel involved. They would fear, the officials said, a loss of seniority and pension advantages.

Any such consolidation, however, would have to await unification of equipment and incorporation of the fire department into a citywide communications system.

Czechs Jail 175

VIENNA —(AP)— Communist Czechoslovakia's Interior Minister Rudolf Barak Tuesday disclosed the arrest of 175 persons on charges of anti-state activities, Radio Prague said.

National Summary

A series of storms moving across Canada Tuesday blocked the southward progress of severely cold arctic air while clear skies with diminishing winds allowed lower readings over the East. Most sections of the country will show little change in temperatures or a tendency for warming today. High pressure extended sunny skies over broad areas from the Rockies to the Appalachians with midday temperatures ranging from the teens and 20s in the north to 50s as far as Kansas Tuesday.

A disturbance off the coast maintained snow through the northeast in addition to flurries in a brisk northerly flow over the eastern Great Lakes region into the mountains from West Virginia northward. Rochester, N.Y., reported a 2 inch accumulation during the forenoon and similar deposits in Massachusetts raised snow cover to 7 inches at Worcester and 5 inches at Boston. Clearing later on left only a few flurries in the mountains, but a chance that a Canadian disturbance may trail a little snow over northern New England today.

Mild sunny 70 and 80 degree weather in Florida presented a contrast to the 50 degree range more prominent along the leading edge of cool air in the Gulf states. Rain fringed the coastal regions from Texas to southern Alabama and northwest Florida.

Collins' Subpena Quashed

'Shorty' Jones Goes on Trial

BARTOW —(UPI)— The bribery trial of former State Rep. E. B. (Shorty) Jones Jr. began Tuesday after the judge ruled out a defense subpena naming Gov. LeRoy Collins and two other state officials.

Selection of a six-man jury was begun immediately after Criminal Court Judge Roy H. Amidon quashed the subpena which would have required Collins, his executive assistant, William Durden, and Director Don McLeod of the Sheriff's Bureau, to present gambling investigation data.

The 39-year-old Jones, a member of the House from 1953 to 1955 and a former director of the State Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission, is charged with trying to bribe Polk County Sheriff Hagan Parrish to overlook operations of a bolita syndicate.

Jones' attorney, Ellis Rubin of Miami, had issued some 10 days ago a subpena ordering Collins, Durden and McLeod to present all evidence at their disposal regarding gambling investigations in Polk County dating back to 1956.

But Attorney General Richard Ervin filed a motion Monday asking that the subpena be quashed on grounds Collins, as governor, comes under "common law immunity" and is not obligated to comply with the subpena.

He said that Durden, whose information on such matters would have to come from the governor, was also immune.

Ervin said that records of the Sheriff's Bureau were confidential and could not be made public by being admitted as evidence.

Amidon ruled in Ervin's favor, but noted that Rubin could still subpena McLeod to appear as a witness. Rubin served notice that he would do just that.

Of the three state officials, McLeod was the only one present at the pre-trial hearing Tuesday morning.

Judge Amidon also ruled that he would hold night court sessions starting Wednesday to finish the trial by Saturday.

Jones, who now operates a drive-in restaurant in Perry, is charged with offering Parrish money on March 22, 1957, shortly before Parrish took office as sheriff, to permit bolita operations in Polk.

He was indicted and arrested Oct. 21. He pleaded innocent at arraignment Nov. 21.

Parrish said that Jones, allegedly operating as an intermediary for a gambling syndicate, offered him $5,000 outright and $1,000 a month if he would ignore bolita operations.

Road Plan Gets Mixed Reaction

TALLAHASSEE — (AP) — A State Road Department proposal to break up partnership with the counties in the spending of the 5th, 6th and 7th cent gasoline tax money drew mixed reaction from North Florida legislators Tuesday.

Most lawmakers who met here to hear Road Chairman Joe Grotegut outline the plan reserved final decision until they could discuss it with their county commissioners.

Rep. John Shipp of Jackson County said he would make no final commitment until he had conferred with his commissioners. But he said the proposal appeared sound to him.

Rep. Addison Drummond of Bonifay, on the other hand, was openly hostile.

Sens. Wilson Carraway of Tallahassee and Senate President-designate Dewey M. Johnson of Quincy said they believed the plan would work to the disadvantage of their counties.

Sen. Charley E. Johns of Starke said, however, it appeared "a good deal for my counties."

The proposal provides that the Road Department take full control of the spending of the 80 per cent surplus of the 5th and 6th cents of the gasoline tax after boomtime county road debt obligations have been met.

The counties would receive in cash to spend as they choose 20 per cent of the 5th and 6th cent surplus and all of the 7th cent revenue.

The Road Department would assume responsibility for all primary rights of way acquisition. The Road Department would guarantee to spend with in each county its annual surplus on primary rights of way or construction.

Under present law, the Road Department is responsible for spending the 80 per cent surplus of the 5th and 6th cents of the gas tax and 80 per cent of the 7th cent, but must spend it as directed by county commissioners. Failure of state and county to agree on a project often results in the job not being done, Grotegut said.

Shipp said he particularly liked that part of the proposal which would give the counties full control of the seventh cent money.

"We have about 1,500 miles of roads in Jackson County which need hardsurfacing and nothing else. The Road Department, however, sets right and way and construction standards that makes the surfacing of these roads impractical," Shipp said.

"This plan seems to offer the solution. The county can take its money and do the necessary surfacing without a 100-foot right of way and a lot of fancy and costly engineering," he added.

Ray Cash Plea Wins On Appeal

WASHINGTON — (UPI) — The U.S. Supreme Court Tuesday ordered Florida to take another look at the 1955 burglary conviction of Ray Cash, 20, who was tried without a defense attorney.

Justice Potter Stewart spoke for the court in a unanimous opinion. He said the high court can't tell whether Cash's statements are true on the present record. But he said the Florida courts should determine that issue.

Cash, a native of Miami, was sentenced by Judge George L. Patton to 15 years after a second trial. The first in 1954, ended in a hung jury.

He defended himself at the second trial after his lawyer withdrew from the case. Florida law does not require appointment of counsel in non-capital cases.

Cash's mother said she tried to get an attorney but several refused because she could offer too little money and there was but a short time to prepare the case.

Cash's 32-year-old brother, Virgil, is also seeking freedom from a 30-year sentence he is now serving at Raiford Prison for the 1953 wounding of a Dade policeman during a robbery.

Another member of the Cash gang, Long John Fulford — also in prison — recently confessed the shooting for which Virgil was convicted and Ray acquitted.

Milk Board To Be Heard

TALLAHASSEE — (AP) — Circuit Judge Hugh Taylor Tuesday set a hearing tentatively for Friday, Feb. 27, on a request by the Florida Milk Commission to dissolve a temporary injunction prohibiting the commission from regulating the milk industry in the Tallahassee area.

The date was not made final pending agreement by opposing attorneys. An organization of dairy farmers obtained the temporary injunction last Thursday after formally petitioning the commission to withdraw its powers from the 15-county milkshed.

Sales Prop Need For Fresh Fruit

ORLANDO — (UPI) — Florida Citrus Commission Chairman J. R. (Rip) Graves of Vero Beach said Tuesday something must be done to raise the fresh fruit business to its former stature in the Florida citrus industry.

Graves spoke at the 25th annual meeting of the Florida Citrus Production Credit Association, celebrating its silver anniversary.

He noted that the fresh fruit side of the industry has been steadily slipping through the years and said that it must increase in volume if the industry is to market profitably the giant crops expected to be produced within the next few years."

"Fresh fruit is essential and vital to the Florida citrus industry," he said.

"In order to regain and maintain its position with Florida's growing production, a searching reappraisal should be made of present cultural, harvesting, packing and marketing practices and processes, with the ultimate goal of making satisfied customers of Mr. and Mrs. Consumer," he said.

Graves said the commission "is taking the initiative in doing something about the fresh fruit situation."

He said, "Our general manager and staff are working closely with the Florida Packing House Managers Association in order to bring the entire fresh fruit industry into proper focus."

Graves called for: expanded export markets; educating the increasing population to use citrus; broadening of total citrus markets, and acceleration of research programs on cultural practices to produce better quality fruit and new citrus uses.

He said the demand for top grade oranges for frozen concentrate has led many shippers to place their inferior fruit onto the fresh fruit market.

3 Armed Fugitives Sought

PERRY — (AP) — Three armed convicts who overpowered state road camp guards and escaped were believed holed up in woods north of here Tuesday.

Two others who escaped with them were arrested in Valdosta, Ga.

The three convicts were Roy Penley of Lenoir, N.C., serving five years for unarmed robbery; Arnell Elliott of Porteville, Calif., serving three years for breaking and entering, and Danny Wilkins of Wilmington, N. C. serving 10 years for breaking and entering.

Searchers believed they had several shotguns and pistols in their possession.

The fugitives escaped in a stolen State Road Department car which they abandoned a few miles north of town, apparently when they met a highway patrol car. They took to the woods.

A search party saw the fugitives last night but they split up and escaped in the darkness.

JP Faces Suspension

JACKSONVILLE — (UPI) — Peace Justice Steve J. Targonski was fined $500 in Duval County Criminal Court Tuesday for driving while drunk and may be suspended from office.

Targonski was arrested after a minor accident April 12 and was convicted Feb. 13.

Investigating officers testified Targonski appeared intoxicated. Targonski denied being drunk, but admitted having a few drinks at a bar earlier.

William Durden, the governor's executive assistant, said it was the policy in cases of conviction of public officials to suspend them from office.

Admitted Gambler Wins Case

JACKSONVILLE — (AP) — William Brush seems to have won his strange case, clearing himself of gambling charges despite acknowledgement of his action.

Brush, a bartender, lost money betting with a state undercover agent in July and was charged with gambling. He was one of several arrested in raids by the Duval sheriff's department and the State Beverage Department.

Most of 56 arrests were based on buys or bets placed by Henry Amoon, an agent for the state.

Brush was bound over to Criminal Court but his Attorney, M. W. Goldstein, filed suit to recover $20 which Brush said he lost to Amoon in friendly bets on baseball games.

A state law enabling persons to recover gambling losses gives immunity to persons required to testify.

So John L. Briggs, assistant county solicitor, made a surprise move in behalf of Amoon by acknowledging liability for him and asked that a $20 judgement be entered against Amoon. He hoped thereby that no depositions would be taken or testimony given under which immunity could be granted.

But Goldstein had depositions taken anyway and filed in small claims court, even after a $20 judgement was given to Brush against Amoon.

The matter came before Criminal Court Judge William T. Harvey who ordered the charge voided.

Laundry Gets Taken To Cleaners

JACKSONVILLE — (AP) — The paymaster of a Jacksonville laundry was arrested Tuesday on charges of padding his employer's payroll for more than a year.

J. C. Patrick, chief criminal investigator for Duval County, said Rocky Lemieux, 36, was taken in custody after a preliminary investigation indicated he had included on the company's payroll the names of at least 12 former employes.

Patrick said the operation may have netted Lemieux as much as $900 a month since May 1957. The owner of the laundry discovered the irregularity when the accused man was absent on a payday and there were 12 pay envelopes too many.

The investigator said a check of the firm's records showed the names of four former employes had been on the payroll for varying periods. The total involved in the four cases amounted to $4,602, officers said.

Lemieux was placed in jail on grand larceny charges.

20 Legislators Vow To Back Segregation

Move Hits At Collins And Dade

TALLAHASSEE — A group of legislators met secretly in Daytona Beach Sunday and adopted a "manifesto," vowing to fight for racial segregation and states rights, Rep. Richard O. Mitchell of Leon disclosed Tuesday.

Mitchell, who spearheaded the movement, said more than 20 House and Senate members have approved the manifesto, and he believes all 133 members will support it before the Legislature opens.

Mitchell said about 15, including David Eldredge of Miami, actually attended the meeting Sunday night. A number of others have since asked their names be included among the signers, he said.

The manifesto declares the people of Florida are "more determined than ever" to maintained their segregated way of life and to preserve states rights.

It takes issue with recent statements by Gov. LeRoy Collins that the attitude of the people of Florida has changed since collapse of Virginia's "massive resistance" program recently.

Collins made the statement in forecasting that a school in Miami can be integrated peaceably next September. He had said several months ago there was no community in Florida which would accept voluntary school integration without strong public resistance.

Since then, the Dade County School Board has ordered four Negroes admitted next fall to the all-white Orchard Villa school, and Collins said it could be done without violence.

The legislative manifesto says such statements are not well-founded and the sources of such statements are not accurately in tune with what the legislators believe to be the feelings of the public.

It states the issue is not merely one of integration versus segregation, but has to do with the whole field of states rights. "We believe the people will resist as long as legally and morally possible," it says.

"The word just spread around after the races," one of the signers to The Herald. "I don't actually know who started it.

"There was no wild talk, and no direct accusations against anyone. There was as much talk about preserving state's rights as there was about preserving segregation.

"Most everyone there interpreted the Dade county move as a foot in the door for integration, and we're out to close the door again."

Mitchell said the group at Daytona Beach discussed possible legislation to ward off even token integration, including the "last resort" bill to close schools, rather than submit to mixed classes.

"The last resort bill will be introduced and passed", Mitchell said, along with other measures not yet developed in detail.

He said he has had calls requesting that their names be included from Sens. Bart Knight, Blountstown; and Charley Johns, Starke, and Reps. Welborn Daniel of Lake, George Stallings of Duval, J. W. McAlpin of Hamilton and Speaker-Designate Tom Beasley of Walton.

Miamians Win Round

U.S. Court Delays Probe of NAACP

Four Miamians Tuesday won a temporary victory in their running battle with a Florida legislative committee investigating alleged Communist infiltration in the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

The U.S. Supreme Court granted a stay of a Florida Supreme Court order which had directed the Negroes to produce a membership list, state whether they were members of the Miami branch of the NAACP, and tell whether they knew other members.

Washington officials explained Tuesday's Supreme Court ruling does not quash the Florida court's original order. It merely postpones the action until the four have had an opportunity to file a formal appeal to the U.S. Supreme Court.

The four are the Rev. Theodore R. Gibson, Ruth Perry, Vernell Albury and Grattan E. Graves, Jr.

They successfully challenged the state court order on the constitutional rights of free speech and association.

In postponing the Florida court's order, the U.S. Supreme Court specified the stay would remain in effect only until it could rule on the Miamians, pending appeal.

Earlier in the week, Sen. Charley E. Johns of Starke, chairman of the committee probing alleged Communist associations in the NAACP, said he thought the NAACP was "trying to tire us out in court . . . but they are not going to do it."

G. E. Graves Jr., the NAACP's attorney and one of the four, could not be reached for comment Tuesday afternoon.

Johns said he was "not at all surprised" at the U.S. Court's action.

But Johns said his committee will not give up, if it takes years and years. He said the Legislature will extend the life of the committee for as long as it takes.

"The NAACP controls the U. S. Supreme Court," Johns charged. "The NAACP could file anything and that court would grant it."

The Bigger They Are . . .

CLEARWATER —(AP)— Law officers in the Tampa Bay area Tuesday were on the lookout for a man who forged the names of sheriffs from three counties to checks.

A check for $40.95 carrying the signature of Pinellas County Sheriff Don Genung was cashed Saturday at a Safety Harbor jewelry store.

Checks were forged earlier this month in the names of the sheriffs of Hillsborough and Marion Counties and attorney Pat Whitaker of Tampa.

Express Rate Hike May Cost $255,000

TALLAHASSEE —(UPI)— Railway Express asked the Public Utilities Commission Friday for authority to increase its rates on shipments within Florida by 15 per cent.

The increase would cost Florida shippers an additional $255,000 a year, the commission estimated. The increased rates would effect all commodities except fish, citrus gift packages, wearing apparel and certain carload traffic.

It would coincide with an interstate rate hike granted last October.

Railway express got its last intra-state raise in November, 1957, and it hit only milk and cream products.

The commission made no immediate decision on the increase, which Railway Express said was needed to offset recent wage increases and fringe benefits to employes.

Naples Nautical? Well . . .

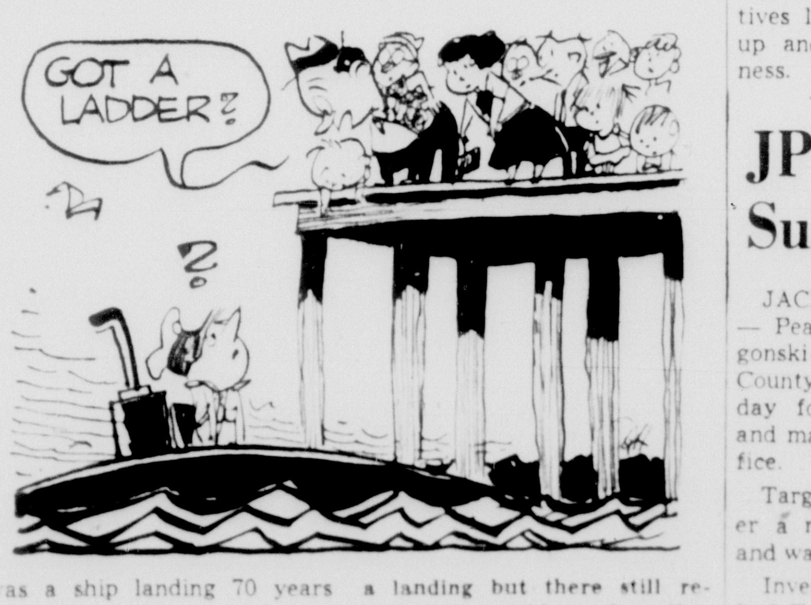
By TOM MORGAN
Naples Bureau Chief



GOT A LADDER?

NAPLES—If the USS Marlin (SST-141) makes an Armed Forces Day jaunt to Naples from its Key West base it had better be equipped with a ladder or small boats. Otherwise nobody will get a look at the craft.

The suggestion has been forwarded to the city that the submarine visit Naples during a West Coast tour, May 15-17. Now the city must decide what to do.

The Marlin is described as 130 feet long, 13 feet wide and draws 13 feet. That's an unlucky combination.

The city dock is long enough to tie to, but it lies about three miles from the Gulf, at the end of a channel, supposedly eight feet deep, and rather rock studded. In fact it's so rocky shrimp boats no longer put in here regularly.

The alternative is the city fishing pier in the Gulf, which was a ship landing 70 years ago when Naples was founded. Unfortunately it is about 25 feet above the water and no longer has a landing stage for boats, or a ladder to reach such a stage if there were one.

The Navy has suggested an intermediate barge be used as a landing but there still remains the problem of getting up and down the barnacle-covered piling of the pier.

About the only solution seems to be to anchor the craft offshore and ferry visitors aboard.

Or let them swim out.

Gasoline Price Wars May Face Federal Crackdown

Dow Jones, AP, UPI, N.Y. Times

The stage was set Tuesday for a possible crackdown on gasoline price wars started by major fuel companies.

A Federal Trade Commission examiner issued a tentative order forbidding Pure Oil Co. from cutting gasoline prices in any market where it competes with other brands unless proportionate cuts are made throughout its sales territory.

In Chicago, a spokesman for Pure Oil said, "We disagree with the adverse findings of the hearing examiner and have already filed an appeal to the full commission."

If the FTC adopts the order, it will mark the government's first attack on geographic price discrimination in the gasoline industry. FTC officials said such an order could lead to similar action against discriminatory price-cutting by other major companies.

Detroit Firm Picks Broad A Director

Miami financier Shepard Broad Tuesday was elected to the Board of Directors of Bohn Aluminum and Brass Corp. at the firm's annual stockholder's meeting in Detroit.

Broad is President and Chairman of the Board of the American Savings, Building and Loan Ass. of Miami Beach. He also is on the Board of Directors of the Mercantile National Bank of Miami Beach and is a founder of the North Shore Bank.

The Martin Family Checks Expenses

. . . inflation has hit them hard

How Can He Beat Inflation On a Policeman's Salary?

Third of a Series

By STAN JOHNSON
Herald Business Writer

Inflationwise, the policeman's lot is not a happy one.

As he stands in the intersection of NE 1st St. and Miami Ave. directing traffic, Patrolman Ralph L. Martin glances occasionally at the window of a nearby shoe store.

Displayed are a pair of heavy-soled brogans like the ones he wears out every six months. The price tag says $14.95. Martin remembers that he paid $7.50 for the same shoes in 1949.

Looking back over the past 10 years, most skilled workers or professional men can subtract a 22 per cent increase in the cost of living from the percentage of increase in their income and come up with a healthy balance that represents a higher standard of living.

This is not true of Patrolman Martin or of millions of others who have government or white collar jobs, fixed incomes or pensions.

Since 1949, Martin's salary as a patrolman has risen 27 per cent — from $4,188 to $5,304.

In the same period, the union scale for journeyman electricians has risen 40 per cent —from $2.50 to $3.50 per hour.

Nearly half of Martin's increase is a result of longevity boosts — rewards for his 17 years with the Miami Police Department and for his greater experience in his work.

Cost of living raises have added only 16 per cent to Martin's paycheck in 10 years, but living costs have gone up 22 per cent.

At the same time, his children have become teenagers and are more expensive to feed, clothe and educate.

Now 44, Martin worries about saving money to send his son to college and to provide for himself and his wife when he retires on a modest pension at the age of 55.

"We can't save," says Mrs. Martin. "It seems as though everytime we get a little put aside, someone gets sick and we have to spend our savings."

Martin says he wouldn't be able to make ends meet were it not for a part-time job at a dog track which brings in about $800 a year.

A large number of government employes in the Miami area either have part-time jobs or working wives.

Although Martin's salary is $442 a month, his take-home pay is only about $285 a month.

The state pension program in which he participates takes $30 a month out of his wages. When this money is paid back to him after retirement, it will be worth considerably less than it is now.

The Internal Revenue Service has estimated that if inflation continues at the present rate, it will take an income of $10,538 in 1975 to equal the purchasing power of a $4,000 income in 1958.

How can Martin improve his lot?

If he leaves his job now, he sacrifices 17 years toward a $200-a-month pension.

"There's been some talk about allowing a partial pension after 20 years of service. If this happens, I could leave the force in three years and look for a better-paying job outside," he said.

In the meantime, he'll go on watching the shoe store window and hoping that his income will rise at least as rapidly as the cost of the shoes he must buy.

Travel Expenses Easier to Deduct

By SYLVIA PORTER
(In collaboration with The Research Institute of America)

The Treasury flashed some good news in 1958 to businessmen who like to combine pleasure with their business trips. It is going to be more lenient about allowing you to deduct the travel expenses than it originally had indicated.

SYLVIA

The problem usually comes up in one of two ways. You may go on a trip which obviously is for business purposes and then work in some merely incidental pleasure activities. Or you may go on a trip which is just the reverse — primarily a pleasure jaunt involving some incidental business activities.

When your principal goal is business, there is no problem. You can deduct all your travel expenses except your spending on pleasure. If, for instance, you spend money for local sightseeing or nightclubing during off business hours, you can't deduct those outlays, but all your other travel expenses are deductible.

* * *

SUPPOSE, THOUGH, you plan a two-week vacation which also includes a two-day business convention in the same city. Although the expenses of a vacation trip aren't deductible, can you deduct some part of your living expenses in the city because you attend the two-day business convention?

At first, the Treasury said you couldn't deduct anything if the trip was primarily for pleasure, but in 1958 it finally relented a bit. You can't deduct any of the expenses of traveling to and from your destination when the trip is primarily for pleasure, but you can deduct that part of your expenses at the destination which can be allocated to whatever incidental business activities you carry on while there.

In other words, if you spend two days of your two-week vacation attending a business convention, you can deduct living costs for those two days.

While this represents a liberalized Treasury view, the odds are the courts will be even more liberal. If, say, you spend 10 per cent of our vacation attending a business conbention, why shouldn't you be able to deduct 10 per cent of your travel costs to and from the vacation-convention city in addition to 10 per cent of your costs while there?

* * *

SEVERAL 1958 court cases indicate the Treasury will in practice let a taxpayer deduct part of his travel expenses for a trip taken primarily for pleasure, even though the new rule says "no."

Of course, you can't push this combined business-pleasure deal to a point obscuring the business aspects of the trip. Thus, when another doctor took a European trip for pleasure and made a few side trips to visit hospitals professionally, the Treasury allowed him only a noninal deduction for travel expenses.

* * *

WHAT ABOUT a business trip on which you take your wife? If you go from New York to the West Coast on business and your wife accompanies you, can you deduct only half your combined travel expenses? Not necessarily.

You may be able to deduct more than half because the Treasury will let you deduct what it would have cost you if you had traveled alone and this can add up to well over half your expenses.

You might travel under a family plan which costs less than two regular fares; you might stay in a $12 a day double room whereas a single room would cost $9.

Despite these lower actual costs, the Treasury will permit you to deduct one full travel fare and the $9 a day costs.

More Loans For Small Business

CHICAGO — (AP) — Long term loans for growth and development of small businesses may become more readily available soon, the general counsel for the Small Business Administration said Tuesday.

Phillip McCallum of Washington, D.C., cited what he termed the advantages of the small business investment act of 1958 in an address to the National Association of Retail Clothiers and Furnishers annual meeting.

"Equity capital and long term loans have never been readily available to small business," McCallum said.

The Small Business Investment Act, he said, is designed to correct the deficiency with a maximum participation of private financing.

McCallum explained that the investment act will permit the SBA to license and regulate small business investment companies devoted entirely to financing small businsss enterprises.

Under the act, he said, notes of small investment companies may be purchased by the SBA and loans made to them. Several companies already have been authorized in the field, he said.

McCallum said the aim of the SBA is two fold:

Keep the door of economic opportunity open for the creation of new firms, and help the economy grow and remain strong by helping keep small firms vigorous and competitive.

Factory Output Up

WASHINGTON — (UPI) — Output from the nation's factories hit a 15-month high in January, standing only two per cent below the mid-1957 pre-recession level, the government reported Monday.

The Federal Reserve Board reported that a continued record rate of retail sales accompanied the ninth straight monthly gain in industrial output.

The Board said its index of industrial activity rose one point during January to 143, chiefly on the strength of stepped-up-output of steel and household goods.

I Say, Our Milk Is Better Than Yours

PENZANCE, England — (UPI)— The president of the National Dairymen's Assn. of England says the quality of British milk is head and shoulders above American milk.

"We have confidence that we sell milk in the way God intended it to be drunk — as it comes from the cow," R. Good said in an address to a dairymen's dinner here.

Good, recently returned from a tour of the American milk industry, said he has found that the English dairy industry is better run and that the public here showed greater responsibility in dealing with the bottles.

"In America the average life of the milk bottle is 24 journeys. In England it is 64," he said. "America is full of gimmicks."

"They take out a little fat here and put in a little vitamin there," Good said. "In England we have faith in our product."

Nickel Paper Fading

NEW YORK — (UPI) — Fewer and fewer daily newspapers can be bought for a nickel, the American Newspaper Publishers Association reported.

Its latest survey showed that of 1,717 English language papers reporting, 1,000 were sellin for a nickel. In 1958, 1,135 sold for a nickel and in 1957 the number was 1,328. In 1951 records showed there were 1,594 selling for 5 cents.

The ANPA reported the number of papers priced at 7 to 10 cents a copy had been increasing.

The ANPA also said that newspapers reporting to the Association used 394,908 tons of newsprint last month. This represented an increase of 2.3 per cent more than in January 1958.

Safety Award

Aaxico Airlines of Miami has been cited by the Air Force for a four-year safety record in flying military cargoes.

The airline's president, Howard J. Korth, was given a plaque for 18 million miles of accident-free flying with Air Force material.

Castro, President Manuel Urrutia and other officials were on a veranda at the ceremony commemorating Cuba's war for independence. The young fellow tried to climb the wall to reach Castro. ### AFL-CIO Leaders Yield

Reuther Wins His Battle For 'March' of Unemployed

SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico — (AP) — Walter Reuther Tuesday won over other AFL-CIO leaders to his plan for the unemployed to dramatize their woes with demonstrations soon in Washington.

The project might include a march past the White House.

Reuther, the United Auto Workers chief, said the demonstrations would "dramatize the desperate plight" of five million idle.

The agreement to sponsor the demonstrations, made at concluding sessions of the AFL-CIO Executive Council's two-week winter meeting here, apparently showed Reuther to be the victor in a running dispute with George Meany, AFL-CIO president.

Reuther and other former leaders of the old CIO accused Meany of dictating AFL-CIO policies, and demanded a voice in shaping federation decisions.

Meany had advocated a spring meeting of union leaders only to beat the drums for legislation to aid the jobless.

But a stormy session of the AFL-CIO chiefs resulted in plans for a mass demonstration of the actual unemployed more like the plan Reuther had advocated.

The revolt had boiled up for a week behind the scenes of the annual winter meeting of the AFL-CIO Executive Council here. It began when Meany—head of the old AFL—at a council meeting chided Reuther—head of the old CIO — for holding a session of the economic policy committee while the federation president was delayed in Washington by a cold. Meany was reported angry at Reuther's unemployment march project.

Reuther, the chairman of the economic committee, retorted that Meany had never attended economic policy meetings. Anyway, the Auto Workers Union chief said, as chairman he should have a relatively free hand at mapping economic policy, at least in the committee stage. Reuther said if he couldn't run the economic committee, he might as well quit the post.

Reuther was backed in the argument by James B. Carey, No. 2 man in the Federation's CIO faction. The meeting got so hot that Meany ordered Carey to leave his seat and take one at the foot of the executive council table, something the scrappy Carey refused to do.

Meany, Reuther and other high federation officials failed to resolve the conflict at two secret breakfast meetings during the week. Some union leaders feared a blowup of the four-year-old merged labor organization. A showdown session was held Monday night.

Meany declined to comment afterward. Reuther, with what appeared to be a diplomatic approach, told newsmen: "Nobody ever talked about busting up anything — there are understandings now on things where there were misunderstandings before."

Hoffa Says Florida's 'Fertile' for Unions

By DOM BONAFEDE
Herald Staff Writer

Citing Florida as "fertile land" for union activity, Teamsters Boss Jimmy Hoffa reported Tuesday he will "spend whatever money is necessary and supply sufficient organizers to do a job in the state."

He said a statewide drive will be aimed at all unorganized workers, with particular emphasis on Dade and Broward counties and the citrus belt in Central Florida.

At a press conference at the Teamsters executive council meeting at Miami Beach, Hoffa also accepted a challenge laid down by the AFL-CIO in a test for 10,000 unorganized workers in Puerto Rico.

"We'll meet this situation as we have met others forced upon us by the AFL-CIO. And we'll be on top when the fight is over," predicted the Teamsters' chief.

"Most of the opposition in Puerto Rico is from the government, not the workers," Hoffa said. "The government is trying to tell the workers they must continue to take low wages to stabilize the economy.

"We are not at war with the government of Puerto Rico and we hope it will not make war with us, but whoever opposes the Teamsters will have to abide by the decisions of the workers."

He said he did not expect the jurisdictional battle with the AFL-CIO to overflow to the mainland.

The Teamsters' recently launched campaign to organize 70,000 employes of Sears Roebuck is "months ahead of schedule," Hoffa added.

He answered questions forthrightly, in rapid, staccato fashion.

M. W. Miller, Teamsters Southeastern Conference chairman, later told The Herald, "If our progress continues and the reception is good, we should double our membership in Florida within five years."

Current Teamsters rolls in the state list more than 15,000 members, one third of which belong to the three Miami locals, Miller said.

"We're here to organize any unorganized workers in our jurisdiction," he commented.

"There is no one industry we are more intersted in than any other."

Congressman to Slice $11,873 Check

Son's Pay Mistake, He Says

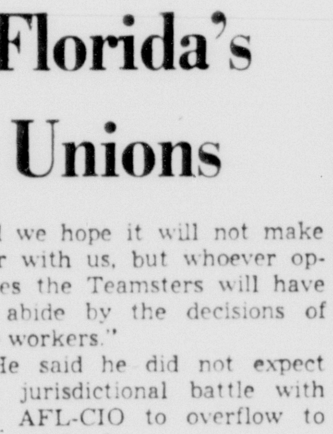
DES MOINES, Iowa —(AP)— Rep. Steven V. Carter (D., Iowa) says he made a mistake in judgment in putting his 19-year-old college freshman son on his Congressional payroll at $11,873 a year, The Des Moines Register said Tuesday.

In a copyrighted story from its Washington bureau, the newspaper quoted Carter as saying, "I'm afraid I didn't have this thing in very good perspective and I'm going to correct it."



—Associated Press Wirephoto

Rep. Carter

. . . 'I've been ill'

"I've made a mistake of judgment on this matter," the newspaper quoted Carter, "and I am going to adjust it within a few days.

"I've been ill with cancer and Steve has been carrying a lot of the load for me. My illness and the fact I was told that I might not live many weeks probably resulted in my making a misjudgement to what I should pay Steve."

The freshman Congressman said previously his son, a pre-law student at George Washington University, had the best qualifications of applicants as his chief assistant.

Carter told The Register he had received numerous letters from Iowa and "it is about 60-40 against me."

The newspaper further quoted Carter as saying that because of the reaction he felt it was "time to lay things on the line and tell the people about my physical condition which I am sure influenced my actions."

Ike's Cash For Slums Doubled

Down Payment Slash Approved

WASHINGTON — (UPI — The House Banking Committee Tuseday approved a sharp reduction in minimum down-payments for higher-priced government-insured houses and a much bigger slum clearance program than President Eisenhower proposed.

The committee approved federal grants of 500 million dollars a year for slum clearance for the next three years, double the annual rate proposed in the President's six-year 1.45-billion-dollar program.

The actions were taken as the committee worked behind closed doors on a catch-all 2.1-billion-dollar Democratic housing Bill. Members said the committee probably will hammer the bill into final shape today.

The Democratic measure represented a major challenge to the President's economy drive along with other proposals to set up broad federal aid programs for airports and chronically depressed areas.

By a 21-to-3 vote, the committee refused to knock out of its bill an administration-opposed provision which would provide direct federal lending for construction of houses for elderly people.

The reduction in down payments required under the FHA mortgage insurance program would permit a lender to offer terms under which a $25,000 house could be purchased with a down payment as low as $2,605. The present FHA minimum is $6,980.

On an $18,000 house, the minimum down payment would be $855, compared with the present $1,380. On a $15,000 house it would be $555, as against the present $630. There would be no change on houses selling for $13,500 or less.

The proposed minimums do not necessarily mean that would-be home buyers could get such terms. That would be up to banks and other lenders. But if the bill became law, the minimums would be the lowest down payment lenders could allow under the FHA program.

The proposed reduction in minimum down payment schedules was not included in the $2,650,000,000 housing bill passed earlier this year by the Senate.

Big Tract Reverts to Fred Tuerk

More State News, 1B, 2C, 8C

VERO BEACH — In what he said was one of the largest foreclosure sales in Florida, Fred R. Tuerk Tuesday regained about 2,700 acres of ocean-and-river-front land north of Vero Beach from Vero Investors Ltd.

Fred Tuerk's cousin, Conrad Tuerk, bid for him at the sale conducted by County Clerk Douglas Baker on the steps of the Indian River County Courthouse. With a nominal bid of $35,000, he topped other bids which be began with $1,000.

The original $3,950,000 mortgage was taken by Tuerk when the deal was closed in December 1956.

At the time of the foreclosure, decrees by Circuit Judge D. C. Smith Feb. 10, 1959, and attorney fees, court costs and interest had raised the total due Tuerk to $4,232,525.99. Interest and court costs since Feb. 10 have brought the total due Tuerk Tuesday to $4,248,552.11.

Tuerk had released 400 acres to Vero Investors free of the mortgage. The remaining approximately 2,700 acres were appraised at about $5,118,360 by Charles C. Jewett, real estate appraiser, at the Circuit Court trials last week involving the property. Between the Atlantic Ocean and Indian River, the property adjoins the North Vero Beach city limits and extends more than five miles on State Road A1A.

Jewett appraised at about $800,000 the 360 acres left to Vero Investors after selling 40 of the 400 acres they owned free of the mortgage. Disposition is being decided in the four suits now in Circuit Court.

Prior to the bidding Tuesday noon, more than 100 persons stood patiently for 40 minutes on the courthouse lawn while Ralph Harris, deputy county clerk, and Charles Smith, assistant county attorney, took turns reading the monotonous legal description of about 2,700 acres of land.

This was the largest foreclosure sale in the history of Florida, with the exception of some railroad property, Fred Tuerk said Tuesday afternoon.

He said he originally bought the property during 1949-50.

Included in ther Indian River County property Tuerk owns is a 30,000 acre ranch 10 miles west of Vero Beach named Adrianna Ranch after his wife.

Kefauver: Delay Vote on Strauss

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Sen. Estes Kefauver (D.-Tenn.) disclosed Tuesday he is asking the Senate Commerce Committee to hold up the nomination of Rear Adm. Lewis L. Strauss as Secretary of Commerce.

Kefauver, who is opposing Strauss' confirmation, said he wants the committee to delay a vote until the Justice Department makes a full report on Strauss' actions in connection with the controversial Dixon-Yates contract.

KEFAUVER STRAUSS

Strauss, former chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission, is serving as secretary of commerce under a recess appointment from President Eisenhower.

Kefauver said in a statement that Strauss played a "key role" in connection with the development and execution of the subsequently canceled contract with the Dixon-Yates firm to build a steam plant at West Memphis, Ark., to supply supplemental power to the Tennessee Valley Authority.

The AEC under Strauss entered into the 107-million-dollar contract.

Kefauver contended that Strauss arranged for a presidential directive requiring the AEC to enter the Dixon-Yates contract over the opposition of the majority of the AEC commissioners.

Get Tough, Congress Is Urged

'Plug Loopholes With Legislation'

CHICAGO — (UPI) — The American Bar Association Tuesday accused the U. S. Supreme Court of going easy on Communists and called on Congress to step in with tough remedial legislation.

The accusation and recommendation were contained in a controversial resolution approved by overwhelming voice vote at the mid-winter meeting of the ABA's House of Delegates.

The vote made the resolution the official policy of the powerful organization representing 200,000 American lawyers.

The nation's most prominent lawyer, Supreme Court Chief Justice Earl Warren, is not a member. His resignation was accepted by the ABA Friday.

The 50-plus page resolution, prepared by the ABA's special committee on Communist tactics and strategy, said the Supreme Court has weakened the nation's security by its rulings on 24 cases involving accused Communists or anti-subversive legislation.

Flying directly in the face of the court, the ABA delegates demanded that state statutes against sedition be given concurrent enforcement powers as federal laws. The court has held that anti-sedition laws are the exclusive business of the federal government.

The ABA also asked that "wherever there are reasonable grounds to believe that as a result of court decisions internal security is weakened" Congress should enact legislation to plug the loopholes.

The ABA also wants the House un-American Activities Committee to take on the job of studying the operation of existing anti-Communist laws and the House itself to set up a standing anti-Communist investigative committee.

The vast majority of the 246 delegates brushed aside scattered opposition in putting themselves on record as disapproving the Supreme Court's interpretation of how the nation should fight Communist subversion.

Two committee members congratulated the ABA, however. Rep. William T. McCulloch (R., Ohio) predicted a "friendly reception" for the proposals in Congress. Rep. Robert T. Ashmore (D., S.C.) was happy that the ABA delegates "finally have come to feel that the Supreme Court is not above criticism."

John D. Randall of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, was nominated to succeed Ross L. Malone of Roswell, N. M., as the next president.

Briton Raps U.S. Import

'Curb Those Nawsty TV Commercials'

New York Times Service

LONDON — A Labor member introduced in the House of Commons Tuesday a bill to curb what he called "one of the nastiest imports from the U.S."—the interruption of television programs for commercials.

The measure, which Christopher Mayhew has pushed for months, would amend the Television Act to prohibit the interruption of programs by commercial advertisements and keep the intervals between the advertisements to a minimum of 25 minutes.

The 43-year-old former undersecretary of state for foreign affairs, enlivening his appeal with the colorful prose and rich anecdote his subject encourages, denounced the advertising interruptions as "symbols of vandalism and profiteering."

"The other week," he said, "a western film was interrupted—just when the red Indians were about to attack—for an advertisement for a scalp lotion."

This brought down the house. Mayhew continued:

"The only programs not interrupted are religious programs and the discussion program 'Free Speech' featuring Robert Boothby, now a peer.

"Television advertising holds back only, it seems, for the Lord God and Lord Bob."

Nikita Rejects West's Plan for Berlin Talks

Red Calls Again For Summit Meet

MOSCOW —(UPI)— Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev Tuesday rejected as "unbusinesslike" the Western plan for a Big Four foreign ministers' conference on Berlin in a biting speech that chilled optimism over his summit talks with Prime Minister Harold Macmillan.

He warned again that the Russians would meet with force any Allied attempt to force a passage to Berlin, and insisted that the best way to settle the crisis would be to hold a summit meeting.

Ranging over the international field, the premier also rejected the Western proposals for control of a nuclear test ban. He warned that Russia would continue testing weapons and again turned down the idea of the Eisenhower "open skies" disarmament inspection program.

His speech, delivered at a Moscow election rally during a one-day lull in the talks with Macmillan, blasted hopes of narrowing East-West differences, although Khrushchev spoke in friendly terms of Britain and suggested a 20 to 50-year Anglo-Soviet non-aggression pact.

Macmillan was off visiting the Dubna nuclear power plant while Khrushchev spoke at the televised rally in his capacity as a candidate for a seat on the Moscow City Soviet (Council).

His rejection of a foreign ministers' conference on Berlin left the issue back where it started Nov. 27 when Russia gave the Western allies exactly six months to clear out of West Berlin and allow it to be turned into a "free city."

He objected to the fact that the West did not include Poland and Czechoslovakia, "the first victims" of the German invasion, in the proposed talks on Berlin.

"This is an unbusinesslike approach and unacceptable," he said. "Moreover, the West wants entanglement in a network of diplomatic talks from which there is no escape."

He derided the U.S. and contrasted the friendly welcome given to Macmillan in Russia with the incidents that greeted Soviet Deputy Premier Anastas I. Mikoyan on his recent American tour.

"We have no hooligans like those who tried to throw some eggs at Comrade Mikoyan," he said.

Khrushchev insisted that an East-West summit conference is needed to settle such problems as Berlin and nuclear armaments.

The heads of government rather than foreign ministers, he said, "have the full measure of rights and responsibility for ensuring universal peace."

Only they could "soberly examine and solve major problems."

Brushing off the idea of a foreign ministers meeting, he said:

"Our foreign minister (Andrei Gromyko) is a very busy man and I hardly think he should waste time on fruitless talks."

U.S. Asks 'Reasoned' Answer

WASHINGTON — (UPI) — The U. S. called upon Russia Tuesday to make a "reasoned reply" to the West's proposal for a Big Four foreign ministers conference to settle the Berlin and German problems.

The State Department said a speech by Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev rejecting such a meeting and demanding a summit conference instead was a political oration and could not be construed as Russia's formal position.

Privately U.S. officials feared that Khrushchev might be trying to take advantage of Secretary of State John Foster Dulles' illness by renewing his demands for a summit conference.

Dulles, now hospitalized with cancer, has long made clear the U. S. would not agree to a summit meeting unless it was carefully prepared for through advance diplomatic negotiations, including a foreign ministers meeting. Otherwise, he feels, Russia would use such a conference merely as a propaganda sounding board.

Officials said Khrushchev might be laboring under the mistaken impression that with Dulles on the sidelines, he could stampede the West into a summit meeting.

Asked to comment on Khrushchev's address, State Department Spokesman Lincoln White said:

"I have no comment on a speech by Mr. Khrushchev at a Moscow political rally. We are awaiting a reasoned reply to our note of Feb. 16." The note called for the foreign ministers meeting.

Officials said privately it remained to be seen whether the Khrushchev speech foreshadowed a deeper freeze in the cold war or merely represented a bargaining maneuver by the Soviet leader.

Queen Mother Views Falls

This is Uganda's big game country, where, as the Duchess of York, she went on a safari with her husband, later to be King George VI, 34 years ago. She is on a tour of British possessions.

Police Swing Sabers At Ecuador Students

QUITO, Ecuador, — (AP) — Police swung sabers at university student demonstrators Tuesday in a renewal of violence growing out of widespread strikes.

Rodrigo Borja, president of the law school students group at Central University, said seven of the demonstrators were wounded.

About 300 students of the law school went on strike, joining thousands of labor unionists who have walked out in sympathy with striking dock workers at the port of Guayaquil.

The dockworkers walked out 14 days ago to protest the dismissal of eight co-workers.

They refuse to return to work unless they get wage increases as well as the reinstatement of the discharged workers.

Sympathy strikes among textile workers and taxi drivers broke out in Quito, Guayaquil, Riobamba and Ambato.

Cancer $$$ Sent Abroad

WASHINGTON — (UPI) — Sen. Richard L. Neuberger (D., Ore.) Tuesday presented checks totaling $17,000 to three foreign nations for cancer research. He acted on behalf of the Damon Runyon Memorial Fund.

Newberger, who recently returned to the Senate after a cancer operation, dedicated the checks "to the gallant fight for life of our secretary of state" John Foster Dulles, who is battling cancer at Walter Reed Army Medical Center.

Promotion Of Younger Men Backed

WASHINGTON —(AP)— The House Armed Services Committee Tuesday approved a bill to speed the promotion of about 3,500 younger naval and Marine officers.

The bill, which now goes to the House, would provide early retirement of an equivalent number of senior officers.

Several members of the committee objected that the measure would violate a moral commitment to the older officers to let them finish their normal service before retirement.

However, an attempt to amend it to provide retention failed, 26-4. The bill finally was approved with 29 members voting for it and only Rep. Charles E. Bennett (D., Fla.) against.

In general, officers would be retired if they had twice been passed over for promotion and had not been chosen for continuation by special boards.

No officer would be retired, however, with less than 20 years service — which would entitle him to lifetime retired pay.

Police Ad Pitch Slapped

Fund-Raisers Are Arrested

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y. — (AP) — An official investigating alleged frauds in advertising solicitation for a state police journal says it "is the worst shakedown racket I have seen in my 36 years with the state police."

That comment was made by Martin Dillon, Chief inspector for the state police.

Two men were arrested bringing the total to four. It was reported that almost $40,000 had been collected.

The four were connected with a firm which had a contract to raise funds for the Patrolman's Benevolent Association of the state police, in connection with a journal to be issued marking the association's 15th anniversary.

District Attorney Joseph F. Gagliardi of Westchester County said the fund-raisers identified themselves as state troopers, which they were not, and suggested to prospective contributors that "it would be helpful" to donate.

Police said complaints came chiefly from truckers and other businessmen in Buffalo, Syracuse, Rochester, Albany, Watertown and New York City, in New York state, and other complaints came from New England, New Jersey, Ohio, Georgia and Illinois.

Charles S. Stone, 69, a licensed fund-raiser from White Plain, was arrested on a warrant in Miami Beach, Fla., and John W. Higgins, 31, of South Norwalk, Conn., was picked up by state police in Greenwich Village, Manhattan.

Last week Stone's brother Michael, 48, of White Plains, and Galen L. Scott, 58, who lives with Higgins, were arrested.

A statement issued by' the association said that the money received by the PBA from the fund-raising organization will be returned to the donors. The PBA received $24,760.

Donor Bars Race Issue

CAMBRIDGE, Mass.—(UPI) —Harvard University announced Tuesday it has received a $50,000 gift to aid deserving Southern students, either Negro or white, who would otherwise not be able to attend college.

The money, provided by a donor who asked to remain anonymous, stipulated that no preference should be given any student on a racial basis.

AROUND MIAMI

Traffic-Snarling Officers Named

Two Miami motorcyclemen who conducted an off-duty roadblock which bottled up traffic on Key Biscayne Sunday while TV cameras filmed a commercial were identified Tuesday by Acting Miami Police Chief John Webber.

They are Sgt. Shafter Wyatt and Officer Burt Langdale, both with more than 10 years service on the department.

Webber said he had banned all off-duty work by motorcycle officers pending return of Chief Walter Headley, who is absent because of the death of his father. Wyatt and Langdale have been asked to submit a full written report on the incident.

Police Get Lead In Cowart 'Job'

Miami police said Tuesday they had a good lead on who stole County Commissioner Faris N. Cowart's little green box — containing $6,500 cash and $15,000 worth of stocks — but have been stymied in getting enough information to file charges.

Detectives intimated the two suspects had been inside the Cowart home at 1430 SW 12th Ave. several times before the Feb. 8 burglary. The little box was hidden in a closet.

Cowart said the cash had been left to him by his father and was to have been given to his 70-year-old mother.

Judge Assigned To Giblin Case

Chief Justice Glenn Terrell of the Florida Supreme Court Tuesday assigned Circuit Judge L. L. Parks of Tampa to hear Dade Circuit Judge Vincent Giblin's petitions against the City of Coral Gables.

Circuit Judge Marshall Wiseheart had requested that Justice Terrell name an out-of-town judge to hear the cases. Terrell said he complied with the request because of "peculiar local conditions."

Terrell set no date for Judge Parks to go to Dade County. Judge Parks will set the date for trial of the suits in which Giblin seeks to ban the Gables from trying him on charges growing out of a traffic arrest.

The Town Crier

BELL

TURF EXPERTS seem pretty well agreed that last Saturday's Widener field wasn't exactly $100,000 stake calibre. There have been several such stakes in the past few years, with the purses geared for better horses than we saw.

Would it be a sacrilege to suggest that we take the same money and split it up a bit? The McLennan attracts the same horses we see in the Widener, for far less money. Perhaps a progressive stake program through the 40-day meeting, with the champion selected on points, or selection of a "Champion of the Meeting" by these same estimable gentlemen who make like wise in yon press box?

Some turfmen have hurled harsh words at Jockey Bill Hartack because he refused to ride Greek Circle Saturday, after taking the 4-5 favorite onto the track. Let's face facts! Hartack's business is riding race horses. He was on the most likely horse in the race and a win meant money for Hartack as well as the owner. So he didn't dismount for anything trivial. He thought Greek Circle acted as if something was wrong. If so, he'd burn up a lot of 4-5 money. The horse might be permanently injured. Hartack thought it wouldn't be fair to race under such conditions. He was perfectly right.

For many years they lived in Manila and six years ago migrated to Venezuela. Hendrik earned a living making most unusual rings, necklaces, bracelets out of pure gold and precious stones. They were doing well in Caracas, but as the gentle Mrs. Ramotowski explained it, "Three revolutions in three years were too much. All our lives we've been in wars and revolutions. So we came to America, where there is freedom."

His reply is most enlightening: "With the first cultivatings this family of six will get paddy and green grain. They'll keep a cow, feeding the paddy grass. They're planting coconut trees and in six years they'll get $50 worth of coconuts a year, fiber from the husks for rope. They'll make mats from the bushes planted as a fence. They're free. # Jury Hits School Safety

Fire Protection Held Wanting

By JAMES BUCHANAN
Herald Staff Writer

A special Grand Jury report said Tuesday that inadequate fire protection in Dade County is costing dollars and could cost many lives of Dade school children.

The jury's investigation began after the disastrous Chicago school fire when a series of articles in The Herald pointed up poor safety practices in Dade schools, nursing homes and night clubs.

It would take 25 minutes for a county fire truck to reach Key Biscayne Elementary School after an alarm was sounded, the report said.

And the county has no equipment to battle more than a second-floor blaze anywhere in the unincorporated area.

A dollar-and-cents evaluation of the county's fire-fighting equipment is shown in insurance rates.

There's a $17 difference between the City of Miami's low rate, and the premiums paid by home owners in the unincorporated areas.

One of the biggest hurdles, according to the report, is the fact that many municipal fire departments can't go to the aid of county firemen because they use a different type of equipment.

The jurors' recommendations include standardization of all equipment and fittings in order that hoses, hydrants and hose connections can be interchanged.

Once accomplished, the jury said it believed the county and all municipalities should enter into a firefighting agreement and use a central alarm and communications system.

Most municipalities have an unofficial mutual aid pact operating now.

Complete reorganization and expansion of the County Fire Department, hardest hit by the jury report, was recommended last month after a survey by Public Safety Director Thomas J. Kelly.

At the time, Kelly said it was up to the county to bring its equipment up to date before calling for standardization by the municipalities.

While the jury's report named no specific schools, The Herald's survey had shown several fire hazards at Miami Edison Junior and Senior High Schools.

School Superintendent Joe Hall said the School Board was making changes as rapidly as possible, and that the jury's latest findings probably would spur the work.

Officials admitted, off the record, that consolidation of all fire departments probably would be fought by the personnel involved. They would fear, the officials said, a loss of seniority and pension advantages.

Any such consolidation, however, would have to await unification of equipment and incorporation of the fire department into a citywide communications system.

National Summary

A series of storms moving across Canada Tuesday blocked the southward progress of severely cold arctic air while clear skies with diminishing winds allowed lower readings over the East. Most sections of the country will show little change in temperatures or a tendency for warming today. High pressure extended sunny skies over broad areas from the Rockies to the Appalachians with midday temperatures ranging from the teens and 20s in the north to 50s as far as Kansas Tuesday.

A disturbance off the coast maintained snow through the northeast in addition to flurries in a brisk northerly flow over the eastern Great Lakes region into the mountains from West Virginia northward. Rochester, N.Y., reported a 2 inch accumulation during the forenoon and similar deposits in Massachusetts raised snow cover to 7 inches at Worcester and 5 inches at Boston. Clearing later on left only a few flurries in the mountains, but a chance that a Canadian disturbance may trail a little snow over northern New England today.

Mild sunny 70 and 80 degree weather in Florida presented a contrast to the 50 degree range more prominent along the leading edge of cool air in the Gulf states. Rain fringed the coastal regions from Texas to southern Alabama and northwest Florida.

Naples Nautical? Well...

By TOM MORGAN
Naples Bureau Chief

NAPLES—If the USS Marlin (SST-141) makes an Armed Forces Day jaunt to Naples from its Key West base it had better be equipped with a ladder or small boats. Otherwise nobody will get a look at the craft.

The suggestion has been forwarded to the city that the submarine visit Naples during a West Coast tour, May 15-17. Now the city must decide what to do.

The Marlin is described as 130 feet long, 13 feet wide and draws 13 feet. That's an unlucky combination.

GOT A LADDER?

The city dock is long enough to tie to, but it lies about three miles from the Gulf, at the end of a channel, supposedly eight feet deep, and rather rock studded. In fact it's so rocky shrimp boats no longer put in here regularly.

The alternative is the city fishing pier in the Gulf, which was a ship landing 70 years ago when Naples was founded. Unfortunately it is about 25 feet above the water and no longer has a landing stage for boats, or a ladder to reach such a stage if there were one.

The Navy has suggested an intermediate barge be used as a landing but there still remains the problem of getting up and down the barnacle-covered piling of the pier.

About the only solution seems to be to anchor the craft offshore and ferry visitors aboard.

Or let them swim out.

Harmony is Close, Sweet As Road Program Adopted

By ZOLA SWARTHOUT
Herald Correspondent

STUART — Harmony was the key note for the Martin County Commission Tuesday as it set priority for eight primary road fund projects; four secondary road fund projects and adopted an immediate work schedule for roads built by county funds.

Primary and secondary road priorities requests will be presented to the State Road Department.

Requests for primary roads, in order of priority, are:

1. Four-laning of U.S. 1 from the north line of Gomez Grant, to the north limits of Stuart.
2. Rebuild State Rd. A1A from Jefferson Ave. in Golden Gate south to Olympia overpass.
3. Construct Martin Hwy. from State Rd. 714 west to Okeechobee County line.
4. Build a new bridge on State Rd. 710 at Indiantown across the St. Lucie Canal.
5. Rebuild State Rd. 707 from the east end of Hobe Sound Bridge to the new pavement on Jupiter Island.
6. Rebuild Sewall's Point Rd. from the intersection of State Rd. A1A at the site of the new bridges, north to State Rd. A1A in South Jensen Beach.
7. Rebuild Monterey Rd. from U.S. 1 to the Palm City bridge.
8. Rebuild Fourth St. in Stuart from Colorado Ave., east to State Rd. A1A on the New Bridge Rd.

Secondary road requests in order of priority are:

1. Rebuild Palm City Loop Rd. from State Rd. 714 to State Rd. 76, to include Arundel Shop bridge.
2. Rebuild Salerno Cutoff Rd. from State Rd. 76 east to State Rd. A1A, and north of Salerno around the sandsprit to Indian Ave.
3. Rebuild Indian Ave. from State Rd. 76 to A1A.
4. Construct Glades Hwy. from the Martin-St. Lucie County line along the railroad tracks to State Rd. 710.

The Commission met with its engineer and road superintendent, Ben Bryant, to work out a county road program.

Chairman Marvin H. Rowell asked Bryant to estimate the cost of a mile and a quarter road in the southern part of the county, from Tequesta to the Boy Scout camp.

Commissioner Charles Leighton asked the county construct a "mix and place" road near Palm City, named the Ed Mapp Rd., a distance of about two miles. Estimated cost is $10,000.

Commissioner Seymour Gideon requested a similar road be constructed on North Fork Dr. to Sylvan Shores, in the north Stuart area.

Commissioner Rowell asked Indian Ave., between State Road 76 and U.S. 1 be resurfaced. He asked Bryant estimate the cost.

The commission agreed unanimously on all current county road proposed work projects.

Admitted Gambler Wins Case

JACKSONVILLE — (AP) — William Brush seems to have won his strange case, clearing himself of gambling charges despite acknowledgement of his action.

Brush, a bartender, lost money betting with a state undercover agent in July and was charged with gambling. He was one of several arrested in raids by the Duval sheriff's department and the State Beverage Department.

Most of 56 arrests were based on buys or bets placed by Henry Amoon, an agent for the state.

Brush was bound over to Criminal Court but his Attorney, M. W. Goldstein, filed suit to recover $20 which Brush said he lost to Amoon in friendly bets on baseball games.

A state law enabling persons to recover gambling losses gives immunity to persons required to testify.

So John L. Briggs, assistant county solicitor, made a surprise move in behalf of Amoon by acknowledging liability for him and asked that a $20 judgment be entered against Amoon. He hoped thereby that no depositions would be taken or testimony given under which immunity could be granted.

But Goldstein had depositions taken anyway and filed in small claims court, even after a $20 judgment was given to Brush against Amoon.

The matter came before Criminal Court Judge William T. Harvey who ordered the charge voided.

Minute Maid Project

Huge Orange Grove Set at Fort Pierce

ORLANDO — (UPI) — The Minute Maid Corp. said Tuesday it is laying out what will be the biggest Valencia orange grove in the world near Fort Pierce. It will cost three million dollars.

Executive Vice President Holman R. Cloud said the grove will be carved out of 5,300 acres of marsh, about 15 miles west of Fort Pierce. The grove is expected to produce about 1,500,000 boxes of oranges annually when trees reach maturity in about seven years.

Cloud added the property was bought from Strazzulla Bros. Co. of Boston under Minute Maid's "plant and divide" program.

William J. Jones, who manages Minute Maid's 20,000 acres of grove holdings in Florida, said pre-planting drainage and land preparation will begin in about three weeks.

"By 1961 we will have moved over a million cubic yards of dirt in preparation for planting 400,000 Valencia orange trees," he said.

"These trees will produce in excess of 1,500,000 boxes of oranges annually when they reach maturity (1966-67)."

Jones said the grove site is favorably located for irrigation and for prevention of freeze damage. It will be supervised by W. E. Jewell of Avon Park, who will move to Fort Pierce next month.

Dramatic Academy Picks Davis

VERO BEACH — Eugene C. Davis, director of the Vero Beach Theatre Guild, has accepted the post of regional auditioner for the American Academy of Dramatic Arts in New York.

Frances Fuller, academy president, said potential students will be able to audition here, instead of going to New York.

A resident of Cleveland, Ohio, Davis is a director of drama workshop courses and plays for Little Theatres in Ohio, North Carolina, Mississippi and Florida. Canadian born, he holds degrees from the University of Tronto and University of Manitoba.

Carlile Rites Held Tuesday

TITUSVILLE—Services were held here Tuesday for Donald William Carlile, 62, who died Sunday. Burial was in La Grange Cemetery. Mr. Carlile had been a lifetime resident of La Grange, north of Titusville.

Survivors include his wife, Edna, supervisor of voter registration for Brevard County; a daughter, Mary Carlile; two sons, Doyle and Carlos, both of La Grange; four brothers and two sisters.

Same Bulkhead Line Planned

EAU GALLIE — The city of Eau Gallie hopes to be able to establish the same bulkhead line along the Indian River as does Brevard County for adjoining rural areas.

City officials said Tuesday they have discussed the matter with O. D. Peavy, county zoning director, and a meeting is expected between Eau Gallie and Turner Wallace, an engineer employed to help the county establish a bulkhead line.

Ideas Vary For Board, Is Report

By BILL BUNGE
Melburne Bureau Chief

MELBOURNE — There appears to be two main problems in the establishment of a port authority for governing Melbourne Airport, and "there are as many opinions on how to solve them as there are people," stated R. P. (Rus) Sullivan, airport industrial committee chairman.

Sullivan said these points are: 1—whether the authority should be a fiscal board, empowered to sell bonds, or merely serve in an advisory capacity. 2 — whether board membership should be only Melbourne residents, or be open to the entire area.

Sullivan, referring to a Tuesday Miami Herald story which stated the commission was "split" over authority powers, said the city officials are "not at loggerheads" over setting up the new governmental unit "because it still is in the talking stage."

However, he did say officials directedly interested in formation of the authority have a variety of opinions on powers and membership. "There are many problems connected with such a move," Sullivan said.

The commissioner said the "city has been working on this authority for about four months, and we have a rough draft of a charter.

"Although we would rather see industry go on taxable land, there has to be leadership in bringing industry here. The city can take that leadership through the airport authority. We have the land and other facilities out there," said Sullivan.

Commissioner E. W. (Bill) Buss, member of Sullivan's committee and chairman of the terminal and runways committee, said there are a lot of ideas on the subject, and "the best possible suggestions will be followed in setting up the authority — or whatever you want to call it."

Herlong's Aid Sought With FHA

Herald Bureau

EAU GALLIE — U. S. Rep. A. S. (Syd) Herlong has been asked to arrange a meeting between representatives of the Federal Public Housing Authority and residents who are protesting a housing FPHA project.

City Manager Clark Maxwell requested Herlong to have officials from the authority's Atlanta office come here in an effort to settle the controversy over eight white and 16 colored units, now being constructed near two sub-divisions.

A city attempt to meet with project builders, Brevard County Public Housing Authority, failed when officials of the federal branch refused to come here.

"I strongly resent the attitude of the county housing authority," said Maxwell.

Owners of homes bordering the low-cost project claim their property will depreciate in value.

Commodore Reelected

VERO BEACH — James Arthur Wilson has been chosen commodore of the Vero Beach Yacht Club for a fourth one-year term.

Other officers, selected by the board of governors, were: Richard Doscher, vice commodore; Robert F. Schenck Jr., rear commodore; and Robert E. Moore, fleet captain.

Elected to the board were William P. Beindorf, Bradford Brightman Jr. and Paul O. Semon Jr.

The Yacht Club, with 62 active members and 21 associates operates the municipal docks under a agreement with the city.

'Get Fast Shuffle In Schools Game'

Herald Bureau

EAU GALLIE — "We are being shortchanged on school facilities, according to our financial contribution to the system," declared City Councilman Vance Bell, educational committee chairman.

Bell told councilmen the Brevard County school system receives a minimum of $300,000 annually from Eau Gallie taxpayers. "One of my children has been attending school for five years," he stated, "and during that time the child has been a victim of double sessions."

The councilman and other officials attending a Monday night council session said they felt other areas were getting more schools than Eau Gallie.

"Even if they would clean up that old elementary building over there it would be a help," said Councilman J. William Woodson. And Mayor Milton McGrath said:

"I'd like to have that money and we'd be able to have an educational system of our own—a good one, too."

Bell also said he strongly opposes the school board's proposal to have the county school superintendent appointed instead of elected. The school people are seeking the change through a special legislative act.

Selection Of College Site is Due

Herald Bureau

COCOA — A state recommendation for a Brevard County junior college site is "expected sometime this week," County School Superintendent Woodrow J. Darden said Tuesday.

The State Education Department was expected to make the recommendation last week, but Darden said the decision had been delayed to give all members of a committee time to study data about several sites.

The county school board is to make the final site selection.

Terminal Bids Over Estimates

Herald Bureau

MELBOURNE — The City Commission opened 10 bids Tuesday night for construction of a new terminal at Melbourne Airport.

All ran considerably higher than the $100,000 estimated.

Apparent low bid was submitted by R. M. Thompson Co., Clearwater, which totaled $159,700. The next lowest was $166,296 and was turned in by Roemer Construction Co. of Belle Glade.

The city already has earmarked $50,000 for the project and the Federal Aviation Administration has kicked in another $50,000 to meet the $100,000 estimated cost.

Truck Kills Visitor Fleeing Patrol Car

Herald Service

FORT PIERCE — An attempt to flee from arrest for drunkenness ended fatally here early Tuesday for Klaus W. Reichelt, 30, of Toronto, Canada. He dashed from a highway patrol car into the path of a truck on U.S. 1, was struck and killed.

Reichelt had been visiting with friends and, about 11 p.m. Monday, said he was "going to take a walk." Three hours later he was three miles north of Fort Pierce on U.S. 1.

He flagged down a highway patrol car, driven by Trooper R. J. Thompson, and demanded a cigaret. Thompson said he told Reichelt he was under arrest for intoxication.

As he was trying to get the man into the patrol car, the trooper reported, Reichelt wrenched loose and darted into the highway, in front of a large truck driven by Joseph M. Cook of Kansas City, Mo.

Cook had seen the flashing red light of the patrol car and the truck was moving at about 20 miles an hour when it struck Reichelt. He was instantly killed.

Reichelt, a machinist, served in the German Army in World War II and moved to Canada five years ago. He recently became a Canadian citizen. He is survived by his wife, Gertrude.

Raise Quality, Graves Advises

ORLANDO — (UPI) — Florida Citrus Commission Chairman J. R. (Rip) Graves of Vero Beach said Tuesday something must be done to raise the fresh fruit business to its former stature in the Florida citrus industry.

J. R. Graves
. . . halt the slide

He noted that the fresh fruit side of the industry has been steadily slipping through the years and said that it must increase in volume if the industry is to market profitably the giant crops expected to be produced within the next few years."

"Fresh fruit is essential and vital to the Florida citrus industry," he said.

"In order to regain and maintain its position with Florida's growing production, a searching reappraisal should be made of present cultural, harvesting, packing and marketing practices and processes, with the ultimate goal of making satisfied customers of Mr. and Mrs. Consumer," he said.

Graves said the commission "is taking the initiative in doing something about the fresh fruit situation."

He said, "Our general manager and staff are working closely with the Florida Packing House Managers Association in order to bring the entire fresh fruit industry into proper focus."

Graves called for: expanded export markets; educating the increasing population to use citrus; broadening of total citrus markets, and acceleration of research programs on cultural practices to produce better quality fruit and new citrus uses.

He said the demand for top grade oranges for frozen concentrate has led many shippers to place their inferior fruit onto the fresh fruit market.

Orange Grades Change Voted

LAKELAND —(UPI)— The federal marketing agreement committees, celebrating their 20th anniversaries, changed regulations on interstate orange shipments Tuesday, but voted to keep grapefruit standards as they are.

The Growers Administrative Committee and the Shippers Advisory Committee regulated all Florida oranges at size 288 and larger, fancy through No. 1 bronze, for the four weeks beginning March 2.

On Temples, the committees lowered the size to 2 8-16 and larger for the same four-week period.

They voted to keep current minimum grapefruit standards the same for the two-week period of March 2-16.

The two committees, established 20 years ago, regulate grade and size of fruit permitted to be shipped out of Florida under terms of the federal marketing agreement.

Municipal Gas Mains Bids Asked

By ANNE WILDER
Herald Correspondent

FORT PIERCE — The Fort Pierce City Commission will ask bids for a natural gas distribution system. It authorized the bid calls Monday night after long discussion. The vote was unanimous.

Mayor James L. Howe pointed out the city has a 20-year contract with the Houston Co. to purchase natural gas, and the choice was simply whether the city will distribute the gas itself, or let it out on franchise.

"I am a businessman and don't like to see government in business, "Howe commented. "However, I am also a realist. The city is in the utilities business whether we like it or not — and I feel there will be the greatest benefits to the city in having th gas distribution in the hands of elected officials."

Several bottled gas dealers present, said their objection was not to natural gas, but rather to city distribution.

Harold Scott of Jacksonville, of the engineering firm of Reynolds, Smith and Hill, told the commission natural gas was important for two reasons: it will provide a competitive fuel, and it will be important in securing industry for the area.

The gas distribution system will be financed by a revenue certificate issue of $1,373,000. Scott pointed out these certificates are based only on the gas distribution, and the city does not have to pledge other funds to support the issue.

Scott said that, at the end of the first year, engineers estimate there will be 2,650 domestic consumers, 434 small commercial users, and 13 large commercial users. He said he felt by 1960 the city would also be able to get natural gas as a fuel for the municipal electric plant, which will result in a substantial saving.

Bids on the new system will be operned March 16th. Bid prices must remain firm for 90 days, during which time the city will sell the revenue certificates to finance the system.

Dr. Geeslin will speak at 1:30 p.m.

Gasoline Price Wars May Face Federal Crackdown

Dow Jones, AP, UPI, N.Y. Times

The stage was set Tuesday for a possible crackdown on gasoline price wars started by major fuel companies.

A Federal Trade Commission examiner issued a tentative order forbidding Pure Oil Co. from cutting gasoline prices in any market where it competes with other brands unless proportionate cuts are made throughout its sales territory.

In Chicago, a spokesman for Pure Oil said, "We disagree with the adverse findings of the hearing examiner and have already filed an appeal to the full commission."

If the FTC adopts the order, it will mark the government's first attack on geographic price discrimination in the gasoline industry. FTC officials said such an order could lead to similar action against discriminatory price-cutting by other major companies.

The Martin Family Checks Expenses

. . . inflation has hit them hard

How Can He Beat Inflation On a Policeman's Salary?

Third of a Series

By STAN JOHNSON
Herald Business Writer

As he stands in the intersection of NE 1st St. and Miami Ave. directing traffic, Patrolman Ralph L. Martin glances occasionally at the window of a nearby shoe store.

Displayed are a pair of heavy-soled brogans like the ones he wears out every six months. The price tag says $14.95. Martin remembers that he paid $7.50 for the same shoes in 1949.

Looking back over the past 10 years, most skilled workers or professional men can subtract a 22 per cent increase in the cost of living from the percentage of increase in their income and come up with a healthy balance that represents a higher standard of living.

This is not true of Patrolman Martin or of millions of others who have government or white collar jobs, fixed incomes or pensions.

Since 1949, Martin's salary as a patrolman has risen 27 per cent — from $4,188 to $5,304.

In the same period, the union scale for journeyman electricians has risen 40 per cent —from $2.50 to $3.50 per hour.

Nearly half of Martin's increase is a result of longevity boosts — rewards for his 17 years with the Miami Police Department and for his greater experience in his work.

Cost of living raises have added only 16 per cent to Martin's paycheck in 10 years, but living costs have gone up 22 per cent.

At the same time, his children have become teenagers and are more expensive to feed, clothe and educate.

Now 44, Martin worries about saving money to send his son to college and to provide for himself and his wife when he retires on a modest pension at the age of 55.

"We can't save," says Mrs. Martin. "It seems as though everytime we get a little put aside, someone gets sick and we have to spend our savings."

Martin says he wouldn't be able to make ends meet were it not for a part-time job at a dog track which brings in about $800 a year.

A large number of government employes in the Miami area either have part-time jobs or working wives.

Although Martin's salary is $442 a month, his take-home pay is only about $285 a month.

The state pension program in which he participates takes $30 a month out of his wages. When this money is paid back to him after retirement, it will be worth considerably less than it is now.

The Internal Revenue Service has estimated that if inflation continues at the present rate, it will take an income of $10,538 in 1975 to equal the purchasing power of a $4,000 income in 1958.

How can Martin improve his lot?

If he leaves his job now, he sacrifices 17 years toward a $200-a-month pension.

"There's been some talk about allowing a partial pension after 20 years of service. If this happens, I could leave the force in three years and look for a better-paying job outside," he said.

In the meantime, he'll go on watching the shoe store window and hoping that his income will rise at least as rapidly as the cost of the shoes he must buy.

Travel Expenses Easier to Deduct

By SYLVIA PORTER
(In collaboration with The Research Institute of America)

SYLVIA

The Treasury flashed some good news in 1958 to businessmen who like to combine pleasure with their business trips. It is going to be more lenient about allowing you to deduct the travel expenses than it originally had indicated.

The problem usually comes up in one of two ways. You may go on a trip which obviously is for business purposes and then work in some merely incidental pleasure activities. Or you may go on a trip which is just the reverse — primarily a pleasure jaunt involving some incidental business activities.

When your principal goal is business, there is no problem. You can deduct all your travel expenses except your spending on pleasure. If, for instance, you spend money for local sightseeing or nightclubing during off business hours, you can't deduct those outlays, but all your other travel expenses are deductible.

* * *

SUPPOSE, THOUGH, you plan a two-week vacation which also includes a two-day business convention in the same city. Although the expenses of a vacation trip aren't deductible, can you deduct some part of your living expenses in the city because you attend the two-day business convention?

At first, the Treasury said you couldn't deduct anything if the trip was primarily for pleasure, but in 1958 it finally relented a bit. You can't deduct any of the expenses of traveling to and from your destination when the trip is primarily for pleasure, but you can deduct that part of your expenses at the destination which can be allocated to whatever incidental business activities you carry on while there.

In other words, if you spend two days of your two-week vacation attending a business convention, you can deduct living costs for those two days.

While this represents a liberalized Treasury view, the odds are the courts will be even more liberal. If, say, you spend 10 per cent of our vacation attending a business convention, why shouldn't you be able to deduct 10 per cent of your travel costs to and from the vacation-convention city in addition to 10 per cent of your costs while there?

* * *

SEVERAL 1958 court cases indicate the Treasury will in practice let a taxpayer deduct part of his travel expenses for a trip taken primarily for pleasure, even though the new rule says "no."

Of course, you can't push this combined business-pleasure deal to a point obscuring the business aspects of the trip. Thus, when another doctor took a European trip for pleasure and made a few side trips to visit hospitals professionally, the Treasury allowed him only a noninal deduction for travel expenses.

* * *

WHAT ABOUT a business trip on which you take your wife? If you go from New York to the West Coast on business and your wife accompanies you, can you deduct only half your combined travel expenses? Not necessarily.

You may be able to deduct more than half because the Treasury will let you deduct what it would have cost you if you had traveled alone and this can add up to well over half your expenses.

You might travel under a family plan which costs less than two regular fares; you might stay in a $12 a day double room whereas a single room would cost $9.

Despite these lower actual costs, the Treasury will permit you to deduct one full travel fare and the $9 a day costs.

PAA Jets Will Fly Latin Run

Pan American World Airways said Tuesday it will inaugurate jet passenger service in April to Caracas, Venezuela, Asuncion, Paraguay, and Buenos Aires, Argentina.

The flights will be made from New York and cut present travel time in half.

The Buenos Aires schedule will be reduced from 24 to 12 hours, and the New York-Asuncion run, which once required 25½ hours on a roundabout route, will take only 10 hours.

PAA jet flights from Miami to Latin American points "still are in the distant future," company officials said.

The company plans to add Rio de Janeiro and Sao Paulo to its jet schedule after runways are extended in those cities sometime in 1960.

Pan American will be the first U.S. airline offering jet service to South America. An Argentine line, Aerolineas Argentina, plans to fly a North and South American jet schedule this spring with British Comets.

The Pan American service to Venezuela, Paraguay and Argentina will be in addition to PAA's transatlantic jet schedule.

Boeing 707's for the Latin American run will come first from the PAA fleet now leased to National Airlines for its seasonal New York-Miami flights, and later from the additional plans on order from the manufacturer.

The airline already serves most of South America with piston-engine aircraft, but dropped Asuncion in 1946 after Brazil withdrew permission to fly over its territory to the Paraguayan capital.

Nickel Paper Fading

NEW YORK — (UPI) — Fewer and fewer daily newspapers can be bought for a nickel, the American Newspaper Publishers Association reported.

Its latest survey showed that of 1,717 English language papers reporting, 1,000 were selling for a nickel. In 1958, 1,135 sold for a nickel and in 1957 the number was 1,328. In 1951 records showed there were 1,594 selling for 5 cents.

The ANPA reported the number of papers priced at 7 to 10 cents a copy had been increasing.

The ANPA also said that newspapers reporting to the Association used 394,908 tons of newsprint last month. This represented an increase of 2.3 per cent more than in January 1958.

February Color Theme Is Used On 2 Holidays

By EDITH VOSS
Herald Correspondent

AROUND BREVARD COUNTY—Well, Valentine and Washington's Birthday themes did show up at quite a number of dances, bridge sessions, and other parties, after all. Considering that both motifs are red and white, it's economical for both occasions to come along within a week of each other, isn't it?

MRS. VOSS

According to our figures, St. Patrick's Day will be the next occasion for special parties, so dig out the greenery, folks, or you'll be out of step come March 17.

Eau Gallie, incidentally, seemed to have the monopoly on romance during the Valentine period of decor at parties. Largest teen-ager party in the county, according to our tabulation, was the junior high Valentine party down that way.

Best attended adult Valentine dance in the county evidently was that sponsored by the Epsilon Beta chapter of Beta Sigma Phi, also at Eau Gallie. Elaborate decorations of red cupids, red and white hearts and streamers, white baskets of red gladioli and other appropriate items in the Valentine idea were used.

The dance was semi-formal and attended by 200, the second annual Sweetheart Dance sponsored by this civic-minded group of young women. Mrs. Betty Mercer was crowned queen. Proceeds will go towards the Brevard Hospital building fund.

Jubilee Queen Event Change

SPEAKING OF QUEENS, there'll be a new type of choosing of this year's Orange Jubilee Queen at Cocoa for the April 6-11 fiesta. Don't know how the sponsoring Jaycees overlooked this little touch to the Jubilee all these years. There's always been a Queen and King chosen, or appointed, the method of selection, or voting, having varied over the more than 25 years the Jubilee has been held.

However, this year is the first for bathing beauty contest to be included on the agenda. How candidates will be selected and finalist chosen or elected is yet to be determined, but we hope they forego the temptation of election by "bought votes," as has been done in the past.

This is proof of something maybe, but certainly not of popularity or beauty or talent, at least one of which should be of great consideration in choosing a "Queen."

Other phases of the celebration will include, as in past years, a parade, teenage dance, formal Jubilee Ball, and several sports events. This year's Jubilee is being staged about a month later than usual. Better weather possibilities, less conflict in dates, and other considerations brought the change in the traditional late February-early March Jubilee dates.

Surprise Birthday Parties

AT LEAST two young "men" that we know of passed important milestones in their life last week. Both were given surprise birthday parties. Jimmy Scherer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Scherer of Cocoa, was one of the fortunate ones with about 50 of his friends "accidentally" popping in for a surprise dance.

Dexter Beck, son of Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Beck, was also honor guest at a surprise dance on his birthday, attended by a like number of young people. Needless to say, great fun was had by all. Who has more fun than 16 and 17 year olds anyway?

School 'Day' Tires Parents

WE'VE HEARD SOME amusing reprecussions of parents "going to school" during the past couple of weeks. The switch was seemingly part of a national PTA stunt, in which parents go to their children's school one night and go through, on an abbreviated schedule, of course, the full day's routine of their offspring.

That old gag about youth being wonderful—too bad it has to be wasted on children—just naturally crept in on many an occasion. We hear some parents are still wondering where their offspring get the energy for such a schedule day after day, and still have enough pep to keep the household stepping their hours at home.

Traffic Island in Bloom

IF YOU'VE WONDERED at the new beauty of those traffic islands at busy Cocoa Beach intersections, you can thank the Sea Grape Garden Club, the Cocoa Beach Chamber of Commerce and the Cocoa Beach Kiwanis Club. They are now working on their third project, the islands at the intersection of A1A and the beach causeway at North Cocoa Beach.

Similar intersections at South Cocoa Beach, where the divided State Rd. A1A begins, and ends, have already been tackled. This is the third such project by these energetic souls. More power to them. Their efforts are appreciated more than they'll probably ever know.

* * *

How to Garden by the Sea

INCIDENTALLY, if you live in a beach area, or plan to have a home in such an area in the near future, we suggest you plan to attend the "oceanside gardening" school, to be conducted through the auspices of the Brevard County Agricultural Department, beginning March 3 and continuing for seven weeks.

A mere $1 registration fee sent to Mrs. E. E. Novotny, 60 Camellia Ave., Eau Gallie, is the sole charge for the expert advice of such authorities as James E. Brogdon, entomologist, University of Florida; R. S. Mullin, plant pathologist, also U. of F.; Ralph White, assistant horticulturist, U. of F.; and the entire staff of the county agricultural department, including guidance of county agent, James T. Oxford.

Everything, from peculiarities encountered in growing plants in a salt air-sea spray atmosphere, to controlling of those pest peculiar to such areas, will be covered in the course. All residents of ocean side communities in the county are welcome to attend the school.

Anchor Club Now Installed

WE KNOW THE installation services for the newly formed Anchor Club, group of outstanding Cocoa High School girls, was a lovely affair Sunday afternoon. We had to forego the pleasure of accepting the sponsoring Pilot Club's invitation for an odd reason. We were sunbathing every moment the sun allowed in our all-out efforts to chase this contrary cough, now in its eighth week.

Ellen Rosenstihl, of Fort Lauderdale, Pilot Club district governor, presented the charter and installed officers. The Cocoa Women's Civic Chorus gave the musical program.

Waring's Hi Fi Holiday Takes Audience by Storm

By HELEN Van Hoy SMITH
Herald Staff Writer

PALM BEACH — Maestro Fred Waring came, saw, and conquered Palm Beach Monday night at the Royal Poinciana Playhouse. Waring and his Pennsylvanians are presenting the Hi Fi Holiday Show there all week with two extra matinees Friday and Saturday.

Opening night audiences can be a cold and critical crew, but Fred Waring fed them roasting ears and they loved it. He cracked jokes, made puns, and even kidded the sophisticates into delivering one-shot applause bombs all through the show.

How he did it, no one seemed to know. He chided any who wandered in late, but when it came to one handsome woman, she answered him back. She had been in the foyer selling tickets for the Hospital Ball. So Waring himself urged support of the ball from the stage.

The society woman was Peggy (Mrs. Benjamin Frank) Black. A planned episode? Perhaps, but smoothly carried out.

Waring's show is an electrifying experience. It glorifies every phase of American music, the beautiful, the grand, the classic and the corn. Waring admitted he was playing corn before Lawrence Welk learned to count up to two.

On stage were glee club singers, vocalists, a full orchestra with fine solo instrumental lists.

Waring makes dramatic use of spotlights, and often his own face or that of a performer will appear as a living portrait, standing out against the darkness.

The spoof on a typical college glee club concert was especially enjoyed, and so was the mosaic of American music.

The men and women who make up the organization are handsome and have beautiful, well trained voices. The famous Waring hallmark, sculptured enunciation, is a feature of the singing.

Waring himself threatens to sing and does sing a few bars. And once he demonstrates that he can out-Elvis Presley.

Hi Fi Holiday has been vividly anticipated, and Waring on Monday night proved that whether the town is Podunk or Palm Beach he can capture its heart and win its applause.

U.S. Women Much Cleaner

PARIS — (WNS) — The French Committee on Cleanliness has announced that American women are still far in the lead of the rest of the world.

For every 12 garments that an American lady has cleaned, the Italian woman has five cleaned, the Swiss and Belgians four, the English two, and the French and Germans only one.

THREE LEADERS SPEAK

YW Ponders Problems

By ELEANOR DIXON
Herald Club Editor

It's a rare case when you ask to hear about another fellow's problems. But that is what the Young Women's Christian Association of Miami did this week.

The YWCA asked Dr. Joe Hall, Dr. H. Franklin Williams and the Rev. Frank L. Titus to tell the problems which face the schools, community and church, and how the Christian faith affects the decisions made on these problems.

First responsibility of the church, said the Rev. Titus, minister of Holy Cross Episcopal Church, is to provide people with a spiritual basis for coping with school and community problems.

Its duty is to provide basic moral training for young people who will serve their community, and to work with community agencies such as the YWCA and YMCA, not try to duplicate the agency's services.

It is not the church's place, he added, to enter politics or reform programs.

In the area of race problems, the Rev. Mr. Titus praised the YWCA for its contributions to "communication between leaders of both races." He was referring to the way Negro and White leaders work together in the YWCA program.

* * *

COMMUNITY PROBLEMS lie in two areas—welfare services and government—said Dr. Williams, vice president and director of community affairs of the University of Miami.

"Many of our new citizens are a little slow in identifying themselves with this community and its welfare needs. We need to awaken their awareness of responsibility.

"Our real problem is in understanding our new (Metropolitan) form of government. Every citizen ought to inform himself and make his opinion known."

Dr. Williams added that moral values of a community in politics. "An example of general laxity is the recent incidents of congressmen hiring their relatives as secretarial help — an example of petty graft and loose thinking."

* * *

DR. HALL revealed the criteria he uses in making dozens of school decisions as superintendent or public instruction for Dade Couny Schools, especially when a disgruntled businessman who didn't get the bid for school building equpment cries "crook."

"If you can't inform yourself fully (as to whether someone is a 'crook' or not) then refrain from judgment or condemnation. I believe this is what any Christain group would do."

School problems and decisions, he added, bring more expression from "the objectors to" than those who are for the decision.

Legislators Pledge All-Out Race Fight

TALLAHASSEE — A group of legislators met secretly in Daytona Beach Sunday and adopted a "manifesto," vowing to fight for racial segregation and states rights, Rep. Richard O. Mitchell of Leon disclosed Tuesday.

Mitchell, who spearheaded the movement, said more than 20 House and Senate members have approved the manifesto, and he believes all 133 members will support it before the Legislature opens.

Mitchell said about 15, including David Eldredge of Miami, actually attended the meeting Sunday night. A number of others have since asked their names be included among the signers, he said.

The manifesto declares the people of Florida are "more determined than ever" to maintained their segregated way of life and to preserve states rights.

It takes issue with recent statements by Gov. LeRoy Collins that the attitude of the people of Florida has changed since collapse of Virginia's "massive resistance" program recently.

Collins made the statement in forecasting that a school in Miami can be integrated peaceably next September. He had said several months ago there was no community in Florida which would accept voluntary school integration without strong public resistance.

Since then, the Dade County School Board has ordered four Negroes admitted next fall to the all-white Orchard Villa school, and Collins said it could be done without violence.

The legislative manifesto says such statements are not well-founded and the sources of such statements are not accurately in tune with what the legislators believe to be the feelings of the public.

It states the issue is not merely one of integration versus segregation, but has to do with the whole field of states rights. "We believe the people will resist as long as legally and morally possible," it says.

"The word just spread around after the races," one of the signers to The Herald. "I don't actually know who started it.

"There was no wild talk, and no direct accusations against anyone. There was as much talk about preserving state's rights as there was about preserving segregation.

"Most everyone there interpreted the Dade county move as a foot in the door for integration, and we're out to close the door again."

Mitchell said the group at Daytona Beach discussed possible legislation to ward off even token integration, including the "last resort" bill to close schools, rather than submit to mixed classes.

"The last resort bill will be introduced and passed," Mitchell said, along with other measures not yet developed in detail.

He said he has had calls requesting that their names be included from Sens. Bart Knight, Blountstown; and Charley Johns, Starke, and Reps. Welborn Daniel of Lake, George Stallings of Duval, J. W. McAlpin of Hamilton and Speaker-Designate Tom Beasley of Walton.

Polk Sheriff Testifies

'Webb' Name Hits Jones Bribe Trial

By Herald Wire Services

BARTOW — Sheriff Hagan Parrish testified Tuesday that E. B. (Shorty) Jones once linked a Tampa bolita figure and a Cecil Webb with a lottery syndicate seeking to operate in Polk County.

The 39-year-old Jones, former State Representative from Madison County went on trial in Criminal Court. He is charged with attempting to bribe Parrish to open the county to the lottery operation.

'Shorty' Jones
. . . bribery trial opens

Parrish was the first prosecution witness. He testified Jones approached him several times late in 1956 and early in 1957 and offered him a total of $5,000 plus 10 per cent of the monthly bolita gross if he would let the syndicate operate in the county.

Parrish said the names of Webb and Dominick (Nicky) Furci came up during a meeting he had with Jones at the Haven Hotel in Winter Haven on Dec. 15, 1956. Parrish said Webb was from Tampa but did not further identify him.

Furci has long been associated with Tampa Bolita operations. He was arrested last June in a sweeping numbers racket raid in Polk and Hillsborough counties, but he and five others won acquittal on the lottery charges.

Furci is now free pending appeal of a Hillsborough County Criminal Court sentence of five years for larceny.

Parrish testified the meeting with Jones in Winter Haven took place only three weeks before he was to take office as sheriff.

Road Plan Gets Mixed Reaction

TALLAHASSEE — (AP) — A State Road Department proposal to break up partnership with the counties in the spending of the 5th, 6th and 7th cent gasoline tax money drew mixed reaction from North Florida legislators Tuesday.

Most lawmakers who met here to hear Road Chairman Joe Grotegut outline the plan reserved final decision until they could discuss it with their county commissioners.

Rep. John Shipp of Jackson County said he would make no final commitment until he had conferred with his commissioners. But he said the proposal appeared sound to him.

Rep. Addison Drummond of Bonifay, on the other hand, was openly hostile.

Sens. Wilson Carraway of Tallahassee and Senate President-designate Dewey M. Johnson of Quincy said they believed the plan would work to the disadvantage of their counties.

Sen. Charley E. Johns of Starke said, however, it appeared "a good deal for my counties."

The proposal provides that the Road Department take full control of the spending of the 80 per cent surplus of the 5th and 6th cents of the gasoline tax after boomtime county road debt obligations have been met.

The counties would receive in cash to spend as they choose 20 per cent of the 5th and 6th cent surplus and all of the 7th cent revenue.

The Road Department would assume responsibility for all primary rights of way acquisition. The Road Department would guarantee to spend within each county its annual surplus on primary rights of way or construction.

Under present law, the Road Department is responsible for spending the 80 per cent surplus of the 5th and 6th cents of the gas tax and 80 per cent of the 7th cent, but must spend it as directed by county commissioners. Failure of state and county to agree on a project often results in the job not being done, Grotegut said.

Shipp said he particularly liked that part of the proposal which would give the counties full control of the seventh cent money.

"We have about 1,500 miles of roads in Jackson County which need hardsurfacing and nothing else. The Road Department, however, sets right and way and construction standards that makes the surfacing of these roads impractical," Shipp said.

"This plan seems to offer the solution. The county can take its money and do the necessary surfacing without a 100-foot right of way and a lot of fancy and costly engineering," he added.

Laundry Gets Taken To Cleaners

JACKSONVILLE — (AP) — The paymaster of a Jacksonville laundry was arrested Tuesday on charges of padding his employer's payroll for more than a year.

J. C. Patrick, chief criminal investigator for Duval County, said Rocky Lemieux, 36, was taken in custody after a preliminary investigation indicated he had included on the company's payroll the names of at least 12 former employes.

Patrick said the operation may have netted Lemieux as much as $900 a month since May 1957. The owner of the laundry discovered the irregularity when the accused man was absent on a payday and there were 12 pay envelopes too many.

The investigator said a check of the firm's records showed the names of four former employes had been on the payroll for varying periods. The total involved in the four cases amounted to $4,602, officers said.

Lemieux was placed in jail on grand larceny charges.

Wharf Repair Contract Due

COCOA — The Port Canaveral Authority today will award a contract for repairs on public wharf, which has been slipping into the harbor since it was hit by a ship last fall.

About 2,000 feet of the 4,000-foot marginal wharf has to be rebuilt.

The authority has three bids for the work, ranging from $97,373 to $239,000.

JP Faces Suspension

JACKSONVILLE — (UPI) — Peace Justice Steve J. Targonski was fined $500 in Duval County Criminal Court Tuesday for driving while drunk and may be suspended from office.

Targonski was arrested after a minor accident April 12 and was convicted Feb. 13.

Investigating officers testified Targonski appeared intoxicated. Targonski denied being drunk, but admitted having a few drinks at a bar earlier.

William Durden, the governor's executive assistant, said it was the policy in cases of conviction of public officials to suspend them from office.

Fabens Named

Express Rate Hike May Cost $255,000

TALLAHASSEE —(UPI)— Railway Express asked the Public Utilities Commission Friday for authority to increase its rates on shipments within Florida by 15 per cent.

The increase would cost Florida shippers an additional $255,000 a year, the commission estimated. The increased rates would effect all commodities except fish, citrus gift packages, wearing apparel and certain carload traffic.

It would coincide with an interstate rate hike granted last October.

Railway express got its last intra-state raise in November, 1957, and it hit only milk and cream products.

The commission made no immediate decision on the increase, which Railway Express said was needed to offset recent wage increases and fringe benefits to employes.

Martin Returns Zoning Problem

By ZOLA SWARTHOUT
Herald Correspondent

STUART — The Martin County Commission's dilemma of "chewing on the same bone twice" as termed by Chairman Martin H. Rowell on voiding a building permit issued Johnny Hendry of Jensen Beach, was solved temporarily by tossing the "bone of contention" back to the Jensen Beach Zoning Committee.

The zoning committee last month refused to OK a permit for the construction of what was termed a warehouse on the Jensen Beach Cutoff Rd. on grounds the building was not in conformity with zoning.

The County Zoning Board, failing to get a quorum, went before the commission and asked that a permit be granted.

The commission approved the request. Then, at a meeting Feb. 13, rescinded its action.

Thomas Thurlow, attorney for Hendry, said the building should be termed a storehouse, since a construction company wanted to use it for lumber, and would also build an office.

Thurlow said the zoning committee did not use its powers to "its fullest extent" as a clause in the regulation permitted the committee to add other businesses with "its discretion."

In reply to Thurlow's question of "why the Jensen zoning committee acted as it did?" Commissioner Seymour Gideon said, "I can tell you why. Mr. W. C. Kiplinger purchased land on both sides of the proposed building as a strictly speculative deal."

Commissioner E. J. Arnold said, "If the Jensen Zoning Committee doesn't take immediate action they can be replaced."

The commission adopted a motion to request the Jensen Zoning Committee, headed by Warner B. Tilton to act by Friday on the request that a permit be granted and to send the report to Arnold Bauer, chairman of the county board. Bauer said he would call a special meeting on March 2 to consider the zoning committee's action.

Tilton said that the permit was issued in violation of regulations and that a public hearing would have to be called to consider a variance.

3 Armed Fugitives Sought

PERRY — (AP) — Three armed convicts who overpowered state road camp guards and escaped were believed holed up in woods north of here Tuesday.

Two others who escaped with them were arrested in Valdosta, Ga.

The three convicts were Roy Penley of Lenoir, N.C., serving five years for unarmed robbery; Arnell Elliott of Porteville, Calif., serving three years for breaking and entering, and Danny Wilkins of Wilmington, N. C. serving 10 years for breaking and entering.

Searchers believed they had several shotguns and pistols in their possession.

The fugitives escaped in a stolen State Road Department car which they abandoned a few miles north of town, apparently when they met a highway patrol car. They took to the woods.

A search party saw the fugitives last night but they split up and escaped in the darkness.

Vote Rolls Open

WEST PALM BEACH — County Registration Supervisor Dewitt Upthegrove said his office in the Courthouse will remain open until 9 p.m. today to permit West Palm Beach residents to register for the March 31 municipal election. Arrangements have already been made to keep the office open on Saturday Feb. 28.

Milk Board To Be Heard

TALLAHASSEE — (AP) — Circuit Judge Hugh Taylor Tuesday set a hearing tentatively for Friday, Feb. 27, on a request by the Florida Milk Commission to dissolve a temporary injunction prohibiting the commission from regulating the milk industry in the Tallahassee area.

The date was not made final pending agreement by opposing attorneys. An organization of dairy farmers obtained the temporary injunction last Thursday after formally petitioning the commission to withdraw its powers from the 15-county milkshed.

Rulings Weaken Security, Bar Charges

Nation's Lawyers Blast Court as Soft on Reds

Get Tough, Congress Is Urged

'Plug Loopholes With Legislation'

CHICAGO — (UPI) — The American Bar Association Tuesday accused the U. S. Supreme Court of going easy on Communists and called on Congress to step in with tough remedial legislation.

The accusation and recommendation were contained in a controversial resolution approved by overwhelming voice vote at the mid-winter meeting of the ABA's House of Delegates.

The vote made the resolution the official policy of the powerful organization representing 200,000 American lawyers.

The nation's most prominent lawyer, Supreme Court Chief Justice Earl Warren, is not a member. His resignation was accepted by the ABA Friday.

The 50-plus page resolution, prepared by the ABA's special committee on Communist tactics and strategy, said the Supreme Court has weakened the nation's security by its rulings on 24 cases involving accused Communists or anti-subversive legislation.

Flying directly in the face of the court, the ABA delegates demanded that state statutes against sedition be given concurrent enforcement powers as federal laws. The court has held that anti-sedition laws are the exclusive business of the federal government.

The ABA also asked that "wherever there are reasonable grounds to believe that as a result of court decisions internal security is weakened" Congress should enact legislation to plug the loopholes.

The ABA also wants the House un-American Activities Committee to take on the job of studying the operation of existing anti-Communist laws and the House itself to set up a standing anti-Communist investigative committee.

The vast majority of the 246 delegates brushed aside scattered opposition in putting themselves on record as disapproving the Supreme Court's interpretation of how the nation should fight Communist subversion.

Two committee members congratulated the ABA, however. Rep. William T. McCulloch (R., Ohio) predicted a "friendly reception" for the proposals in Congress. Rep. Robert T. Ashmore (D., S.C.) was happy that the ABA delegates "finally have come to feel that the Supreme Court is not above criticism."

John D. Randall of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, was nominated to succeed Ross L. Malone of Roswell, N. M., as the next president.

A Cuban boy got to see his idol, Fidel Castro, in Havana — the hard way. Castro, President Manuel Urrutia and other officials were on a veranda at the ceremony commemorating Cuba's war for independence. The young fellow tried to climb the wall to reach Castro. The new premier saw him, stooped, took the boy's hand and helped him up. That's Urrutia in the light suit behind Castro.

AFL-CIO Leaders Yield

Reuther Wins His Battle For 'March' of Unemployed

SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico — (AP) — Walter Reuther Tuesday won over other AFL-CIO leaders to his plan for the unemployed to dramatize their woes with demonstrations soon in Washington.

The project might include a march past the White House.

Reuther, the United Auto Workers chief, said the demonstrations would "dramatize the desperate plight" of five million idle.

The agreement to sponsor the demonstrations, made at concluding sessions of the AFL-CIO Executive Council's two-week winter meeting here, apparently showed Reuther to be the victor in a running dispute with George Meany, AFL-CIO president.

Reuther and other former leaders of the old CIO accused Meany of dictating AFL-CIO policies, and demanded a voice in shaping federation decisions.

Meany had advocated a spring meeting of union leaders only to beat the drums for legislation to aid the jobless.

But a stormy session of the AFL-CIO chiefs resulted in plans for a mass demonstration of the actual unemployed more like the plan Reuther had advocated.

The revolt had boiled up for a week behind the scenes of the annual winter meeting of the AFL-CIO Executive Council here. It began when Meany—head of the old AFL—at a council meeting chided Reuther—head of the old CIO — for holding a session of the economic policy committee while the federation president was delayed in Washington by a cold. Meany was reported angry at Reuther's unemployment march project.

Reuther, the chairman of the economic committee, retorted that Meany had never attended economic policy meetings. Anyway, the Auto Workers Union chief said, as chairman he should have a relatively free hand at mapping economic policy, at least in the committee stage. Reuther said if he couldn't run the economic committee, he might as well quit the post.

Reuther was backed in the argument by James B. Carey, No. 2 man in the Federation's CIO faction. The meeting got so hot that Meany ordered Carey to leave his seat and take one at the foot of the executive council table, something the scrappy Carey refused to do.

Meany, Reuther and other high federation officials failed to resolve the conflict at two secret breakfast meetings during the week. Some union leaders feared a blowup of the four-year-old merged labor organization. A showdown session was held Monday night.

Meany declined to comment afterward. Reuther, with what appeared to be a diplomatic approach, told newsmen: "Nobody ever talked about busting up anything — there are understandings now on things where there were misunderstandings before."

Hoffa Says Florida's 'Fertile' for Unions

By DOM BONAFEDE
Herald Staff Writer

Citing Florida as "fertile land" for union activity, Teamsters Boss Jimmy Hoffa reported Tuesday he will "spend whatever money is necessary and supply sufficient organizers to do a job in the state."

He said a statewide drive will be aimed at all unorganized workers, with particular emphasis on Dade and Broward counties and the citrus belt in Central Florida.

At a press conference at the Teamsters executive council meeting at Miami Beach, Hoffa also accepted a challenge laid down by the AFL-CIO in a test for 10,000 unorganized workers in Puerto Rico.

"We'll meet this situation as we have met others forced upon us by the AFL-CIO. And we'll be on top when the fight is over," predicted the Teamsters' chief.

"Most of the opposition in Puerto Rico is from the government, not the workers," Hoffa said. "The government is trying to tell the workers they must continue to take low wages to stabilize the economy.

"We are not at war with the government of Puerto Rico and we hope it will not make war with us, but whoever opposes the Teamsters will have to abide by the decisions of the workers."

He said he did not expect the jurisdictional battle with the AFL-CIO to overflow to the mainland.

The Teamsters' recently launched campaign to organize 70,000 employes of Sears Roebuck is "months ahead of schedule," Hoffa added.

He answered questions forthrightly, in rapid, staccato fashion.

M. W. Miller, Teamsters' Southeastern Conference chairman, later told The Herald, "If our progress continues and the reception is good, we should double our membership in Florida within five years."

Current Teamsters rolls in the state list more than 15,000 members, one third of which belong to the three Miami locals, Miller said.

"We're here to organize any unorganized workers in our jurisdiction," he commented.

"There is no one industry we are more intersted in than any other."

Congressman to Slice $11,873 Check

Son's Pay Mistake, He Says

DES MOINES, Iowa —(AP)— Rep. Steven V. Carter (D., Iowa) says he made a mistake in judgment in putting his 19-year-old college freshman son on his Congressional payroll at $11,873 a year, The Des Moines Register said Tuesday.

In a copyrighted story from its Washington bureau, the newspaper quoted Carter as saying, "I'm afraid I didn't have this thing in very good perspective and I'm going to correct it."

"I've made a mistake of judgment on this matter," the newspaper quoted Carter, "and I am going to adjust it within a few days.

"I've been ill with cancer and Steve has been carrying a lot of the load for me. My illness and the fact I was told that I might not live many weeks probably resulted in my making a misjudgement to what I should pay Steve."

The freshman Congressman said previously his son, a prelaw student at George Washington University, had the best qualifications of applicants as his chief assistant.

Carter told The Register he had received numerous letters from Iowa and "it is about 60-40 against me."

The newspaper further quoted Carter as saying that because of the reaction he felt it was "time to lay things on the line and tell the people about my physical condition which I am sure influenced my actions."

Ike's Cash For Slums Doubled

Down Payment Slash Approved

WASHINGTON — (UPI — The House Banking Committee Tuseday approved a sharp reduction in minimum down-payments for higher-priced government-insured houses and a much bigger slum clearance program than President Eisenhower proposed.

The committee approved federal grants of 500 million dollars a year for slum clearance for the next three years, double the annual rate proposed in the President's six-year 1.45-billion-dollar program.

The actions were taken as the committee worked behind closed doors on a catch-all 2.1-billion-dollar Democratic housing Bill. Members said the committee probably will hammer the bill into final shape today.

The Democratic measure represented a major challenge to the President's economy drive along with other proposals to set up broad federal aid programs for airports and chronically depressed areas.

By a 21-to-3 vote, the committee refused to knock out of its bill an administration-opposed provision which would provide direct federal lending for construction of houses for elderly people.

The reduction in down payments required under the FHA mortgage insurance program would permit a lender to offer terms under which a $25,000 house could be purchased with a down payment as low as $2,605. The present FHA minimum is $6,980.

On an $18,000 house, the minimum down payment would be $855, compared with the present $1,380. On a $15,000 house it would be $555, as against the present $630. There would be no change on houses selling for $13,500 or less.

The proposed minimums do not necessarily mean that would-be home buyers could get such terms. That would be up to banks and other lenders. But if the bill became law, the minimums would be the lowest down payment lenders could allow under the FHA program.

The proposed reduction in minimum down payment schedules was not included in the $2,650,000,000 housing bill passed earlier this year by the Senate.

Big Tract Reverts to Fred Tuerk

More State News, 1B, 2C, 8C

By THELMA FROSCHER
Herald Correspondent

VERO BEACH — In what he said was one of the largest foreclosure sales in Florida, Fred R. Tuerk Tuesday regained about 2,700 acres of ocean-and-river-front land north of Vero Beach from Vero Investors Ltd.

Fred Tuerk's cousin, Conrad Tuerk, bid for him at the sale conducted by County Clerk Douglas Baker on the steps of the Indian River County Courthouse. With a nominal bid of $35,000, he topped other bids which be began with $1,000.

The original $3,950,000 mortgage was taken by Tuerk when the deal was closed in December 1956.

At the time of the foreclosure, decrees by Circuit Judge D. C. Smith Feb. 10, 1959, and attorney fees, court costs and interest had raised the total due Tuerk to $4,232,525.99. Interest and court costs since Feb. 10 have brought the total due Tuerk Tuesday to $4,248,552.11.

Tuerk had released 400 acres to Vero Investors free of the mortgage. The remaining approximately 2,700 acres were appraised at about $5,118,360 by Charles C. Jewett, real estate appraiser, at the Circuit Court trials last week involving the property. Between the Atlantic Ocean and Indian River, the property adjoins the North Vero Beach city limits and extends more than five miles on State Road A1A.

Jewett appraised at about $800,000 the 360 acres left to Vero Investors after selling 40 of the 400 acres they owned free of the mortgage. Disposition is being decided in the four suits now in Circuit Court.

Prior to the bidding Tuesday noon, more than 100 persons stood patiently for 40 minutes on the courthouse lawn while Ralph Harris, deputy county clerk, and Charles Smith, assistant county attorney, took turns reading the monotonous legal description of about 2,700 acres of land.

This was the largest foreclosure sale in the history of Florida, with the exception of some railroad property, Fred Tuerk said Tuesday afternoon.

He said he originally bought the property during 1949-50.

Included in ther Indian River County property Tuerk owns is a 30,000 acre ranch 10 miles west of Vero Beach named Adrianna Ranch after his wife.

Until Report Is Made

Kefauver: Delay Vote on Strauss

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Sen. Estes Kefauver (D.-Tenn.) disclosed Tuesday he is asking the Senate Commerce Committee to hold up the nomination of Rear Adm. Lewis L. Strauss as Secretary of Commerce.

Kefauver, who is opposing Strauss' confirmation, said he wants the committee to delay a vote until the Justice Department makes a full report on Strauss' actions in connection with the controversial Dixon-Yates contract.

KEFAUVER

STRAUSS

Strauss, former chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission, is serving as secretary of commerce under a recess appointment from President Eisenhower.

Kefauver said in a statement that Strauss played a "key role" in connection with the development and execution of the subsequently canceled contract with the Dixon-Yates firm to build a steam plant at West Memphis, Ark., to supply supplemental power to the Tennessee Valley Authority.

The AEC under Strauss entered into the 107-million-dollar contract.

Kefauver contended that Strauss arranged for a presidential directive requiring the AEC to enter the Dixon-Yates contract over the opposition of the majority of the AEC commissioners.

Snow piled up in the frozen Northeast Tuesday.

The snow reached a depth of seven inches in Worcester, Mass., and five inches in Boston.

Most sections of New England already had been plastered with wet, heavy snow.

Two inches of fresh snow fell in Rochester, N. Y. An 11-inch fall in Watertown, N. Y. thickened the blanket on the ground to 28 inches.

Temperatures dropped far under the zero mark early Tuesday in Maine. Presque Isle had 31 below and Ccaribou 16 below.

Scattered snow also was reported in the Northern Rockies. Four inches of snow hit Denver. Areas of rain, with snow at higher elevations, developed in Washington state.

Briton Raps U.S. Import

'Curb Those Nawsty TV Commercials'

New York Times Service

LONDON — A Labor member introduced in the House of Commons Tuesday a bill to curb what he called "one of the nastiest imports from the U.S."—the interruption of television programs for commercials.

The measure, which Christopher Mayhew has pushed for months, would amend the Television Act to prohibit the interruption of programs by commercial advertisements and keep the intervals between the advertisements to a minimum of 25 minutes.

The 43-year-old former undersecretary of state for foreign affairs, enlivening his appeal with the colorful prose and rich anecdote his subject encourages, denounced the advertising interruptions as "symbols of vandalism and profiteering."

"The other week," he said, "a western film was interrupted—just when the red Indians were about to attack—for an advertisement for a scalp lotion."

This brought down the house. Mayhew continued:

"The only programs not interrupted are religious programs and the discussion program 'Free Speech' featuring Robert Boothby, now a peer.

"Television advertising holds back only, it seems, for the Lord God and Lord Bob."

Nikita Rejects West's Plan for Berlin Talks

Red Calls Again For Summit Meet

MOSCOW —(UPI)— Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev Tuesday rejected as "unbusinesslike" the Western plan for a Big Four foreign ministers' conference on Berlin in a biting speech that chilled optimism over his summit talks with Prime Minister Harold Macmillan.

He warned again that the Russians would meet with force any Allied attempt to force a passage to Berlin, and insisted that the best way to settle the crisis would be to hold a summit meeting.

Ranging over the international field, the premier also rejected the Western proposals for control of a nuclear test ban. He warned that Russia would continue testing weapons and again turned down the idea of the Eisenhower "open skies" disarmament inspection program.

His speech, delivered at a Moscow election rally during a one-day lull in the talks with Macmillan, blasted hopes of narrowing East-West differences, although Khrushchev spoke in friendly terms of Britain and suggested a 20 to 50-year Anglo-Soviet non-aggression pact.

Macmillan was off visiting the Dubna nuclear power plant while Khrushchev spoke at the televised rally in his capacity as a candidate for a seat on the Moscow City Soviet (Council).

His rejection of a foreign ministers' conference on Berlin left the issue back where it started Nov. 27 when Russia gave the Western allies exactly six months to clear out of West Berlin and allow it to be turned into a "free city."

He objected to the fact that the West did not include Poland and Czechoslovakia, "the first victims" of the German invasion, in the proposed talks on Berlin.

"This is an unbusinesslike approach and unacceptable," he said. "Moreover, the West wants entanglement in a network of diplomatic talks from which there is no escape."

He derided the U.S. and contrasted the friendly welcome given to Macmillan in Russia with the incidents that greeted Soviet Deputy Premier Anastas I. Mikoyan on his recent American tour.

"We have no hooligans like those who tried to throw some eggs at Comrade Mikoyan," he said.

Khrushchev insisted that an East-West summit conference is needed to settle such problems as Berlin and nuclear armaments.

The heads of government rather than foreign ministers, he said, "have the full measure of rights and responsibility for ensuring universal peace."

Only they could "soberly examine and solve major problems."

Brushing off the idea of a foreign ministers meeting, he said:

"Our foreign minister (Andrei Gromyko) is a very busy man and I hardly think he should waste time on fruitless talks."

U.S. Asks 'Reasoned' Answer

WASHINGTON — (UPI) — The U. S. called upon Russia Tuesday to make a "reasoned reply" to the West's proposal for a Big Four foreign ministers conference to settle the Berlin and German problems.

The State Department said a speech by Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev rejecting such a meeting and demanding a summit conference instead was a political oration and could not be construed as Russia's formal position.

Privately U.S. officials feared that Khrushchev might be trying to take advantage of Secretary of State John Foster Dulles' illness by renewing his demands for a summit conference.

Dulles, now hospitalized with cancer, has long made clear the U. S. would not agree to a summit meeting unless it was carefully prepared for through advance diplomatic negotiations, including a foreign ministers meeting. Otherwise, he feels, Russia would use such a conference merely as a propaganda sounding board.

Officials said Khrushchev might be laboring under the mistaken impression that with Dulles on the sidelines, he could stampede the West into a summit meeting.

Asked to comment on Khrushchev's address, State Department Spokesman Lincoln White said:

"I have no comment on a speech by Mr. Khrushchev at a Moscow political rally. We are awaiting a reasoned reply to our note of Feb. 16." The note called for the foreign ministers meeting.

Officials said privately it remained to be seen whether the Khrushchev speech foreshadowed a deeper freeze in the cold war or merely represented a bargaining maneuver by the Soviet leader.

Sympathy strikes among textile workers and taxi drivers broke out in Quito, Guayaquil, Riobamba and Ambato.

Cancer $$$ Sent Abroad

WASHINGTON — (UPI) — Sen. Richard L. Neuberger (D., Ore.) Tuesday presented checks totaling $17,000 to three foreign nations for cancer research. He acted on behalf of the Damon Runyon Memorial Fund.

Newberger, who recently returned to the Senate after a cancer operation, dedicated the checks "to the gallant fight for life of our secretary of state" John Foster Dulles, who is battling cancer at Walter Reed Army Medical Center.

Promotion Of Younger Men Backed

WASHINGTON —(AP)— The House Armed Services Committee Tuesday approved a bill to speed the promotion of about 3,500 younger naval and Marine officers.

The bill, which now goes to the House, would provide early retirement of an equivalent number of senior officers.

Several members of the committee objected that the measure would violate a moral commitment to the older officers to let them finish their normal service before retirement.

However, an attempt to amend it to provide retention failed, 26-4. The bill finally was approved with 29 members voting for it and only Rep. Charles E. Bennett (D., Fla.) against.

In general, officers would be retired if they had twice been passed over for promotion and had not been chosen for continuation by special boards.

No officer would be retired, however, with less than 20 years service — which would entitle him to lifetime retired pay.

Police Ad Pitch Slapped

Fund-Raisers Are Arrested

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y. — (AP) — An official investigating alleged frauds in advertising solicitation for a state police journal says it "is the worst shakedown racket I have seen in my 36 years with the state police."

That comment was made by Martin Dillon, Chief inspector for the state police.

Two men were arrested bringing the total to four. It was reported that almost $40,000 had been collected.

The four were connected with a firm which had a contract to raise funds for the Patrolman's Benevolent Association of the state police, in connection with a journal to be issued marking the association's 15th anniversary.

District Attorney Joseph F. Gagliardi of Westchester County said the fund-raisers identified themselves as state troopers, which they were not, and suggested to prospective contributors that "it would be helpful" to donate.

Police said complaints came chiefly from truckers and other businessmen in Buffalo, Syracuse, Rochester, Albany, Watertown and New York City, in New York state, and other complaints came from New England, New Jersey, Ohio, Georgia and Illinois.

Charles S. Stone, 69, a licensed fund-raiser from White Plain, was arrested on a warrant in Miami Beach, Fla., and John W. Higgins, 31, of South Norwalk, Conn., was picked up by state police in Greenwich Village, Manhattan.

Last week Stone's brother Michael, 48, of White Plains, and Galen L. Scott, 58, who lives with Higgins, were arrested.

The four are charged with fraudulently obtaining property by soliciting for charity.

A statement issued by the association said that the money received by the PBA from the fund-raising organization will be returned to the donors. The PBA received $24,760.

Donor Bars Race Issue

Traffic-Snarling Officers Named

Two Miami motorcyclemen who conducted an off-duty roadblock which bottled up traffic on Key Biscayne Sunday while TV cameras filmed a commercial were identified Tuesday by Acting Miami Police Chief John Webber.

They are Sgt. Shafter Wyatt and Officer Burt Langdale, both with more than 10 years service on the department.

Webber said he had banned all off-duty work by motorcycle officers pending return of Chief Walter Headley, who is absent because of the death of his father. Wyatt and Langdale have been asked to submit a full written report on the incident.

Miami police said Tuesday they had a good lead on who stole County Commissioner Faris N. Cowart's little green box — containing $6,500 cash and $15,000 worth of stocks — but have been stymied in getting enough information to file charges.

Detectives intimated the two suspects had been inside the Cowart home at 1430 SW 12th Ave. several times before the Feb. 8 burglary. The little box was hidden in a closet.

Cowart said the cash had been left to him by his father and was to have been given to his 70-year-old mother.

TURF EXPERTS seem pretty well agreed that last Saturday's Widener field wasn't exactly $100,000 stake calibre. There have been several such stakes in the past few years, with the purses geared for better horses than we saw.

Would it be a sacrilege to suggest that we take the same money and split it up a bit? The McLennan attracts the same horses we see in the Widener, for far less money. Perhaps a progressive stake program through the 40-day meeting, with the champion selected on points, or selection of a "Champion of the Meeting" by these same estimable gentlemen who make like wise in yon press box?

Some turfmen have hurled harsh words at Jockey Bill Hartack because he refused to ride Greek Circle Saturday, after taking the 4-5 favorite onto the track. Let's face facts! Hartack's business is riding race horses. He was on the most likely horse in the race and a win meant money for Hartack as well as the owner. So he didn't dismount for anything trivial. He thought Greek Circle acted as if something was wrong. If so, he'd burn up a lot of 4-5 money. The horse might be permanently injured. Hartack thought it wouldn't be fair to race under such conditions. He was perfectly right.

Jury Hits School Safety

Fire Protection Held Wanting

By JAMES BUCHANAN
Herald Staff Writer

A special Grand Jury report said Tuesday that inadequate fire protection in Dade County is costing dollars and could cost many lives of Dade school children.

The jury's investigation began after the disastrous Chicago school fire when a series of articles in The Herald pointed up poor safety practices in Dade schools, nursing homes and night clubs.

It would take 25 minutes for a county fire truck to reach Key Biscayne Elementary School after an alarm was sounded, the report said.

And the county has no equipment to battle more than a second-floor blaze anywhere in the unincorporated area.

A dollar-and-cents evaluation of the county's fire-fighting equipment is shown in insurance rates.

There's a $17 difference between the City of Miami's low rate, and the premiums paid by home owners in the unincorporated areas.

One of the biggest hurdles, according to the report, is the fact that many municipal fire departments can't go to the aid of county firemen because they use a different type of equipment.

The jurors' recommendations include standardization of all equipment and fittings in order that hoses, hydrants and hose connections can be interchanged.

Once accomplished, the jury said it believed the county and all municipalities should enter into a firefighting agreement and use a central alarm and communications system.

Most municipalities have an unofficial mutual aid pact operating now.

Complete reorganization and expansion of the County Fire Department, hardest hit by the jury report, was recommended last month after a survey by Public Safety Director Thomas J. Kelly.

At the time, Kelly said it was up to the county to bring its equipment up to date before calling for standardization by the municipalities.

While the jury's report named no specific schools, The Herald's survey had shown several fire hazards at Miami Edison Junior and Senior High Schools.

School Superintendent Joe Hall said the School Board was making changes as rapidly as possible, and that the jury's latest findings probably would spur the work.

Officials admitted, off the record, that consolidation of all fire departments probably would be fought by the personnel involved. They would fear, the officials said, a loss of seniority and pension advantages.

Any such consolidation, however, would have to await unification of equipment and incorporation of the fire department into a citywide communications system.

Resentful Pupil Wounds Coach

SANTA FE, N. M. — (AP) — Porfirio (Porky) Leyva, Santa Fe High School coach, suffered a scalp wound Tuesday from a bullet a 16-year-old student admitted firing.

Police arrested Larry David Romero, whom they described as a troublemaker at school. Romero told them Leyva "tried to push me around when I didn't want to do my work."

National Summary

A series of storms moving across Canada Tuesday blocked the southward progress of severely cold arctic air while clear skies with diminishing winds allowed lower readings over the East. Most sections of the country will show little change in temperatures or a tendency for warming today. High pressure extended sunny skies over broad areas from the Rockies to the Appalachians with midday temperatures ranging from the teens and 20s in the north to 50s as far as Kansas Tuesday.

A disturbance off the coast maintained snow through the northeast in addition to flurries in a brisk northerly flow over the eastern Great Lakes region into the mountains from West Virginia northward. Rochester, N.Y., reported a 2 inch accumulation during the forenoon and similar deposits in Massachusetts raised snow cover to 7 inches at Worcester and 5 inches at Boston. Clearing later on left only a few flurries in the mountains, but a chance that a Canadian disturbance may trail a little snow over northern New England today.

Mild sunny 70 and 80 degree weather in Florida presented a contrast to the 50 degree range more prominent along the leading edge of cool air in the Gulf states. Rain fringed the coastal regions from Texas to southern Alabama and northwest Florida.

B. W. Morris Jr. (in Shorts) Points Out His Own Private Street

Fencing Presents Problem

He Owns City Street, What Next?

By TOM MORGAN
Naples Bureau Chief

NAPLES — History is repeating itself in Naples.

B. W. Morris Jr. again owns one of the city streets. This time it's part of Sixth Ave., S., down by the Gordon River. He also owns what has been used as a street for 18 years to give access to three riverfront boatyards and marinas.

Several years ago Morris was found to be the owner of the river end of Broad Ave., S., and gave part to the Boy Scouts. The city sought condemnation of the property for a yacht basin and lost its suit.

Morris later sold the land to the city for a nominal amount but the administration had to lease part of Cambier Park to the scouts as a replacement Scout House site.

Unlike Dudley R. Gallahue, to whom the city has given four streets and several alleys as an aid in his development projects, Morris bought his streets.

The Broad Ave. parcel was found not included in the original city plat and the current piece was a street but the Council gave it a longtime ago as a railroad right of way. Morris bought both properties several years ago when he was developing the Crayton Cove shopping area.

The present ownership question came up when Morris applied Friday for a permit to fence in his property which runs from the Tamiami Trail down and across Sixth Ave., at Gordon River. The city refused the permit because the street was included.

Meeting with city officials Monday Morris indicated he was willing to give up claim to the street, which is still unopened, and allow continued use of 25 feet of the access road on which he has granted an easement.

The fence — and the question of what happens with the street — will come before City Council this morning. Morris has also suggested an additional easement for utility purposes be given by himself and Henry Espenlaub who owns the land on which the adjoining Daniels Boat Ways stands.

Mental Health Worker Being Dropped in Keys

Program To End Saturday

By HARRY CAICEDO
Key West Bureau Chief

KEY WEST — The Monroe County mental health worker program appeared certain to terminate Saturday with the concurrence of the board of county commissioners.

The board was the last uncommitted authority which could have halted the program's termination — a step which has aroused protests in some circles both here and on the Keys.

Dr. J. L. Wardlaw Jr., county health officer, who made the decision to terminate the program, reiterated Tuesday that it would be discontinued Saturday.

He emphasized that it was only the mental health worker program — not the entire mental health program — which is being "temporarily discontinued."

The mental health program will be carried on as usual "under the direction of Mrs. Jeannette Sawyer, chief public health nurse, and my own supervision," Wardlow said.

The conflict on the mental health worker program has grown out of a difference of opinion between Wardlaw and Daisy Gray, mental health nurse, over how the program should be conducted.

Wardlaw feels that the worker should act primarily as a teacher and adviser on mental health to other public health nurses, teachers, ministers and social workers.

"Miss Gray has not fulfilled this function to my satisfaction," Wardlaw said. He has termed "unsound" what he considers the "patient-contered program" now being conducted.

Dr. Wayne Yeager, director of the State Bureau of Mental Health, who might have reversed Wardlaw's intended action, has expressed "complete concurrence with your decision and action."

It was learned reliably Tuesday that the Monroe County Commission, which also has authority to nullify Wardlaw's decision, would take no action to interfere in the matter.

Miss Grey has conted that she is conducting the worker program effectively and in accordance with requirements of the Bureau of Mental Health.

"I instruct public health nurses on mental health the maximum amount of time a week allowed by Dr. Wardlaw," said Miss Grey, "and I have spoken on mental health before every group which has invited me, both in Key West and on the Keys.

"Through my efforts a local mental health association has been organized with the purpose to provide mental health education on a broad scale" Miss Grey added.

Fluoride Battles Old Hat to Naples

Herald Bureau

NAPLES — The burgeoning Fort Pierce fight on fluoridation of city water led by Jaycees there is nothing new to Naples. This city went through the same debate five years ago — and fluoridation won.

The question of injecting the chemical into the water wasn't even discussed publicly when the process was first instituted but became a hot issue in 1954, two years after it had first been used.

A breakdown in the machinery adding the fluorides to the water was not repaired for some months and then fluoridation opponents began to oppose resumption of the process.

Literature detailing all kinds of horrible results from fluoridation was circulated by opponents, many of them members of the Christian Science faith who attacked the practice as compulsory medication.

Equally vehement literature from the state and federal public health services was sent out by fluoridation supporters, who said the chemical protected youngsters' teeth.

The City Council finally called for a straw vote on the subject to be held at a special election July 6, 1954. With 413 votes cast, 261 favored fluoridation and only 121 were opposed.

The process was resumed with one further complaint.

A woman called the water department to say the chemical was making the water taste bad.

"I don't see how she could complain," protested City Manager Fred Lowdermilk. "We haven't started putting the stuff back in yet."

No more complaints have been noted.

Man, Wife Arrested, Bad Checks

NAPLES — The arrest of a young couple accused of passing bad checks for baby supplies and cash was reported Tuesday by Sheriff E. A. Doug Hendry.

The sheriff said they were M. T. Hall, 32, and his wife Drena Gale Hall, 28, and they were picked up in Inverness.

Taken at the same time was a 1951 Buick which Hendry said Hall admitted removing while under lien to Ken Culloden of Naples. Hendry said Culloden has turned the car over to be sold as a contribution to the Florida Sheriff's Boys Camp.

Storage charges on the car were donated by Ed's Trading Post, Ocala, where the car was left.

Sheriff Hendry said the Halls had been sought "all over the state" for a year. He said Mrs. Hall would write checks to cover purchase of baby supplies such as bottles, food and powder with cash left over.

'Young Lady Of the Week'

NAPLES — Miss Kathy Belyea, 18, has been named "young lady of the week" by her fellow girl students at the Naples High School. Miss Belyea was the first chosen for the honor which includes service as receptionist at the Chamber of Commerce Saturday morning.

Additionally a portrait of Miss Belyea, made by Joe Coleman, local photographer, hangs in the chamber lobby all this week.

Key West Answers Lawsuit

By HARRY CAICEDO
Key West Bureau Chief

KEY WEST—The city Tuesday filed an answer to the lawsuit for repeal of the utility tax — less than 24 hours after a motion for summary judgment in the case was denied by a Circuit Court judge here.

The answer, filed by City Attorney Hilary Albury, briefly states that all the defendants in the lawsuit admit allegations contained in eight paragraphs of the petitioners' complaint, and deny those in 11 other paragraphs.

The allegations admitted are routine statements of fact, such as the municipal nature of the city, the names and positions in the municipal government of the defendents.

Those denied concern the petition itself, its validity, the rules for checking signatures, and other points being disputed.

When Judge John J. Kehoe denied the summary judgment motion Monday, he gave the city 20 days to answer the original complaint filed by the petitioners.

That lawsuit asks the court for a declaratory decree ruling the petition for repeal of the utility tax valid and worthy of consideration by the City Commission.

The commission ignored the petition after City Clerk Victor Lowe reported that it contained less than the required number of valid signatures.

Ex-Patients Set Reunion

JACKSONVILLE —(P)— Dr. Lawrence E. Geeslin, Jacksonville physician and member of the State Tuberculosis Board, will be the speaker Sunday at the 12th annual homecoming for former patients of the Central Florida Tuberculosis Hospital at Orlando.

Lee R. Miller, also of Jacksonville, president of the Florida Federation of Florisan clubs, statewide organization of former TB patients, said the annual business meeting will be followed by a luncheon on hospital grounds.

Dr. Geeslin will speak at 1:30 p.m.

Farm Policy Forum Set

VERO BEACH—The regular meeting of the Indian River County Farm Bureau tonight will be cancelled so members can attend a three-county meeting in Fort Pierce at 8 p.m.

Farm Bureau members and state representatives from St. Lucie, Martin and Indian River Counties, State Sen. Harry Kickliter of Fort Pierce and Tom McLain of Gainesville, executive vice president of the Florida Farm Bureau, will take part in a discussion of agricultural policies to be taken up in the coming legislature.

Art Karst of Vero Beach, a state director of the Farm Bureau, will conduct the meeting.

Sub Poses Ticklish Problem

Naples Nautical? Well . . .

By TOM MORGAN
Naples Bureau Chief

NAPLES—If the USS Marlin (SST-141) makes an Armed Forces Day jaunt to Naples from its Key West base it had better be equipped with a ladder or small boats. Otherwise nobody will get a look at the craft.

The suggestion has been forwarded to the city that the submarine visit Naples during a West Coast tour, May 15-17. Now the city must decide what to do.

The Marlin is described as 130 feet long, 13 feet wide and draws 13 feet. That's an unlucky combination.

The city dock is long enough to tie to, but it lies about three miles from the Gulf, at the end of a channel, supposedly eight feet deep, and rather rock studded. In fact it's so rocky shrimp boats no longer put in here regularly.

The alternative is the city fishing pier in the Gulf, which was a ship landing 70 years ago when Naples was founded. Unfortunately it is about 25 feet above the water and no longer has a landing stage for boats, or a ladder to reach such a stage if there were one.

The Navy has suggested an intermediate barge be used as a landing but there still remains the problem of getting up and down the barnacle-covered piling of the pier.

About the only solution seems to be to anchor the craft offshore and ferry visitors aboard.

Or let them swim out.

Third Juvenile Term

Council Reelects Mrs. Ruth Ivins

Herald Bureau

KEY WEST — Mrs. Ruth Ivins of Marathon got a key to the city of Key West Monday night and her third term as president of the Monroe County Juvenile Council.

The key came from Mayor Delio Cobo, who presented it to Mrs. Ivins in recognition of her two years' work with the Council in Key West.

During the annual election, Council members choose Mrs. Ivins to head the organization for the third consecutive year.

Other officers elected are Cmdr. Paul Owen, naval officer stationed here, first vice president; Mrs. Maud Spence, Marathon, second vice president; John Borgas Jr., secretary, and Mrs. Teresa Braxton, treasurer.

Elected two-year directors are Vance C. Stirrup and Rabbi Abraham Schwartz.

One-year directors are Rev. Ralph Rogers, Jose Torano, Mrs. Kay Wilkinson of Tavernier, and Mrs. Ella Graham, Marathon.

Money Tree To Produce 'Home' Cash

Herald Bureau

KEY WEST — A "Tree of Progress" with leaves of money, will soon sprout in downtown Key West.

The tree, a painted one on an 8 by 16-foot billboard at the corner of Duval and Fleming Sts., is the idea of the Juvenile Council to show progress toward building a home for errant children.

The tree will start out bare. As donations came in, leaves with the name of each doner, will be added to the branches.

A full tree will represent the Council's goal of $50,000 to start construction of the home on Stock Island on a lot donated by the City of Key West.

"We are going to have 100 per cent cooperation on this drive," he predicted to the Council.

Terminal Bids Over Estimates

Herald Bureau

MELBOURNE — The City Commission opened 10 bids Tuesday night for construction of a new terminal at Melbourne Airport.

All ran considerably higher than the $100,000 estimated.

Apparent low bid was submitted by R. M. Thompson Co., Clearwater, which totaled $159,700. The next lowest was $166,296 and was turned in by Roemer Construction Co. of Belle Glade.

The city already has earmarked $50,000 for the project and the Federal Aviation Administration has kicked in another $50,000 to meet the $100,000 estimated cost.

Keys Clinic To Meet at 8 Tonight

Herald Service

UPPER KEYS — The annual meeting of Florida Keys Clinic, Inc., will be held at 8 tonight at the clinic building, Tavernier.

A letter to residents, signed by Thelma J. Cooper, R. N., secretary, urges payment of 1959 dues so that the work of the clinic may continue.

This organization was formed when no physician was available to the Upper Keys and emergency assistance was given by volunteer registered nurses. The clinic is located in a former school building in the center of Tavernier.

Six years ago Dr. Harvey W. Cohn came to the area with his wife who, as a registered nurse, assists him in his office and treatment rooms. He maintains regular hours.

Important pieces of equipment have been installed in the clinic so that everyone, regardless of membership in the clinic group, may receive routine diagnosis and treatment.

Last year a portion of the building was remodeled for the dental office of Dr. Cline D. Futch who is available by appointment.

Clinic directors say they want to continue to function and improve medical and dental care for the area but it is essential that the single or family dues be paid at once.

Oil Agent Dies at Naples

NAPLES — Paul G. Miller, 76, a 10-year resident of Naples, died Tuesday at his home, 359 Second Ave South. He was a retired Pure Oil agent and was born in Canal Winchester, Ohio.

Funeral services will be conducted at eight p.m. today at Pittman Memorial Chapel and burial will be in Columbus, Ohio.

The family has asked flowers be omitted for donations to the cancer society.

Miller is survived by his wife, Annie Bele, Naples, a daughter of Igo, Ohio, and a son of Kendallville, Ohio.

Part of Land Trade

Glades Park Adding State Acreage Today

TALLAHASSEE — (P) — Florida will deed over to the National Park Service today some 80,000 acres of state-owned land for inclusion in the Everglades National Park.

Two top officials of the federal agency came here Tuesday to receive the deeds. They are Jackson E. Price, assistant director of the park service, and Donald E. Lee, chief of lands.

The park at the southern tip of Florida will be expanded by about 201,000 acres under the boundaries established by congress.

Actually, the federal government is acquiring a total of 254,000 acres from the state and from private interests.

But in exchange for state-owned land, it will convey to Florida about 30,000 acres of Everglades swamp and some 22,000 acres of submerged land in the Gulf of Mexico.

About 23,000 acres of swamp the state will get lie a few miles northwest of Homestead. The other 7,000 acres are southwest of 40-mile Bend on the Tamiami Trail.

The submerged land lies in a narrow strip beginning south of the Ten Thousand Islands area and running to Cape Sable. Its main value to the state will be mineral rights since it is well offshore of the park's western edge. The strip was made available to the state after the park boundaries were moved closer inshore.

Most of the lands that the state will deed to the federal government are also submerged. They lie in Collier and Monroe Counties.

Clarke Dies at 63

NAPLES — Funeral services for Omah Austin Clarke, 63, of Solana Road, pioneer Naples businessman, will be Thursday at 10 a.m. at the Pittman Memorial chapel. Burial will be in Fort Myers Memorial Gardens.

Clarke died Tuesday in the hospital of a coronary occlusion. He had retired recently after selling Clarke's Bar which he operated for 28 years. His business once included a restaurant and was among Naples' first.

Earlier Clarke operated the old Bayshore Hotel at Crayton Cove, which later burned. The developer of Inomah subdivision East Naples, where he gave the Legion hall site, Clarke won fame for his humorously philosophical "Dear John" letters signed "The Old Hound Dog."

Gasoline Price Wars May Face Federal Crackdown

Dow Jones, AP, UPI, N.Y. Times

The stage was set Tuesday for a possible crackdown on gasoline price wars started by major fuel companies.

A Federal Trade Commission examiner issued a tentative order forbidding Pure Oil Co. from cutting gasoline prices in any market where it competes with other brands unless proportionate cuts are made throughout its sales territory.

In Chicago, a spokesman for Pure Oil said, "We disagree with the adverse findings of the hearing examiner and have already filed an appeal to the full commission."

If the FTC adopts the order, it will mark the government's first attack on geographic price discrimination in the gasoline industry. FTC officials said such an order could lead to similar action against discriminatory price-cutting by other major companies.

The Martin Family Checks Expenses

. . . inflation has hit them hard

How Can He Beat Inflation On a Policeman's Salary?

Third of a Series

By STAN JOHNSON
Herald Business Writer

Inflationwise, the policeman's lot is not a happy one.

As he stands in the intersection of NE 1st St. and Miami Ave. directing traffic, Patrolman Ralph L. Martin glances occasionally at the window of a nearby shoe store.

Displayed are a pair of heavy-soled brogans like the ones he wears out every six months. The price tag says $14.95. Martin remembers that he paid $7.50 for the same shoes in 1949.

Looking back over the past 10 years, most skilled workers or professional men can subtract a 22 per cent increase in the cost of living from the percentage of increase in their income and come up with a healthy balance that represents a higher standard of living.

This is not true of Patrolman Martin or of millions of others who have government or white collar jobs, fixed incomes or pensions.

Since 1949, Martin's salary as a patrolman has risen 27 per cent — from $4,188 to $5,304.

In the same period, the union scale for journeyman electricians has risen 40 per cent —from $2.50 to $3.50 per hour.

Nearly half of Martin's increase is a result of longevity boosts — rewards for his 17 years with the Miami Police Department and for his greater experience in his work.

Cost of living raises have added only 16 per cent to Martin's paycheck in 10 years, but living costs have gone up 22 per cent.

At the same time, his children have become teenagers and are more expensive to feed, clothe and educate.

Now 44, Martin worries about saving money to send his son to college and to provide for himself and his wife when he retires on a modest pension at the age of 55.

"We can't save," says Mrs. Martin. "It seems as though everytime we get a little put aside, someone gets sick and we have to spend our savings."

Martin says he wouldn't be able to make ends meet were it not for a part-time job at a dog track which brings in about $800 a year.

A large number of government employes in the Miami area either have part-time jobs or working wives.

Although Martin's salary is $442 a month, his take-home pay is only about $285 a month.

The state pension program in which he participates takes $30 a month out of his wages. When this money is paid back to him after retirement, it will be worth considerably less than it is now.

The Internal Revenue Service has estimated that if inflation continues at the present rate, it will take an income of $10,538 in 1975 to equal the purchasing power of a $4,000 income in 1958.

How can Martin improve his lot?

If he leaves his job now, he sacrifices 17 years toward a $200-a-month pension.

"There's been some talk about allowing a partial pension after 20 years of service. If this happens, I could leave the force in three years and look for a better-paying job outside," he said.

In the meantime, he'll go on watching the shoe store window and hoping that his income will rise at least as rapidly as the cost of the shoes he must buy.

Travel Expenses Easier to Deduct

By SYLVIA PORTER
(In collaboration with The Research Institute of America)

SYLVIA

The Treasury flashed some good news in 1958 to businessmen who like to combine pleasure with their business trips. It is going to be more lenient about allowing you to deduct the travel expenses than it originally had indicated.

The problem usually comes up in one of two ways. You may go on a trip which obviously is for business purposes and then work in some merely incidental pleasure activities. Or you may go on a trip which is just the reverse — primarily a pleasure jaunt involving some incidental business activities.

When your principal goal is business, there is no problem. You can deduct all your travel expenses except your spending on pleasure. If, for instance, you spend money for local sightseeing or nightclubbing during off business hours, you can't deduct those outlays, but all your other travel expenses are deductible.

* * *

SUPPOSE, THOUGH, you plan a two-week vacation which also includes a two-day business convention in the same city. Although the expenses of a vacation trip aren't deductible, can you deduct some part of your living expenses in the city because you attend the two-day business convention?

At first, the Treasury said you couldn't deduct anything if the trip was primarily for pleasure, but in 1958 it finally relented a bit. You can't deduct any of the expenses of traveling to and from your destination when the trip is primarily for pleasure, but you can deduct that part of your expenses at the destination which can be allocated to whatever incidental business activities you carry on while there.

In other words, if you spend two days of your two-week vacation attending a business convention, you can deduct living costs for those two days.

While this represents a liberalized Treasury view, the odds are the courts will be even more liberal. If, say, you spend 10 per cent of our vacation attending a business convention, why shouldn't you be able to deduct 10 per cent of your travel costs to and from the vacation-convention city in addition to 10 per cent of your costs while there?

* * *

SEVERAL 1958 court cases indicate the Treasury will in practice let a taxpayer deduct part of his travel expenses for a trip taken primarily for pleasure, even though the new rule says "no."

Of course, you can't push this combined business-pleasure deal to a point obscuring the business aspects of the trip. Thus, when another doctor took a European trip for pleasure and made a few side trips to visit hospitals professionally, the Treasury allowed him only a nonimal deduction for travel expenses.

* * *

WHAT ABOUT a business trip on which you take your wife? If you go from New York to the West Coast on business and your wife accompanies you, can you deduct only half your combined travel expenses? Not necessarily.

You may be able to deduct more than half because the Treasury will let you deduct what it would have cost you if you had traveled alone and this can add up to well over half your expenses.

You might travel under a family plan which costs less than two regular fares; you might stay in a $12 a day double room whereas a single room would cost $9.

Despite these lower actual costs, the Treasury will permit you to deduct one full travel fare and the $9 a day costs.

PAA Jets Will Fly Latin Run

Pan American World Airways said Tuesday it will inaugurate jet passenger service in April to Caracas, Venezuela, Asuncion, Paraguay, and Buenos Aires, Argentina.

The flights will be made from New York and cut present travel time in half.

The Buenos Aires schedule will be reduced from 24 to 12 hours, and the New York-Asuncion run, which once required 25½ hours on a roundabout route, will take only 10 hours.

PAA jet flights from Miami to Latin American points "still are in the distant future," company officials said.

The company plans to add Rio de Janeiro and Sao Paulo to its jet schedule after runways are extended in those cities sometime in 1960.

Pan American will be the first U.S. airline offering jet service to South America. An Argentine line, Aerolineas Argentina, plans to fly a North and South American jet schedule this spring with British Comets.

The Pan American service to Venezuela, Paraguay and Argentina will be in addition to PAA's transatlantic jet schedule.

Boeing 707's for the Latin American run will come first from the PAA fleet now leased to National Airlines for its seasonal New York-Miami flights, and later from the additional plans on order from the manufacturer.

The airline already serves most of South America with piston-engine aircraft, but dropped Asuncion in 1946 after Brazil withdrew permission to fly over its territory to the Paraguayan capital.

A recent revision of the Brazil-U.S. air agreement opened up the territory and PAA will resume service with the jets.

PENZANCE, England — (UPI)— The president of the National Dairymen's Assn. of England says the quality of British milk is head and shoulders above American milk.

"We have confidence that we sell milk in the way God intended it to be drunk — as it comes from the cow," R. Good said in an address to a dairymen's dinner here.

Good, recently returned from a tour of the American milk industry, said he has found that the English dairy industry is better run and that the public here showed greater responsibility in dealing with the bottles.

"In America the average life of the milk bottle is 24 journeys. In England it is 64," he said. "America is full of gimmicks."

"They take out a little fat here and put in a little vitamin there," Good said. "In England we have faith in our product."

Nickel Paper Fading

NEW YORK — (UPI) — Fewer and fewer daily newspapers can be bought for a nickel, the American Newspaper Publishers Association reported.

Its latest survey showed that of 1,717 English language papers reporting, 1,000 were selling for a nickel. In 1958, 1,135 sold for a nickel and in 1957 the number was 1,328. In 1951 records showed there were 1,594 selling for 5 cents.

The ANPA reported the number of papers priced at 7 to 10 cents a copy had been increasing.

The ANPA also said that newspapers reporting to the Association used 394,908 tons of newsprint last month. This represented an increase of 2.3 per cent more than in January 1958.

Rulings Weaken Security, Bar Charges

Nation's Lawyers Blast Court as Soft on Reds

Get Tough, Congress Is Urged

'Plug Loopholes With Legislation'

CHICAGO — (UPI) — The American Bar Association Tuesday accused the U. S. Supreme Court of going easy on Communists and called on Congress to step in with tough remedial legislation.

The accusation and recommendation were contained in a controversial resolution approved by overwhelming voice vote at the mid-winter meeting of the ABA's House of Delegates.

The vote made the resolution the official policy of the powerful organization representing 200,000 American lawyers.

The nation's most prominent lawyer, Supreme Court Chief Justice Earl Warren, is not a member. His resignation was accepted by the ABA Friday.

The 50-plus page resolution, prepared by the ABA's special committee on Communist tactics and strategy, said the Supreme Court has weakened the nation's security by its rulings on 24 cases involving accused Communists or anti-subversive legislation.

Flying directly in the face of the court, the ABA delegates demanded that state statutes against sedition be given concurrent enforcement powers as federal laws. The court has held that anti-sedition laws are the exclusive business of the federal government.

The ABA also asked that "wherever there are reasonable grounds to believe that as a result of court decisions internal security is weakened" Congress should enact legislation to plug the loopholes.

The ABA also wants the House un-American Activities Committee to take on the job of studying the operation of existing anti-Communist laws and the House itself to set up a standing anti-Communist investigative committee.

The vast majority of the 246 delegates brushed aside scattered opposition in putting themselves on record as disapproving the Supreme Court's interpretation of how the nation should fight Communist subversion.

Two committee members congratulated the ABA, however. Rep. William T. McCulloch (R., Ohio) predicted a "friendly reception" for the proposals in Congress. Rep. Robert T. Ashmore (D., S.C.) was happy that the ABA delegates "finally have come to feel that the Supreme Court is not above criticism."

John D. Randall of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, was nominated to succeed Ross L. Malone of Roswell, N. M., as the next president.

AFL-CIO Leaders Yield

Reuther Wins His Battle For 'March' of Unemployed

SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico — (AP) — Walter Reuther Tuesday won over other AFL-CIO leaders to his plan for the unemployed to dramatize their woes with demonstrations soon in Washington.

The project might include a march past the White House.

Reuther, the United Auto Workers chief, said the demonstrations would "dramatize the desperate plight" of five million idle.

The agreement to sponsor the demonstrations, made at concluding sessions of the AFL-CIO Executive Council's two-week winter meeting here, apparently showed Reuther to be the victor in a running dispute with George Meany, AFL-CIO president.

Reuther and other former leaders of the old CIO accused Meany of dictating AFL-CIO policies, and demanded a voice in shaping federation decisions.

Meany had advocated a spring meeting of union leaders only to beat the drums for legislation to aid the jobless.

But a stormy session of the AFL-CIO chiefs resulted in plans for a mass demonstration of the actual unemployed more like the plan Reuther had advocated.

The revolt had boiled up for a week behind the scenes of the annual winter meeting of the AFL-CIO Executive Council here. It began when Meany —head of the old AFL—at a council meeting chided Reuther —head of the old CIO — for holding a session of the economic policy committee while the federation president was delayed in Washington by a cold. Meany was reported angry at Reuther's unemployment march project.

Reuther, the chairman of the economic committee, retorted that Meany had never attended economic policy meetings. Anyway, the Auto Workers Union chief said, as chairman he should have a relatively free hand at mapping economic policy, at least in the committee stage. Reuther said if he couldn't run the economic committee, he might as well quit the post.

Reuther was backed in the argument by James B. Carey, No. 2 man in the Federation's CIO faction. The meeting got so hot that Meany ordered Carey to leave his seat and take one at the foot of the executive council table, something the scrappy Carey refused to do.

Meany, Reuther and other high federation officials failed to resolve the conflict at two secret breakfast meetings during the week. Some union leaders feared a blowup of the four-year-old merged labor organization. A showdown session was held Monday night.

Meany declined to comment afterward. Reuther, with what appeared to be a diplomatic approach, told newsmen: "Nobody ever talked about busting up anything — there are understandings now on things where there were misunderstandings before."

Hoffa Says Florida's 'Fertile' for Unions

By DOM BONAFEDE
Herald Staff Writer

Citing Florida as "fertile land" for union activity, Teamsters Boss Jimmy Hoffa reported Tuesday he will "spend whatever money is necessary and supply sufficient organizers to do a job in the state."

He said a statewide drive will be aimed at all unorganized workers, with particular emphasis on Dade and Broward counties and the citrus belt in Central Florida.

At a press conference at the Teamsters executive council meeting at Miami Beach, Hoffa also accepted a challenge laid down by the AFL-CIO in a test for 10,000 unorganized workers in Puerto Rico.

"We'll meet this situation as we have met others forced upon us by the AFL-CIO. And we'll be on top when the fight is over," predicted the Teamsters' chief.

"Most of the opposition in Puerto Rico is from the government, not the workers," Hoffa said. "The government is trying to tell the workers they must continue to take low wages to stabilize the economy.

"We are not at war with the government of Puerto Rico and we hope it will not make war with us, but whoever opposes the Teamsters will have to abide by the decisions of the workers."

He said he did not expect the jurisdictional battle with the AFL-CIO to overflow to the mainland.

The Teamsters' recently launched campaign to organize 70,000 employes of Sears Roebuck is "months ahead of schedule," Hoffa added.

He answered questions forthrightly, in rapid, staccato fashion.

M. W. Miller, Teamsters Southeastern Conference chairman, later told The Herald, "If our progress continues and the reception is good, we should double our membership in Florida within five years."

Current Teamsters rolls in the state list more than 15,000 members, one third of which belong to the three Miami locals, Miller said.

"We're here to organize any unorganized workers in our jurisdiction," he commented.

"There is no one industry we are more intersted in than any other."

Congressman to Slice $11,873 Check

Son's Pay Mistake, He Says

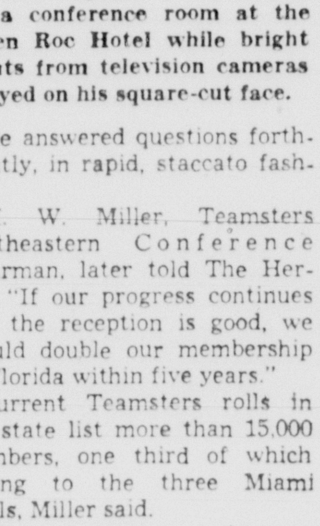
DES MOINES, Iowa —(AP)— Rep. Steven V. Carter (D., Iowa) says he made a mistake in judgment in putting his 19-year-old college freshman son on his Congressional payroll at $11,873 a year, The Des Moines Register said Tuesday.

In a copyrighted story from its Washington bureau, the newspaper quoted Carter as saying, "I'm afraid I didn't have this thing in very good perspective and I'm going to correct it."



—Associated Press Wirephoto

Rep. Carter
. . . 'I've been ill'

"I've made a mistake of judgment on this matter," the newspaper quoted Carter, "and I am going to adjust it within a few days.

"I've been ill with cancer and Steve has been carrying a lot of the load for me. My illness and the fact I was told that I might not live many weeks probably resulted in my making a misjudgement to what I should pay Steve."

The freshman Congressman said previously his son, a pre-law student at George Washington University, had the best qualifications of applicants as his chief assistant.

Carter told The Register he had received numerous letters from Iowa and "it is about 60-40 against me."

The newspaper further quoted Carter as saying that because of the reaction he felt it was "time to lay things on the line and tell the people about my physical condition which I am sure influenced my actions."

Ike's Cash For Slums Doubled

Down Payment Slash Approved

WASHINGTON — (UPI — The House Banking Committee Tuseday approved a sharp reduction in minimum down-payments for higher-priced government-insured houses and a much bigger slum clearance program than President Eisenhower proposed.

The committee approved federal grants of 500 million dollars a year for slum clearance for the next three years, double the annual rate proposed in the President's six-year 1.45-billion-dollar program.

The actions were taken as the committee worked behind closed doors on a catch-all 2.1-billion-dollar Democratic housing Bill. Members said the committee probably will hammer the bill into final shape today.

The Democratic measure represented a major challenge to the President's economy drive along with other proposals to set up broad federal aid programs for airports and chronically depressed areas.

By a 21-to-3 vote, the committee refused to knock out of its bill an administration-opposed provision which would provide direct federal lending for construction of houses for elderly people.

The reduction in down payments required under the FHA mortgage insurance program would permit a lender to offer terms under which a $25,000 house could be purchased with a down payment as low as $2,605. The present FHA minimum is $6,980.

On an $18,000 house, the minimum down payment would be $855, compared with the present $1,380. On a $15,000 house it would be $555, as against the present $630. There would be no change on houses selling for $13,500 or less.

The proposed minimums do not necessarily mean that would-be home buyers could get such terms. That would be up to banks and other lenders. But if the bill became law, the minimums would be the lowest down payment lenders could allow under the FHA program.

The proposed reduction in minimum down payment schedules was not included in the $2,650,000,000 housing bill passed earlier this year by the Senate.

Kefauver: Delay Vote on Strauss

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Sen. Estes Kefauver (D.-Tenn.) disclosed Tuesday he is asking the Senate Commerce Committee to hold up the nomination of Rear Adm. Lewis L. Strauss as Secretary of Commerce.

Kefauver, who is opposing Strauss' confirmation, said he wants the committee to delay a vote until the Justice Department makes a full report on Strauss' actions in connection with the controversial Dixon-Yates contract.

KEFAUVER

STRAUSS

Strauss, former chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission, is serving as secretary of commerce under a recess appointment from President Eisenhower.

Kefauver said in a statement that Strauss played a "key role" in connection with the development and execution of the subsequently canceled contract with the Dixon-Yates firm to build a steam plant at West Memphis, Ark., to supply supplemental power to the Tennessee Valley Authority.

The AEC under Strauss entered into the 107-million-dollar contract.

Kefauver contended that Strauss arranged for a presidential directive requiring the AEC to enter the Dixon-Yates contract over the opposition of the majority of the AEC commissioners.

By the Associated Press

Snow piled up in the frozen Northeast Tuesday.

The snow reached a depth of seven inches in Worcester, Mass., and five inches in Boston.

Most sections of New England already had been plastered with wet, heavy snow.

Two inches of fresh snow fell in Rochester, N. Y. An 11-inch fall in Watertown, N. Y. thickened the blanket on the ground to 28 inches.

Temperatures dropped far under the zero mark early Tuesday in Maine. Presque Isle had 31 below and Ccaribou 16 below.

Scattered snow also was reported in the Northern Rockies. Four inches of snow hit Denver. Areas of rain, with snow at higher elevations, developed in Washington state.

Briton Raps U.S. Import

'Curb Those Nawsty TV Commercials'

New York Times Service

LONDON — A Labor member introduced in the House of Commons Tuesday a bill to curb what he called "one of the nastiest imports from the U.S."—the interruption of television programs for commercials.

The measure, which Christopher Mayhew has pushed for months, would amend the Television Act to prohibit the interruption of programs by commercial advertisements and keep the intervals between the advertisements to a minimum of 25 minutes.

The 43-year-old former undersecretary of state for foreign affairs, enlivening his appeal with the colorful prose and rich anecdote his subject encourages, denounced the advertising interruptions as "symbols of vandalism and profiteering."

"The other week," he said, "a western film was interrupted—just when the red Indians were about to attack—for an advertisement for a scalp lotion."

This brought down the house. Mayhew continued:

"The only programs not interrupted are religious programs and the discussion program 'Free Speech' featuring Robert Boothby, now a peer.

"Television advertising holds back only, it seems, for the Lord God and Lord Bob."

Nikita Rejects West's Plan for Berlin Talks

Red Calls Again For Summit Meet

MOSCOW —(UPI)— Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev Tuesday rejected as "unbusinesslike" the Western plan for a Big Four foreign ministers' conference on Berlin in a biting speech that chilled optimism over his summit talks with Prime Minister Harold Macmillan.

He warned again that the Russians would meet with force any Allied attempt to force a passage to Berlin, and insisted that the best way to settle the crisis would be to hold a summit meeting.

Ranging over the international field, the premier also rejected the Western proposals for control of a nuclear test ban. He warned that Russia would continue testing weapons and again turned down the idea of the Eisenhower "open skies" disarmament inspection program.

His speech, delivered at a Moscow election rally during a one-day lull in the talks with Macmillan, blasted hopes of narrowing East-West differences, although Khrushchev spoke in friendly terms of Britain and suggested a 20 to 50-year Anglo-Soviet non-aggression pact.

Macmillan was off visiting the Dubna nuclear power plant while Khrushchev spoke at the televised rally in his capacity as a candidate for a seat on the Moscow City Soviet (Council).

His rejection of a foreign ministers' conference on Berlin left the issue back where it started Nov. 27 when Russia gave the Western allies exactly six months to clear out of West Berlin and allow [illegible] be turned into a "free city."

He objected to the fact that the West did not include Poland and Czechoslovakia, "the first victims" of the German invasion, in the proposed talks on Berlin.

"This is an unbusinesslike approach and unacceptable," he said. "Moreover, the West wants entanglement in a network of diplomatic talks from which there is no escape."

He derided the U.S. and contrasted the friendly welcome given to Macmillan in Russia with the incidents that greeted Soviet Deputy Premier Anastas I. Mikoyan on his recent American tour.

"We have no hooligans like those who tried to throw some eggs at Comrade Mikoyan," he said.

Khrushchev insisted that an East-West summit conference is needed to settle such problems as Berlin and nuclear armaments.

The heads of government rather than foreign ministers, he said, "have the full measure of rights and responsibility for ensuring universal peace."

Only they could "soberly examine and solve major problems."

Brushing off the idea of a foreign ministers meeting, he said:

"Our foreign minister (Andrei Gromyko) is a very busy man and I hardly think he should waste time on fruitless talks."

U.S. Asks 'Reasoned' Answer

WASHINGTON — (UPI) — The U. S. called upon Russia Tuesday to make a "reasoned reply" to the West's proposal for a Big Four foreign ministers conference to settle the Berlin and German problems.

The State Department said a speech by Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev rejecting such a meeting and demanding a summit conference instead was a political oration and could not be construed as Russia's formal position.

Privately U.S. officials feared that Khrushchev might be trying to take advantage of Secretary of State John Foster Dulles' illness by renewing his demands for a summit conference.

Dulles, now hospitalized with cancer, has long made clear the U. S. would not agree to a summit meeting unless it was carefully prepared for through advance diplomatic negotiations, including a foreign ministers meeting. Otherwise, he feels, Russia would use such a conference merely as a propaganda sounding board.

Officials said Khrushchev might be laboring under the mistaken impression that with Dulles on the sidelines, he could stampede the West into a summit meeting.

Asked to comment on Khrushchev's address, State Department Spokesman Lincoln White said:

"I have no comment on a speech by Mr. Khrushchev at a Moscow political rally. We are awaiting a reasoned reply to our note of Feb. 16." The note called for the foreign ministers meeting.

Officials said privately it remained to be seen whether the Khrushchev speech foreshadowed a deeper freeze in the cold war or merely represented a bargaining maneuver by the Soviet leader.

Queen Mother Views Falls

KAMPALA, Uganda — (AP) — Britain's Queen Mother Elizabeth Tuesday flew over the Murchison Falls on the Upper Nile River.

This is Uganda's big game country, where, as the Duchess of York, she went on a safari with her husband, later to be King George VI, 34 years ago. She is on a tour of British possessions.

Police Swing Sabers At Ecuador Students

QUITO, Ecuador, — (AP) — Police swung sabers at university student demonstrators Tuesday in a renewal of violence growing out of widespread strikes.

Rodrigo Borja, president of the law school students group at Central University, said seven of the demonstrators were wounded.

About 300 students of the law school went on strike, joining thousands of labor unionists who have walked out in sympathy with striking dock workers at the port of Guayaquil.

The dockworkers walked out 14 days ago to protest the dismissal of eight co-workers. They refuse to return to work unless they get wage increases as well as the reinstatement of the discharged workers.

Sympathy strikes among textile workers and taxi drivers broke out in Quito, Guayaquil, Riobamba and Ambato.

Cancer $$$ Sent Abroad

WASHINGTON — (UPI) — Sen. Richard L. Neuberger (D., Ore.) Tuesday presented checks totaling $17,000 to three foreign nations for cancer research. He acted on behalf of the Damon Runyon Memorial Fund.

Newberger, who recently returned to the Senate after a cancer operation, dedicated the checks "to the gallant fight for life of our secretary of state" John Foster Dulles, who is battling cancer at Walter Reed Army Medical Center.

Promotion Of Younger Men Backed

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The House Armed Services Committee Tuesday approved a bill to speed the promotion of about 3,500 younger naval and Marine officers.

The bill, which now goes to the House, would provide early retirement of an equivalent number of senior officers.

Several members of the committee objected that the measure would violate a moral commitment to the older officers to let them finish their normal service before retirement.

However, an attempt to amend it to provide retention failed, 26-4. The bill finally was approved with 29 members voting for it and only Rep. Charles E. Bennett (D., Fla.) against.

In general, officers would be retired if they had twice been passed over for promotion and had not been chosen for continuation by special boards.

No officer would be retired, however, with less than 20 years service — which would entitle him to lifetime retired pay.

Police Ad Pitch Slapped

Fund-Raisers Are Arrested

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y. — (AP) — An official investigating alleged frauds in advertising solicitation for a state police journal says it "is the worst shakedown racket I have seen in my 36 years with the state police."

That comment was made by Martin Dillon, Chief inspector for the state police.

Two men were arrested bringing the total to four. It was reported that almost $40,000 had been collected.

The four were connected with a firm which had a contract to raise funds for the Patrolman's Benevolent Association of the state police, in connection with a journal to be issued marking the association's 15th anniversary.

District Attorney Joseph F. Gagliardi of Westchester County said the fund-raisers identified themselves as state troopers, which they were not, and suggested to prospective contributors that "it would be helpful" to donate.

Police said complaints came chiefly from truckers and other businessmen in Buffalo, Syracuse, Rochester, Albany, Watertown and New York City, in New York state, and other complaints came from New England, New Jersey, Ohio, Georgia and Illinois.

Charles S. Stone, 69, a licensed fund-raiser from White Plain, was arrested on a warrant in Miami Beach, Fla., and John W. Higgins, 31, of South Norwalk, Conn., was picked up by state police in Greenwich Village, Manhattan.

Last week Stone's brother Michael, 48, of White Plains, and Galen L. Scott, 58, who lives with Higgins, were arrested.

The four are charged with fraudulently obtaining property by soliciting for charity.

A statement issued by the association said that the money received by the PBA from the fund-raising organization will be returned to the donors. The PBA received $24,760.

Donor Bars Race Issue

CAMBRIDGE, Mass.—(UPI)—Harvard University announced Tuesday it has received a $50,000 gift to aid deserving Southern students, either Negro or white, who would otherwise not be able to attend college.

The money, provided by a donor who asked to remain anonymous, stipulated that no preference should be given any student on a racial basis.

AROUND MIAMI

Traffic-Snarling Officers Named

Two Miami motorcyclemen who conducted an off-duty roadblock which bottled up traffic on Key Biscayne Sunday while TV cameras filmed a commercial were identified Tuesday by Acting Miami Police Chief John Webber.

They are Sgt. Shafter Wyatt and Officer Burt Langdale, both with more than 10 years service on the department.

Webber said he had banned all off-duty work by motorcycle officers pending return of Chief Walter Headley, who is absent because of the death of his father. Wyatt and Langdale have been asked to submit a full written report on the incident.

Police Get Lead In Cowart 'Job'

Miami police said Tuesday they had a good lead on who stole County Commissioner Faris N. Cowart's little green box — containing $6,500 cash and $15,000 worth of stocks — but have been stymied in getting enough information to file charges.

Detectives intimated the two suspects had been inside the Cowart home at 1430 SW 12th Ave. several times before the Feb. 8 burglary. The little box was hidden in a closet.

Cowart said the cash had been left to him by his father and was to have been given to his 70-year-old mother.

Judge Assigned To Giblin Case

Chief Justice Glenn Terrell of the Florida Supreme Court Tuesday assigned Circuit Judge L. L. Parks of Tampa to hear Dade Circuit Judge Vincent Giblin's petitions against the City of Coral Gables.

Circuit Judge Marshall Wiseheart had requested that Justice Terrell name an out-of-town judge to hear the cases. Terrell said he complied with the request because of "peculiar local conditions."

Terrell set no date for Judge Parks to go to Dade County. Judge Parks will set the date for trial of the suits in which Giblin seeks to ban the Gables from trying him on charges growing out of a traffic arrest.

The Town Crier

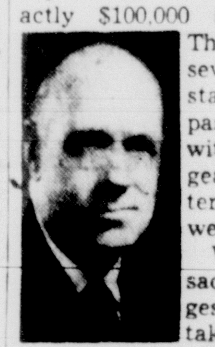
BY Jack Bell

TURF EXPERTS seem pretty well agreed that last Saturday's Widener field wasn't exactly $100,000 stake calibre.



BELL

There have been several such stakes in the past few years, with the purses geared for better horses than we saw.

Would it be a sacrilege to suggest that we take the same money and split it up a bit? The McLennan attracts the same horses we see in the Widener, for far less money. Perhaps a progressive stake program through the 40-day meeting, with the champion selected on points, or selection of a "Champion of the Meeting" by these same estimable gentlemen who make like wise in yon press box?

Some turfmen have hurled harsh words at Jockey Bill Hartack because he refused to ride Greek Circle Saturday, after taking the 4-5 favorite onto the track. Let's face facts! Hartack's business is riding race horses. He was on the most likely horse in the race and a win meant money for Hartack as well as the owner. So he didn't dismount for anything trivial. He thought Greek Circle acted as if something was wrong. If so, he'd burn up a lot of 4-5 money. The horse might be permanently injured. Hartack thought it wouldn't be fair to race under such conditions. He was perfectly right.

A small, elderly man and his wife, obviously not long in these U. S., sat at my desk telling their story: Hendrik and Mrs. Ramotowski. He is a chemical metalurgist. They met as youngsters in Russia, crossed Siberia into Korea, China, Japan, Java, Malaya.

For many years they lived in Manila and six years ago migrated to Venezuela. Hendrik earned a living making most unusual rings, necklaces, bracelets out of pure gold and precious stones. They were doing well in Caracas, but as the gentle Mrs. Ramotowski explained it, "Three revolutions in three years were too much. All our lives we've been in wars and revolutions. So we came to America, where there is freedom."

His reply is most enlightening: "With the first cultivatings this family of six will get paddy and green grain. They'll keep a cow, feeding the paddy grass. They're planting coconut trees and in six years they'll get $50 worth of coconuts a year, fiber from the husks for rope. They'll make mats from the bushes planted as a fence. They're free. It's all theirs."

Jury Hits School Safety

Fire Protection Held Wanting

By JAMES BUCHANAN
Herald Staff Writer

A special Grand Jury report said Tuesday that inadequate fire protection in Dade County is costing dollars and could cost many lives of Dade school children.

The jury's investigation began after the disastrous Chicago school fire when a series of articles in The Herald pointed up poor safety practices in Dade schools, nursing homes and night clubs.

It would take 25 minutes for a county fire truck to reach Key Biscayne Elementary School after an alarm was sounded, the report said.

And the county has no equipment to battle more than a second-floor blaze anywhere in the unincorporated area.

A dollar-and-cents evaluation of the county's fire-fighting equipment is shown in insurance rates.

There's a $17 difference between the City of Miami's low rate, and the premiums paid by home owners in the unincorporated areas.

One of the biggest hurdles, according to the report, is the fact that many municipal fire departments can't go to the aid of county firemen because they use a different type of equipment.

The jurors' recommendations include standardization of all equipment and fittings in order that hoses, hydrants and hose connections can be interchanged.

Once accomplished, the jury said it believed the county and all municipalities should enter into a firefighting agreement and use a central alarm and communications system.

Most municipalities have an unofficial mutual aid pact operating now.

Complete reorganization and expansion of the County Fire Department, hardest hit by the jury report, was recommended last month after a survey by Public Safety Director Thomas J. Kelly.

At the time, Kelly said it was up to the county to bring its equipment up to date before calling for standardization by the municipalities.

While the jury's report named no specific schools, The Herald's survey had shown several fire hazards at Miami Edison Junior and Senior High Schools.

School Superintendent Joe Hall said the School Board was making changes as rapidly as possible, and that the jury's latest findings probably would spur the work.

Officials admitted, off the record, that consolidation of all fire departments probably would be fought by the personnel involved. They would fear, the officials said, a loss of seniority and pension advantages.

Any such consolidation, however, would have to await unification of equipment and incorporation of the fire department into a citywide communications system.

National Summary

A series of storms moving across Canada Tuesday blocked the southward progress of severely cold arctic air while clear skies with diminishing winds allowed lower readings over the East. Most sections of the country will show little change in temperatures or a tendency for warming today. High pressure extended sunny skies over broad areas from the Rockies to the Appalachians with midday temperatures ranging from the teens and 20s in the north to 50s as far as Kansas Tuesday.

A disturbance off the coast maintained snow through the northeast in addition to flurries in a brisk northerly flow over the eastern Great Lakes region into the mountains from West Virginia northward. Rochester, N.Y., reported a 2 inch accumulation during the forenoon and similar deposits in Massachusetts raised snow cover to 7 inches at Worcester and 5 inches at Boston. Clearing later on left only a few flurries in the mountains, but a chance that a Canadian disturbance may trail a little snow over northern New England today.

Mild sunny 70 and 80 degree weather in Florida presented a contrast to the 50 degree range more prominent along the leading edge of cool air in the Gulf states. Rain fringed the coastal regions from Texas to southern Alabama and northwest Florida.

Youth Strays In Idle Hours

THE CONCERN RECENTLY EXPRESSED by Emerson Allsworth, while he was county solicitor, over the fate of the county's teenage boys who quit school is echoed by interviewers in the Florida State Employment Service office here.

"There are no jobs for them," one pointed out, "except as bag boys in the supermarkets, where they make about $35 for a 60-hour week, or sand-blasting cars in paint shops, and that's a tough job where nobody lasts more than a few days. Even the service stations don't want these kids any more.

"Ninety per cent of them drive cars, though, and when they hear the pay that we have to offer, most of them will say, 'That won't even buy gas for my car.' But they wouldn't think of getting rid of their cars."

Allsworth termed the situation one of the most serious which the county has to face: The number of young men drifting into crime because they've quit school and can't find work that offers any future.

First Impressions Are Lasting

COMMENT HERE THE OTHER DAY about the need for a Fort Lauderdale marker where the city joins Lauderdale-by-the-Sea brought a rejoinder from L-B-S Mayor Gilbert Colnot that perhaps Fort Lauderdale at that point would be better left unidentified.

Weeds and roadside trash, he said, make it an unsightly entrance to the city, in contrast to the lighted and neatly landscaped marker which Lauderdale-by-the-Sea has erected at its south as well as its north entrance. "How about county, state and Fort Lauderdale cooperation in an effort to clean up and dress up this area?" the mayor suggested.

We should be a little shamefaced that another community had to call our attention to it. The A1A entrance to Fort Lauderdale should be a thing of particular beauty.

Driver License Battle Shapes Up

THERE'S SOME SENTIMENT in favor of revising the state law under which a driver's license can be suspended for three moving violations within a 12-months period and substituting a "point" system. This would provide that violations would be graded by points as to their severity and if a driver collected a certain number in a year, his license would be suspended.

Iowa has such a system, and a copy of its point table has been sent along by Loyal Compton, information director of the Florida divisions of the AAA. It shows that the full 10 points may be slapped against a driver for any of 10 different violations. Among them are driving while intoxicated, manslaughter, perjury, leaving the scene of an injury accident, second offense of reckless driving, and the third speeding offense in 12 months.

Speeding in excess of 20 miles an hour over the limit gets the violator eight points; so does improper passing. Reckless driving or failure to stop for a school bus draws seven points. Failure to heed a stop sign draws five. Altogether there are 28 categories, ranging down to two points for failure to dim headlights.

The shape of the battle over the present law is beginning to emerge; Florida Highway Patrol officials seem to be the only defenders of it. One can't blame them. For the first time, the Florida motorist is beginning to think of his license as something precious, which is as it should be.

It's ironic. There's widespread concern over highway safety — but not enough concern, apparently, to support a really tough license suspension law.

How Not to Attract Tourists

THERE STILL ARE STORES in the area that won't accept Canadian money, Bert Marx reports, in spite of the efforts we have made to persuade the Canadians to spend their winters with us.

He tells of a store which sold a Canadian woman $27 worth of merchandise, then lost the sale because it wouldn't take one of her country's nickels. The same woman attempted to pay for some purchases in a dime store with two Canadian dollars and the same thing happened. Her money finally was accepted in another store and she returned there later with two Canadian friends who also bought.

Threats and Promises Highlight Gunn Trial

Bondsman Claims He Was 'Framed'

By PETER LAINE
Herald Staff Writer

FORT LAUDERDALE — Prosecution and defense fought tooth and nail Tuesday as the James Gunn trial ended its second day in Criminal Court.

Gunn, a bail bondsman, is accused of accepting stolen jewelry from persons accused of burglary and robbery.

Closing arguments will be given at 9 a.m. today. Tuesday's highlights included testimony from:

MRS. RUTH JORDAN, 20, who backed up her husband by naming Gunn as receiver of jewelry stolen from a southwest home.

MRS. THELMA BAXTER, 21, who said Deputy Frank Terranova threatened her with a long jail term unless she testified against Gunn. Terranova denied the accusation.

(The Jordan and Baxter women — and their husbands, William and Howard — are awaiting sentence on a robbery charge.)

FRANK HOGAN, newspaper reporter, who testified he heard County Solicitor Thomas Coker say he had made an agreement with Jordan not to prosecute him as a habitual offender in return for his testimony against Gunn.

GUNN, who said the Jordans lied about his receiving the goods, and that the Sheriff's Department was trying to frame him.

Prosecutor Wallace Allbritton and Defense Attorney Ray Sandstrom ranted repeatedly at each other — sometimes at the top of their voices, drowning out Judge Louis Weissing. Weissing warned both that they could be cited for contempt and sentenced to jail.

Mrs. Jordan said Gunn accepted the stolen items in his office about 3 a.m. Nov. 22 shortly after a burglary—from her husband and Darwin Cunningham, who did the job.

Mrs. Baxter, a defense witness, told of a conversation in jail Monday with Terranova. She claimed the deputy wanted to bring her as a witness against Gunn but that she refused. She was not present when Gunn was accused of accepting the jewels. Then, she added Terranova threatened:

"I'll tell the judge Friday what I know. You'll be 47 when you get out of the state penitentiary."

Hogan, who works for a Fort Lauderdale newspaper, was called as a defense witness. He told the court:

"Coker told me he had made an agreement with Jordan that he would not be filed on as an habitual offender if he would cooperate in this case."

Public Defender Clayton Nance, who followed Hogan, agreed with Sandstrom that Jordan would get a minimum life sentence upon conviction as a three-time loser. On Monday, Jordan denied getting any promises.

Freeman Arrives -Smiling

By GREG TAYLOR
Herald Staff Writer

FORT LAUDERDALE — John Thomas Freeman, 40, described as a ruthless killer, arrived fresh and friendly Tuesday by train.

His two guards, who had kept their eyes open and on him for 36 hours, were exhausted.

Taken from a Florida East Coast train at Pompano Beach as a precaution, Freeman was whisked to the county jail, booked on a second degree murder charge, and placed alone in a security cell.

He was brought here from Baltimore where he was picked up by the FBI and local officers. He had just made the FBI's list of the country's 10 most wanted criminals.

Carl Christy, special county investigator, and Deputy Montie Smith brought him back. He is accused of the brutal murder of an ex-convict pal, Glenn Roy Maynard, here last September.

Maynard's body was found in a wooded spot near State Rd. 84. His throat had been cut, his teeth kicked in, his cheekbone cracked and he had been shot in the head.

The handcuffed prisoner was escorted from the train to a car where Deputies Norman Mehl and Sam Hartland waited with the motor running.

"He kidded about the weather and people wearing shorts," Mehl said of the drive to jail.

Asked if he had a good trip, Freeman told a deputy, "I had a good night's sleep. My conscience is clear."

But Christy and Smith didn't sleep during the trip down in a Pullman bedroom and for more than 12 hours before the trip.

"We had no trouble with him, but neither of us slept at all," Smith said.

Chief Criminal Investigator Ben Grigsby said Freeman made an oral confession to Smith, Christy and FBI men to slaying Maynard.

Thomas M. Coker Jr., county solicitor, said he would try to hold the arraignment on Friday. But plans for handling the prosecution were not definite.

Stadium Contract Awarded

Herald Bureau

FORT LAUDERDALE — City commissioners Tuesday awarded a contract for construction of a municipal stadium. The successful contractor said he hopes it will be ready for the first kick-off next fall.

Richardson Construction Co. won the contract with a bid of $337,905, which includes two field houses, concrete stands with treated pine seats, football fields, and flood lighting.

All bids for fencing were rejected. They will be readvertised. Commissioners said they hope someone will donate a flagpole.

The stadium will have a seating capacity of 8,000. However, it can be enlarged later to accommodate many times that number.

The city has $385,000 available for the stadium. Of the amount, $85,000 will be required for the roads, parking area and water installations to be built by the city. An additional $53,000 could be made available from surplus bond money, City Manager William J. Veeder said.

Andy Kruse, chairman of the Stadium Advisory Committee, said: "This is Fort Lauderdale's biggest day," as commissioners voted to award the contract.

The stadium, to be built at Prospect Airfield, has been a continuing project for many years for those who felt it was greatly needed by the city.

Michigan Firm Buys Local Mill

KALAMAZOO —(AP) — Hawthorne Paper Co. of Kalamazoo announced Tuesday purchase of the Pan American Paper Mill in Hollywood, Fla. The mill will be converted to manufacture of offset, writing and rag content papers.

Hawthorne said a plan for expanding the Hollywood plant includes building of a de-inking mill within 18 months. Hawthorne produces printing, writing and converting papers.

Record Crowds Hit Beaches

By TOM VINCIGUERRA
Herald Staff Writer

HOLLYWOOD — It was "Sunday" in Broward Tuesday as bathers flocked to the beaches in record numbers.

Thousands of school children invested their day off in the bright, hot sun and warm water. Tourists turned out like they might not get another chance this month.

Traffic was heavy. Cars were bumper to bumper for a mile and a half between the Hollywood Blvd. Bridge and Town House Circle.

"It was a tremendous day," reported Frank "Curley" Sol, captain of the Hollywood lifeguards. "One of the biggest Tuesdays we ever had."

Bob Essex, head lifeguard at the Casino Pool in Fort Lauderdale, said the turnout at the beach was "great."

Recreation Director Ken McRae of Dania said students, their parents and tourists overflowed the Dania beach.

The Hallandale Industrial and Agricultural Fair gave the beach plenty of competition, but hundreds of residents got in a little of both activities, reported Stuart Taber, city recreation director.

Youngsters Have Their Day, Flock to Hallandale's Fair

By DUANE JONES
Herald Staff Writer

HALLANDALE — Gambling was wide open in this racetrack town Tuesday, but no one cared much.

It was kids' day at the Chamber of Commerce-sponsored Industrial and Agricultural Fiar, and officials figured a little fun at a few chancy games — such as penny-pitch, a ring toss, and spill-the-milk bottles—wouldn't corrupt the town's youngsters, who had a day off from school because of teachers' meetings.

The midway was jammed at 10 a.m. with fun-searching kids who were offered reduced fares for amusement rides, refresements, and side shows featuring the "world's fattest woman," the "world's smallest woman," snake charmers, wild animals and a cute little gal billed as "the devil's daughter."

Inside the big top were 50 industrial and agricultural exhibits, and an Air Force display spotlighting a miniature jet plane that actually runs, but doesn't fly.

Exhibits included vegetable and fruit displays, a flower show, canning, baking and sewing, crafts and hobbies, embroidery, knitting, needlepoint, rugs and arts.

Boy and girl scout troops exhibited projects, and several South Broward schools showed science, mathematics, home economics, and agricultural exhibits.

Also represented were 4-H Club projects and numerous commercial booths ranging from central heating equipment to concrete products and home furnishings.

The day's activities got off to a fast start with a children's pet show in which an estimated 200 odgs, cats, monkeys, rabbits and a huge turtle competed for blue ribbons.

Among top entries were "Foxy," a taffy-colored cat owned by Susie and Robert Abels, and "snowball," a 30-pound rabbit belonging to Laura Ellis, Bots were prize winners.

Today's activities, starting at noon, will feature the coronation of a popularity contest king and queen at 8 p.m. A coronation pageant will highlight Thursday night's performance.

Proceeds from the week-long fair will go to the Chamber's building fund.

Search Pressed For 'Lottery King'

By PAT MANGAN
Herald Staff Writer

FORT LAUDERDALE — Russell Raymond Trilck, 52, identified by Detroit authorities as a Michigan lottery king, Tuesday managed to elude searchers a second day.

The Wayne County, Mich., prosecutor's office promised criminal action against anyone who harbors him.

There was some suspicion that Trilck, whose Plantation neighbors knew him as an avid gardner, succeeded in getting out of the area.

He has been sought by Wayne County officials since fleeing Detroit to avoid a charge that he bribed a half-dozen police officers, including a police commissioner.

William W. Voisine, 1621 NE 18th Ave., the former mayor of Ecorse, Mich., has been indicted by a Grand Jury on a charge of accepting bribes from Trilck, said Albert A. Goldfarb, assistant prosecuting attorney from Wayne County.

Voisine, free under bond, is staying at his home here. He refused to talk with a reporter Tuesday.

But Goldfarb quoted Voisine as saying he would be "most happy to get" his old enemy.

Trilck, who owns a home at 5561 W. Broward Blvd. in Plantation, has extensive holdings in Broward County. Goldfarb and local detectives just missed him Monday in Hollywood where Trilck spent a few days at the home of Leocadia Neivlt, 6961 NW 22nd Ct.

Miss Neivlt, who dances at the Suburban Club in Miami under the name of Sally Clark, said she knew Trilck in Detroit.

Goldfarb said Trilck's local acquaintances also include a woman in Pompano Beach who formerly operated a beauty shop in Wyandotte, Mich., and a former Michigan State legislator who was an associate of Trilck's in a furniture business here called International Richwood. It is no longer in business.

The Wayne County prosecutor, Samuel H. Olsen, said Tuesday he will institute criminal action against anyone who "aids or abets" Trilck's flight.

"His racket friends say 'he's too hot to handle,'" Goldfarb said.

Gasoline Price Wars May Face Federal Crackdown

Dow Jones, AP, UPI, N.Y. Times

The stage was set Tuesday for a possible crackdown on gasoline price wars started by major fuel companies.

A Federal Trade Commission examiner issued a tentative order forbidding Pure Oil Co. from cutting gasoline prices in any market where it competes with other brands unless proportionate cuts are made throughout its sales territory.

In Chicago, a spokesman for Pure Oil said, "We disagree with the adverse findings of the hearing examiner and have already filed an appeal to the full commission."

If the FTC adopts the order, it will mark the government's first attack on geographic price discrimination in the gasoline industry. FTC officials said such an order could lead to similar action against discriminatory price-cutting by other major companies.

A LEADING custom smelter has reduced the price of lead to 11 cents a pound from its previous 11½ cents.

STEEL ORDERS are soaring in a hectic market which some steel men say has become a full-fledged boom. Production continues to expand with output approaching the record weekly high of 2,525,000 tons reached toward the close of 1956. The rise is attributed to anticipation of a steel strike June 30 when steel labor contracts expire.

* * *

WORK STOPPAGE threats also spur copper buying. With greater demand than the current U. S. supply, the custom smelter price seems likely to be marked up another half-cent to 31 cents a pound.

* * *

Detroit Firm Picks Broad A Director

Miami financier Shepard Broad Tuesday was elected to the Board of Directors of Bohn Aluminum and Brass Corp. at the firm's annual stockholder's meeting in Detroit.

Broad is President and Chairman of the Board of the American Savings, Building and Loan Assn. of Miami Beach. He also is on the Board of Directors of Mercantile National Bank of Miami Beach and is a founder of the North Shore Bank.

The financier is co-founder of Bay Harbor Islands and has served as its Mayor for the past 11 years.

The Martin Family Checks Expenses

. . . inflation has hit them hard

How Can He Beat Inflation On a Policeman's Salary?

Third of a Series

By STAN JOHNSON

Herald Business Writer

Inflationwise, the policeman's lot is not a happy one.

As he stands in the intersection of NE 1st St. and Miami Ave. directing traffic, Patrolman Ralph L. Martin glances occasionally at the window of a nearby shoe store.

Displayed are a pair of heavy-soled brogans like the ones he wears out every six months. The price tag says $14.95. Martin remembers that he paid $7.50 for the same shoes in 1949.

Looking back over the past 10 years, most skilled workers or professional men can subtract a 22 per cent increase in the cost of living from the percentage of increase in their income and come up with a healthy balance that represents a higher standard of living.

This is not true of Patrolman Martin or of millions of others who have government or white collar jobs, fixed incomes or pensions.

Since 1949, Martin's salary as a patrolman has risen 27 per cent — from $4,188 to $5,304.

In the same period, the union scale for journeyman electricians has risen 40 per cent —from $2.50 to $3.50 per hour.

Nearly half of Martin's increase is a result of longevity boosts — rewards for his 17 years with the Miami Police Department and for his greater experience in his work.

Cost of living raises have added only 16 per cent to Martin's paycheck in 10 years, but living costs have gone up 22 per cent.

At the same time, his children have become teenagers and are more expensive to feed, clothe and educate.

Now 44, Martin worries about saving money to send his son to college and to provide for himself and his wife when he retires on a modest pension at the age of 55.

"We can't save," says Mrs. Martin. "It seems as though everytime we get a little put aside, someone gets sick and we have to spend our savings."

Martin says he wouldn't be able to make ends meet were it not for a part-time job at a dog track which brings in about $800 a year.

A large number of government employes in the Miami area either have part-time jobs or working wives.

Although Martin's salary is $442 a month, his take-home pay is only about $285 a month.

The state pension program in which he participates takes $30 a month out of his wages. When this money is paid back to him after retirement, it will be worth considerably less than it is now.

The Internal Revenue Service has estimated that if inflation continues at the present rate, it will take an income of $10,538 in 1975 to equal the purchasing power of a $4,000 income in 1958.

How can Martin improve his lot?

If he leaves his job now, he sacrifices 17 years toward a $200-a-month pension.

"There's been some talk about allowing a partial pension after 20 years of service. If this happens, I could leave the force in three years and look for a better-paying job outside," he said.

In the meantime, he'll go on watching the shoe store window and hoping that his income will rise at least as rapidly as the cost of the shoes he must buy.

Travel Expenses Easier to Deduct

By SYLVIA PORTER

(In collaboration with The Research Institute of America)

SYLVIA

The Treasury flashed some good news in 1958 to businessmen who like to combine pleasure with their business trips. It is going to be more lenient about allowing you to deduct the travel expenses than it originally had indicated.

The problem usually comes up in one of two ways. You may go on a trip which obviously is for business purposes and then work in some merely incidental pleasure activities. Or you may go on a trip which is just the reverse — primarily a pleasure jaunt involving some incidental business activities.

When your principal goal is business, there is no problem. You can deduct all your travel expenses except your spending on pleasure. If, for instance, you spend money for local sightseeing or nightclubbing during off business hours, you can't deduct those outlays, but all your other travel expenses are deductible.

* * *

SUPPOSE, THOUGH, you plan a two-week vacation which also includes a two-day business convention in the same city. Although the expenses of a vacation trip aren't deductible, can you deduct some part of your living expenses in the city because you attend the two-day business convention?

At first, the Treasury said you couldn't deduct anything if the trip was primarily for pleasure, but in 1958 it finally relented a bit. You can't deduct any of the expenses of traveling to and from your destination when the trip is primarily for pleasure, but you can deduct that part of your expenses at the destination which can be allocated to whatever incidental business activities you carry on while there.

In other words, if you spend two days of your two-week vacation attending a business convention, you can deduct living costs for those two days.

While this represents a liberalized Treasury view, the odds are the courts will be even more liberal. If, say, you spend 10 per cent of our vacation attending a business convention, why shouldn't you be able to deduct 10 per cent of your travel costs to and from the vacation-convention city in addition to 10 per cent of your costs while there?

* * *

SEVERAL 1958 court cases indicate the Treasury will in practice let a taxpayer deduct part of his travel expenses for a trip taken primarily for pleasure, even though the new rule says "no."

Of course, you can't push this combined business-pleasure deal to a point obscuring the business aspects of the trip. Thus, when another doctor took a European trip for pleasure and made a few side trips to visit hospitals professionally, the Treasury allowed him only a noninal deduction for travel expenses.

* * *

WHAT ABOUT a business trip on which you take your wife? If you go from New York to the West Coast on business and your wife accompanies you, can you deduct only half your combined travel expenses? Not necessarily.

You may be able to deduct more than half because the Treasury will let you deduct what it would have cost you if you had traveled alone and this can add up to well over half your expenses.

You might travel under a family plan which costs less than two regular fares; you might stay in a $12 a day double room whereas a single room would cost $9.

Despite these lower actual costs, the Treasury will permit you to deduct one full travel fare and the $9 a day costs.

(Tomorrow: Tax Deductions Which Violate "Public Policy.")

PAA Jets Will Fly Latin Run

Pan American World Airways said Tuesday it will inaugurate jet passenger service in April to Caracas, Venezuela, Asuncion, Paraguay, and Buenos Aires, Argentina.

The flights will be made from New York and cut present travel time in half.

The Buenos Aires schedule will be reduced from 24 to 12 hours, and the New York-Asuncion run, which once required 25½ hours on a roundabout route, will take only 10 hours.

PAA jet flights from Miami to Latin American points "still are in the distant future," company officials said.

The company plans to add Rio de Janeiro and Sao Paulo to its jet schedule after runways are extended in those cities sometime in 1960.

Pan American will be the first U.S. airline offering jet service to South America. An Argentine line, Aerolineas Argentina, plans to fly a North and South American jet schedule this spring with British Comets.

The Pan American service to Venezuela, Paraguay and Argentina will be in addition to PAA's transatlantic jet schedule.

Boeing 707's for the Latin American run will come first from the PAA fleet now leased to National Airlines for its seasonal New York-Miami flights, and later from the additional plans on order from the manufacturer.

The airline already serves most of South America with piston-engine aircraft, but dropped Asuncion in 1946 after Brazil withdrew permission to fly over its territory to the Paraguayan capital.

A recent revision of the Brazil-U.S. air agreement opened up the territory and PAA will resume service with the jets.

"We have confidence that we sell milk in the way God intended it to be drunk — as it comes from the cow," R. Good said in an address to a dairymen's dinner here.

Good, recently returned from a tour of the American milk industry, said he has found that the English dairy industry is better run and that the public here showed greater responsibility in dealing with the bottles.

"In America the average life of the milk bottle is 24 journeys. In England it is 64," he said. "America is full of gimmicks."

"They take out a little fat here and put in a little vitamin there," Good said. "In England we have faith in our product."

Nickel Paper Fading

NEW YORK — (UPI) — Fewer and fewer daily newspapers can be bought for a nickel, the American Newspaper Publishers Association reported.

Its latest survey showed that of 1,717 English language papers reporting, 1,000 were selling for a nickel. In 1958, 1,135 sold for a nickel and in 1957 the number was 1,328. In 1951 records showed there were 1,594 selling for 5 cents.

The ANPA reported the number of papers priced at 7 to 10 cents a copy had been increasing.

The ANPA also said that newspapers reporting to the Association used 394,908 tons of newsprint last month. This represented an increase of 2.3 per cent more than in January 1958.

Second Laundry Blast Badly Burns Worker

Previous Explosion Killed 1

Herald Bureau

FORT LAUDERDALE — For the second time in two weeks, fumes from a machine at the Green Mill Cleaners and Laundry, 609 SW First Ave., caused an explosion Tuesday, putting a second worker in the hospital.

The first explosion, on Feb. 12, caused the death of the machine operator, Marion Hamm, 220 NW Sixth St. He was burned about the face, arms and body.

On Tuesday, Dennis Morris, 54, 900 NW Fifth Ct., who took over Hamm's job, was burned about the arms, face and neck. He was reported in serious condition at Provident Hospital.

Fellow workers in the cleaning part of the plant left work and refused to return after the explosion, it was reported.

Capt. Robert L. Marshal, chief fire inspector, said the fumes came from an extractor machine, similar to a clothes drier, which removes cleaning fluid from clothes.

After the first explosion, it was completely rewired and inspected, he said. The cause of both explosions was unknown.

20 Vow To Fight Integration

TALLAHASSEE — A group of legislators met secretly in Daytona Beach Sunday and adopted a "manifesto," vowing to fight for racial segregation and states rights, Rep. Richard O. Mitchell of Leon disclosed Tuesday.

Mitchell, who spearheaded the movement, said more than 20 House and Senate members have approved the manifesto, and he believes all 133 members will support it before the Legislature opens.

Mitchell said about 15, including David Eldredge of Miami, actually attended the meeting Sunday night. A number of others have since asked their names be included among the signers, he said.

The manifesto declares the people of Florida are "more determined than ever" to maintained their segregated way of life and to preserve states rights.

It takes issue with recent statements by Gov. LeRoy Collins that the attitude of the people of Florida has changed since collapse of Virginia's "massive resistance" program recently.

Hollywood Drainage Plan OKd

Herald Bureau

HOLLYWOOD — City Commissioners Tuesday authorized establishment of a drainage district in the Orange Brook section, which was flooded last December during heavy rains.

They directed City Attorney August Paoli to draft a resolution setting up a district to include Orange Brook Estates, Park Road Manor and Breezy Manor.

Torrential rains inundated the Orange Brook area and brought demands from taxpayers that it get priority in a storm drainage program.

City Manager Joseph Watson said the program would probably be financed by special assessment.

Storm drainage is a multimillion-dollar proposition in South Florida where left stations are required to pump water which forms in low land. There is little natural drainage.

Watson guesses the cost will be around $155,000.

In other action, the board directed Paoli to draft a legislative bill to clarify whether the city can legally institute a group insurance plan for employes.

Auto Stolen

Robert Staab, wife of a Bal Harbour police lieutenant killed last year while trying to foil a hotel robbery, told Hallandale police Tuesday her station wagon was missing from in front of her home at 708 NW Fifth Ct.

DOGS SOMETIMES are natural-born "hams." Cases in point here are Lassie the Collie and King Dobe the Doberman. When the photographer said "pose," they posed. A little less sure were their young master and mistress. Peter Saraentoz, above with Lassie, wasn't certain he liked the idea at all. Patti Beasley, below with King Dobe, had some difficulty handling her dog — and her crutches. She's recovering from a broken ankle. Action came at the Hallandale Industrial and Trade Fair. See story on page 1B.

Burke's Vote to Decide

Ferryboat Contract Splits County Board

Herald Bureau

FORT LAUDERDALE — County commissioners split 2-2 Tuesday on the award of a contract for ferryboat service to the beach south of Port Everglades. Commissioner Herbert Burke was absent.

They also deadlocked on rejecting the bids received. The issue was deferred until Burke's return.

Commissioner Frank Adler and Chairman George Petersen voted for Harry Shelley, who runs the service now. Shelley asked $1,000 a month for the one-year contract. Commissioners John Bell and Vivian Saxon opposed the award.

Tom McGowan, who also asked $1,000, told the board his boat was larger than Shelley's.

The apparent low bid came from Jack Wright, who asked $941.70. Parks Superintendent Carl Thompson said Wright did not submit a Coast Guard certificate of inspection.

Bell said that Wright could get one, and should get the award. Another bidder, Marshall Fishburn, who asked $998 monthly, was ruled out as not meeting specifications.

Boy Nabbed

FORT LAUDERDALE — A 16-year-old youth, who escaped from juvenile authorities last Tuesday, was arrested again Monday, with an assortment of burglary tools in his possession.

Officers said the boy had on his person 22 different keys, a metal file, a screwdriver, pliers and a small knife. He was turned over to the Sheriff's Department.

Free Bridge To Be Urged Over Inlet

By CLARENCE ZAITZ
North Broward Bureau

POMPANO BEACH — Pompano and Hillsboro Beach commissioners have agreed they want a two-lane bridge with a 16-foot clearance and walkways across Hillsboro Inlet at state Road A1A, but they were not so nearly in accord that it should be a toll bridge.

Mayor Bruce Blunt of Pompano and Mayor A. D. Henderson of Hillsboro Beach are each to name two commissioners to a committee to study the bridge program with State Road Department officials.

The decision was made at a joint commission luncheon meeting Monday.

The committee will request engineering surveys to determine what rights-of-way are needed, and an estimated cost of the project.

The commissioners vowed to make every effort to get the state to build a free bridge, rather than a toll facility.

State Road Board Member William D. Singer has said the only way to get the bridge soon is to make it a toll facility. Otherwise, he said, it might be four or five years before it could be included in the SRD budget.

Bond Vote Failure Predicted

By CLARENCE ZAITZ
North Broward Bureau

POMPANO BEACH —The City Commission Tuesday set April 14 as the date for a freeholder referendum on a bond issue of $2,150,000 to finance a sanitary sewer program.

Action came in the face of a prediction the referendum was doomed to failure.

Paul V. Sundberg, secretary of the Pompano Beach Taxpayers Association, made the prediction as he aired his group's opposition to the proposal for financing.

Sundberg told commissioners the taxpayers group thinks the financing proposal is "very objectionable." He suggests that alternate plans for financing should be aired at a public hearing before setting a referendum.

The general obligation bond issue would require a two-mill tax levy, chief bone of contention among the taxpayers group.

The rest of the $3.7 million needed to install sewers in about 75 per cent of the city, would be paid by a $1,550,000 sewer revenue certificate issue.

Sundberg said the association called a hasty meeting Monday after hearing the two-mill proposal, and cited these objections:

"The 'beach' area pays 73 per cent of the city's taxes now and it would be discriminatory to make them pay for 73 per cent of the sewer program.

"The tax increase would place a heavy burden on homeowners, while owners of vacant land would contribute very little, yet their land value would increase tremendously."

Other objections voiced by the group are that cooperative apartments would be assessed too high a monthly service rate, and to tie "seasonal" rates in with water consumption is "way out of line.

After setting the referendum date, Mayor G. T. Hull explained that a citize's advisory committee would soon be named to work with city officials and engineers in disseminating information about the program.

Sundberg emphasized the taxpayers group did not voice an objection or an endorsement of the need for sewers, but objected only to the method of financing.

Water Wells In Danger

Herald Bureau

HOLLYWOOD — Water in the city well field is in danger of turning brackish if another area is not tapped soon, City Commissioner Thomas Adams said Tuesday.

The board directed City Manager Joseph Watson to start looking for a new well field area.

Watson said pumping had been cut back on two of the 10 wells in the present field along 35th Ave. because of iron intrusion. He said salt content in two other wells was high.

"The water could become salty at any time and we would be totally out of commission," said Adams, a doctor.

Some commissioners suggested the area that is proposed for annexation as a possible site. It is to be made into an industrial park.

City May Pass Strict Law

Action Urged Against Telephone Solicitations

Herald Bureau

FORT LAUDERDALE—The City Commission may take legal action against telephone solicitations.

It asked Assistant City Attorney Robert O'Toole to confer with Chamber of Commerce officials who want the city either to refuse to license solicitors or to charge $1,500 for a license.

The chamber said it had received 1,500 complaints about a recent solicitation for coupon books which allegedly were good for free merchandise.

Commissioners also:

VOTED STRICT enforcement of a 10-mile-per-hour speed limit on the SE Ninth Ave. detour bridge in an effort to lessen bridge noise and said they will have the bridge re-decked it if remains noisy;

HEARD a report from City Manager William J. Veeder that an optional eight cent on the gasoline tax, recommended by the Florida League of Municipalities, would return about a half-million dollars to the city yearly for rights of way purchases;

VOTED for a survey to see if locks are needed to prevent salt water from Plantation Isles canals from infiltrating the city's well fields in dry weather.

A 'Fox' Hounds The Flying Ls

Members of the FORT LAUDERDALE High School band aren't normally a superstitious lot but . . .

"A phantom called The Fox" has sent cold shivers down their spines.

After their concert in War Memorial Auditorium last month, Band Director W. H. Bennett and each of his 78 bandsmen received an anonymous note in the mail.

It read: "Watch for a phantom called the fox."

The envelopes were postmarked Fort Lauderdale. No one had any idea who sent them.

The logical time for The Fox to strike is at Thursday night's 8 p.m. concert.

But nobody's expected to bring foxhounds.

Suffers Burns

A gas company employe, burned from the waist up when a gas pipe caught fire, was reported in fair condition Tuesday at Monroe Jackson Hospital in HOLLYWOOD.

Police said Bob Fahnestock, 32, of Hialeah, was clearing a gas line at 2435 Filmore St. Monday night when the pipe ignited.

Another workman, Charles Miller, 28, of Ojus, who received first degree burns of the head and arms in the flash fire, was treated and released at Memorial Hospital.

Old Age? It Starts At 75

Herald Bureau

FORT LAUDERDALE — Old age? It begins at 75 and not before, said President Eisenhower's heart specialist here Tuesday.

DR. WHITE

Dr. Paul Dudley White said that 100 years ago a man died at the age of 45. Cause of his death: Old age.

Dr. White, here adressing the Broward County Medical Society in connection with heart month, said, "I like to think middle age extends from 25 to 75."

The famed heart specialist will speak to the Heart Association in a public meeting here tonight.

In Tuesday's address he cited numerous case histories of unusual heart disease patients he has treated in his lifetime.

Rulings Weaken Security, Bar Charges

Nation's Lawyers Blast Court as Soft on Reds

Get Tough, Congress Is Urged

'Plug Loopholes With Legislation'

CHICAGO — (UPI) — The American Bar Association Tuesday accused the U. S. Supreme Court of going easy on Communists and called on Congress to step in with tough remedial legislation.

The accusation and recommendation were contained in a controversial resolution approved by overwhelming voice vote at the mid-winter meeting of the ABA's House of Delegates.

The vote made the resolution the official policy of the powerful organization representing 200,000 American lawyers.

The nation's most prominent lawyer, Supreme Court Chief Justice Earl Warren, is not a member. His resignation was accepted by the ABA Friday.

The 50-plus page resolution, prepared by the ABA's special committee on Communist tactics and strategy, said the Supreme Court has weakened the nation's security by its rulings on 24 cases involving accused Communists or anti-subversive legislation.

Flying directly in the face of the court, the ABA delegates demanded that state statutes against sedition be given concurrent enforcement powers as federal laws. The court has held that anti-sedition laws are the exclusive business of the federal government.

The ABA also asked that "wherever there are reasonable grounds to believe that as a result of court decisions internal security is weakened" Congress should enact legislation to plug the loopholes.

The ABA also wants the House un-American Activities Committee to take on the job of studying the operation of existing anti-Communist laws and the House itself to set up a standing anti-Communist investigative committee.

The vast majority of the 246 delegates brushed aside scattered opposition in putting themselves on record as disapproving the Supreme Court's interpretation of how the nation should fight Communist subversion.

Two committee members congratulated the ABA, however. Rep. William T. McCulloch (R., Ohio) predicted a "friendly reception" for the proposals in Congress. Rep. Robert T. Ashmore (D., S.C.) was happy that the ABA delegates "finally have come to feel that the Supreme Court is not above criticism."

John D. Randall of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, was nominated to succeed Ross L. Malone of Roswell, N. M., as the next president.

Happy Landing

A Cuban boy got to see his idol, Fidel Castro, in Havana — the hard way. Castro, President Manuel Urrutia and other officials were on a veranda at the ceremony commemorating Cuba's war for independence. The young fellow tried to climb the wall to reach Castro. The new premier saw him, stooped, took the boy's hand and helped him up. That's Urrutia in the light suit behind Castro.

AFL-CIO Leaders Yield

Reuther Wins His Battle For 'March' of Unemployed

SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico — (AP) — Walter Reuther Tuesday won over other AFL-CIO leaders to his plan for the unemployed to dramatize their woes with demonstrations soon in Washington.

The project might include a march past the White House.

Reuther, the United Auto Workers chief, said the demonstrations would "dramatize the desperate plight" of five million idle.

The agreement to sponsor the demonstrations, made at concluding sessions of the AFL-CIO Executive Council's two-week winter meeting here, apparently showed Reuther to be the victor in a running dispute with George Meany, AFL-CIO president.

Reuther and other former leaders of the old CIO accused Meany of dictating AFL-CIO policies, and demanded a voice in shaping federation decisions.

Meany had advocated a spring meeting of union leaders only to beat the drums for legislation to aid the jobless.

But a stormy session of the AFL-CIO chiefs resulted in plans for a mass demonstration of the actual unemployed more like the plan Reuther had advocated.

The revolt had boiled up for a week behind the scenes of the annual winter meeting of the AFL-CIO Executive Council here. It began when Meany —head of the old AFL—at a council meeting chided Reuther —head of the old CIO — for holding a session of the economic policy committee while the federation president was delayed in Washington by a cold. Meany was reported angry at Reuther's unemployment march project.

Reuther, the chairman of the economic committee, retorted that Meany had never attended economic policy meetings. Anyway, the Auto Workers Union chief said, as chairman he should have a relatively free hand at mapping economic policy, at least in the committee stage. Reuther said if he couldn't run the economic committee, he might as well quit the post.

Reuther was backed in the argument by James B. Carey, No. 2 man in the Federation's CIO faction. The meeting got so hot that Meany ordered Carey to leave his seat and take one at the foot of the executive council table, something the scrappy Carey refused to do.

Meany, Reuther and other high federation officials failed to resolve the conflict at two secret breakfast meetings during the week. Some union leaders feared a blowup of the four-year-old merged labor organization. A showdown session was held Monday night.

Meany declined to comment afterward. Reuther, with what appeared to be a diplomatic approach, told newsmen: "Nobody ever talked about busting up anything — there are understandings now on things where there were misunderstandings before."

Hoffa Says Florida's 'Fertile' for Unions

By DOM BONAFEDE
Herald Staff Writer

Citing Florida as "fertile land" for union activity, Teamsters Boss Jimmy Hoffa reported Tuesday he will "spend whatever money is necessary and supply sufficient organizers to do a job in the state."

He said a statewide drive will be aimed at all unorganized workers, with particular emphasis on Dade and Broward counties and the citrus belt in Central Florida.

At a press conference at the Teamsters executive council meeting at Miami Beach, Hoffa also accepted a challenge laid down by the AFL-CIO in a test for 10,000 unorganized workers in Puerto Rico.

"We'll meet this situation as we have met others forced upon us by the AFL-CIO. And we'll be on top when the fight is over," predicted the Teamsters' chief.

"Most of the opposition in Puerto Rico is from the government, not the workers," Hoffa said. "The government is trying to tell the workers they must continue to take low wages to stabilize the economy.

"We are not at war with the government of Puerto Rico and we hope it will not make war with us, but whoever opposes the Teamsters will have to abide by the decisions of the workers."

He said he did not expect the jurisdictional battle with the AFL-CIO to overflow to the mainland.

The Teamsters' recently launched campaign to organize 70,000 employes of Sears Roebuck is "months ahead of schedule," Hoffa added.

He answered questions forthrightly, in rapid, staccato fashion.

M. W. Miller, Teamsters Southeastern Conference chairman, later told The Herald, "If our progress continues and the reception is good, we should double our membership in Florida within five years."

Current Teamsters rolls in the state list more than 15,000 members, one third of which belong to the three Miami locals, Miller said.

"We're here to organize any unorganized workers in our jurisdiction," he commented.

"There is no one industry we are more intersted in than any other."

Congressman to Slice $11,873 Check

Son's Pay Mistake, He Says

DES MOINES, Iowa —(AP)— Rep. Steven V. Carter (D., Iowa) says he made a mistake in judgment in putting his 19-year-old college freshman son on his Congressional payroll at $11,873 a year, The Des Moines Register said Tuesday.

In a copyrighted story from its Washington bureau, the newspaper quoted Carter as saying, "I'm afraid I didn't have this thing in very good perspective and I'm going to correct it."

"I've made a mistake of judgment on this matter," the newspaper quoted Carter, "and I am going to adjust it within a few days

The freshman Congressman said previously his son, a prelaw student at George Washington University, had the best qualifications of applicants as his chief assistant.

Carter told The Register he had received numerous letters from Iowa and "it is about 60-40 against me."

The newspaper further quoted Carter as saying that because of the reaction he felt it was "time to lay things on the line and tell the people about my physical condition which I am sure influenced my actions."

Ike's Cash For Slums Doubled

Down Payment Slash Approved

WASHINGTON — (UPI — The House Banking Committee Tuseday approved a sharp reduction in minimum down-payments for higher-priced government-insured houses and a much bigger slum clearance program than President Eisenhower proposed.

The committee approved federal grants of 500 million dollars a year for slum clearance for the next three years, double the annual rate proposed in the President's six-year 1.45-billion-dollar program.

The actions were taken as the committee worked behind closed doors on a catch-all 2.1-billion-dollar Democratic housing Bill. Members said the committee probably will hammer the bill into final shape today.

The Democratic measure represented a major challenge to the President's economy drive along with other proposals to set up broad federal aid programs for airports and chronically depressed areas.

By a 21-to-3 vote, the committee refused to knock out of its bill an administration-opposed provision which would provide direct federal lending for construction of houses for elderly people.

The reduction in down payments required under the FHA mortgage insurance program would permit a lender to offer terms under which a $25,000 house could be purchased with a down payment as low as $2,605. The present FHA minimum is $6,980.

On an $18,000 house, the minimum down payment would be $855, compared with the present $1,380. On a $15,000 house it would be $555, as against the present $630. There would be no change on houses selling for $13,500 or less.

The proposed minimums do not necessarily mean that would-be home buyers could get such terms. That would be up to banks and other lenders. But if the bill became law, the minimums would be the lowest down payment lenders could allow under the FHA program.

The proposed reduction in minimum down payment schedules was not included in the $2,650,000,000 housing bill passed earlier this year by the Senate.

Lake Worth Developing Defended

More Palm Beach News, 1B, 2C, 8C

Herald Bureau

WEST PALM BEACH — City Commissioner Sylvan Burdick isn't going to let objections from property owners sway his judgment about developing Lake Worth as a civic asset.

He took the stand Tuesday when objections were raised at a City Commission meeting which gave the green light to proposals for acquiring small boat ramps at the foot of Summa St. and north of Southern Blvd. Bridge.

Burdick pointed out that when municipal sewage systems were installed in Palm Beach and this city one of the objectives was to clean up the lake dividing the towns.

He also emphasized that practically all the property along the lakefront had been gobbled up by private interests and there were few spots available where the public could have entry to the lake.

He said inasmuch as the boat ramps would be built on the small bits of city-owned property remaining, it would take some very strong objections to convince him he should change his view that they should be developed for the general public.

"Wonderful things are happening on the lake," he said. "Last week there was a run of mackerel in the lake — probably the first in the memory of persons who had attained the age of 40."

He said he wanted fishing and boating to continue on the lake.

Kefauver: Delay Vote on Strauss

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Sen. Estes Kefauver (D.-Tenn.) disclosed Tuesday he is asking the Senate Commerce Committee to hold up the nomination of Rear Adm. Lewis L. Strauss as Secretary of Commerce.

Kefauver, who is opposing Strauss' confirmation, said he wants the committee to delay a vote until the Justice Department makes a full report on Strauss' actions in connection with the controversial Dixon-Yates contract.

KEFAUVER

Strauss, former chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission, is serving as secretary of commerce under a recess appointment from President Eisenhower.

Kefauver said in a statement that Strauss played a "key role" in connection with the development and execution of the subsequently canceled contract with the Dixon-Yates firm to build a steam plant at West Memphis, Ark., to supply supplemental power to the Tennessee Valley Authority.

The AEC under Strauss entered into the 107-million-dollar contract.

Kefauver contended that Strauss arranged for a presidential directive requiring the AEC to enter the Dixon-Yates contract over the opposition of the majority of the AEC commissioners.

Snow piled up in the frozen Northeast Tuesday.

The snow reached a depth of seven inches in Worcester, Mass., and five inches in Boston.

Most sections of New England already had been plastered with wet, heavy snow.

Two inches of fresh snow fell in Rochester, N. Y. An 11-inch fall in Watertown, N. Y. thickened the blanket on the ground to 28 inches.

Temperatures dropped far under the zero mark early Tuesday in Maine. Presque Isle had 31 below and Ccaribou 16 below.

Scattered snow also was reported in the Northern Rockies. Four inches of snow hit Denver. Areas of rain, with snow at higher elevations, developed in Washington state.

Briton Raps U.S. Import

'Curb Those Nawsty TV Commercials'

New York Times Service

LONDON — A Labor member introduced in the House of Commons Tuesday a bill to curb what he called "one of the nastiest imports from the U.S."—the interruption of television programs for commercials.

The measure, which Christopher Mayhew has pushed for months, would amend the Television Act to prohibit the interruption of programs by commercial advertisements and keep the intervals between the advertisements to a minimum of 25 minutes.

The 43-year-old former undersecretary of state for foreign affairs, enlivening his appeal with the colorful prose and rich anecdote his subject encourages, denounced the advertising interruptions as "symbols of vandalism and profiteering."

"The other week," he said, "a western film was interrupted—just when the red Indians were about to attack—for an advertisement for a scalp lotion."

This brought down the house. Mayhew continued:

"The only programs not interrupted are religious programs and the discussion program 'Free Speech' featuring Robert Boothby, now a peer.

"Television advertising holds back only, it seems, for the Lord God and Lord Bob."

Nikita Rejects West's Plan for Berlin Talks

Red Calls Again For Summit Meet

MOSCOW —(UPI)— Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev Tuesday rejected as "unbusinesslike" the Western plan for a Big Four foreign ministers' conference on Berlin in a biting speech that chilled optimism over his summit talks with Prime Minister Harold Macmillan.

He warned again that the Russians would meet with force any Allied attempt to force a passage to Berlin, and insisted that the best way to settle the crisis would be to hold a summit meeting.

Ranging over the international field, the premier also rejected the Western proposals for control of a nuclear test ban. He warned that Russia would continue testing weapons and again turned down the idea of the Eisenhower "open skies" disarmament inspection program.

His speech, delivered at a Moscow election rally during a one-day lull in the talks with Macmillan, blasted hopes of narrowing East-West differences, although Khrushchev spoke in friendly terms of Britain and suggested a 20 to 50-year Anglo-Soviet non-aggression pact.

Macmillan was off visiting the Dubna nuclear power plant while Khrushchev spoke at the televised rally in his capacity as a candidate for a seat on the Moscow City Soviet (Council).

His rejection of a foreign ministers' conference on Berlin left the issue back where it started Nov. 27 when Russia gave the Western allies exactly six months to clear out of West Berlin and allow it to be turned into a "free city."

He objected to the fact that the West did not include Poland and Czechoslovakia, "the first victims" of the German invasion, in the proposed talks on Berlin.

"This is an unbusinesslike approach and unacceptable," he said. "Moreover, the West wants entanglement in a network of diplomatic talks from which there is no escape."

He derided the U.S. and contrasted the friendly welcome given to Macmillan in Russia with the incidents that greeted Soviet Deputy Premier Anastas I. Mikoyan on his recent American tour.

"We have no hooligans like those who tried to throw some eggs at Comrade Mikoyan," he said.

Khrushchev insisted that an East-West summit conference is needed to settle such problems as Berlin and nuclear armaments.

The heads of government rather than foreign ministers, he said, "have the full measure of rights and responsibility for ensuring universal peace."

Only they could "soberly examine and solve major problems."

Brushing off the idea of a foreign ministers meeting, he said:

"Our foreign minister (Andrei Gromyko) is a very busy man and I hardly think he should waste time on fruitless talks."

U.S. Asks 'Reasoned' Answer

WASHINGTON — (UPI) — The U. S. called upon Russia Tuesday to make a "reasoned reply" to the West's proposal for a Big Four foreign ministers conference to settle the Berlin and German problems.

The State Department said a speech by Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev rejecting such a meeting and demanding a summit conference instead was a political oration and could not be construed as Russia's formal position.

Privately U.S. officials feared that Khrushchev might be trying to take advantage of Secretary of State John Foster Dulles' illness by renewing his demands for a summit conference.

Dulles, now hospitalized with cancer, has long made clear the U. S. would not agree to a summit meeting unless it was carefully prepared for through advance diplomatic negotiations, including a foreign ministers meeting. Otherwise, he feels, Russia would use such a conference merely as a propaganda sounding board.

Officials said Khrushchev might be laboring under the mistaken impression that with Dulles on the sidelines, he could stampede the West into a summit meeting.

Asked to comment on Khrushchev's address, State Department Spokesman Lincoln White said:

"I have no comment on a speech by Mr. Khrushchev at a Moscow political rally. We are awaiting a reasoned reply to our note of Feb. 16." The note called for the foreign ministers meeting.

Officials said privately it remained to be seen whether the Khrushchev speech foreshadowed a deeper freeze in the cold war or merely represented a bargaining maneuver by the Soviet leader.

Promotion Of Younger Men Backed

WASHINGTON —(AP)— The House Armed Services Committee Tuesday approved a bill to speed the promotion of about 3,500 younger naval and Marine officers.

The bill, which now goes to the House, would provide early retirement of an equivalent number of senior officers.

Several members of the committee objected that the measure would violate a moral commitment to the older officers to let them finish their normal service before retirement.

However, an attempt to amend it to provide retention failed, 26-4. The bill finally was approved with 29 members voting for it and only Rep. Charles E. Bennett (D., Fla.) against.

In general, officers would be retired if they had twice been passed over for promotion and had not been chosen for continuation by special boards.

No officer would be retired, however, with less than 20 years service — which would entitle him to lifetime retired pay.

Police Ad Pitch Slapped

Fund-Raisers Are Arrested

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y. — (AP) — An official investigating alleged frauds in advertising solicitation for a state police journal says it "is the worst shakedown racket I have seen in my 36 years with the state police."

That comment was made by Martin Dillon, Chief inspector for the state police.

Two men were arrested bringing the total to four. It was reported that almost $40,000 had been collected.

The four were connected with a firm which had a contract to raise funds for the Patrolman's Benevolent Association of the state police, in connection with a journal to be issued marking the association's 15th anniversary.

District Attorney Joseph F. Gagliardi of Westchester County said the fund-raisers identified themselves as state troopers, which they were not, and suggested to prospective contributors that "it would be helpful" to donate.

Police said complaints came chiefly from truckers and other businessmen in Buffalo, Syracuse, Rochester, Albany, Watertown and New York City, in New York state, and other complaints came from New England, New Jersey, Ohio, Georgia and Illinois.

Charles S. Stone, 69, a licensed fund-raiser from White Plain, was arrested on a warrant in Miami Beach, Fla., and John W. Higgins, 31, of South Norwalk, Conn., was picked up by state police in Greenwich Village, Manhattan.

Last week Stone's brother Michael, 48, of White Plains, and Galen L. Scott, 58, who lives with Higgins, were arrested.

The four are charged with fraudulently obtaining property by soliciting for charity.

A statement issued by the association said that the money received by the PBA from the fund-raising organization will be returned to the donors. The PBA received $24,760.

Donor Bars Race Issue

CAMBRIDGE, Mass.—(UPI) —Harvard University announced Tuesday it has received a $50,000 gift to aid deserving Southern students, either Negro or white, who would otherwise not be able to attend college.

Miami police said Tuesday they had a good lead on who stole County Commissioner Faris N. Cowart's little green box — containing $6,500 cash and $15,000 worth of stocks — but have been stymied in getting enough information to file charges.

Detectives intimated the two suspects had been inside the Cowart home at 1430 SW 12th Ave. several times before the Feb. 8 burglary. The little box was hidden in a closet.

Cowart said the cash had been left to him by his father and was to have been given to his 70-year-old mother.

Terrell set no date for Judge Parks to go to Dade County. Judge Parks will set the date for trial of the suits in which Giblin seeks to ban the Gables from trying him on charges growing out of a traffic arrest.

The Town Crier

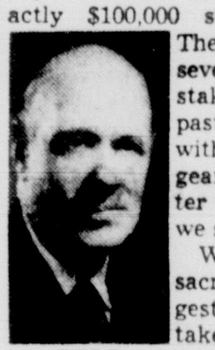
TURF EXPERTS seem pretty well agreed that last Saturday's Widener field wasn't exactly $100,000 stake calibre.



BELL

There have been several such stakes in the past few years, with the purses geared for better horses than we saw.

Would it be a sacrilege to suggest that we take the same money and split it up a bit? The McLennan attracts the same horses we see in the Widener, for far less money. Perhaps a progressive stake program through the 40-day meeting, with the champion selected on points, or selection of a "Champion of the Meeting" by these same estimable gentlemen who make like wise in yon press box?

Some turfmen have hurled harsh words at Jockey Bill Hartack because he refused to ride Greek Circle Saturday, after taking the 4-5 favorite onto the track. Let's face facts! Hartack's business is riding race horses. He was on the most likely horse in the race and a win meant money for Hartack as well as the owner. So he didn't dismount for anything trivial. He thought Greek Circle acted as if something was wrong. If so, he'd burn up a lot of 4-5 money. The horse might be permanently injured. Hartack thought it wouldn't be fair to race under such conditions. He was perfectly right.

Jury Hits School Safety

Fire Protection Held Wanting

By JAMES BUCHANAN
Herald Staff Writer

A special Grand Jury report said Tuesday that inadequate fire protection in Dade County is costing dollars and could cost many lives of Dade school children.

The jury's investigation began after the disastrous Chicago school fire when a series of articles in The Herald pointed up poor safety practices in Dade schools, nursing homes and night clubs.

It would take 25 minutes for a county fire truck to reach Key Biscayne Elementary School after an alarm was sounded, the report said.

And the county has no equipment to battle more than a second-floor blaze anywhere in the unincorporated area.

A dollar-and-cents evaluation of the county's fire-fighting equipment is shown in insurance rates.

There's a $17 difference between the City of Miami's low rate, and the premiums paid by home owners in the unincorporated areas.

One of the biggest hurdles, according to the report, is the fact that many municipal fire departments can't go to the aid of county firemen because they use a different type of equipment.

The jurors' recommendations include standardization of all equipment and fittings in order that hoses, hydrants and hose connections can be interchanged.

Once accomplished, the jury said it believed the county and all municipalities should enter into a firefighting agreement and use a central alarm and communications system.

Most municipalities have an unofficial mutual aid pact operating now.

Complete reorganization and expansion of the County Fire Department, hardest hit by the jury report, was recommended last month after a survey by Public Safety Director Thomas J. Kelly.

At the time, Kelly said it was up to the county to bring its equipment up to date before calling for standardization by the municipalities.

While the jury's report named no specific schools, The Herald's survey had shown several fire hazards at Miami Edison Junior and Senior High Schools.

School Superintendent Joe Hall said the School Board was making changes as rapidly as possible, and that the jury's latest findings probably would spur the work.

Officials admitted, off the record, that consolidation of all fire departments probably would be fought by the personnel involved. They would fear, the officials said, a loss of seniority and pension advantages.

Any such consolidation, however, would have to await unification of equipment and incorporation of the fire department into a citywide communications system.

Resentful Pupil Wounds Coach

Police arrested Larry David Romero, whom they described as a troublemaker at school. Romero told them Leyva "tried to push me around when I didn't want to do my work."

National Summary

A series of storms moving across Canada Tuesday blocked the southward progress of severely cold arctic air while clear skies with diminishing winds allowed lower readings over the East. Most sections of the country will show little change in temperatures or a tendency for warming today. High pressure extended sunny skies over broad areas from the Rockies to the Appalachians with midday temperatures ranging from the teens and 20s in the north to 50s as far as Kansas Tuesday.

A disturbance off the coast maintained snow through the northeast in addition to flurries in a brisk northerly flow over the eastern Great Lakes region into the mountains from West Virginia northward. Rochester, N.Y., reported a 2 inch accumulation during the forenoon and similar deposits in Massachusetts raised snow cover to 7 inches at Worcester and 5 inches at Boston. Clearing later on left only a few flurries in the mountains, but a chance that a Canadian disturbance may trail a little snow over northern New England today.

Mild sunny 70 and 80 degree weather in Florida presented a contrast to the 50 degree range more prominent along the leading edge of cool air in the Gulf states. Rain fringed the coastal regions from Texas to southern Alabama and northwest Florida.

Resort's 'Charm and Distinction' At Stake

PB Residents Fight 'Honky Tonk' Zoning

By ROSE ALLIGATOR
Herald Staff Writer

PALM BEACH — Residents of this fashionable resort town turned up their noses Tuesday at the "repulsive honky tonk" atmosphere of Miami and the French Riviera in a spirited fight against a zoning change they claim will eventually destroy the exclusive "charm and distinction" of Palm Beach.

The fight will probably land in court.

After a public hearing which had the earmarks of a tent revival, the Zoning Commission took under study the request for the change which could bring more apartment buildings and hotels to an oceanfront strip from Sunrise St. to Wells Rd. on the north.

A capacity crowd squeezed into Town Hall to applaud their spokesmen who protested the proposed change. Five corporations and three individuals are asking that 12 lots on N. Ocean Blvd. be re-zoned from single family to multiple dwellings.

Attorney David Yoakley took the floor to argue against the shift, claiming "spot zoning was a cancerous thing." He charged that property owners seeking the revision were speculators, at least two of whom purchased their property in the past year.

In arguing against hotels on Ocean Blvd., he claimed, "It would be 10 o'clock before the roosters could see the sun." He said Palm Beach wanted to preserve its ocean view.

J. F. Gunster, representing the Palm Beach Civic Association, carried on the battle, calling on the Zoning Commission to preserve the "charm and distinction" of Palm Beach.

He said Palm Beach's beauty was not natural but "a product of the imagination and generosity of man."

"We feel any encroachment or change threatens the kind of community we helped build," he added.

He referred to Palm Beach as a "community of homes" and lamented that the French Riviera has succumed to that "repulsive honky tonk" atmosphere which is also common to regions to "the south and north of us."

Gunster was apparently referring to Miami and Riviera Beach. He called apartment houses "mere parasites."

Alfred G. Kay, president of the Palm Beach Civic Association, also urged the zoning group not to grant the change, which he said would set a "very detrimental" precedent, eventually turning Palm Beach into a resort like Miami.

J. W. Salisbury and Frank Cook spoke for the petitioners. Salisbury, an attorney, said many "social and economic changes" have taken place in Palm Beach. He said in the past 15 years the town had changed from a "quiet, charming small town" to "a busy tourist resort."

The era of oceanfront mansions and estates is over, he said, and claimed that attractive hotels would enhance property values more than "low cost subdivisions."

Hart said the zoning regulation was imposing a financial hardship on property owners. He argued that the oceanfront strip in question "might well set the pattern for well-planned progress." He claimed big estates were vacated and left to deteriorate.

He denied his group were speculators and his denial drew guffaws from the audience. Hart referred to the multiple dwelling classification as a "compromise." Originally, he reported, there was a move to classify the area business.

Hart indicated the fight will go to court when and if the zoning group denies the petition.

'Subsistence' Pay Increase For Police?

Herald Bureau

WEST PALM BEACH — City commissioners Tuesday set up a committee to determine if the Police Department — and any other municipal department — should receive cost of living pay hikes. They gave short shift to a proposal for a pay raise of their own.

Mayor Horace S. Miller named Commissioners W. P. Holland, Perry McCampbell and Sylvan Burdick to the pay study committee.

He agreed at the insistence of other members of the board that the study should not be restricted to the Police Department, which brought the proposal before the commission.

Attorney Joseph Farish, who presented the plea for "additional benefits" in behalf of the Police Benevolent Association, did not refer to the request as one seeking a raise in pay. He said what was sought was "subsistence" to bring the pay up to the increased living costs.

When the move was made to include other departments, he pointed out that although other city employes obtained a raise in pay a year ago, the police had not since 1955. But commissioners pointed out police did obtain a 40-hour week a year ago.

Farish, in addition to the proposed "subsistence," suggested the city might extend "longevity" benefits to police similar to those paid by the military services, to keep policemen on the rolls.

A proposal to increase the pay of commissioners, which was disclosed by Commissioner L. W. Kelloway a week ago, was given only brief attention. The suggestion was to up the salaries from $3,000 to $5,000.

When it was Kelloway's turn to discuss the proposal, he said, "I see where the other commissioners have been talking it over in The Miami Herald, so I don't care to discuss it."

The Herald Monday morning disclosed that some members of the commission were opposed to the raise:

The commission also:

HEARD, a report from City Attorney Egbert Beall that Canal C-17 north of the city may be developed to full capacity in a year.

HEARD another report from Beall and Mayor Miller that fiscal agents had urged the city to move without delay on a proposed downtown off-street parking plan.

APPROVED recommendation of the Traffic Department not to erect a traffic semaphore at Dixie Hwy. and Eighth St. but to divert traffic to Loftin to cut congestion.

WAS TOLD by City Manager James J. Mott he had not completed a study of water and sewer lines to a bowling alley in the west section of the city.

DIRECTED a committee to continue a study of Summa St. and the north side of Southern Blvd. Bridge for small boat ramps despite opposition expressed at the meeting.

CONTRIBUTED $500 and underwrote an additional $2,000 for a high school band festival here May 7-9.

REJECTED an offer to sell city-owned land near the turnpike and Okeechobee Rd. and took under advisement extension westward of the city limits.

REJECTED, until a conference can be held, a bill to make pensions available to water company employes from 1955.

HELD a conference with Perini-Westward Developers.

Mitchell Files for Board Job

Herald Bureau

WEST PALM BEACH — William Mitchell, Negro county veterans service officer, made it a three cornered fight for the City Commission Group D post here Tuesday.

He filed at City Hall as a candidate against the incumbent, L. W. Kelloway and Ralph York, a south side barber.

The entry of Mitchell in the current contest for the March 31 municipal election makes the second time he has competed for a City Commission post.

Mitchell filed for a commission seat held by Kelloway in 1955, in a race that also involved Maurice Holley. Holley, an architect, won the contest and was named mayor by his colleagues.

There was some question at the time whether Mitchell could seek a City Commission seat because of his status as a county employe but it was determined that the county does not restrict its employes from seeking municipal office.

Sugarland Parade Slated at Clewiston

CLEWISTON — State Commander Sam Story, Lake Wales, of the Veterans of Foreign Wars will be grand marshall of the opening night parade of the seventh annual Sugarland Exposition here March 3.

Honorary grand marshall is Gene Williams, senior member of the Clewiston VFW post and a Spanish-American War veteran. LeRoy Debay, Palm Beach state commander of the Military Order of the Cooties, VFW honorary society, will also participate with members of the honor society. Also in the line of march will be the 40 & 8 units from Palm Beach.

The parade, under the joint chairmanship of Dave Stockman and Doug Pearcy, has thus far attracted 52 individual units including high school bands from Clewiston, Moore Haven, Belle Glade and Labelle.

Floats have been obtained from the Moore Haven Chalo Nitka Committee, the Edison Pageant of Light of Fort Myers, and others.

The Lee County Sheriff's mounted posse will be one of the feature attractions along with Florida National Guard units.

Clinic Slated Friday

Delray Pay Hike Is Top Charter Change Proposal

Delray Bureau Chief

DELRAY BEACH — A proposal to increase the pay of city commissioners by more tha 600 per cent will be presented to the county legislative delegation at City Hall Friday at 9:30 a.m.

The pay hike proposal is one of a dozen charter changes Delray Beach will seek to get through the Legislature during the coming session.

The legislative clinic offers the three legislators representing Palm Beach County an opportunity to screen local bills before agreeing to sponsor their passage at Tallahassee.

Requests for legislation may also come from individuals or organizations other than the city.

However, there have been no indications as yet that Reps. Ralph Blank Jr. and Emmett Roberts and Sen. Fred (Bud) Dickenson will have anything to consider but city requests.

The proposed charter changes being sought by Delray Beach would:

BOOST pay of commissioners from a maximum of $240 to $1,500 a year and the mayor to $1,800.

REQUIRE special registration for bond elections. This is designed to eliminate situations where bond elections are declared invalid when more than 50 per cent of all registered voters fail to turn out.

AUTHORIZE the city to invest money in savings and loan associations if it so desires in order to take advantage of higher interest rates.

PERMIT the city to trade or exchange land. At present the only way the city can get rid of land is to sell it.

OKAY the appointment of a five-member board of adjustment in order to ease the burden on the commission and the Planning Board.

ALLOW the introduction of new ordinances by caption only. In this way ordinances would have to be read in their entirety once instead of twice.

REMOVE the 10-year limitation on tax revenue certificates.

West Gate Man Guilty of Assault

Herald Bureau

WEST PALM BEACH — A 21-year-old West Gate resident was found guilty of rape by a 12-man jury in Circuit Court Tuesday but escaped a possible death sentence when the panel recommended mercy.

The defendant was Leamon Johnson, one time resident of Belle Glade, who was convicted less than two weeks ago in Criminal Court on a charge of grand larceny in the theft of 600 watermelons.

The trial opened before Judge R. O. Morrow Tuesday morning and the jury brought in the verdict before 5 p.m. Johnson attempted to comfort his mother, who broke down when the verdict was read, but appeared on the verge of tears himself.

He was charged with raping an 18-year-old girl in September near Clear Lake west of this city, after picking her up on the pretext of taking her home.

The girl said she knew Johnson and accepted his offer to drive her from downtown West Palm Beach to her home.

Attorney John R. Williams, court-appointed counsel for the youth, indicated he would move for a new trial.

Held without bail, Johnson was returned to the Palm Beach county jail. State Attorney Phil O'Connell who prosecuted the case, said Johnson had a long criminal record and had been troublesome to authorities in this area for a long time.

Retired Doctor Dies at 83

WEST PALM BEACH — Dr. Crowell W. Johnston, 83, a retired physician died Tuesday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Fulford, 440 Ninth St. Dr. Johnston was a resident physician for 25 years in Jacksonville.

Survivors include another daughter, Mrs. Curtis Brown, Hadenfield, N.J., and two sons, E. C., West Palm Beach, and Crowell Jr., Cleveland. Services will be at 2 p.m. Friday in the Hardage and Sons Chapel in Jacksonville. Quattlebaum-Holleman-Burse have charge of local arrangements.

Pioneer Radio Man Dies at 60

RIVIERA BEACH — Isaac R. Lounsberry, 60, of 1230 Yacht Dr., a retired pioneer radio executive died at a West Palm Beach hospital Tuesday.

In 1922 he built and operated a radio station for John Mansville in Lockport, N.Y. In 1928 the station was merged with the Buffalo Broadcasting Corp., which includes stations WGR, WKBW, WMAK, and WKEN. He became vice-president.

He came here from Buffalo two years ago. Survivors include his wife, Mabel; a son, Frederick L., of Detroit; and his mother, Florence L., Ossining, N.Y.

Services will be held in Ossining. Northwood Funeral Home has charge of local arrangements.

70,000TH TELEPHONE installed in the Palm Beaches by Southern Bell is the instrument Miss Sylvia Gale, Pinehurst College student, is using to make a call from the home of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Elkins, 225 Bamboo Rd., Palm Beach Shores. Ten years ago the area had only 23,000 phones.

Juvenile Guard Funds Hit Snag In Six Escapes

PB Takes Wait-See Attitude

By ED PFISTER
Herald Bureau Chief

WEST PALM BEACH — The County Commission Tuesday adopted a "tongue-in-cheek" attitude to a request from the Board of Visitors for more funds to pay for round-the-clock juvenile guards at county jail.

Two weeks ago the board appropriated $1,000 to hire three "supervisors" to guard juvenile prisoners at the jail, but last Thursday six youths escaped while exercising on the jail roof.

The commission took the dubious attitude when it received a letter from Joe Cole, chairman of the Board of Visitors, asking that the county continue the funds which were first granted on "a trial basis."

Canal Point Commissioner Paul Rardin commented, "Let's wait and see if any more of them escape."

The board took no action—pending a conference with the parties concerned — on differences between Belvedere Homes-Golfview section and the company which picks up trash in the area.

The question came before the board when the Suburban Water Co. which holds the franchise for garbage and trash pickup, petitioned the County Commission to hike its rates from $1.50 to $1.75 a month.

Residents objected, and Wallace Henry, one of them, appeared before the board with petitions opposing the hike.

The board voted to delay action two weeks to permit company officials and residents to try to work out an amicable settlement.

In other actions, the commission at morning and afternoon sessions:

TOOK STEPS to acquire bottom lands in the north end of Lake Worth to develop a park off Palm Beach Shores.

SET MARCH 2 as the date for a meeting with Martin County commissioners to discuss extending Pratt & Whitney Rd. into that county.

SET UP a committee to confer with Coral Gables and Dade County authorities on the use of septic tanks in small subdivisions.

VOTED to meet next Monday with Lake Osborne Heights Civic Association concerning the use of Lake Osborne by the Lake Worth Boating Club.

OVERRODE objections by Commissioner Rardin to the county's obtaining a liquor license at the airport but agreed with his plan to set up a buffer zone around the proposed new four-year university at Boca Raton.

TOOK under consideration a request from Pahokee and Canal Point Lions that barricades be set up along Connors Hwy. where the West Palm Beach Canal parallels it.

ESTABLISHED a fund for the construction of a $26,000 bridge on Seacrest Ave. in Boynton Beach.

NAMED Bernard Grall to the County Zoning Board of Adjustment.

'Vital to Industry'

Fruit Sales Prop Needed

ORLANDO — (UPI) — Florida Citrus Commission Chairman J. R. (Rip) Graves of Vero Beach said Tuesday something must be done to raise the fresh fruit business to its former stature in the Florida citrus industry.

Graves spoke at the 25th annual meeting of the Florida Citrus Production Credit Association, celebrating its silver anniversary.

He noted that the fresh fruit side of the industry has been steadily slipping through the years and said that it must increase in volume if the industry is to market profitably the giant crops expected to be produced within the next few years."

"Fresh fruit is essential and vital to the Florida citrus industry," he said.

"In order to regain and maintain its position with Florida's growing production, a searching reappraisal should be made of present cultural, harvesting, packing and marketing practices and processes, with the ultimate goal of making satisfied customers of Mr. and Mrs. Consumer," he said.

Graves said the commission "is taking the initiative in doing something about the fresh fruit situation."

He said, "Our general manager and staff are working closely with the Florida Packing House Managers Association in order to bring the entire fresh fruit industry into proper focus."

Graves called for: expanded export markets; educating the increasing population to use citrus; broadening of total citrus markets, and acceleration of research programs on cultural practices to produce better quality fruit and new citrus uses.

He said the demand for top grade oranges for frozen concentrate has led many shippers to place their inferior fruit onto the fresh fruit market.

Dr. Spivey To Address Fund Group

Herald Bureau

WEST PALM BEACH — Dr. Ludd M. Spivey, for the past 32 years president of Florida Southern College, Lakeland, will be principal speaker at the annual meeting of the West Palm Beach Community Chest Thursday.

A world traveler and educator, Dr. Spivey will talk on his recent trip to Russia, drawing a parallel between the Russian way of life as compared to the American.

New directors and officers for the year will be installed at the meeting and awards will be made to outstanding volunteer.

The new officers, who will take over at the meeting in the George Washington Hotel, include James Waugh, president; succeeding B. D. Cole; C. L. Moore, G. Ernie Williams and George Preston, vice-presidents; Mrs. Helen Durkee, secretary and Kenneth Cable, treasurer.

The meeting is scheduled at 6:30 p.m. and reservations can be made by calling the Chest office.

PB Man Dies

Gasoline Price Wars May Face Federal Crackdown

Dow Jones, AP, UPI, N.Y. Times

The stage was set Tuesday for a possible crackdown on gasoline price wars started by major fuel companies.

A Federal Trade Commission examiner issued a tentative order forbidding Pure Oil Co. from cutting gasoline prices in any market where it competes with other brands unless proportionate cuts are made throughout its sales territory.

In Chicago, a spokesman for Pure Oil said, "We disagree with the adverse findings of the hearing examiner and have already filed an appeal to the full commission."

If the FTC adopts the order, it will mark the government's first attack on geographic price discrimination in the gasoline industry. FTC officials said such an order could lead to similar action against discriminatory price-cutting by other major companies.

Detroit Firm Picks Broad A Director

Miami financier Shepard Broad Tuesday was elected to the Board of Directors of Bohn Aluminum and Brass Corp. at the firm's annual stockholder's meeting in Detroit.

Broad is President and Chairman of the Board of the American Savings, Building and Loan Assn. of Miami Beach. He also is on the Board of Directors of Mercantile National Bank of Miami Beach and is a founder of the North Shore Bank.

The financier is co-founder of Bay Harbor Islands and has served as its Mayor for the past 11 years.

Bohn Aluminum & Brass Corporation is a 20-million dollar firm engaged in the manufacture of products for the automotive, rail engine, refrigeration, air conditioning and building fields.

How Can He Beat Inflation On a Policeman's Salary?

Third of a Series

By STAN JOHNSON
Herald Business Writer

Inflationwise, the policeman's lot is not a happy one.

As he stands in the intersection of NE 1st St. and Miami Ave. directing traffic, Patrolman Ralph L. Martin glances occasionally at the window of a nearby shoe store.

Displayed are a pair of heavy-soled brogans like the ones he wears out every six months. The price tag says $14.95. Martin remembers that he paid $7.50 for the same shoes in 1949.

Looking back over the past 10 years, most skilled workers or professional men can subtract a 22 per cent increase in the cost of living from the percentage of increase in their income and come up with a healthy balance that represents a higher standard of living.

This is not true of Patrolman Martin or of millions of others who have government or white collar jobs, fixed incomes or pensions.

Since 1949, Martin's salary as a patrolman has risen 27 per cent — from $4,188 to $5,604.

In the same period, the union scale for journeyman electricians has risen 40 per cent —from $2.50 to $3.50 per hour.

Nearly half of Martin's increase is a result of longevity boosts — rewards for his 17 years with the Miami Police Department and for his greater experience in his work.

Cost of living raises have added only 16 per cent to Martin's paycheck in 10 years, but living costs have gone up 22 per cent.

At the same time, his children have become teenagers and are more expensive to feed, clothe and educate.

Now 44, Martin worries about saving money to send his son to college and to provide for himself and his wife when he retires on a modest pension at the age of 55.

"We can't save," says Mrs. Martin. "It seems as though everytime we get a little put aside, someone gets sick and we have to spend our savings."

Martin says he wouldn't be able to make ends meet were it not for a part-time job at a dog track which brings in about $800 a year.

A large number of government employes in the Miami area either have part-time jobs or working wives.

Although Martin's salary is $442 a month, his take-home pay is only about $285 a month.

The state pension program in which he participates takes $30 a month out of his wages. When this money is paid back to him after retirement, it will be worth considerably less than it is now.

The Internal Revenue Service has estimated that if inflation continues at the present rate, it will take an income of $10,538 in 1975 to equal the purchasing power of a $4,000 income in 1958.

How can Martin improve his lot?

If he leaves his job now, he sacrifices 17 years toward a $200-a-month pension.

"There's been some talk about allowing a partial pension after 20 years of service. If this happens, I could leave the force in three years and look for a better-paying job outside," he said.

In the meantime, he'll go on watching the shoe store window and hoping that his income will rise at least as rapidly as the cost of the shoes he must buy.

Travel Expenses Easier to Deduct

By SYLVIA PORTER
(In collaboration with The Research Institute of America)

SYLVIA

The Treasury flashed some good news in 1958 to businessmen who like to combine pleasure with their business trips. It is going to be more lenient about allowing you to deduct the travel expenses than it originally had indicated.

The problem usually comes up in one of two ways. You may go on a trip which obviously is for business purposes and then work in some merely incidental pleasure activities. Or you may go on a trip which is just the reverse — primarily a pleasure jaunt involving some incidental business activities.

When your principal goal is business, there is no problem. You can deduct all your travel expenses except your spending on pleasure. If, for instance, you spend money for local sightseeing or nightclubing during off business hours, you can't deduct those outlays, but all your other travel expenses are deductible.

* * *

SUPPOSE, THOUGH, you plan a two-week vacation which also includes a two-day business convention in the same city. Although the expenses of a vacation trip aren't deductible, can you deduct some part of your living expenses in the city because you attend the two-day business convention?

At first, the Treasury said you couldn't deduct anything if the trip was primarily for pleasure, but in 1958 it finally relented a bit. You can't deduct any of the expenses of traveling to and from your destination when the trip is primarily for pleasure, but you can deduct that part of your expenses at the destination which can be allocated to whatever incidental business activities you carry on while there.

In other words, if you spend two days of your two-week vacation attending a business convention, you can deduct living costs for those two days.

While this represents a liberalized Treasury view, the odds are the courts will be even more liberal. If, say, you spend 10 per cent of our vacation attending a business convention, why shouldn't you be able to deduct 10 per cent of your travel costs to and from the vacation-convention city in addition to 10 per cent of your costs while there?

* * *

SEVERAL 1958 court cases indicate the Treasury will in practice let a taxpayer deduct part of his travel expenses for a trip taken primarily for pleasure, even though the new rule says "no."

Of course, you can't push this combined business-pleasure deal to a point obscuring the business aspects of the trip. Thus, when another doctor took a European trip for pleasure and made a few side trips to visit hospitals professionally, the Treasury allowed him only a nonimal deduction for travel expenses.

* * *

WHAT ABOUT a business trip on which you take your wife? If you go from New York to the West Coast on business and your wife accompanies you, can you deduct only half your combined travel expenses? Not necessarily.

You may be able to deduct more than half because the Treasury will let you deduct what it would have cost you if you had traveled alone and this can add up to well over half your expenses.

You might travel under a family plan which costs less than two regular fares; you might stay in a $12 a day double room whereas a single room would cost $9.

Despite these lower actual costs, the Treasury will permit you to deduct one full travel fare and the $9 a day costs.

PAA Jets Will Fly Latin Run

Pan American World Airways said Tuesday it will inaugurate jet passenger service in April to Caracas, Venezuela, Asuncion, Paraguay, and Buenos Aires, Argentina.

The flights will be made from New York and cut present travel time in half.

The Buenos Aires schedule will be reduced from 24 to 12 hours, and the New York-Asuncion run, which once required 25¾ hours on a roundabout route, will take only 10 hours.

PAA jet flights from Miami to Latin American points "still are in the distant future," company officials said.

The company plans to add Rio de Janeiro and Sao Paulo to its jet schedule after runways are extended in those cities sometime in 1960.

Pan American will be the first U.S. airline offering jet service to South America. An Argentine line, Aerolineas Argentina, plans to fly a North and South American jet schedule this spring with British Comets.

The Pan American service to Venezuela, Paraguay and Argentina will be in addition to PAA's transatlantic jet schedule.

Boeing 707's for the Latin American run will come first from the PAA fleet now leased to National Airlines for its seasonal New York-Miami flights, and later from the additional plans on order from the manufacturer.

The airline already serves most of South America with piston-engine aircraft, but dropped Asuncion in 1946 after Brazil withdrew permission to fly over its territory to the Paraguayan capital.

Industry Off, Italy Reports

Figures released by the Central Institute of Statistics put the 1958 industrial production index at 140.6. (The base of 100 is the year 1953.)

I Say, Our Milk Is Better Than Yours

PENZANCE, England — (UPI)— The president of the National Dairymen's Assn. of England says the quality of British milk is head and shoulders above American milk.

"We have confidence that we sell milk in the way God intended it to be drunk — as it comes from the cow," R. Good said in an address to a dairymen's dinner here.

Good, recently returned from a tour of the American milk industry, said he has found that the English dairy industry is better run and that the public here showed greater responsibility in dealing with the bottles.

"In America the average life of the milk bottle is 24 journeys. In England it is 64," he said. "America is full of gimmicks."

"They take out a little fat here and put in a little vitamin there," Good said. "In England we have faith in our product."

Nickel Paper Fading

NEW YORK — (UPI) — Fewer and fewer daily newspapers can be bought for a nickel, the American Newspaper Publishers Association reported.

Its latest survey showed that of 1,717 English language papers reporting, 1,000 were selling for a nickel. In 1958, 1,135 sold for a nickel and in 1957 the number was 1,328. In 1951 records showed there were 1,594 selling for 5 cents.

The ANPA reported the number of papers priced at 7 to 10 cents a copy had been increasing.

The ANPA also said that newspapers reporting to the Association used 394,908 tons of newsprint last month. This represented an increase of 2.3 per cent more than in January 1958.

Safety Award

Aaxico Airlines of Miami has been cited by the Air Force for a four-year safety record in flying military cargoes.

The airline's president, Howard J. Korth, was given a plaque for 18 million miles of accident-free flying with Air Force material.

Salt Dikes Built

TOKYO —(AP)— Peiping radio reports construction is underway in South China on two sea dikes to make a field yielding 1½ million tons of salt a year.
